MEMORY OF BURNS HONORED BY LOCAL SONS OF SCOTLAND

Clan Mackenzie Held Successful Celebration in York Theatre --The Hours Enlivened by Fine Programme of Scotch Music and Dancing

Clan Mackenzie has furnished those who have been fortunate enough to be their visitors many a pleasant evening, and the Burns anniversary last night was quite in keeping with the reputation that body has so well earned.

Nearly 200 ladies and gentlemen were present, and the programme was very much enjoyed, after which Jones' orchestra furnished music for the dancing, which was kept up to a late hour.

A few minutes after 8 o'clock Pipers H. Cruikshank and Roy Willet marched into the assembly room, followed by R. A. C. Brown, chief of Clan Mackenzie; B. R. Macaulay, president of St. Andrew's Society; and a number of the clan officials. Chief Brown and President Macaulay took seats on the platform, and the programme was proceeded with.

The address of welcome by the chief was very short. He simply expressed his pleasure at seeing so many gathered with them to help celebrate the anniversary of the birth of Scotland's best loved son. He then called on Mr. Macaulay, who also spoke very briefly. He brought the greetings of St. Andrew's Society, and said that the songs of Robert Burns were sung not only wherever the English language was spoken, but they had been translated into many other languages. He paid a glowing tribute to the genius of Burns, and said that the anniversary was being observed wherever a Scottish society was to be found.

Both addresses were received with loud and long applause.

The programme was given as arranged, with two exceptions. Mrs. Macneill was indisposed, and Mrs. Tufts sang in her place. J. H. McLeod danced the sword dance in a masterly manner. All of the singers were well received, and had to respond to encores.

S. J. McGowan sang There Was a Lad Was Born in Kyle, and for encore I'll Meet Thee on the Lea Rig, My Ain Kind Dearie, Oh.

A sword dance by John H. McLeod, which was splendidly done, was also a feature.

Mrs. Henning sang My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose, and My Nannie's Awa. Mr. Pidgeon besides Mary o' Argyle, sang Ye Banks and Braes o' Bonnie Doon. Mrs. Tufts gave Jessie's Dream, and had to respond with Afton Water. Thomas White had to respond to a double encore, and sang besides Green Grows the Rushes O, Duncan Gray and The Barrin' o' the Door.

The accompanist has an important and delicate task to perform in all concerts, and Mrs. Barnes last night showed her usual skill and was deserving of all praise.

Major Gordon's Highland Fling is always worth looking at, and was so indeed last night, and H. S. Cruikshank's performance on the bagpipes was all that could be desired.

The assembly room presented a pretty sight. The audience was seated in a semi-circle round the platform. Many of the gentlemen present were dressed in Highland costume, but some were in evening dress, and the bright gowns of the ladies made the contrast very striking. On the wall next the platform hung a portrait of Burns, flanked on either side by a small Scottish banneret, while above was the royal coat of arms in carved work.

The catering was under the direction of Frank White, and was excellent. The programmes, which were the work of The Telegraph press, were very neat. On the front appeared a Scottish thistle, behind which was a fine portrait of Burns.

The following telegram from O. S. Crocket, M. P., Fredericton, was read:—

Chief of Clan Mackenzie, St. John:
Sorry I can't be with you tonight. We have a similar celebration here tonight. Best wishes for you and your clan.
OSWALD S. CROCKET,
President St. Andrew's Society.

The names of the ladies' committee in charge of the entertaining were: Mrs. P. R. Inches, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Mrs. W. S. Morrison, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Mrs. R. K. Jones, Mrs. J. A. Murdoch and Miss Stephenson.

LIBERAL MAJORITY OVER ALL PARTIES IS NOW 66

London, Jan. 25.—The following is a summary of the political situation at midnight:—

Total seats in Commons	670
Elections held	610
Liberals elected	338
Unionists	143
Laborites	48
Nationalists	81

London, Jan. 25—Vote splitting between the Liberals and Laborites in three-cornered contest for the Govan division of Lanarkshire have given the Unionists one other gain. This, however, is offset by several Liberal gains, including the defeat of Coningsby Disraeli in the Altrincham division of Cheshire, and the unseating of J. Parker Smith for the Patrick division of Lanarkshire. Mr. Smith held the seat for sixteen years. He is a member of the executive committee on tariff reform league, and was private secretary of Joseph Chamberlain when the latter was secretary for the colonies.

R. C. Lehmann, the journalist, who is well known in the United States, was defeated in the South of Market Harborough division of Leicestershire. He ran in the Liberal interest against C. Harry Dixon, the Unionist candidate.

The returns to date show that the seats are distributed as follows:—

Liberals, 338.
Unionists, 143.
Nationalists, 81.
Laborites, 48.

