

Average Daily
Circulation... 7,086
Last Week...

THE EVENING TIMES

Times Want Ads
... Yield ...
Good Returns.

VOL., 11, NO. 273

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1906.

ONE CENT

HARRY B. WHITE IS A FREE MAN NOWCharge of Forgery Against Him Has
Been Withdrawn and his Sureties
Discharged---Sudden Collapse of the
Once Famous Dominion Express Case.

The case of the Dominion Express Company against Harry B. White, which was to have come up for trial at the present sitting of the county court, has been dismissed and the bondsmen released from their sureties.

Attorney General Pugsley stated that he had given instructions that the case be dropped, and White allowed his freedom on his own recognizance to appear if necessary at any time. To all intents and purposes White is, however, free, as it is not considered probable that the case will ever be brought up again. It is a mere matter of form that he enter into a recognizance to appear if wanted.

The attorney general said he had reviewed the evidence, as submitted at the trial, and in view of the fact that the jury had disagreed, he thought it was unnecessary to bring it up again. So this is the ending of a case that for a few months created intense interest among the people of this city.

In the trial Hon. H. A. McKeown was counsel for the defence, and Solicitor General Jones conducted the prosecution. White, it will be remembered, was charged by the Dominion Express Company, in March last, with defrauding them of $3,800. The case was heard in the police court, and afterwards in the county court before Judge Forbes. On June 4th the jury failed to agree, after being out two hours, and White was released on his own recognizance of $2,000, and two sureties, T. A. Linton and Hon. H. A. McKeown, in $1,000 each.

The express company charged that White had forged certain money orders and had appropriated the funds to his own use.

Mr. McKeown in reviewing the case before the jury contended that the company had not been prejudiced by a single dollar.

FERRY COMMITTEE WILL REMOVE ALL TEMPTATION
FROM THE LUDLOW'S PATHThe Navy Island Bar to be Dredged, and Now the Pride of St. John Will Have No Excuse for Straying from the Path of Rectitude---East Side Ferry Terminals to be Improved.

The regular monthly meeting of the ferry committee was held this morning at 11 o'clock. Those present were Ald. Lockhart (chairman), Bullock, Tilley and Holder, with Superintendent Glasgow and the common clerk.

The plans of the proposed improvements for the east side ferry toll house were before the committee, and it was decided to recommend them to the council and ask permission to call for tenders. The proposed improvements consist of changes to the lavatories, heating arrangements and remodeling the waiting rooms. The estimated cost is about $2,000 or $3,000.

The superintendent was heard with reference to needed dredging at the entrance to the west side ferry slip, at what is known as the Navy Island bar. He contended that certain dredging was necessary at that point. After discussion it was decided on motion of Ald. Lockhart that they ask the council for authority to have the Navy Island bar dredged to a sufficient depth for the Ludlow to pass without danger of grounding. The opinion was expressed that the city dredge might do the work or if that was not possible the government should be communicated with. Ald. Bullock read some extracts from the log book of the Ludlow regarding a number of minor accidents and mishaps that had occurred during the past month, including an account of the occasions on which the steamer had run on the bar.

The superintendent reported that traffic had been heavier on the steamer during the past fortnight. He had engaged an oiler named Allingham to fill a vacancy.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

FR. MCAULAY IDENTIFIES
COLLINS IN POLICE CELL

Thomas Francis Collins was taken by Sheriff Lynds to Albert county on the C. P. R. at noon today, and probably the week after next he will be called upon to answer to the charge of murdering Miss Mary McAulay, of New Ireland, on Sunday, 19th inst.

Before ten o'clock this morning, Rev. Fr. McAulay and Sheriff Lynds, who arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, visited the central station and were immediately escorted by Chief Clark into his office, where no one but the authorities were permitted to enter.

The chief and the sheriff, after a brief talk, went before Judge Ritchie and his honor endorsed the warrant which Sheriff Lynds had for the apprehension of Collins.

At 10.10 a. m., the priest, accompanied by Chief Clark, went down to the cell, where the suspected murderer was confined, but the press were able to learn practically nothing about the interview, so secretly did the authorities do their work. The Times learned, however, that when Fr. McAulay went down to the cell he stood a few feet from it and addressed Collins, who stood up in his cell when the priest visited him. Fr. McAulay asked the suspect many questions, and argued with him on several points as to where he was and what he did at his house during his absence. Collins told the priest that he was entirely innocent of the crime with which he is charged. The prisoner admitted that the priest, so the Times was informed, that he was at Father McAulay's house on Monday morning, 20th inst., but stated that he knew nothing about the murder until informed of it by Detective Killen.

The Times asked Fr. McAulay if he could say anything about the case or what Collins said to him, and the priest replied that the case was in the hands of the authorities and he could not converse about it. When asked if he identified the prisoner, Fr. McAulay replied, "I could identify him with my eyes shut." He also identified the clothes found on Collins as his property, with the exception of a pair of drawers. Fr. McAulay also said that it was true that a gold watch with a lady's initial on it had been stolen and had not as yet been found.

