A CIVIC DISGRACE

The city council cannot longer, in justice to itself, refuse to provide the city with a patrol wagon.

A number of years ago the local Council of Women raised the money to purchase a patrol wagon and offered it to the city. The offer was rejected, because the council considered the city too poor to incur the other necessary expenses. The money was placed in this bank. Later it was found necessary to make somewhat expensive changes in the ambulance, which the ladies had also provided for the city, and they withdrew a portion of the patrol wagon money to pay the bill. The balance is still in the bank, and still available.

The council, along with the municipal council, is to take up the question of a police patrol. The question of a patrol wagon can be taken up and settled without reference to the municipal body, as it is a matter relating only to the city. Other cities no longer permit the barbarity of hauling drunken men and women through the streets in an open wagon, exposed to the gaze of the public. St. John should also free itself from this disgrace.

DIVIDED EFFORT

The Halifax Echo has started, in opposition to the efforts of Miss Marshall Saunders and other ladies of the Women's Council who sought to provide supervised playgrounds for all the children, a fund to send a limited number of children to Cow Bay each week, to spend a week at that place. There are two obvious remarks to be made. It is not, in the first place, a good advertisement of Halifax as a summer resort that a "fresh air fund" is considered necessary by one of its newspapers. In the second place, it is a pity that in a small city there should be a division of purpose and effort in work for the benefit of the children. There can be no doubt that the children who go to Cow Bay will have a happy week, but with supervised playgrounds such as we have started in St. John they could have many happy weeks; and many hundreds more could enjoy them. It is rather strange that this very patent fact did not impress itself upon the minds of the people.

ON THE WEST SIDE
(Telegraph.)

The west side of the harbor is at present a greater centre of interest than for a long time past, owing to the important developments pending or in progress.

There is first the new steamship berth, which is not making as rapid progress, for various reasons, as the citizens would like to see. As yet the dredging for the berth is not completed, and no tenders have been asked for the construction of the warehouses. The question of an additional berth has been entirely set aside for the present, but must ere long be taken up again.

Then there are the improvements which the C. P. R. desires to make south of its elevator, including a depot and other facilities for handling immigration business; and which are awaiting the word of the city, which in turn awaits word from Ottawa.

There is also the street railway extension, which is now partially in progress, and awaits the determination of the route of further extension.

There is also the dry dock to be considered, and the relation to it of the works in progress or now contemplated. Along with all these is the concern felt for the safety of North Rodney wharf and part of Union street, in connection with the dredging operations.

These are busy days, and no doubt somewhat anxious ones for the mayor and aldermen, for responsibilities and the need of prompt decision press upon them and demand their most thoughtful attention and carefully-considered action.

The city laborers of Montreal will not get the expected increase in wages this year. A special committee recommended the increase, but the finance committee laid the matter over till next year's appropriations are voted. In Lynn, Mass., the waves of city laborers have been increased to two dollars per day.

Lord Northcliffe, in an interview in Montreal, declared yesterday that the thinking young men of England were with Mr. Chamberlain, whose policy he believed would triumph at the next elections in the United Kingdom. The influence of the London Daily Mail and his lordship's other publications, as well as that of many other leading journals is on the side of the Chamberlain policy, which is, Lord Northcliffe says, obscured for the moment by local politics.

Even at Peterhof the Czar is not free from the intrusion of the bomb. There are two men, the anarchists desire especially to destroy—the Czar and Gen. Trepoff. Even the most rigid measures cannot prevent the conspirators from striking terror to the hearts of those they seek to destroy.

There is more delay and trouble about the dredging of the old berths at Sand Point wharves. There is now talk of getting another dredge. Whatever else may be decided on, this dredging must be done.

The colonial delegates to the Congress of Chambers of Commerce will entertain Mr. Chamberlain at luncheon. The ex-colonial secretary will doubtless deliver a notable speech on that occasion.

In another column will be found an interesting account from the New York Herald of the opening of the vacation schools in that city.

If Mr. Winston Churchill should come to Canada in a patronizing mood the pleasure and the fun would be ours.

