WILL COREY MARRY
MAYBELLE GILMAN?

The Actress on Whose Account His Wife Secured a Divorce Will Return
From Paris --- Sequel to a Great Social Scandal.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Word that Mrs. William Corey, wife of the president of the United States Steel Company, had secured a divorce from her husband at Reno, Nev., was cable yesterday to Maybelle Gilman, actress, now studying music in Paris. Whether or not Mr. Corey himself caused the message to be sent is not known, but friends of the actress are speculating freely today as to whether Mrs. Corey will eventually marry the actress whom he met when she was starring in "The Mocking Bird."

Mr. Corey, when seen this afternoon, said the talk about his marrying the actress was ridiculous. Then he smiled. Had Mr. Corey been a prominent actor or a theatrical manager, his divorce could not have caused more comment along the Rialto. Miss Gilman has been absent from the city for some months, but report has it that she will return to New York shortly, interrupting her music lessons for a short vacation. In some quarters it was even said that she would arrive here in time to see some of the first openings of the new theatrical season.

The steel man's attentions to Miss Gilman were no secret in the "profession." From the time the play in which the actress starred was first put on the theatrical world wagged its head wisely. When Mrs. Corey first stated her intention of securing a divorce the friends of her husband in the financial district made some great efforts to bring about a reconciliation, but the actor folk were sanguine that these efforts would come to nothing. Today these same people are confidently of the opinion that Mr. Corey will marry Miss Gilman, perhaps before the year is out.

Of one thing everyone who knows the Coreys is positive: Mrs. Corey's divorce from her husband was secured for a divorce. That the matter was terminated so quickly and with so little publicity comparatively, is regarded as cause for congratulation. Mr. Corey gave a dinner at Delmonico's to a few chosen spirits who had stood by him in his trouble. And

IS UNSAVORY

The Hartje Divorce Case Develops Much Sensational Testimony.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 1.—One of the most sensational incidents in the Hartje divorce case in the five weeks it has been running, came today when Alma Ross, the mysterious "Blonde" who kept a rooming house, swore that Augustus Hartje and Josephine Wright frequently met at the Ross woman's house; that the Wright woman brought him there and introduced him to her; that the house at which she had been living was too public and too close to the Hartje warehouse. The Ross woman said Hartje paid Josephine Wright's room rent thereafter. When the witness pointed out Hartje in the court room Hartje smiled.

Hartje several days ago, swore that he did not know Josephine Wright and the Wright woman swore that she did not know Hartje.

THEY GIVE THEIR BABE TO THE CAUSE OF LABOR

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Because of thwarted ambition to be a leader of men, Harry G. Greel and his wife have solemnly sworn that they will strive to make their son, a babe of 18 months, an exponent of organized labor. The child, yet prattling at its mother's knee, is to become, if the hopes of the father reach fulfillment, everything that that parent aspired in earlier years to be, but of which he failed to achieve realization.

His leadership is to be for the advancement of mankind and for the fulfillment of the doctrine of the golden rule. He is to teach the brotherhood of man and the sanctity of individual rights. Here are the words of the ceremony of dedication: Preacher—Will you endeavor, with the grace of God, to direct the education of this child so that he may best serve the cause of organized labor? Parents—We solemnly promise. Preacher—With that end in view, will you inculcate in the mind of this child the principles of unselfishness and the idea of the brotherhood of man as best expressed in the golden rule? Parents—We will. Preacher—Will you promise that to the full extent of your ability and to the limit of your resources you will give this child those opportunities and advantages which will make him a valued worker in the cause of organized labor? Parents—We solemnly promise. Preacher—(extending the child to John Mitchell)—Will you accept this child in and for the cause of organized labor? Mr. Mitchell (taking the child)—I will. Preacher—Will you be sponsor for this child, and aid and assist him until he reaches the age when he may properly take upon himself the solemn obligations entered into by his parents? Mr. Mitchell—I will.

THE SITUATION IS PRACTICALLY UNCHANGED
IN RUSSIA TODAY

HELSINGFORS, Wednesday, August 1.—6:40 p. m.—When a correspondent of the Associated Press arrived here this afternoon from St. Petersburg the situation was practically unchanged. The mutinous artillerymen were still holding out aided by the regiment of sappers and miners, which had joined them in the mutiny.

Throughout the day an artillery battle was fought between the north and south batteries of the main island of Sveaborg. From a place of vantage the correspondent was able to see the shells occasionally strike the barracks and fortifications causing fires to start up. The mutineers at that time seemed to have the upper hand and the Russian commander was forced to flee with 2,000 loyal infantry to the furthest part of the southern section of the town of Sveaborg where he was holding out.

The Sveborg fortress is composed of several islands, of which Sveaborg Island is the centre. Half of Sveaborg with half of Sandhamm Island were in the hands of the mutinous artillerymen and sappers and miners, with the government forces commanding the other half of Sandhamm Island and the whole of Lang-nicholai and Harkka Islands.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—During the night mutinous sailors, sappers and miners seized Fort Constantine at Cronstadt, but were subsequently dislodged and compelled to surrender after heavy fighting with the loyal regiments.

