THE WORRIES OF WALL STREET

Will the Public Stay in the Market--Will Money Remain Easy and What Effect Will New Securities Have?

(New York Evenng Post.)

The humbler explanation often gives the better promise for the future. Accumulation of capital is going steadily on, and with it the process of absorption by investors of stocks and bonds now carried on loans in Wall Street. The business of dealing in securities is in many ways not so different from that of boots and shoes, or hardware. It is true, the shoe store and the tin shop are not apt to be emptied by eager customers buying more than they need because they may not get any if they do not buy now. No one spreads rumors of unexpected issues about to be discovered, for reasons unknown, in one or the other branch of trade. But down at bottom, the question confronting specialists in these industries is, how much of their wages the real consuming public is likely to want, and how well able it will be to pay for them. The merchant who fills his shelves too early may find the public in less of a hurry than he was, and the Wall street expert with his safe full of stocks and bonds, accumulated in great haste, may make the same discovery. If all goes well, the worst punishment imposed for either case of rashness will be an anxious period of waiting until the consumer knocks at the door again. When all does not go well, it is usually either because the merchant who stocked up too soon finds his banker getting impatient, in a money scarcity, for repayment of his loan, or discovers that he miscalculated the buying power of the public, or else finds the channels of trade suddenly filled by wares which he did not know were on the market. These are at present precisely Wall street's worries—none of them as yet very definite. Whether it can keep on comfortably renewing its loans; whether the outside public is as eager as was expected, and what will be the result of the huge output of new securities—these are really the questions which must be settled during the present stage of dullness.

COMMENTS OF THE BROKERS

Pratt grew, Bright & Co., Boston—After the next few weeks we shall have a clearer view. Meanwhile, we must own that there is great underlying strength and that this reaction is more of pause than of bear campaign. The rallies come easily, and as the weak days are dull days also, while on recoveries the market broadens and becomes active, it seems that the technical position still favors the bulls. So we believe; we are confident that the current questions that hold back activity will be solved favorably and that we shall have a good year in the market. We look for more discrimination than in 1905, but we see a good year ahead for judicious investment and we think that the course of this market since mid-January is by no means discouraging. Somehow we cannot get over the idea that this Boston market behaves well and promises a continued activity, strength and good profits. But more and more it is necessary to be careful in trading among the coppers. Some of them are booked for more advance; some not, we think. The weeding-out process has begun; there are coppers and coppers, and a word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

Curtis & Sederquist, Boston—Sentiment in Wall street at the moment is bearish; but we think the selling of stocks has been carried too far. There is now outstanding a very large short interest, which will eventually be driven to cover. The market has been given good support on all drives. The talk in some bearish quarters that the bull movement is over is hardly well founded. There have been no signs of a let-up in business activity. The country promises to be more prosperous in 1906 than in 1905, and that is saying a good deal. A reaction of a few points after a sustained advance for months should not be interpreted to mean that the business boom is at an end.

UNION PACIFIC

(New York World.)

More than ordinary interest is felt in the affairs of the Union Pacific Railroad Company just now, owing to conflicting statements relative to the disposition that the directors will make of the enormous treasury surplus that this company has on hand. At present market values the securities of other railroad corporations held by the Union Pacific are worth nearly $190,000,000. Besides having the right to distribute the whole or part of this vast sum among the stockholders, the Union Pacific directors also hold authority from the stockholders to issue $100,000,000 of new preferred stock. Here, indeed, are the possibilities of the cutting of a luscious melon. There is a hopeful contingent in Wall street that looks for an early distribution of some of this surplusage of Union Pacific assets. Certain conservative banking interests are affiliated with this property, however, and representatives of these banking interests have been assuring Wall street for several days past that no extra dividends would be declared either this winter or spring. What may be done in midsummer or in the fall is another question.

MONSTER ANTLERS

Maine Game Warden Found Big Pair in Woods----They had Just Been Shed.

(Bangor Commercial).

The fact that so few antlers of deer and moose are ever found in the woods is frequently the subject of comment. These antlers are shed every winter yet very few of them are ever found the next summer because of the work of rodents, insects and action of the weather, which pulverize the bone and mingle it with the scurf on the floor of the forest in a very short time. Occasionally a hunter finds a pair of antlers which have somehow escaped the work of destruction which most of them meet, and he who does has a rarity.

There is one man in Maine who has had the distinction of finding a pair of moose antlers in the woods and that man is Game Warden F. W. Austin of Fort Kent, one of the men who patrol the northern boundary of Maine to keep poachers from the Canadian side killing off the big game. Warden Austin and Joseph Michaud of Eagle Lake have for several weeks past been spotting trails for the use of the game wardens when looking for poachers, between the French settlement and what is known as the Dimick moose region on Square Lake.

