Ald. Bullock and Frink are Back From Montreal

SAW STEAMSHIP MEN

And Next Year's Port Revenues Will Probably Be Much Heavier Than Last Season --Wharfage Charges to Be Increased

Aldermen J. H. Frink and T. H. Bullock arrived home today from Montreal, where they were in consultation with the heads of the steamship companies. Both aldermen were reticent as to what had been accomplished, but said they felt well satisfied with their trip. It is understood that they were promised practically what they asked for and that the wharfage charges during the coming winter season will be on a scale that will pay interest on the sinking fund and perhaps a little more.

NEW MOTOR CAR IS ELUSIVE

Nobody Knows When it Goes Forth On Its Glad Career to the Suburbs.

The new I. C. R. motor car, which is said to have been sent down here to see if the people would want it on the suburban service, should have been at the depot at 9 o'clock. A citizen accepted the intimation and went down to the depot. He could not find the car, and was told by one man that it would not leave until 1:30 o'clock. At the ticket office he was told it was at the end of the depot and he should hurry up to catch it. He hurried up, but it wasn't there, although other passengers were. Then another man assured him that it would not leave until 1:30. Finally this statement was confirmed, and the citizen came back up town, having lost half a day in connection with the business he had to transact out of town. He said things.

AGAIN ADJOURNED

Cases Against Ferrish and Francis Will Come Up in Police Court Tomorrow.

Preliminary hearing in the case against Mamie Ferrish, the young colored woman charged with robbing William Lounsbury of Bath, Maine, of $400 in her house on Sheffield street, and John Francis a mulatto, who was charged with having seen the color and arranged with the Ferrish woman, was continued before Judge Ritchie this morning and after two witnesses had been examined, postponement was made till 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Patrolman Joseph Scott, the first witness, stated that on July 31st, he was on the beat at Red's Point and in consequence of information received went to the Ferrish woman's house in Sheffield street. He then told of the arrest of Mamie Ferrish and Mary Deagan, and of the former's denial of ever having seen William Lounsbury. Witness also stated that he saw the prisoner Francis, on the day in question. The money shown him by the Ferrish woman's aunt did not correspond with that which Lounsbury had lost. John and Amelia Francis were present when the Ferrish woman's house was being searched. Policeman Belyea was also examined and adjournment was made till tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

P. fell 2, Amalgamated Copper, Anaconda and Sugar 1, and N. Y. C. and Penna. large fractions.

CASABLANCA STREETS FILLED WITH BODIES; TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER

Moorish Soldiers and Arabs Massacred Jewish Residents After the Bombardment Began—Europe Must Teach Morocco a Wholesome Respect for Law and Order.

TANGIER, Aug. 9.—Tranquillity has been restored at Casablanca and the fanatic and hostile tribesmen who invaded the city had been driven out when the French cruiser Forbin, which arrived here this morning left the port. All Europeans and others who sought refuge on the steamers in the bay have returned to their homes. Much of the city of Casablanca is practically in ruins as a result of the bombardment, even the European quarter being extensively damaged. The warships having directed the fire of their guns on that part of Casablanca with the object of ending the extensive looting in which the Moors were revelling. The bodies of those who were killed in the recent fighting have since been piled up in the streets and are being buried as quickly as possible.

Four battalions of Spanish infantry, with rapid fire guns which have been stationed at Algiers, near Gibraltar, have been ordered to proceed to Morocco.

In response to the urgent request of the British consul at Mazagan, a short distance to the southwest of Casablanca a steamer was today despatched from here to that port.

The Spanish cruiser Ro de La Plata from Cadiz has arrived at Casablanca to reinforce the international fleet. Casablanca is now in complete possession of the French and Spanish forces. Of the former, about 2,000 are ashore and others are ready to land at short notice, should it be necessary for reinforcement. The Moors, however, are still in the city, and are being killed and burned on all sides.

The sacked the customs house and burned a large part of the city, whose streets are so filled with decomposing bodies that an epidemic is threatened. Among the Jews killed was a man under the protection of the British consulate.

THE BRITISH ARTILLERYMEN

They Arrived From Petewawa This Afternoon and Will be Entertained Here.

The British artillerymen who are en route to Halifax from Petewawa, arrived on the Montreal train today. They will spend the afternoon and evening here as guests of the local artillerymen. Among the visitors is Colonel the Rt. Hon. Earl of Strathmore, C. B., V. D., A. D. C., president of the National Artillery Association. He is accompanied by his wife, the Countess of Strathmore. The commanding officer of the team is Col. Sydney Wishart, who is also accompanied by his wife. The men are a fine, stalwart looking lot of fellows, and many favorable comments were heard about their neat appearance as they detrained in their khaki suits and white helmets.

Col. W. W. White, of the 3rd Regt. A., Capt. B. R. Armstrong, of the 3rd Regt., and Major T. D. Walker, of the A. M. C., were at the depot to meet the visitors.