MONCTON NEWS

Prospect of Light Crops—More Monctonians Going to the West.

MONCTON, July 10.—Henry O'Neill, head of the well-known dry goods house of H. O'Neill & Co., New York, who, with his wife and daughter, has been spending the past ten days in Moncton with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Polleys, left today on a trip through Nova Scotia. After visiting Halifax, Windsor, Yarmouth and points they will cross the bay to St. John and from there go to Montreal, Toronto and Niagara Falls on their return to their summer home in the Catskill Mountains. Mr. O'Neill is president of the Imperial Coal Co., which is operating at Beersville, Kent Co., and he has been spending his time here principally looking over the property in which he has a large financial interest.

I. C. R. employees, particularly those who have been in the service a long time, are considerably disappointed that the promised pension bill for railway employees is apparently not to be considered this session. Those entrusted with promoting the pension scheme say they had the promise of the minister that the bill would be introduced at this session, but as there has been no sign of it, they are growing skeptical as to the intention of the department with reference to it.

Mrs. E. H. Allen and children left today for Antigonish to spend some time with Mrs. Allen's mother.

E. W. Givan is the latest Moncton man to import an auto car of the touring kind. Mr. Givan is daily expecting an up-to-date car from Detroit. This will make the third auto brought into Moncton this summer.

Rupert Curry Co., who have been awarded the contract for the new I. C. R. planing shop to be erected on the new site, expect to commence work on the foundation of the building at once. The Amherst firm intend putting on a large force of men and rushing the work so as to complete the structure this fall within the time limit. Good progress is being made with the car repair shop building foundation by Contractor Walberg.

From different sections in this part of the province come reports of prospects of light crops this fall. A north shore man, in town today, says potatoes and grain are very backward in his part of the province. Root crops are barely coming through the ground.

A. S. Graves, wife and family, of Alber, left today for Calgary, where Mr. Graves has two sons engaged in contract work.

S. W. Irons, principal of the Victoria school, leaves on Tuesday next on a trip to Winnipeg and Calgary. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Irons and Mrs. (Con.) George Nixon and daughter of this city, who will go as far as Edmonton.

A GOOD DEER STORY

Giant Deer Charges on Auto
Near Albany --- Smashes Rear
Lamps and Rips Open a Tire.

ALBANY, July 10.—Springing from the thick brush which lines the roadway in the historic Mohawk Valley, ten miles west of this city, a giant buck deer charged at an automobile driven by William E. Snyder, a well-known travelling man. Before Snyder could drive his machine away, the deer had demolished the rear lamps and torn away one of the tires. The automobile returned to Albany on three tires.

It is assumed that the deer wandered from the foothills of the Adirondacks, north of Saratoga.

MILITIA ORDERS

Ottawa, July 10.—(Special)—The following militia orders are quoted: Maritime provinces—Lieut.-Col. G. Guay, senior paymaster, is retired, retaining rank and granted a pension.

8th Princess Louise's New Brunswick Hussars—Capt. H. E. Scovill is transferred to the reserve officers.

To be provisional lieutenants (superannuated)—George Edward Theodore Roberts and Chester Blake Reid Palmer, Fredericton; Francis F. Lovegrove, gentlemen.

Lieutenant F. Gilmore and W. Bellar are retired on appointment to the permanent force.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Ingersoll, Ont., July 10.—Lightning last night killed ten cows belonging to Mr. Sage, of Folsen's Corner, and W. Turner, of the same neighborhood, had a horse killed in the pasture field. The dead cows were found this morning piled high under a tree, where they had sought shelter. The storm was one of the worst that has visited this section this season.

A CONVERT

Swingin' in a hammock,
Underneath a tree,
Lookin' at a butterfly
An' listenin' to a bee,
Didn't like the thing at first,
When them city folks
Brought it here — We thought it was
One of their pesky jokes!