A few days ago they happened on a drove of eight moose. The animals were not yarded and started away at the sight of the men. Soon after the drove started one of the bulls dropped a horn, which was picked up by Warden Austin. The antler was of such unusual size that the warden decided to follow the herd and see if the bull would not shed the other antler. The two men followed the trail of the moose and when they had gone less than half a mile from where they found the first antler they found the mate to it where the bull had attempted to go through a thicket of cedar and small junipers and knocked his remaining antler off.

Experienced hunters and taxidermists who have seen the antlers are of the opinion that they have had a spread of more than 60 inches when on the head of the moose. They are splendidly formed, each having eleven perfect points and a web spread of 12 inches. The antlers weigh a little over 60 pounds. Had some hunter been fortunate enough to happen on this big fellow during the last open season he might have placed his name on the list of mighty hunters of Maine game, for it is a long time since such a moose head as the wearer of these antlers had has been brought out of the Maine woods.

The head of this moose which bore the antlers found by Warden Austin must have been pretty near a record-breaker. By taking the width of the head of an average bull moose between the bases of the antlers and adding it to the spread of these antlers it is possible to get a very good estimate of the spread of the antlers in life, and this is set at considerably over 60 inches. The record spread of antlers on the head of a moose killed in New Brunswick in 1898 by F. H. Cook, of Leominster, Mass., was only 67 inches, and according to all estimates this Maine moose would have had a spread almost as large. The bull that carried the antlers was probably six or seven years old. It is at about that age that the antlers in moose reach their fullest development. In younger or older animals the plamation is less and the antlers have fewer points. If the moose which carried these antlers lives until next fall and retains his vitality he will be a prize worth any hunter's time to try for. Warden Austin saw many moose in the country around Square Lake and says the animals appear unusually plentiful in that region.

REXTON

REXTON, N. B., Feb. 24.—The skating carnival, which was held in the Richibucto rink last night, was a decided success, numbers from different parts of the county were present. Some elegant as well as extremely comical costumes were to be seen. Fred Mundle, of Richibucto, who won the first prize, looked very funny in his representation of a bear, performing the usual feats exhibited by the travelling tame bear. Little Miss Mame Thompson, of Rexton, who got the second prize, looked very cunning, taking the part of a darky girl. Refreshments were served by the Richibucto ladies, and the band furnished excellent music. All expressed the opinion that it was the most enjoyable event of the season.

B. E. Johnson, of Richibucto, has been chosen leader of the band, in place of J. A. Edmunds, resigned.

Mrs. James Murphy, of Vancouver, B. C., who has been visiting friends in this province since November, is spending a few days with friends here. She intends leaving shortly for her home in the west.

Mrs. Fred Read and Miss Janie McGregor, of St. John, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McGregor, Upper Rexton.

Allison Hutchinson has been successful in passing a nautical examination at Halifax, receiving a master's certificate.

C. S. Harrison, of Newcastle, is visiting his brother, S. L. T. Harrison.

A meeting of the shareholders of J. & T. Jardine, Ltd., was held a few days ago, at which the directors of the company were elected for the ensuing year, and the organization work completed. At a subsequent meeting of the directors, Jas. Jardine was elected president; John Jardine, vice-president; and David Jardine, secretary-treasurer. The company will have their store ready for occupancy March 1st.

The recent thaw has taken away a great deal of our snow, leaving the roads bare in places. The river is again glare and the skating very good in places.

REFUSED A CARNEGIE LIBRARY

LONDON, Feb. 27—The citizens of Bath today decided by a vote of two to one against the acceptance of Andrew Carnegie's offer of $65,000 for a public library.

THE WORLD OF SPORT

HOCKEY

A CHALLENGE.

The Times-Globe hockey combination wish to challenge the team of so-called hockey players who recently represented the morning papers, in a hockey game at the Queen's rink on Saturday afternoon next. The evening papers have one victory to their credit and the morning journals have also a win on their side, so that the deciding game will be one of interest.

MONCTON, 3; FREDERICTON, 1.

Fredericton, N. B., Feb 27—(Special)—Upwards of 1,500 spectators saw Moncton defeat Fredericton in the Provincial Hockey League match this evening, by a score of three to one. It was the most exciting game of the season, and while the result was a foregone conclusion, the local fans are delighted to know that Fredericton scored against the champions. The home team was clearly outplayed in the first half, the puck being kept in their territory the greater part of the time. One minute after play started, Crocket scored the first goal for Moncton, and Cushing repeated the trick shortly afterwards.

When half-time was called, the score stood two to nothing in the visitors' favor.