A hundred men were killed and many were wounded, including Admiral Bocklischew. Some of the mutineers succeeded in boarding a steamer and escaping to Finland.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—The wild rumors are in circulation, one of which, to the effect that a mutiny has broken out at Cronstadt, has caused the utmost alarm, which has been increased by the fact that telephone communication with Cronstadt is again interrupted. It is asserted that four mutinous warships have arrived at Cronstadt and that the guns of the fortresses have been trained on them, but fire has not yet been opened.

Mutineers Surrender

TIFLIS, Caucasus, Aug. 2.—Upon the arrival of a detachment of Cossacks the companies of the Samur regiment at Dushlagar, commanding the famous Iron Gate at Derbent, which had mutinied, surrendered and handed over their ring leader to the Cossack commander. Telegraphic communication with Dushlagar has been restored.

Demonstration Feared

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 2.—The libeals are planning imposing demonstrations here and at Moscow for the funeral of the murdered ex-Deputy Herzenstein. Given the present temper of the people these demonstrations may result in collision and bloodshed such as marked the internment of Prince Troubetzkoy. The liberals have applied for permission to transport Herzenstein's body in state through St. Petersburg from the Finnish to the Moscow, R. R. station. This has not yet been granted.

Two persons suspected of complicity in the murder and a gendarme of Teriocki, who repeatedly was seen in their company have been arrested.

Premier Stolypin proceeded by yacht yesterday to Peterhof where he laid before the Emperor for his signature the formal ukases appointing Count Heyden, Prince Nicholas Loeff and Alexander Guchkoff the portfolios in the reorganized cabinet. The announcement of the emperor's decision is not expected before Friday and fears are entertained that the revolt at Sveaborg may influence him unfavorably in the matter.

How Did They Know?

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—A reactionary newspaper of Moscow published the news of the murder of M. Herzenstein yesterday morning, more than 12 hours before the perpetration of the crime.

CHARGED WITH STEALING MONEY

George Stanton was arrested at two o'clock this morning, charged with stealing $35 from Francis Dickiey, of Kentville, N. S., a guest at the Victoria Hotel.

Stanton was before the police magistrate this morning and pleaded not guilty. He was remanded, and as some of his friends were endeavoring to arrange a settlement, his honor gave them until two o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Dickiey arrived here Tuesday from Kentville, N. S., and registered at the Victoria. While sitting in the office he met Stanton, who he says, is a perfect stranger to him. Friendship seems to have been formed for Dickiey asked Stanton to spend the night with him, and they occupied the same bed.

Mr. Dickiey claims that on retiring he had $75 in his pocket. He awoke at four o'clock, he adds, to find that Stanton had taken all the money, and his money was also gone, with the exception of about $30. He made known his loss in the office, and the night porter remembered seeing Stanton leaving the hotel at 1:30. Dickiey at once repaired to the central police station and told his story. The police were given a description of young Stanton, but he managed to elude their vigilance till Policeman Crawford saw him.

The case is before the court this afternoon.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

HIRAM AND THE RECORDER.

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam is much impressed by the admirable essay of Mr. Recorder Skinner on the deterioration of the potato, as set forth in the Star last evening. Mr. Hornbeam said this morning that it was a most commendable fact that a busy man like the Recorder should find time to alternate his opinions on such abstruse questions as the character rights of street railways, and claims for damages against the city on account of waterworks extension, icy sidewalks, or such like, with a luminous exposition of the history, present status and probable future of the potato.

"I've heard," said Hiram, "that Skinner was great on potatoes—and now I know it. I'd like to get his views on the potato bug, too. As for potatoes—he's right. You can't get the potatoes we got twenty years ago. Where's the old Kidneys, the Markeys, the Coppers, the Softs, the Early Reds? You can't get 'em. Why the old Silver Dollars beat anything you can get nowadays. By hen, I'd like to talk to C. N. about it. If them lawyers knowed more about potatoes and less about bills of costs, the farmers might make a dollar. Do you know—there hasn't been a political speech in forty-years to compare with the one C. N. made about that long ago, up in Kings county, when he compared the potato to the other fellows 'nd got to an early frost on a young buckwheat field. Cripes! But he laid it on—yes, ear. What you could hear it."

Hiram has a few choice potatoes in market today, also. Remember, if the Recorder has any opinions on turnips that he is prepared to unravel, Hiram would walk a mile to hear him hand them out.

It is understood that the water board will request the Recorder to submit an opinion on the suitability of the soil on the civic farm at Silver Falls for the cultivation of the potato crop. That property has been farmed at a loss for some years, in ignorance, no doubt, of the Recorder's own knowledge of the history, philosophy and futilities of the well-bred potato.

A STRIKE INVOLVING
THIRTY THOUSAND

The Lithographers Association of United States and Canada Demand a 48 Hour Week --- Statement Issued by the Employers

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—It is estimated that six thousand employees of lithographers in this city are placed out of employment today through the strike, ordered last night, of the Lithographers' International Protective and Benefit Association of the United States and Canada.

