BASE BALL

Eastport, 5; St. Johns, 3

A team from Eastport (Me.), attired in neat brown costumes with with the name of a cigar in white letters on their breast managed to defeat the St. Johns on the Victoria grounds yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3. About 300 people watched the game, which was a hard fought one from start to finish. Nesbitt, for St. John, and Ferguson for the visitors, pitched good ball. The St. John twirler was found for only five single and the visiting pitcher for but seven. The Brownies put up a clean, snappy, gentlemanly game.

CHICAGO'S DOUBLE VICTORY

In Wednesday's double header between the Chicagos and Bostons in which the former won by a score of 2-1 and 8-0, Tip O'Neill did not shine to any extent. The Boston Post of Thursday says:—"Old Cy Young was carded for the first game and Armbruster slated to do the receiving. The article of ball put up by the Bostons could hardly be expected to win, their lone tally resulted from an error, a sacrifice and two passed balls.

Neither side scored until the sixth inning, although Boston had a good chance early in the game when Hayden in the second drew a pass and Freeman followed with a double, putting the left fielder on third. But the hit was not forthcoming.

Again in the third, Young, the first man up, walked. Parent fanned, Stahl and Hoey singled, but the wily Altrock snapped the ball to first base, and caught the ex-collegian asleep off the bag.

Chicago did not have a look in until the fifth, when Jiggs Donahue rapped the ball for three bases, and tried to stretch it into a home run, but a fine throw by Stahl, and a relay from Ferris, nailed the Chicago runner at the plate.

In the sixth Boston got its only run. Ferris was safe on Isbell's fumble, Godwin sacrificed, Ferris took third on a passed ball, and scored on another one.

Chicago showed fighting spirit in the eighth, when with two out, Hahn singled Jones walked, Isbell swatted the ball for two bases, scoring Hahn and the captain.

The second game, however, was the real treat of the afternoon. There is a word in the language which would adequately express the kind of ball which the home team played, but it would be hardly fair to use it. Such a game has seldom, if ever, been witnessed on a professional diamond, and, to put it lightly, the fans were thoroughly disgusted. The opening inning drove half the attendance from the grounds, when free passes, singles and errors were intermingled with such confusion that it was hard for the ordinary attendant at the game to tell really what had happened, although when the smoke of the inning had cleared away the board boy had chalked up only three tallies.

Two more were added in the third, Davis getting a three-bagger and Isbell being hit by a pitched ball. In the next inning another run was added to the Sox' total, and after the fifth session Captain Stahl took Harris and Armbruster out, substituting Glaze and Carrigan.

It made no difference, however, as Glaze walked Hahn and Jones doubled, scoring Hahn, and later scored on Isbell's out.

In all nine errors were totalled against the Bostons, Parent, Ferris, Glaze, Freeman and Armbruster all being responsible while Freeman, Armbruster and Ferris took turns throwing the ball around the lot. Boston could not knock the ball out of the infield, and when a safe hit came it was impossible to stretch them into anything like a run.

A 16 INNING TIE.

BRIDGEPORT, July 11—The veteran Jim O'Rourke's Bridgeport nine batted for sixteen innings today with Hartford to a 3 to 3 tie, darkness stopping the play in the seventeenth. One longer game is on record in the Connecticut League, when New Haven and Bridgeport played eighteen innings. O'Rourke, who is just half a century old, and his son, Jimmy O'Rourke, Jr., were the heroes of today's game, doing nearly all the batting and most of the star fielding for their team.

YACHTING

Salmon Boat Race Today.

The second race for the Peters cup will be run today. As some interested also wish to join the R. K. Y. C. cruise the race will be started at 2.30 instead of 3 o'clock.

BIG MEETING OF YACHTS.

Combination Cruise of Seawanhaka, Atlantic, Philadelphia Corinthian.

Oyster Bay will witness a great assemblage of yachts next Saturday afternoon, when the combined fleets of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian and Atlantic Yacht clubs with the boats of the Corinthian Yacht Club of Philadelphia, drop anchor off Centre Island. These fleets, which are coming together for a joint cruise to Newport, include some of the finest pleasure craft afloat, both steam and sail.

General orders issued from the flagship Oneida by Commodore E. C. Benedict of the Seawanhaka Yacht Club, calls for the visit of the captains to the flagship at 5 o'clock on Saturday. On Monday morning the fleets will set out on the first run of the cruise to Morris Cove. On Tuesday the run will be from New Haven to New London—from which point the yachts will recross the Sound to Shelter Island.

The fleet will remain at Shelter Island until July 20 and will then proceed to Newport.

THE OAR

Carlton Crew Did Not Get Away.

St. John will not be represented in the regatta to be held in Halifax today. This is owing entirely to the fact that one of the members of the Carleton amateur crew could not obtain leave of absence. Arrangements have been made for all to get away for the races at Halifax on the 28th.