Both teams put up whirlwind hockey in the second half, and excitement was intense. Fredericton scored from a mix up in front of the Moncton goal after five minutes' play, and the spectators almost went wild with delight. The applause had scarcely died away before Crocket got the puck and landed it in the Fredericton net.

The game was a very clean one, only three players, Leahy, Way and Staples being benched by the referee. The combination work of Fredericton was probably the best ever seen here, and they played with a snap. The Fredericton boys played better than usual, and are well satisfied with the showing made. James Tibbitts refereed the game in a highly satisfactory manner. The local sports made considerable money betting that Fredericton would score.

The line up was as follows:—

Fredericton.		Moncton.
	Goal.
Finnemore		Wortman
	Point.
Staples		Brown
	Cover Point.
S. Staples		Way
	Rover.
Malloy		Crocket
	Centre.
Coleman		Leahy
	Right Wing.
Rowan		Cushing
	Left Wing.
Morrison		Trites

The Moncton boys look upon their defeat at Marysville last night as a fluke, and have offered to remain over and play the Marysville team tomorrow evening in the Arctic rink. It is not expected that the offer will be accepted, as Marysville appears to be satisfied to rest upon their laurels.

MONCTON HERE SATURDAY.

What promises to be the fastest game this season is slated for Saturday night in the Queen's rink here, when the Moncton "Vics." will tackle All-St. John. Until the game at Marysville Monday evening, when the Crescents lowered the colors of Moncton's crack septette, it was said by many that St. John would be unable to score against Moncton, but since Monday's game opinion here has undergone a considerable change.

WANDERERS, 4; AMHERST, 0.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 27—(Special)—The Wanderers tied with the New Glasgow hockeyists at Halifax tonight by defeating the Amherst Ramblers, 4 to 0. At no time in the game did the former champions show any superiority. About 2,800 people were present, and witnessed the Ramblers being blanked for the first time.

The game was delayed until 8.30 by the Amherst team being unable to reach Halifax. The ice was watery and hindered the players from shooting with any force or accuracy.

SKATING

Westville, N. S., Feb. 27—(Special)—In an exhibition mile skating race here tonight, Hilton A. Belyea, of St. John, defeated Leadbeater, covering the distance in 3.16. The ice was in fair condition.

Belyea wanted a match race with William McDonald, who won the championship on Thursday last, and it was thought that he would start, but today McDonald took "cold feet" very badly and could not be induced to start, much to the disappointment of Belyea, and Westville people.

It had been proposed also that Belyea would skate a three mile race with three men, taking a mile each in succession, but three men could not be found in Westville to thus enter the lists.

Belyea will skate Davidson in Springhill on Tuesday night, and Bouche, of that place, will skate the winner. Belyea announces that he is ready to skate any man in the maritime provinces from one to three miles.

There is a lot of dissatisfaction at Westville with the M. P. A. A. A. for the lack of advertising they gave to the championship meeting. Had it been given due publicity, a half dozen good visiting skaters would have been there, but no one knew of it, Belyea hearing only by accident and in time barely to get to Westville on the second day, too late to meet McDonald, who thus had no one but local men to oppose him.

BOWLING

TRAVELLERS WON.

The box-ball game between the Ramblers and Travelers last night in Harry Black's alleys, Main street, resulted in a victory for the Travelers. The score stood: Ramblers, 1,851; Travelers, 1,880. The totals of the individual players were:—

Ramblers—Lunney, 317; Hamm, 339; Huggard, 266; Sprigs, 347; Ferris, 312.

Travelers—Wilson, 321; French, 341; Pidgeon, 328; Campbell, 309, and Foster, 381.

WRESTLING

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 27—Frank Gotch last night, in Convention hall, won two straight falls in a wrestling match with Jim Parr, of England, in sixteen and thirteen minutes.

THE TURF

Phoebon W. was to the fore at Lewiston (Me.) on Saturday. Driven by S. A. Fowler, formerly of this city, the gelding won the free-for-all. Will Patch, also one of Mr. Fowler's string, won third place in the 2.17 class.

THE OAR

THE AMERICAN HENLEY.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 26.—Plans which are now rapidly maturing for the fourth annual regatta of the American Rowing Association, more popularly known as the "American Henley," to be held on the Schuykill River, assure the amateur oarsmen of America that this regatta will be the greatest in the history of the association. Not only will it bring together the greatest number of club oarsmen, but college crews will predominate to a greater extent than ever before. The stewards have fixed on May 26 as the date of the regatta. It is held at this time primarily that it may bring together the largest number of college oarsmen and not conflict with other regattas.