The striking organization is composed of printers, transferers and provers, without whom none of the shops can be operated. Throughout the United States and Canada like conditions prevail, and it is estimated that thirty thousand employees of lithographic shops will be out of work or on strike. The men demand a forty-eight hour week instead of the present thirty-three hour week. In the statement issued last night on behalf of the employers and members of the National Association of Employing Lithographers, its president, Frank A. Stecher, says:

"In 1904, we had a conference pending a strike. An agreement was reached which provided for the settlement of the disputes at that time and future disagreements by a conference or by arbitration. In 1905 this agreement expired and a second was signed.

"By the time the latter agreement expired, in the spring of 1906, three associations of employers had amalgamated into our present association and we offered to make the same agreement calling for conferences and arbitration.

"On July 9th, the Lithographers' Protective and Benefit Association, which has a membership of more than three thousands printers, transferers and provers, who are the most necessary parts of the organization of a shop, for without them no work can be done, made a demand for a 48 hour week instead of the present 33 hour week.

"The hesitancy of the employers to grant the demand arose out of the fact that the shops were overwhelmed with work and that the restrictions placed on the shops by the unions in the small number of apprentices allowed us, did not afford us enough men to work our shops in the time allowed to us. We could not get men to enlarge our forces, and we could not do work we had to do with present forces on the 48 hour week."

MYSTIFIED BY THE TELEGRAM

A Fresh Complication in Regard to the West Side Dredging.

A despatch was received last evening from Hon. C. S. Hyman, minister of public works, in answer to a wire sent by Ald. McGoldrick yesterday in connection with the dredging matter. The despatch reads as follows:

"Contract already called for more than exceeds any appropriation we have."

C. S. HYMAN.

The afternoon are at a loss to understand just what is meant by this message. Some take it to mean that the additional 100 ft. of dredging for the berth now building, will not be done by the government. Others are of the opinion that the telegram refers to the request for a 600 foot berth, made by Ald. Baxter and President Schofield of the board of trade, at the same time the 100 feet additional was asked for.

Ald. McGoldrick will wire this afternoon to Mr. Hyman asking for more definite information.

DEFENDANT WINS
IN MARKET CASE

Judge Ritchie delivered judgment today in what is known as the city market case of Daley vs. Keenraed, and gave a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The case, it will be remembered, was a claim for the use of a stand in the city market and created considerable interest. His honor in giving judgment said that from the evidence the plaintiff had not made a case. A. A. Wilson, K. C. appeared for the plaintiff and Daniel Mullin, K. C. for the defendant.

Iron was quiet at 23 for common, and for gray Toronto sold at 27, Richelieu St. Detroit Union 36 1/2, Canadian Pacific 106, Laurentide Pulp, 112 1/2 to 114.

A RECORD-BREAKING
WHEAT CROP PROBABLE

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 2.—A record-breaking movement of wheat is on for this season all from the central, western and southwestern states. In the past four weeks, Chicago has received 6,500,000 bushels or 4,000,000 bushels more than in all July last year, and for the month will be far ahead of the 6,000,000 bushels received in 1902. There is still a heavy movement under way, and it is expected to keep up for 30 days.

Traffic conditions have improved wonderfully in the past 30 days, and prospects are for increased earnings for all western roads. They have their equipment well employed, and will have for months to come. There has been some damage to crops in the Red river valley, and in southern central Wisconsin by hail and electric storms, but not enough to affect the aggregate of the crop.

Traffic officials are enthusiastic over the future. Those in the southwest have seen their crops of small grains harvested in good shape. In the northwest harvest is under way, and it gives officials of railways encouragement for the future. As a traffic man put it:

"We feel that we are in for another year of prosperity. The grain situation is such as to inspire confidence on the part of business men and farmers, and there are all the indications of an immense business this fall and winter. We shall have more grain to move than ever, and an abundance of merchandise."

LIQUOR SELLING
IN CARLETON

An Appeal to Judge Forbes to Take Action in the Matter

Judge Forbes is in receipt of a communication from the west side, in which the writer complains of the selling of liquor in a drug store in that part of the city.

The letter is signed "A Member of the W. C. T. U." and the writer, after referring to His Honor's respect for the Sabbath, says in part:

"There is each Sabbath in Carleton (west St. John), a scandalous state of affairs, the selling of strong drink in a so-called drug store." The informant also refers to the fact that there is no licensed liquor store in Carleton, and expresses the belief that it would be better if there was one, as it would be open only six daylight days in the week, instead of "fourteen days in the week—seven days and seven nights of days."

The writer asks why the chief of police does not put a stop to the sale of the liquor at the establishment referred to, and why the city does not license a proper six-day "rum shop."

The writer also asks his honor if he cannot direct the authorities to the matter and procure a license for the establishment, and that a consultation with the chief of police and Inspector Jones would result in the finding of a means of preventing the scandal referred to.

His honor said this morning that if the writer would be so kind as to confide to him her proper name and address, something might be done in the matter.