For the Halifax Amateur Boating Club regatta committee let it be said that they displayed an exceedingly generous spirit and acted in a most sportsmanlike manner. In the first place chairman Parsons accepted the entry of the crew after the entries for the events had closed and in the second place he was generous enough to permit the four rowing in the finals after the crew had found it impossible to row in the trial heats.

Sorry in Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., July 13—(Special)—Aquatic men and the public generally are sorry the St. John four are not coming for the regatta tomorrow. As soon as the committee were informed definitely that they would not be here it was decided to start the five local crews at 5.40 o'clock. There will be no preliminary heats.

THE RING

An incidental feature of Joe Walcott's victory over Jack Dougherty is that the next on the card for the Black Demon is Willie Lewis. Willie is still suffering mentally from the thought of his knockout by Honey Mellody, but it was through the refusal of the latter to take another try at him that Lewis stumbled on this good opportunity. Besides, it saves him the trouble of meeting Joe Gans again, as the Baltimore fighter now has no claim to the welterweight title until some one defeats Joe Walcott.

In spite of his defeat by Mellody, there are plenty of fight fans who still believe in Lewis. It is still insisted by the Lewis enthusiasts that he was defeated by a chance punch, which was landed on him only through his own carelessness. If Lewis meets Walcott, there is every inditation that the East Sider will watch out much more carefully for the black man's wallops than he did for Mellody's.

Sam Berger is getting lots of benefit from his training at Oceanic, N. J. He makes a very busy day of it, starting at 7 in the morning. About two hours after he gets up the big Californian goes out for a ten-mile road run to Seabright, N. J. On his arrival there he takes a plunge into the briny.

Berger has this to say: "I have seen O'Brien in all his fights on the coast, and if there is one man that I feel confident of beating it is Philadelphia Jack. I can take ten of Jack's get-away leads, provided it gives me a chance to land one of my own punches."

The Philadelphia man is a fast stepper, however. O'Brien is training in his own quiet way, and waiting for next Monday night to handle Berger. One thing seems sure, and that is that this is a case where two men of real strength and skill are matched. That alone ought to make a good fight, especially as O'Brien does not consider Berger's great weight much of a hindrance.

THE RIFLE

Canada Won Kolapore Cup

Bisley, England, July 13—The Kolapore Cup, open to the colonies in competition with a combined team from the motherland, was won today by the team representing Canada with a score of 729.

The mother country came second with 720 and India third with 705.

With the Imperial Challenge cup, presented by the Rajah of Kolapore in 1871, goes the colonial prize of $400. This prize is presented to the team, exclusive of the mother country, making the highest score in the competition.

The cup was previously won by Canada in 1896 and in 1905, Canada thus having the honor of two successive wins. The score which won last year was 758.

Canada's victory over the mother country is attributable to the lead obtained at the 500 range. The weather was fine but there was a strong wind. The scores:

	200 Yds.	500 Yds.	600 Yds.	T'l.
Canada	246	247	236	729
Mother Country	247	237	236	720
India	236	231	228	705
Malay States	240	243	221	704
Guernsey	241	242	209	692

The detailed score of the Canadian team was as follows:

Sergt. Nichols, Toronto	32	30	34	96
Capt. Skeddon, Hamilton	33	30	31	94
Staff Sergt. Hayhurst, Hamilton	29	22	32	93
Lieut. Semple, Truro	30	31	32	93
Sergt. Kavan, Victoria	29	33	28	90
Corp. Youhill, Winnipeg	32	28	28	88
Staff Sergt. Kerr, Toronto	30	33	35	88
Pte. Smith, Ottawa	31	30	28	87
Grand total	246	247	236	729

England won the Elcho Challenge shield with a score of 1,658, defeating Ireland, whose score was 1,602, and Scotland, which scored 1,585.

These were the only entrants. At the final range Maurice Blood, of the Irish team, scored a full complement of bulls-eyes, an achievement unique in Elcho shield matches at 1,000 yards.

THINGS EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW

First, that prevention is better than cure.

That acute pain means inflammation and calls for immediate treatment.

That every household should have a remedy like Nerviline, which has power to subdue inflammation and destroy pain at once.

Just a few drops required for ear-ache—for toothache one application is sufficient. Neuralgia and rheumatism flee as before fire. Lumbago and Sciatica like other muscular pains, are cured by a few rubbings.

No liniment so clean, so strong and comforting as Polson's Nerviline; try a 25c. bottle.

St. John Moose Story

St. John folks will be interested to learn by way of New York, that moose are walking the streets of their city. The Tribune prints as news under a St. John date line the following idyll, which ought to take the tourists there in bunches.

"Whether or not the fog whistle at the entrance to St. John harbor should be compelled to take out a game license would seem to be a question to be decided by the game commission. Partridge Island is situated about two miles from the city of St. John and on it is one of the principal signal stations. A few months ago there was installed on the island a new fog whistle which has been the cause of much excitement among the moose which haunt the woods around the city. This whistle gives a long drawn out blow in a low note and ends the blast with a short sounding blow two tones lower. The whistle exactly imitates the call of a cow moose and is having the effect of such calls.

