TAR AND FEATHERS FOR 'FRISCO COMMITTEE MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 21.—Jas. D. Phelan, chairman of the relief finance committee; Allan Pollock, member of the same committee, and Dr. Edward T. Devine, at the head of the Red Cross Association and President Roosevelt's special representative in the local relief work, are attacked as traitors in a printed circular, copies of which are scattered in the streets and refugee camps. The resignation of Dr. Devine is demanded, and it is intimated that unless Phelan and Pollock sever their connection with the finance committee they will be tarred and feathered. The documents are signed "The Committee of the Whole," an organization of refugees, of which Joseph M. Clark, who lives in tent No. 703, Jefferson square, is secretary. He denies all knowledge of the circular, but states that its tone it too mild to suit him.

Phelan says Clark came to him on Friday and attempted to sell out the Committee of the Whole, and later tried to blackmail Phelan. His clerk, who saw Clark at relief headquarters, asserts that the man came there twice before he was permitted to enter Phelan's office.

"The circular is true," Clark said when seen. "These men should be forced to resign. But the statements contained in it are not strong enough for us. In a few days we shall issue an eight page pamphlet that will be such a broadside that even Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, will sit up and take notice of it.

"I admit going to see Phelan, but did not go there to sell information concerning the meetings of the Committee of the Whole. On the contrary, I went there for transportation east for my wife."

Associated with Clark in the committee is Alva Udell, an attorney. He has petitioned President Roosevelt, Secretary of War Taft and others high in authority to remove the rations fund from the custody of the finance committee and place them in the hands of the refugees. These petitions, some of which contained violent attacks on the finance committee, were referred to the finance committee by the president and secretary of war.

Two cars, containing shoes and wearing apparel for sufferers in this city have been lost en route from Chicago, according to Colonel Peppy, chief of the relief board. Colonel Peppy stated yesterday that the consignment was started from Chicago over a month ago and that no record of it was obtainable from the railroad company, which has been unable to locate it.

MOTIVE FOR WHITE'S MURDER DISCOVERED

New York, July 21—The World tomorrow will say: "Motive for the murder of Stanford White is indicated in a series of letters written by Mrs. P. J. Holman, mother of Miss Nesbit, to Mr. White, and after the latter's death found among the effects.

"Abraham H. Hummell, of Howe & Hummell, who is counsel for Thaw and also for Stanford White was consulted by the architect regarding the letters. In them Mrs. Nesbit-Holman complains bitterly of the conduct of Harry K. Thaw towards her daughter, now his wife, and implores Mr. White to do all in his power to bring her back to her mother's control.

"In the letters Mrs. Holman refers to Thaw as a scoundrel, a villian and a man with murderous intent in his heart. In one letter she describes an interview with Thaw while they were in Paris and declares that Thaw wanted Mrs. Holman to sign an affidavit to the effect that Thaw never intended to make Evelyn his wife. It appears that Thaw became aware of the fact that White had been appealed to by Mrs. Nesbit, now Mrs. Holman, and that the architect knew of the quarrels between Thaw and his wife, also that Evelyn had told her mother that she was not married to Thaw at the time they arrived from Europe and were driven out of the hotel in Cumberland. Thaw at that time had given a statement which he afterwards corroborated from Pittsburg, that he and Evelyn had been married while in Europe. Thaw knew that White was the only person, not of his family, who knew that this statement was false, and that Thaw did not marry his present wife until months later in Pittsburg.

"Just what disposition is to be made of these letters is not known at present. The letters are kept in a safe, and it may be that they will be produced if Thaw should ever be placed on trial for murder and Mrs. Nesbit-Holman should become a witness.

"District Attorney Jerome is anxious that Mrs. Holman come to New York so that she may be served with subpoena to appear at the trial. If she does she will be cross-examined most severely and questioned as to how, among other things she came to apply to White for financial aid.

"Among the papers left by White are also a number of letters written to Mr. Holman, husband of Mrs. Harry Thaw's mother. It would appear that he knew all about the relations between Harry Thaw and Evelyn Nesbit.

"Among the first letters is one written by Mrs. Nesbit to Mr. White. It is undated but was penned after Mrs. Nesbit had returned from abroad where she had been abandoned by Harry Thaw and Evelyn who at that time was not his wife. The letter was headed 'Friday' but evidently was written in 1903. It is as follows:

"'Dear Mr. White:

"'Your letter received. Will send Florence's letter as you desire. When we first went to Paris and met Thaw, he and Florence quarrelled continually. We were—at least I was—indeed miserable. I expected each day to hear her say we would return to America. Thaw came to me and asked me to sign a paper. The article was that he did not intend to marry Florence. I thought as I hated him, I was doing the right thing. I do hope something can be done to save her from him. He does not intend to marry her. I only hope when she hears about the paper that her pride will at least save her. Yours truly,

"'E. F. NESBITT.'"

