Society

The social events of the past week centred, of course, about the Royal visitor, Prince Arthur of Connaught. The drive about the city was much enjoyed by His Royal Highness, and the dinner at the Union Club proved most delightful. A prominent feature of the prince's visit —which may be accounted for by the very limited time he had at his disposal while here—was the entire absence of any function in which the ladies of St. John could participate. It is a notable fact, however, that on this occasion, as on all previous visits of royalty, the various functions were enjoyed to the utmost, both by guests and entertainers.

Otherwise, social circles have been comparatively quiet, which is not unusual for the time of year, when attention is naturally directed to plans for the summer outing.

At the Dominion Capital the social round remains much the same, and as usual, the names of Maritime Province people figure in a number of the events.

Ex-Mayor and Mrs. White and family will leave in the near future for an outing on the Grand Lake.

Dr. Anglin, of the Provincial Hospital, was confined to his home yesterday with a heavy cold.

Mrs. Stephenson, of Coaticooke; Miss Austin, of Montreal; and Mrs. Oswald Crockett, of Fredericton; spent Sunday of last week with Mrs. Dr. Anglin, at her home Lancaster Heights.

Mrs. Dr. Anglin was hostess at a very delightful bridge party at her home, Lancaster Heights, on Tuesday last.

Mrs. F. R. Butcher, who has been visiting Mrs. L. G. Crosby, left for her home on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McPherson have arrived in Winnipeg, and are registered at the Empire.

Word has been received here that Douglas McLaughin, son of D. J. McLaughlin, who is residing in Winnipeg, will participate in an interesting event next month, when he will be married to Miss Andrews, one of Winnipeg's fairest daughters.

Mrs. Dr. Anglin entertained a number of her lady friends recently, at a unique function known as a "Salmagundi" party. Tables are arranged in very much the same manner as for bridge, only instead of cards various objects are used, different, of course, at each table, and prizes are offered. The event was a decided novelty to the guests by whom it was very much enjoyed.

The death of Dr. Holden is learned of with profound regret by the many friends of the family who are extending their sincere sympathy.

Mr. Charles McDonald was a passenger on today's Atlantic express.

Mr. C. Fisher, of Montreal, was in the city today en, route to the Magdalen Islands.

Mr. J. R. Cowans, of Springhill, returned home at noon after a short stay here.

Mrs. Brock and the Misses Brock, and Miss Muriel Gillis, St. John, were registered at the Canadian office, London, April 17th.

Rev. H. G. Estabrook, of Springhill, N. S. recently occupied the pulpit of Nena street Baptist church, Winnipeg. He is on his way east from California, where he has been during the winter for the benefit of his health.

"Miss Edith Comben, who was assisting in the intermediate schools here, has returned to St. John. Mr. McLeod, of Penobsquis, is now in charge of Mr. Richardson's department."-St. Andrews Beacon.

"Rev. G. A. Lawson, who has been ill, has recovered sufficiently to enable him to take a trip away for his health. He left Wednesday morning for St. John"—Halifax Recorder.

"The marriage of Miss Edith Molson and Mr. R. V. VanHorne, only son of Sir William and Lady VanHorne, has been arranged to take place in St. George's church, Montreal, on June 12th"—Toronto Mail and Empire.

AT OTTAWA.

"The marriage of Miss Julia Maud Borden, youngest daughter of Sir Frederick W. Borden, K. C. M. G., Minister of Militia, to Mr. Leslie L. Macoun has been arranged to take place on Tuesday, May 22nd, in Dominion Methodist church —The engagement is announced of Miss Lucy Hope Turner, youngest daughter of Mr. Alex. Turner of Hamilton, to Mr. H. A. Burbidge, eldest son of Mr. Justice and Mrs Burbidge, Ottawa"—Ottawa Citizen.

Among the Maritime Province guests at the wedding of Miss Ethel Robertson, daughter of the late Alex. Robertson, M. P., to Dr. Overton Bradley, of Montreal, on Saturday last was Mr. Bacon of Halifax.

"Colonel and Mrs. Rutherford entertained at a delightful dinner party on Saturday evening. The guests of honor were Mrs. McLeod, of St. John, N. B., and Mrs. Willie Gwynne, of Toronto."

"Mr. Hazen ex-M. P. St. John, N. B., is in the city on Supreme Court business, and will remain for the week. Mr. Hazen is registered at the Russell.

"Premier Tweedie, of St. John, N. B. is at present in the capital. —Ottawa Evening Journal.

"Miss Ara Drury, who has been spending several weeks in town the guest of Miss Pansy Mills, is leaving tomorrow for Montreal to join her mother. Mrs. Drury, of Halifax, who is visiting friends there.

"Mr. Lovett, of Halifax spent the week end in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sinclair."—Ottawa Citizen.