"It is not uncommon for moose to find their way into the city and walk quietly through the streets during the earlier hours of the day. They are never molested, and have grown bold. Since the new fog signal was established these wandering moose have become more plentiful and there is no doubt that they are attracted by what they think is the call from their mates. The bull moose strolls calmly through Fairville and Lancaster to the water's edge and then attempts to swim to the island. None have ever swam the full distance, for before reaching the island they evidently become aware that things are not what they seem, and that there is something wrong with the call. Huntsmen are anxiously awaiting the open season when the moose are likely to be depleted in numbers."

Truro, N. S., July 13—John Langille, the ten-year-old son of Conductor James Langille, was drowned while swimming this afternoon in Salmon River, about one mile above town. The body was recovered.

THE PLAYGROUNDS

There were more than 400 children in the supervised playground again yesterday afternoon. The forenoon attendance is always a little smaller than that of the afternoon.

The new swing was being put up yesterday, but it is quite a task and may not be finished in time for use today.

A. Gordon Leavitt was on the grounds with his camera and took a number of pictures of groups of children, and also one of the playgrounds' committee as they came out after holding a meeting.

The whole committee, including Miss Peters, Mrs. Pickett, Mrs. McLellan, Mrs. Chisholm, Miss Leavitt, Miss Reid and A. M. Belding, were present and discussed various matters. It was decided to secure some more teeters, and some other small supplies that are required.

The question of having excursions of some of the larger children to the park for nature study was discussed, and Miss Miller and some members of the committee or volunteers will probably make the first excursion some fine day next week, with twenty-five or thirty children. A. Gordon Leavitt has consented to talk with the children on nature subjects, and doubtless others will do the same from time to time.

Miss Bailey continues to give instruction in basket ball for a short time each day, but others should assist. Piano players could also be of service in the afternoons.

Miss Peter has received $5 for the playground fund, from Mrs. Thomas McAfee, and Mrs. Pickett received $1 from a friend on the grounds yesterday.

NO CORSETS, NEW PARIS CRY

And now the corset is doomed, maybe. This interesting bit of information has reached New York in a letter from a Manhattan woman who is travelling in Europe and using her eyes to such effect that she has seen things not mentioned in the guide books. She says Paris fashists have started a campaign to induce society women to abandon this article of dress. Thousands of circulars have been sent to fashionable folk, pointing out that Bulgaria is far ahead of France in that all important matter. The minister of instruction in that country has issued an order forbidding all girls in the public schools and colleges to wear corsets on pain of instant expulsion. French women, however, have always tried to be sylph-like, and have ever been devotees of the glove-fitting gown, which demands a corset of the most approved variety, so they are not likely to enthuse over this plea for "unrestricted feminine curves," especially if they have a tendency to take on flesh. However, it is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and such a fad would mean that the day of the princess frock was over, and husbands who have had to button them down the back, and even the elevator boys who have been pressed into service when there are no husbands handy would greatly rejoice. There is no doubt about it, if the men had their say, this style of frock would be doomed without delay.

TO HAVE INSURANCE

The Maritime Provinces A. O. H. convention, which meets in Halifax on August 28th and 29th, will consider the question of arranging life insurance in connection with the society in these provinces.

In some places the order carries insurance, but in these provinces there are only sick benefits and funeral allowances.

At the Halifax convention there will likely be a proposal to institute a $500 insurance policy.

As this will be the tenth bi-annual convention delegates from eight counties in this province will go to Halifax, and two from Nova Scotia.

An excursion for those who desire to go to be present will be conducted.

General Manager Smith Says Grand Trunk Pacific Telegraph Lines When Completed Will Top All.

WINNIPEG, July 14.—A. B. Smith, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Telegraphs, from Montreal, left for the west, over the ground for the lines which will, in a short time, reach Winnipeg.

"The company," he said, "works under dominion charter, which gives it the right to use telegraph, telephone or wireless, as it chooses. The company is capitalized at $5,000,000, and is entirely independent of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, except in that it is under contract to use the new railroad's lines whenever possible. In addition to this, the company has plans to do business apart from the railway lines, and to run wires across country.

"As for United States connections, we may use Western Union or Postal, or both. The Grand Trunk Pacific lines, when completed, will be the greatest in Canada. It it our aim to make them universal and to include everything that comes our way.

"The telephone permit in the charter is there because we may at any time wish to operate a long distance service. There is no present intention of competing with the Bell people, but if opposition to the Bell Company looks good, it will be done. We may instal rural 'phones."

Falling to Pieces

Rome, July 13.—It has long been known that some parts of the Vatican are unsafe, but it has just been discovered that the palace is practically falling to pieces. To make the whole building safe will require more than $100,000.

We Tell We have nothing to conceal! No secrets to hide! We publish the formulas of all our medicines. You will find these in Ayer's Almanac for 1906. If you do not have a copy we will gladly send you one. Then show the formulas to your doctor. If he does not approve, then do not buy; if he approves, then buy, and keep these standard family medicines on hand.