Of the fifty candidates nominated by the labor representation committee, twenty-nine have been elected. With them will act J. Williams, the miners' candidate in the Gower or western division of Glamorganshire, in Wales, making a group of thirty Laborites pledged to absolute independence.

It is understood that the Liberals will allow Mr. Balfour to be elected unopposed for the city of London, though a formal decision has been postponed until Monday.

TWENTY-THREE MORE SAVED FROM THE VALENCIA WRECK

San Francisco, Jan. 25—A telegram received tonight by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company from Neah Bay, says that the tug Pioneer has put in there with the report that the steamer City of Topeka has picked up twenty-three survivors of the wreck of the steamer Valencia, and is still cruising in the vicinity.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 25—Survivors of the wreck of the steamship Valencia are of the opinion that Capt. O. M. Johnson, master of the Valencia, made no effort to save his own life, even when a chance presented. According to their story Capt. Johnson was heartbroken over the great loss of life attending the wreck.

With drawn face, Captain Johnson, clinging to the rigging with the others, thought only of those with him and time and again prayed for assistance.

"My God send relief to my passengers," Captain Johnson was heard to say just before the life-rafts left the steamer.

Passengers and crew during the night prior to the departure of the life raft, according to those saved, begged Captain Johnson to place a life belt about his waist. This he persistently refused to do. In spite of the fact that those near him begged him to think of his family and friends, Capt. Johnson would not do a single thing to help his condition.

According to these survivors about thirty persons left the wreck Wednesday morning on the two life rafts and in a boat.

Capt. Gibbs, who went from Seattle to the wreck on the steamer City of Topeka, returned today an the steamship Texan. He said the survivors told him that the best of order prevailed and that the men showed courtesy to the women.

"When the time came for the life boat to leave the Valencia yesterday," said Capt. Gibbs, "the officers ordered all the women to take to the rafts. The survivors say that in spite of the fact that the Valencia was beginning to break up the women refused to go on the life rafts or in the life boats, stating that they would take their chances with the ship rather than leave.

"The officers did all they could to impress upon theirs minds the fact that there was little chance for help after the last boats had gone."

A survivor says that men, women and children, singing "Nearer My God to Thee," shivered and clung together on the hurricane deck of the Valencia when the steamer Queen hove into sight. The women on the ill-fated vessel took off their underskirts to burn as signals to attract passing vessels, but all in vain.

W. T. Pierce, assistant general manager of the Pacific Coast Company, operating the lost steamship Valencia today said:

"The government is well nigh criminally negligent of coast shipping interests. Years ago congress should have provided for a government tug located near the mouth of the Straits of Juan De Fuca, in touch with telegraph wires and cables for just such emergencies as the Valencia case. With such a tug equipped with life saving apparatus, the majority of the men, women and children on board the Valencia would not have lost their lives."

BANKERS HOLD A PLEASANT DINNER

The bank managers in the city gave a dinner last evening in the Union Club to the president and directors of the Bank of New Brunswick in recognition of their kindness in placing at the disposal of the banks a room for the purpose of a clearing house. The solicitors to the various banks, and W. E. Stavert, who recently resigned from the management of the bank, were also among the guests.

The following is a list of those who were present: James Manchester, L. P. D. Tilley, Col. J. R. Armstrong, W. A. Ewing, F. R. Taylor, J. M. Robinson, G. C. Coster, Col. H. H. McLean, W. E. Stavert, E. M. Shadbolt, J. G. Taylor, T. B. Blair, A. P. Hazen, R. B. Kessen, C. H. Easson and N. R. Burrows.

Mr. Shadbolt, of the Bank of Montreal, presided, with J. G. Taylor, of the Bank of Commerce, in the vice-chair.

After a dinner which well maintained the club's reputation in this respect, the following toasts were given: The King, proposed by Mr. Shadbolt; the Bank of New Brunswick, proposed by Mr. Shadbolt and responded to by Mr. Manchester, Mr. Robinson and Mr. Kessen; the Branch Banks, responded to by the different managers; the Guests, responded to by Mr. Stavert and the solicitors of the banks represented; the Ladies, proposed by J. G. Taylor and responded to by F. R. Taylor, Mr. Hazen and Mr. Blair. During the evening songs were given by J. M. Robinson and Col. Armstrong.

JOSEPH McCAFFREY SAVED FROM WRECK

St. John Man Was One of the Passengers on S. S. Valencia Wrecked on British Columbia Coast.

Among the few who were saved at the frightful wreck of the steamer Valencia on the Pacific coast a few days ago, is Joseph McCaffrey, formerly of Carleton, and son of Capt. John McCaffery of the ferry service.

The name is mentioned in the list of survivors, and apart from certain facts which would go to show that he belongs here. His Worship Mayor White has received from the owners of the foundered steamer, a telegram to the effect that one of the survivors is Joseph McCaffrey of St. John (N. B.), and requesting him to notify relations here.