"About the time Thaw and Evelyn Nesbit returned from Europe, November 1, 1904, there was considerable space devoted by the newspapers to young Thaw and his companion. Mrs. Nesbit had married in the meantime, Mr. Holman. Mrs. Holman wrote to Mr. White as follows:

"'The morning papers say Florence is in New York. If the coward won't say she is honorably his wife please try to get her to see you and talk sense to her and have her understand the awful light he has placed her in before the world.

"'I am simply tortured with reporters. My head has simply been splitting for a week. You have no idea how disgraceful this affair is. People drive me wild telling me to take action, that she is not of age.

"'Mr. White please do try to talk to her. She is too young to understand how she is being wronged. I hope to hear from you very soon.

"'Very truly yours,

"'N. F. HOLMAN.'"

Gasoline Launch Burned; One Drowned, Nine Injured

Middletown, Conn., July 22—A result of the burning of the power launch Kittie M., just above East Haddam on the Connecticut River last night, one man is believed to have been drowned; another is severely burned and eight others making up a party of ten were more or less seriously burned. The boat was practically ruined and was abandoned.

According to the story of the men all of whom live in Hartford, the party started down the river from Hartford yesterday afternoon intending to go to Saybrook. Last night as the launch was nearing East Haddam one of the men threw a match which he had used to light a cigar into the bottom of the launch and as a result the gasolene which supplied the motive power for the launch was ignited and blazed up, burning the men more of less seriously.

Wm. Hayes, of Burnside, in an endeavor to escape from the flames jumped overboard, and has not since been seen.

The others hastily ran the boat to the bank and leaped ashore. After spending the night searching for their companion they started at daybreak for this city, where they reported the affair to the police and continued on their way to Hartford. The most seriously burned is Joseph H. Russell.

Street car No. 62 met with an accident while on the way to Sea Side Park on Sunday afternoon. While nearing the switch in front of Maxwell's, the car jumped the track and ploughed the gravel some twenty feet. Only a few passengers were in the car at the time of the accident, and all escaped but a man named McNally, who was thrown from the car on his head. He was carried into Mr. Maxwell's house and Dr. F. L. Kenny dressed his injuries, which were not serious.

London Press on King's Visit

Montreal, July 22—A London despatch says: Discussing the king's decision the Outlook says the difficulties in the way of a visit to Canada have been exaggerated. For the first time the mother country had the power to take a step of real importance in the development of imperial unity. The other colonies would have been satisfied to be represented by Canada, accepting such a visit from the crown as a national recognition of the issues involved. So far, nothing weightier stands in the way but the reasons given in that Elgin despatch.

The Spectator hopes at a future date his majesty may be able to visit a country pre-eminent for loyalty which, by actual achievement and splendor of destiny may be regarded as first among the allied nations of the empire.

Recognizing the necessity of the presence of the king at home now, the Statist urges a change in his duties, giving him more freedom in future.

Major R. G. Turning, of Gulmar, Kashmar, writing to the Outlook, points out that community of race, language and interest between Canada and the United States is rendering annexation not improbable. He calls England to wake up or the empire may slip from her grasp, and advocates closer commercial ties.

Search in Vain for Missing Girl

Belchertown, Mass., July 22—A thorough search of the woods and fields bordering upon the upper pond, by nearly 100 men, today failed to bring to light the slightest trace of Miss Winzola Goodell, who has been missing from her home since the afternoon of July 6. Two searching parties, under the general direction of High Sheriff J. E. Clark, of Northampton, carefully examined every foot of territory in a section of country fully five miles in length, but nothing was found to reward the search.

When the parties returned, several heavy charges of dynamite were exploded in the pond, in the hope of dislodging the girl's body in case it should be imbedded in the soft bottom, but although large quantities of mud were loosened by the shocks, no trace of the body or any of the girl's clothing was found.

Persons were also engaged all day in dragging the pond with grappling irons, but they met with no better success.

The failure to find any trace of the body today tended to strengthen the opinion, which has been held by Sheriff Clark, that the girl may have gone away in the mysterious carriage which was seen near the pond on the afternoon of her disappearance. The theory that Miss Goodell went away in a team is based on the idea that the girl either eloped or was kidnapped.

The band of the 62nd Fusiliers' Regiment played in Rockwood Park Saturday afternoon, by arrangement of the N. B. Tourist Association, and greatly pleased the large number of people assembled to listen. There was no regular band stand, but the bandsmen sat in chairs placed on the grass.