Mandy thought she'd try it,
An' then I took a swing.
Seemed to keep time to the tune
That the angels sing.
Clear forgot the mortgage,
Didn't care for crops.
Says I, "Mandy, let her keep
A-singin' till she stops!"

Never till that moment
Could I see the charm
That the people sing about
Of life down on the farm.
Livin' in the country's
Good enough for me.
Swingin' in a hammock
Underneath a tree.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

WAS SURE OF HIM.

"Arabella," called the father from the head of the stairs, "is that young man gone?"

"Yes, father. Completely."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

APPEARANCES DECEPTIVE

"But she looks so confiding."
"That's just what makes her so horrid. When you get to know her, you discover that she has nothing to confide!"—Town and Country.

THE ESSENTIAL THING.

Muriel—"Why didn't you marry him? Everybody says he's reformed."
Maud—"Yes, but he reformed too late. His money was all gone."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

DID WHAT HE COULD.

"How many times did you vote in the last election, Uncle Jim?"
"Well, son, I didn't keep no count, but after I'd been dar six hours do votin' tickets run out!"—Atlanta Constitution.

ACQUIRING KNOWLEDGE.

"There, Josiah!" said Mrs. Fodder-shucks, on a visit to the city. "There's a sign that says 'Dermatologist.' Now, when our parrot dies we'll know where to send her to get stuffed!"—Cleveland Leader.

INCONSTANT

"Bliggins says he values his opinions because they are the children of his brain."
"Well, in that case, he should realize the impropriety of trying to get everybody he meets to adopt them."—Washington Star.

THE LOGICAL PLACE

"Where do you think deserted bellies should go when they fail to get a wedding ring?"
"I should say to the court of appeal."—Baltimore American.

OPPOSED TO THE CREDIT SYSTEM.

A thoughtful hostess gave a children's party, and decided it would be healthier to serve only mineral waters. One little girl tasted of her carbonic and laid the glass down. "What's the matter, dear? Don't you like charged water?"
"No, ma'am. Please may I have some water that you paid for?"—Life.

CONFIDED TO THE PRESS.

This notice appeared exactly as follows in an English newspaper published in a town not far from London:

"Will the girl who helped a lady with a leg down a coal hole on Sunday afternoon between three and four o'clock please call at No. — street."

The mere American reader, unused to English ways, will wonder what the "lady" wanted down the coal hole and where her other leg was; or did the latter belong to the other "party"? The notice is ambiguous.—Harper's Weekly.

YOUTH AND AGE.

A callow youth, he longed to shave
Before the dawn was there, but—
A bald-head now, he'd joy to have
Just one old-fashioned hair-cut.

THE HOSPITAL
COMMISSIONERS

Dismissed Nurses Will Probably be Re-instated --- Dr. Malcolm Appointed House Physician.

At the adjourned meeting of the commissioners of the general public hospital yesterday the application of the two nurses who were dismissed from the institution last month by the training school committee was considered. It was decided to refer the matter back to the committee with power to act and from this it is understood reinstatement will follow as soon as the committee meets to deal with the matter. Dr. Donald C. Malcolm, of this city, was appointed resident house physician and superintendent, and Dr. H. Mersereau, of Oaktown, assistant physician in succession to Dr. W. J. Scott, Dr. S. O. McMurtry and Dr. W. S. Loggie, who resigned in consequence of the action of the committee in dismissing the nurses.

A communication from Hon. H. A. McKeown, acting for Mrs. Harry H. McCrackin, the widow of the patient who fell from a window in the institution and died subsequently, was read. It is said that the letter intimated that unless satisfactory compensation was made proceedings would be taken. The commissioners decided the matter should be placed in the hands of Dr. L. A. Curry, K. C., who would be instructed to accept service on their behalf should such a course become necessary.

C. P. R. ACCIDENTS

Galt, Ont., July 10.—The C. P. R. at a point where the line crosses Blair road was the scene of a railway collision at noon today. A freight from the east making its way, it is said, contrary to orders, ran into a construction train carrying 50 Italian navvies. The result was a bad accident and the loss of at least three lives, with a dozen men frightfully injured.