A very large attendance is expected from the club crews of the country. This will be the first regatta of the year and will naturally attract a great many entries on this account. The best club crews from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Boston are expected to be on hand, while individual entries are looked for from Toronto, Detroit and other rowing centres.

The list of events have not been decided upon definitely, but they will probably be much the same as a year ago. There is likely, however, to be an addition of a race for octopede crews. This event has been requested, and if enough crews enter for it the race will be rowed. The following is the probable list of events:

1. First double sculls, for Schykill cup.
2. Second single sculls.
3. Second eight-oared sculls, for New England cup.
4. First eight-oared shells, for stewards' cup.
5. First single sculls, for Farragut cup.
6. First pair-oared shells.
7. Second four-oared shells.
8. Eight-oared scholastic shell race, for Franklin cup.
9. First four-oared shells, for Puritan cup.
10. Second four-oared gigs; first four-scull race.
11. Eight-oared junior college crews.
12. Octopede race.

THE RING

GANS AND SULLIVAN.

The March attraction to be offered by the Fight Trust will be another meeting of Joe Gans and Mike (Twin) Sullivan. They have been re-matched by Morris Levy to appear before the New Arcadia Club, of San Francisco, on March 16.

A great tent will be spread over the arena in the baseball park and the contest will be held in it. Gans and Sullivan have agreed to meet under practically the same conditions under which they fought recently, making 142 pounds at 6 o'clock and taking 50 per cent of the gross receipts, splitting this between themselves 65 and 35. Eddie Graney will officiate as referee and the odds on Gans probably will go to a prohibitive figure as soon as any money is in sight.

The trust certainly is after a crowd, and the attendant dollars, so this offering is to be wondered at. Gans gave Sullivan a sound beating in their recent battle, and it left a bad taste. Down in Baltimore Gans had allowed Sullivan to batter him all around the ring to give an impression that he was "all in" Then in Los Angeles, Gans won and profited by his former sad showing. Of course the 'Frisco promoters now say each man has a victory over the other. Such is an example of what followers of pugilism have had served up to them too frequently in recent years. But, though it is set before them, they don't have to swallow it.

BRITT IS CONFIDENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24—When Jimmy Britt was informed that Billy Nolan, manager for Battling Nelson, was inclined to accept the Los Angeles offer of $15,000 for a match with Herrera, but that he would keep his agreement to fight Britt first if the money which he claimed is due from the moving pictures was paid, the native son got wrathy.

"What have I got to do with the money due Nelson for the pictures. If there is anything due him," he said "I wouldn't pay a cent to Nelson or anybody else for the privilege of getting in the ring. I am a better drawing card in any part of the country than Nelson and he will find that it will be impossible for him to avoid a return match with me. Public opinion will force him into the ring." Hockey.

SWIMMING

GOING TO ENGLAND.

The Boston Transcript says:-C M. Daniels, New York Athletic Club, who made such great havoc among the records during the past week, will visit England this coming season and have a crack at all the championships from one hundred yards to a mile. There is scarcely any doubt that Daniels will be selected as one of the American team for the Olympic games in Greece, and it is his intention not to return with the team, but stay in England and prepare for the events. At Athens he will appear in all three races—100, 400 and 1400 metres.

May be too late. The ROBERTSON & TRITES BANKRUPT SALE OF DRY GOODS is rapidly drawing to a close. Such bargains as are being offered this week have never been equalled in Saint John. The case is just like this:—Every solitary article in the building MUST be sold out in the next few days. The prices have been cut and slashed until as a customer said yesterday, "It is like finding stuff." Job lots of little things, such as Pins, Hair Pins, Hooks and Eyes, Needles, Thimbles, Braids, Ribbons, etc., for a trifle. Keep putting off and you will be too late. Opportunity knocks at every person's door once—this is the once.

CASH ONLY.

Business, Good Will and Valuable Business Franchises

Arrangements are completed which will reduce the stock of our Wholesale and Retail Wine and Liquor business to a retail basis.

We are prepared to receive offers for the good will of both the Wholesale and Retail business, as well as for a lease of either the one or the other or both premises.

We can give a lease of both Wholesale and Retail stores for one year from the 1st of May, with the right of renewal for a term of five or ten years. The rent of both stores would be $350 for the first year and $1,050 per year for an additional lease of five or ten years or we will rent the stores separately at a rental of $500 each for the first year and $600 each for the longer term.

These premises have proved to be the best Wholesale and Retail liquor stands in the province, and leading liquor merchants of the city regard the good will and the franchise offered as most valuable assets. The offer to dispose of them in this way will remain open only until March 6th next.

Possession of the retail premises could be given immediately. All communications to be addressed to Mrs. M. A. Finn, 72 Union St., St. John, N. B.
