STOCK MARKET REVOLVES AROUND UNION PACIFIC

Liquidation Appears to Have Run Its Course—Standard Bonds and Stocks a Good Investment at Present Level.

(N. Y. Journal of Commerce, Thursday.)

The whole market revolves round Union Pacific. There are special reasons for straining every nerve to inflate its market quotation; if the shares could be hooked or by crook be forced up to the neighborhood of 100, the $75,000,000 bonds, now a drag on the market, would become distinctly attractive, since they are convertible around 157-1/2. Speculation is rife as to whether such an advance can be achieved in face of the restraining money rates, industrial reaction and agricultural uncertainty. True, no organized opposition may be offered to an advancing movement, but securities carried over from the March panic would unquestionably be released were the list to improve sufficiently to enable Union Pacific to sell at 100. At the moment the market appears to be sold out. Abroad, also, liquidation has evidently run its course, Egypt alone being perhaps excluded in this connection. Once the public are convinced that those in control of the American market will not permit another serious collapse, then they may invest liberally; every day a few thousand shares are taken out of the market, thus gradually strengthening the technical position, and should this unobtrusive purchasing continue, the effect by-and-by would be great. Commission houses, while not encouraging customers to look for a vigorous recovery, are under existing and prospective monetary conditions, do not hesitate to recommend standard bonds and stocks as investments at these levels. This view is shared by recognized authorities on finance in England and on the Continent of Europe. London has lately reported moderate investment buying, and private advices from France state that investors there have shown more interest since the half-yearly settlements passed off without disaster. There is a vast amount of money lying idle in various parts of the world, a goodly part of which would find its way to the investment markets were confidence in matters financial and political restored. In the meantime, a period of calm, speculative and industrial, would hasten the convalescence of disordered security markets. In America, at least, quiet trade, with more rational prices, seems to be assured, and this, of course, will tend to prevent embarrassing financial stringency. Day-by-day money movements have been of a satisfactory nature. Thus far this week the banks have gained from the sub-treasury $2,692,000, and official disbursements are likely to continue on a larger scale than usual on account of bond redemption. The receipt of new money from the west has also been a factor driving the current market up, and will continue to be so owing to the rapid growth of our gold yield. Money rates reflect easier underlying conditions; call money is obtainable around 3 per cent, but cheap time money does not seem imminent. Demand sterling rose to 4.87, and the output of finance bills may not check the tendency of exchange to advance in the absence of commercial remittance. Gold exports may, therefore, again become not only practicable, but profitable.

CHEESE STADY; BUTTER EASY

MONTREAL, July 19.—The cheese market is about steady though there has been some variance in board prices during the last few days. Some orders are coming in from the British market, but dealers seem to think that the present volume of business hardly warrants a rise in market values. Local prices are practically unchanged and colored grades still command a premium over the white. Ontario, white and colored, are quoted at 11-1/2 and 11-3/4 per pound, respectively; Townships, makes are worth about 1-1/4 less, and Eastern grades are held at 11c to 11-1/8c.

The local trade in both creamery and dairy grades of butter could easily stand the substantial increase in volume and the export business of the year to date has been unusually small. Both these factors contribute to the weakness of the situation here, and though the make is smaller than usual this season, it is obvious that stocks are beginning to accumulate which in former years had been kept down by a steady export movement. From 20-1/2 to 22-3/4 per pound is still about the best price obtainable for wholesale lots of choicest Township grades. Western dairy is offered at 18c to 19c per pound.

The services in Trinity church on July 21st, the eighth Sunday after Trinity, will be as follows:—11.05 a. m.—Morning service and Holy Communion. Sermon by Rev. R. A. Armstrong.

2.30 p. m.—Sunday school.
7.00 p. m.—Evening service and sermon.

"Oh, Willie, what's this queer-looking thing with about a million legs?"
"That's a millennium. It's something like a centennial, only it has more legs."

CLEVER CLOTHES

No single word describes the merits of 20th Century Brand garments better than "clever." They are cleverly fashioned, cleverly cut and cleverly tailored—honestly tailored too. They hold their shape because that shape is put in permanently with the needle and not put in temporarily with the flat iron. This is the only clever way to tailor clothes. The flat iron method is the fake method, but it is the only method that can be employed to make cheap clothes. This is one of the great differences between 20th Century Brand garments and the unsatisfactory kind. WE ARE SOLE AGENTS.

