DECKED THE GRAVES
OF DEAD BROTHERSKnights of Pythias Observed Decoration Day This Afternoon--Impressive Service Held at Fernhill--Knights Made a Splendid Showing in Annual Parade

The annual parade of the Knights of Pythias to decorate the graves of their departed brethren was held this afternoon. About two o'clock, the procession left the hall on Germain street and marched via Germain and Princess streets to Charlotte, where two barouches, handsomely trimmed with floral tributes, were taken into the line and the procession proceeded along Charlotte, Union and Waterloo streets to the Church of England burying ground and thence to Fernhill.

The Knights presented a fine appearance, as headed by the Artillery band, they paraded through the streets on their way to do honor to the dead. Adjutant S. A. Dyer, of the 1st Regiment of the Maritime provinces, was in command, and in company with Captain F. A. Goddard, Col. L. E. Wilson and Col. James Moulton, walked at the head of the procession. The band came next, followed by the two Uniform Rank companies, Victoria Co. No. 1, in command of Capt. W. E. Hopper, and Cygnets Co. No. 5, in command of Capt. W. S. Kee. The members of New Brunswick Lodge No. 1 and Union Lodge No. 2, attired in black clothes and silk hats, followed.

At Fernhill the following service will be carried out after the decoration of the graves has been completed.

Hymn--A Few More Years Shall Roll (with band accompaniment).

Scripture reading--By Knight J. Lefferts Thorne.

Address--By James Moulton, past supreme president.

Hymn--Safe In the Arms of Jesus (with band accompaniment).

Prayer and Benediction.

Doxology.

Following is a list of the departed members whose graves will be honored, those outside the city being looked after by a committee in each place.

MRS. NORTHRUP SAYS
HUSBAND DESERTED HER

Mrs. James Northrup, of Brussels St. says that her husband is not willing to support her and according to her story he claims she is not his wife. She also states that he left home last Saturday and has not since returned.

Mrs. Northrup called at the central police station this morning accompanied by her twelve-year-old daughter, and told her story to the police and produced a marriage certificate in which it is stated that she was married to Northrup at Havelock about fifteen years ago. Judging from her story the union has not been the happiest that she could have expected.

According to her story she had some words with Northrup on Brussels street,

A REIGN OF TERROR
PREVAILS IN RUSSIA;
YESTERDAY'S MASSACRE

POLOCK, Russian Poland, Aug. 16.—Last night five policemen were killed and two were wounded. The assassins escaped.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 16.—The war of terrorism which the fighting organization of the social revolutionists declared immediately after parliament was dissolved seems now to have begun in earnest. From all parts of the empire the telegraph brings the same story of attacks on police officials of all classes, accompanied in the majority of cases by plunder. The Polish revolutionists are especially active. There is a veritable reign of terror from the Baltics to the German frontier. Almost fifty cases of assassination were reported early last night. The Novoe Vremya today heads its list of murders and other crimes "St. Bartholomew's Night in Poland."

MOSCOW, Aug. 16.—While the constitutional democrats were conferring at the house of Prince Dolgoroukoff today, a sergeant of police appeared and ordered them to disperse, but on the representations of Prince Dolgoroukoff to the prefect of police that the meeting was of a private nature the conference was allowed to continue. It is the intention of the constitutional democrats to issue a campaign text book containing articles by M. Rodicheff, Prof. Paul Mikouff and other leaders.

WARSAW, Aug. 16.—It is now stated that during yesterday's massacre thirteen gendarmes, four police sergeants, seven gendarmes and four soldiers were killed, and that eight policemen, two sergeants, two gendarmes and six soldiers were wounded. The soldiers in reply to the attacks on the police with volleys and charging the crowds, killed thirteen men and two women, and severely wounded seventy persons and slightly injured ninety-five. During the night shots were heard in different parts of the city but the casualties had not been ascertained.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 16.—The Official Messenger today prints a denial of the report that the Russian revolutionists had returned indictments against Lieut. General Stoessel, the commander of the Russian forces at Port Arthur; Lieut. General Fock, who commanded the 4th East Siberian Division at Port Arthur and others. The Official Messenger says it is the duty of the commission simply to present the results of its investigation, upon which the indictments will be based.

The denial is more technical than real, as the conclusions of the commission under the regulations necessitate indictments on the lines published.

WARSAW, Aug. 16.—The Polska Gazeta and the Dyon Polska, organs of the Polish nationalists, today published strong leading articles denouncing the state of anarchy which the socialists are producing in Poland, whose object, the papers declare, is not the attainment of freedom but the bringing about of a civil war.