Fr. McAulay talked with Collins from 10.10 a. m. to 10.20, when he returned to the chief's office. During his conversation with the prisoner, the chief, Detective Killen and Sgt. Hastings were present. At eleven o'clock when the warrant was endorsed by Judge Ritchie, his honor informed the chief that he had better bring Collins before him, and accordingly Collins, handcuffed, was brought before the judge, who said to him, "This is the first time I've seen you, and you are in jail, you had a right to be kept in jail. Collins was then taken back to his cell and his honor, when asked by the Times, said that the prisoner should have been brought before him and remained to jail, where he could have had a bed to sleep on.

"The law presumes every man to be innocent until proved guilty," said the judge, "and he should have been made comfortable in jail."

Shortly after being taken back to his cell, Collins was made ready for his journey to Albert county. Handcuffed behind his hands in front of him and he was taken to the chief's office, where he remained until a coach arrived.

Outside of the court a large crowd, eager to get a glance at the suspected murderer, had gathered. Passing teams were stopped and at 11.15 o'clock Collins, Chief Clark, Sheriff Lynds and Father McAulay walked down the police court steps and entered the coach.

The coach was driven to the station, where another large crowd had collected and Collins, accompanied by the chief, the sheriff and Father McAulay went in to Station Master Ross's office, where they remained until the train was ready to depart. When finally Collins appeared in the custody of Chief Clark, the station was crowded with people, who had lined the passage-way to the train, but they had been heavier on the steamer during the past fortnight. He had engaged an oiler named Allingham to fill a vacancy.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

The superintendent reported that traffic had been heavier on the steamer during the past fortnight. He had engaged an oiler named Allingham to fill a vacancy.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

Ald. Tilley brought up the case of W. H. Lambert, a deckhand on the Ludlow, who had asked for an increase of salary. The alderman thought that his request should be granted as he was a good man and deserved a higher rate of wages than he is now receiving. He had been five years in the service and holds a mate's certificate. After some discussion Ald. Bullock moved that the schedule of wages be revised. If this was done he thought the increase could be given. The motion carried. The chairman, Ald. Bullock and Tilley with the superintendent, were appointed. A number of bills were read and passed and the meeting adjourned.

STOLYPIN INSISTS
ON THE FREE HANDThe Russian Premier Wants the Cabinet
Given a Practical Dictatorship, Free from All Interference of Pernicious Court Influences---Using Press to Boom His Cause.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30.—It is asserted that Premier Stolypin and his colleagues are employing the newspapers which they control to fight the court cam-arilla. This, it is added, is the secret of the Novoe Vremya's constant references during the last few days to the necessity for protecting the cabinet from the interference of pernicious court influences.

M. Stolypin is said to have told friends that he is continually subjected to embarrassment and that he was convinced that his task was impossible unless the emperor gave him an absolutely free hand, in other words conferred upon the cabinet a practical dictatorship. An intimation comes from a high source that the premier broached the subject last night, at the first audience which he had with his majesty since the tragedy of August 25, when the explosion of a bomb at the premier's residence caused the loss of over thirty lives.

In conversation with friends the premier is alleged to have said that history seemed to be repeating itself, the situation closely resembling the closing days of the reign of Alexander II. The reactionary spirit was growing rapidly. Nevertheless he considered it vital that the government should not take a reactionary path. If it did so he felt confident that the measures which the cabinet projected would result in a majority of moderate being elected to parliament as against the extremists who left whose aim was to overthrow the monarchy and establish a republic.

Collins' mother and father are both dead, his father having fallen down stairs in his home in Liverpool, Eng., and broken his neck. He has sisters and brothers living in the old country. The valise found at Musquash by the police contained a wet garment upon which he had analyzed to ascertain whether or not it is a blood stain.

Many Think He Is Innocent
Yesterday's Monarch Transcript publishes the following in the course of a St. John despatch:

It would seem that popular opinion in the New Ireland murder case by no means differs with certainty upon Collins, who is now under arrest, as the perpetrator of the crime. Curtis Boisvert, of Portland, who returned on Monday from the section in which the crime was committed, says that most of the residents in the vicinity regard Collins as an injured man, inasmuch as they think he is not guilty of the murder of Miss McAulay. Mr. Boisvert, who travels in the interest of a cigar firm, spent last week in the immediate vicinity of the scene of the crime, and talked to very many of the people. He says he only talked with one household where he believed Collins is guilty of the crime. He had known well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well-known while at Father McAulay's, and the majority of the neighbors express themselves as thinking rather well of him than otherwise. Many of the people do not hesitate in speaking of their suspicions of other parties than Collins. Not all the residents of the vicinity have been good terms with the priest, as the well