Senator Ellis was among the guests at a dinner party given by Senator J. P. B. Casgrain at his residence in Montreal on Saturday last.

SHAUGHNESSY RAKES BRITISH MINISTERS AT LONDON BANQUET

Montreal, May 3.—(Special)—The Star's London correspondent cables: On the principle that half a loaf is better than none, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and the Canadian Pacific Railway welcomed the announcement of the colonial secretary made at the Canadian Club last night that the Canadi n Pacific Empires subsidy from the British treasury will be continued for two years.

Lord Elgin gave the impression that the continuance of the subsidy was only secured by himself and Lord Strathcona from the chancellor of the exchequer with great difficulty, though Lord Elgin did not say, what was well known, that the admiralty and the post office were both opposed to the subsidy on their special grounds.

The persistence with which Lord Strathcona insisted on the imperial claims of the Canadian Pacific route, especially its importance in view of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, at length overcame the departmental obstacles. Attached to its continuance are conditions for the readjustment and material quickening of a through timetable to the far east and other points, affecting the whole question of imperial defences to be thrashed out with the Canadian ministers at the colonial conference, which is now arranged to meet in April next.

Shaughnessy Strikes Out.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy in his speech created some stir by the outspoken way in which, in the presence of the colonial secretary, he commented on the neglect of British ministers and permanent officials to visit and become acquainted with the actual conditions of the empire they were charged to govern. Referring especially to the permanent head of the Canadian department of the colonial office, who was present, Sir Thomas expressed astonishment that he had never been in Canada and should be the incumbent. A man holding such a position should spend at least three months in Canada every year. (General cheers.) It was recently stated in the Canadian senate that no minister, while in office, had ever visited Canada. These were co ditions requiring attention. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy proceeded as follows:

"A few years ago when trade questions were discussed between Canada and the United States we were treated with something in the nature of contempt. Are we going to permit the Rockefellers, Carnegies, Hills and other men to influence the United States policy on Canadian trade relations, that may lead to most serious results in the future? Are we so supine as to let them determine Canada's future career? I do not know by what means we can prevent them from carrying their objects into practice, but whether by free trade or fair trade, or a combination of free trade and fair trade, we must attempt to do it."

Lord Strathcona in his speech was equally frank. As regards the new Canadian-Atlantic service he said he was not satisfied. It would not be satisfactory until the passage from land to land was made by Canadian steamships inside of four days.

FIRST STEEL RAIL ON G. T. PACIFIC LAID

Portage La Prairie, Man., May 3—(Special)—The first steel rail on the G. T. P. was laid here yesterday without ceremony or ostentation. The first sod on the new transcontinental it will be remembered, was turned at Portage last summer. This town will be the centre of distribution of supplies and it is the intention to lay out yards here on a large scale.

Deny Stealing British Plans.

London, May 3—Ambassador Reid and Lieut. Commander John M. Gibbons, naval attache of the American embassy here, emphatically deny the allegation cabled to New York that the plans of the British battleship Dreadnaught were stolen by an official of the British admiralty and sold to the United States.

KING EDWARD GUEST OF FRENCH PRESIDENT

Paris, May 3.—King Edward dined tonight at the Palace of the Elysee with President Fallieres and most of the French cabinet ministers. The president toasted the king, saying:

"Your majesty's frequent visits are a precious pledge of the cordiality of the relations between France and England. Both are happy to sincerely act together for civilization and peace."

King Edward expressed the pleasure his visits to France has afforded him, adding: "I am sure the entente cordiale will do more than anything else to safeguard peace."

Ottawa, May 3.—(Special)—Lt. Col. E. T. Sturdee has been appointed from the reserve of officers to be brigade major in the Maritime Provinces.

Douglas McArthur and C. Joseph Morgan have been appointed provisional lieutenants of the 62nd Regiment.

TEMPERANCE TODAY

How it is Looked Upon From a Business Point of View.

Under the above heading, 'The Franciscan Review' for May publishes the following article:-

'Not many years ago a man or woman who abstained totally from intoxicating liquor was a novelty, and was forced to explain the phenomenon. In those days men boasted proudly of being "a three bottle man," and looked with contempt on a man who "could not stand his liquor." A festive gathering then meant a drinking bout, and the drunkenness of the guests was a compliment to the host of the feast.

'In those days men told tales of prowess achieved under the influence of strong drink, and part of the rations in the navy was "grog," the quantity increased as reward, or diminished as severest punishment. True fighting spirit was supposed to be obtained from intoxicants. In those days a lawyer or doctor did not lose prestige because he drank to excess, indeed, tales are told of noted jurists who pleaded best when "in their cups," and of doctors who prescribed for patients and wrought wondrous cures while befuddled with drink.