Mr. McCaffrey is a young man, and left here on Nov. 6 last for California, intending to locate there, if circumstances would be suitable. He went to San Francisco, and a couple of weeks after arrival received a letter from Thomas Donohue, formerly of Carleton, but now of Vancouver. Mr. Donohue requested him to meet him in Vancouver, and this, Mr. McCaffrey set out to do. He sailed from San Francisco, but as furious gales were encountered, the vessel was forced to put back to where she had sailed from.

On Thursday last, a letter was received from him. It was written from a town called Knowles. The writer said it was his intention to leave soon for the north, for the heat was too great where he was. He said to address prompt letters to Knowles, and it is probable that soon after sending this last communication, he took passage on the Valencia.

Capt. McCaffrey has sent a telegram requesting more particulars, and inquiring especially about his son's health, for the ordeal through which the survivors of the Valencia passed was so severe that nearly all perished from exposure. Only nineteen escaped out of more than 100. These were crowded on a makeshift raft, which was swept by terrific seas. The raft was picked up by the steamer City of Topeka off Cape Beale on the afternoon of Jan. 24th.

A WOMAN'S BACK IS THE MAINSPRING OF HER PHYSICAL SYSTEM.

The Slightest Backache, if Neglected, is Liable to Cause Years of Terrible Suffering.

No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well, and regular in their action. When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to have filtered out of the blood are left in the system.

The female constitution is naturally more subject to kidney disease than a man's; and what is more, a women's work is never done—her whole life is one continuous strain.

How many women have you heard say: "My, how my back aches!" Do you know that backache is one of the first signs of kidney trouble? It is, and should be attended to immediately. Other symptoms are frequent thirst, scanty, thick, cloudy or highly colored urine, burning sensation when urinating, frequent urination, puffing under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

These symptoms if not taken in time and cured at once, will cause years of terrible kidney suffering. All these symptoms, and in fact, these diseases may be cured by the use of

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

They act directly on the kidneys, and make them strong and healthy.

Mrs. Mary Galley, Auburn, N.S., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with a lame back and was unable to turn in bed without help. I was induced by a friend to try Doan's Kidney Pills. After using two-thirds of a box my back was as well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or sent direct on receipt of price. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

SAY STORY IS A DREAM

Boston Police Put Little Faith in Mrs. MacIsaac's Story.

New York, Jan. 25—The Brooklyn police tonight abandoned the case against John A. MacIsaacs who, after being locked up last night on a charge of assaulting his wife, was accused by the latter of having been an accomplice in the murder of Mabel Page at Weston (Mass.) Mrs. MacIsaacs declared her husband had told her he was the mysterious "J. L. Morton," whose name figured in the Page case, but who was never located.

State Detective Whitney came here today from Massachusetts and, with the local authorities, put the man and woman through a severe examination. Mrs. MacIsaacs denied to Whitney many of the things she had told the Brooklyn police. Tonight Whitney declared there was not enough developed in the examination of the prisoner to warrant his being held further as a factor in the murder case.

Detective Whitney said Mrs. MacIsaacs, who formerly was Olive Russell, had called upon Charles T. Tucker, the convicted slayer of the Page girl, at Cambridge jail. The woman, however, denies this. Whitney will return to Boston tomorrow.

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 25—(Special)—The county council today voted Sheriff McQueen a substantial increase in salary. In lieu of the work in attending courts, summoning jurors, etc., for which the sheriff received about $700 in fees, the council voted him a straight salary of $1,000 a year. This, together with other fees in connection with the office, will make a respectable salary for the sheriff.

Colds Cause Sore Throat

Laxative Bromo Quinine, the world wide Cold and Grip remedy, removes the cause. Call for the full name and look for signature of E. W. Grove. 25c.

Councillor Cochrane, of St. Martins, is at the Dufferin. He drove in from St. Martins Thursday and reports the wheeling excellent. Mr. Cochrane said Thursday he visited Black River and found that there is quite a lobster industry being worked up there. John York last week caught 148 pounds of lobster and shipped it to Boston and for this he received about $40, which is a remarkable price.

Cherry Trees.

Cherry trees grew originally at Cerasus, a city of Pontus, and were introduced to the Romans about 70 B. C. by Lucullus.

Deep Breathing.

Full use of the lungs always means strength. Throughout the brute creation, from the mouse, which breathes 150 times a minute, to the elephant, which breathes only six times a minute, one rule holds good—the larger and stronger the animal the more slowly and deeply it breathes.

St. Paul's.

St. Paul's cathedral, London, was built on the site of a temple to Diana in 226. Several times it has either been destroyed or injured by fire, being wrecked by the great conflagration in 1080 and again in 1666.

Hunger Sauce.

