Market St. Looking East from Taylor St. Emporium Dept. Store, Right Background

Ruins of the Valencia Hotel where seventy five persons were killed.

This scene depicts what remains of the City Hall, taken from Golden Gate avenue, looking south. The demolition of this monument to graft, which cost $7-000,000, was no more than was expected by many San Franciscans, in view of the manner in which it was constructed. The Hall of Records, surrounded by a low wrecked dome, also appears on the right of the picture.

The Palace Hotel, although one of the oldest in San Francisco, was popular not alone with visitors to the city, but with the natives themselves. Scarcely a year passed since its foundation, in 1876, but saw considerable improvements made in the structure, until, at the time of the earthquake, its estimated value was placed at $2,500,000. It covered a space 350 feet by 275 feet and, together with its annex, the Grand Hotel, could comfortably house 1,500 persons. One-quarter of an acre was occupied by the grand court, seven stories in height, and all the year round filled with plants and small trees.

At one end was the Palm Cafe, where many of San Francisco's dinners and banquets were given.

FUND IS NOW MORE THAN $6,200

There has been gathered together in St.
John and vicinity to date $6,247.00 for the San Francisco sufferers. Of this The Telegraph and Times fund amounts to $5,237.30.
Complete returns from the York Theatre concert slightly increase the amount credited Saturday. The fund now stands:—

Telegraph-Times fund.....	$5,237.30
At U. S. Consul's office.....	300.00
At Globe.....	514.75
Collected at St. George (N. B.)..	195.55
$6,247.60
San Francisco gave St. John after fire of 77.....	$6,902.00
The final returns from the San Francisco relief fund concert in York Theatre are now to hand, and show a net profit of $279.50, which has been credited to the fund. This result must be regarded as entirely satisfactory. The price of the tickets was purposely placed as low as pos- sible in order that all who wished to con- tribute twenty-five cents might do so, and as anything in the nature of a personal canvas was obviously out of the question, the public were told where tickets could be obtained and the nature of the enter- tainment, and the rest was left in their hands. The fact that 812 people saw the performance is sufficient evidence that the effort to increase the fund was appreci- ated.

A. W. Phillips, House-Treasurer, R. E. Walker, for The Telegraph and The Times.

No expenses have been charged, beyond the payment of $20 to the concert trio, a sum which all who heard them will regard as by no means excessive.

The coaches which conveyed the ladies appearing at the concert to and from the theatre were generously supplied free of charge by Ald. J. B. Hamm and David Watson, and thanks to William H. Bell, of Germain street, a piano used on the stage was moved without any expense to the fund.

The Telegraph and the Times gladly contributed the printing and advertising, and a member of The Telegraph staff organized and carried out all the details in connection with the entertainment.

St. George People Give Generously.

Residents of St. George have subscribed $195.55 to the fund, placing the money with Edward Milliken, United States consular agent at St. George, by whom it was forwarded Saturday to Judge Wilcox.