'It was simply a matter of public opinion. Drunkenness was condoned as a weakness when it should have been condemned as a crime. The ruin and premature deaths of brilliant men were looked upon as accidents, instead of demonstrations of cause and effect. Dreadful crimes done in drunkenness and horrible catastrophes due to intoxication of the responsible persons were deplored, but considered inevitable.

'Thank God all that has changed. Public opinion is being educated along right lines. The total abstainer no longer has to apologize or explain. All men know that his course of life is the sane one, morally and physically. The drinking man must explain and apologize, and is driven to give an excuse for his indulgence.

'The man or woman who drinks to excess at a social gathering finds no sympathy and must bear the snubbing of sensible people.

'Science has taught us that man is at his best physically when he abstains from intoxicating liquors. And the athlete either is a total abstainer or else is short lived in his career. The wonderful marksmanship of United States war vessels in the Spanish war was the result of sober skill, and not the drunken work of intoxicated maniacs, for "grog" is no longer counted a necessary producer of courage.

'Clear-brained, clear-skinned, bright-eyed and alert lawyers and physicians are sought for advice and aid. No man would trust his body or his cause to the haphazard skill of a drunkard. When some foolish one trusts to his reputation to cover his drunken excesses he quickly finds himself left to solitary reflections on the instability of men's favor, and to barroom boasts of past exploits in his profession.

'Life is too strenuous, and competition is too strong to permit any man to handicap himself by strong drink and hope to succeed. The employee who tries to combine business and "booze" will soon be looking for a place for this special accomplishment. The business man who devotes himself to alcohol will soon have plenty of time to do so, and no fear of interruption from customers.

'Apart from all moral consideration, total abstinence from strong drink is the best business proposition and the strongest element for success in any profession or business.'

ENDOWMENT OF VICTORIA

Now Reaches $800,000, With $50,000 More in Sight --- New Methodist College May be Established at Mossejaw Sask.

(Toronto Mail & Empire.)

The movement to increase the endowment of Victoria University by $300,000 is now practically completed. That amount has been raised all but $12,000, counting the $50,000 just donated by Andrew Carnegie. That donation was conditional upon the raising of an additional $50,000, but Chancellor Burwash is confident that there will be no trouble in fulfilling the condition.

The total endowment of the university is now $800,000, and the college finances are thus placed upon a most satisfactory basis. A new library building will be erected at the western portion of the university grounds in the near future. It will accommodate about 300 students, and will have a stock room capacity of 50,000 volumes.

The Rev. Dr. Potts is to leave soon for the West, and will probably make arrangements for establishing a second Methodist college in the new provinces. Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, is offering special inducements to have the college established there in preference to Regina, and will probably be selected as the site.

Dr. Potts will also urge the British Columbia Government to reconsider its action in making McGill University degrees the authorized degrees for the province. The present law seriously affects the relations of the college at New Westminster with Victoria and the University of Toronto, as students who otherwise would have come to Victoria or Toronto are now likely to go to McGill to take their degrees. Dr. Potts will ask the British Columbia Government to place the Toronto degrees on the same footing with McGill degrees or else to establish a provincial university of its own with which other colleges may be affiliated.

OBITUARY

Miss Elizabeth Disbrow.

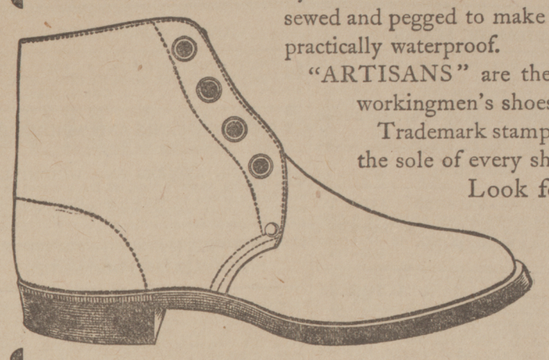

Miss Elizabeth Disbrow, fifth daughter of the late Rev. Noah Disbrow, died suddenly at her residence, 72 Coburg street Thursday morning. Miss Disbrow had been sick only about ten days, the cause of death being la grippe and pneumonia. On Tuesday she arose and sat by the open window in the expctation of seeing the prince and there caught cold.

A short time before her death she asked her sister for a drink, but almost as soon as she received it she expired. Deceased was beloved and accomplished and will be mourned by many. Her father, Rev. Noah Disbrow was a member of one of the oldest families in this city and a brother of the late Rev. James Disbrow, for many years rector of the parish of Simonds. From 1846 to 1856 he was stationed at Bathurst. Later he went to the diocese of Niagara, and then to Boston where he died. He was a clergyman who commanded the sincere esteem and admiration of all with whom he came in contact.

Miss Disbrow is survived by two sisters, Miss Louisa and Miss Emma, both at home, and two brothers, Dr. Robert Disbrow, in Boston, and Dr. Henry Disbrow, Jacquet River. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 3.30, with service at the house by Rev. G. A. Kuhring