Marshal Ney said that the best meal he ever made was on a piece of half raw pork. During the Russian campaign of 1812 he was passing by a campfire where a soldier was roasting a part of a pig he had shot. He offered the marshal a piece, which the latter thankfully accepted and devoured on the spot with an excellent appetite.

Rye.

Rye is believed to be one of the most modern of grains. It was not known to the Egyptians. No ancient nation has a name for it before the days of the Roman empire.

Messina.

Messina was the first to bring the secrets of the oil painting of the Netherlands to Italy. He studied with the Eycks about the middle of the fifteenth century and after returning to Italy introduced the improved methods in the use of oils.

The Radish.

The radish is a native of China and Japan.

A Generous Foe.

At Gibraltar during the most famous of its sieges the French commander, learning that Elliot's men were suffering from scurvy, sent them as a present a boat load of carrots.

Prolific Fruit.

The producing power of the banana is forty-four times as great as that of the potato. The dried fruit is readily converted into nutritious flour. It may also be manufactured into sausages. Beer can be made from it, while the skin can be turned into cloth and the juice made to do service either as ink or vinegar.

Skeleton's Strange Hiding Place.

Cutting a hole in a large tree to secure a fox which had taken refuge within it, some men out hunting at Marrar, in New South Wales, discovered the complete skeleton of a man in the hole of the tree.

An Egyptian Relic.

An Egyptian wig in the British museum contains no fewer than 300 little braided pigtails.

A Most Remarkable Month.

The month of February, 1866, was in one respect the most remarkable in the world's history. It had no full moon. January had two full moons, and so had March, but February had none. This had not occurred since the creation of the world, and it will not occur again. Fixed on a garden wall in Maida Vale is a tablet announcing this fact.

Oneida.

Oneida was the name of an Indian tribe. The word means the "people of the beacon stone," there being a tradition that in all their wanderings they were followed by a certain great stone that took up its station on the highest hill in the neighborhood.

Hats.

Hats were first made by a Swiss. They were introduced in Paris in 1404 and in England in 1510. Silk hats were introduced in 1820.

Killed the Industry.

Some years ago the government of Java offered a reward for all crocodiles killed or captured. For a time enormous numbers of them were brought to the authorities. Then it was discovered that nearly all the natives had gone to raising crocodiles, so the reward was withdrawn.

The Ancient Purse.

For several centuries the purse was always worn fastened to the girdle. A cut purse got his name from the fact that rather than take the time to loose the purse from the belt, where it was secured by buckles, he cut the straps.

Chinese In Siam.

Every three years all Chinese domiciled in Siam have to pay a small poll tax. When this has been paid the collector ties a string around the man's left wrist and fastens the knot with a special official seal. The bracelet is the Chinese's receipt and must be worn one month.

Cape Henlopen.

Cape Henlopen, Delaware, was named from a Dutch expression, "en lofen," to run in, meaning the entrance to a harbor. It was first called Cape Cornelius, after a Dutch admiral.

To Knuckle Under.

To "knuckle under" or "knuckle to" a person is a phrase derived from an old meaning of "knuckle," the word being formerly applied to any joint of the body, especially the knee; hence to "knuckle under" was equivalent to kneeling for pardon. The knuckles of the hands were not referred to in any respect.

At a meeting of the executive of the tourist association yesterday afternoon, the contract for the new provincial booklet was awarded to The Telegraph Publishing Company. The booklet will have a new cover design, and will contain a number of improvements over previous issues. A map of the provinces will be introduced, and the reading matter will be classified under separate head lines. Rev. W. C. Gaynor has consented to contribute for the booklet an article on fishing.

Geo. H. Patterson, of Grand Falls, was registered at the Victoria yesterday.

Mr. Preston, Emigration Agent for the Dominion government in London, Eng, has stated that any of the farm peasants from Northern or Middle Europe make the very best agriculturists. Farmers in New Brunswick who need labor and can accommodate a man and his family with lodging and give him the use of a few acres for his own cultivation, cannot do better than apply to Mr. Preston. He describes them as a class that remain on the land for generations, are thrifty and industrious and willing to work as farm laborers or farm tenants. Applications will be gladly forwarded by the St. John board of trade or through this office.

MY MAGAZINE, "INVESTING FOR PROFIT" (which I'll send free) is worth $10 a copy to any man who intends to invest any money, however small; who has money invested unprofitably, or who can save $5 or more per month, but who hasn't learned the art of investing for profit.

It demonstrates the REAL earning power of money—the knowledge financiers and bankers hide from the masses.

It shows how to invest small sums and how to make them grow into fortunes—the actual possibilities of intelligent investments.

It reveals the enormous profits bankers make and shows how one can make the same profits safely.

It explains HOW stupendous fortunes are made and WHY they are made—how $1,000 grows to $22,000.

To introduce my magazine write me NOW, mention this paper and I'll send it SIX MONTHS FREE.