SIR WILFRID AT QUEBEC

Premier Delivered Rousing Speech at Reception in His Honor Last Night.

QUEBEC, July 20.—Thirty thousand enthusiastic people participated in the reception of Sir Wilfrid Laurier last night. A stand was erected at St. Peter's Market, in the heart of Sir Wilfrid's own constituency and from this vantage point he addressed the people speaking in response to Dr. Cote's address of welcome. In his address he dealt briefly with the Imperial conference and the questions discussed there. At the same time the representative of the independent states coming up the British Empire met as equals of the imperial government.

Referring to the All-Red Line project Sir Wilfrid said:

a vast one which demanded much thought. A Montreal newspaper has announced that the English premier had decided to oppose it. He did not believe that Campbell-Bannerman had moved either way as yet or would until the matter had been thoroughly discussed. Sir Wilfrid declared that judgment on this matter should be withheld by all until after full discussion of its value had been determined. He, however, was thoroughly convinced that his ideas were in the interest of Canada and the empire and although he had grown old and white in the service of his country he was prepared to work with all his energy to further the cause. This plan he declared would mean great development for the whole of Canada as well as for Quebec city, in particular.

"During the last days of the conference I announced a new idea which has become almost historic—the 'All Red' line. This means that the different parts of the empire wish to share the advantages of the railway lines in which Canada plays no small part. We occupy a unique position as the gateway between Europe and the Orient. My proposition which was adopted by the conference was the establishment at once of fast boats on the Atlantic and Pacific which would bring the east and west of the world into close connections through Canada."

This project, said Sir Wilfrid, was followed Sir Wilfrid, speeches were made by Messrs. Aylesworth, Paterson, Lemieux, Bureau, Premier Gouin and Hon. A. Turgeon.

WORK AT WINTER POT MINES.

Some Belgian miners have just completed a contract to put down another shaft for Gibbon & Co. at their Winter Pot Mines in Queens Co. When this new shaft is in operation, which will be within a few weeks, Gibbon & Co. will have three shafts for mining coal at these mines. Each is furnished with a railway connection so that the coal from the mine is dumped from the mine box directly over the screen, the screened coal going in the car on the outside track and the slack coal passing through the screen falls into the inside track. The coal is then brought to St. John, and is perfectly clean and giving good satisfaction for house and steam use.

"TRIPLE X" FOR SELF-FEEDERS.

Those who are particular about the coal they use in their self-feeder stoves are getting in their supplies from Gibbon & Co.'s special importation of Triple X Lehigh Coal.

This coal makes more heat and less ash and lasts longer than the ordinary coals. The price is very reasonable.

Gibbon & Co.'s office at 6-1-2 Charlotte street, is open till 9 p. m. to receive orders.

SUMMER TIME IS DANGER TIME.

With the athletic indulgences of warm weather, the free-and-easy life of city folks in the country and the constant risk they are running of injury more or less serious, a big 25c bottle of Dr. Scott's White Liniment should be packed away in every trunk or suitcase. It's a little doctor, and has a hundred good points. Every good drug store.

THE CEDAR OPENS TODAY

Things are now in shape for the opening of the north end picture palace today at 1.30. The big red sign in front of Union Hall, along with abundant electric lights and other improvements, have wonderfully changed the appearance of things in that vicinity. Frank Stanton and his men were to be seen at a late hour last night completing the electric wiring, &c. The curtain has been stretched and is the largest in the city.

Great interest is manifested, especially in north end, and it is generally expected that many hundreds will witness the big opening show at The Cedar this afternoon and evening.

Professor Crocker's wonderful educated horses at the Opera House gave a splendid exhibition last night. This afternoon and tonight will be the last chance to see them.

Registrar Jones reports three marriages during the present week; also four births, all boys.

Within the hammock's net she swung,
So graceful and so fair,
Her arms above her head were flung,
Lovingly beyond compare.
He stood beside her for awhile,
Enchanted by her sight,
Till finally a blush and smile
He saw upon her face.
And then he heard her softly say,
First looking at him so:
"Now please, Fred, turn your head away,
I'm going to get out!"