The Earl and Countess of Strathmore with their party, had a private car. Col. White accompanied the titled visitors in a barouche to the Royal Hotel, where a suite has been secured.

The officers of the team are all quartered at the Royal and the men are stopping at the Park Hotel.

This afternoon the men will be given a drive about the city and refreshments will be served at Martello Tower.

Tonight they will be entertained at a supper in the pavilion at Rockwood Park, when the Artillery Band will be present and provide a programme.

The officers will be tendered a dinner at the United Club by the local officers.

The members of the team express themselves as having enjoyed every minute of their stay in Canada and speak in terms of the highest praise of the hospitality that has been extended to them.

Allan Chapman, manager of the International copper mines at Dorchester, arrived in the city this morning on his way to Dorchester from New York.

His sisters were assaulted and carried off by Moors. Many feats of heroism both by French and Spanish sailors are recounted.

PARIS, Aug. 9.—The more serious newspapers are fully alive today to the heavy task that confronts France and Spain in Morocco and all the possibilities of its growing greater.

The Petite Republique says: "The people of Europe face the dilemma of either quitting Morocco or making themselves respected by their own methods. This is what France and Spain are doing in the name of the rest of Europe, for it is inadmissible that Morocco should remain the only closed country in the world."

The Journal calls attention to the magnitude of the operations that may have to be undertaken, and the fighting of all the big Moroccan tribes, who long ago threw off the yoke of the government and lapsed into barbarism.

M. Pichon, the foreign minister, has given up his vacation and will remain in the capital during the Moroccan crisis.

TANGIER, Aug. 8.—At Casablanca all the European and native ships have been loaded with the tribesmen, and their third for blood, killed even their Mohammedan fellow-townsmen.

During Monday night a small party of French seamen made a courageous fight and put to flight one hundred tribesmen who had surrounded the consulate. The French lost one man killed and three wounded while the tribesmen were killed and several wounded in the defence of the consulate.

Many acts of heroism are reported. For instance, a rush made by forty Spanish seamen to relieve the garrison at the Spanish consulate, in the course of which they had to make a way for themselves by blowing up an entire building with dynamite cartridges.

The Italian and Portuguese consuls took refuge at the French consulate while the other consular representatives went to the British consulate.

TANGIER, Aug. 9.—The town of Cape Juby, on the west coast of Africa has been attacked and raided by the Aituyusa and Aitjemal tribes. A number of the garrison were killed and the remainder were made prisoners. The governor escaped in a boat to the fort on Ferteven Island, opposite Cape Juby. The rebel tribesmen completely looted Cape Juby.

TANGIER, Aug. 9.—The latest news from Rabat confirms previous reports and is most disquieting. The tribesmen threatening to attack Rabat unless the French control of the customs is abolished and all foreigners there are kept strictly within their own quarter. No details of the bombardment of Mazagan have been received, but a steamer just in from there says the cruiser Duchayla's bombardment put an end to the massacre of Jews. A Moorish official here has just received a letter from the governor of Tetuan stating that Sir Harry McLean is no longer in the custody of Raisuli, the chief of the Knaass tribe having demanded and obtained permission that he be turned over to their custody. If this be true there is little doubt that the captive soon will be liberated.

Description of Casablanca

CASABLANCA, or Dar el Beida—the White House—was built on the ruins of Anfa, a town said to have been founded by the Romans. Anfa was destroyed by the Portuguese in 1483, but they abandoned the place in 1515, soon after they had rebuilt and renamed it. The plain on which the town is placed is of great extent and very fertile.

Viewed from the sea Casablanca's compact looking walls, batteries and a couple of minarets, give it a respectable appearance, but inside the walls it is a dirty and most tumble-down place. The walls are twenty feet high, and made of tibia. They are supported at short intervals by square buttresses, and at longer intervals by round towers. The country all around is flat and marshy, but there are good fig orchards and some fine palm trees. The exports of Casablanca chiefly consist of maize and beans. The town and Mazagan, are the chief ports for these articles of produce.

In addition Casablanca exports more wool than any other place on the coast. Carpets and slippers are sent in large quantities to Gibraltar, from which place they are transhipped to Alexandria.

BUSY DAY IN POLICE COURT

Magistrate Ritchie's Time Was Well Occupied This Morning

Several interesting and amusing cases were dealt with at this morning's session of the police court which lasted from shortly before ten o'clock until past mid-day.

William Bradley charged with obstructing the passage way at the east side ferry floats last night, had some difficulty deciding whether he had offended or not but finally pleaded guilty. Asked by the court if he understood what he was doing, the prisoner said he had no lawyer and no money and gave this as a reason for pleading guilty.

Policeman McNamee who made the arrest, said he had asked the prisoner if he was going to Carleton and was answered in the affirmative. Witness told him he had better "go on through," but Bradley was indifferent to what was said to him and as a result, was arrested. The prisoner admitted he had been drinking and was told by his honor that the city council had issued strict orders relative to obstructing the passage way at the ferry houses as women without escorts must be protected. He was remanded.

Frederick Boyd, a colored resident of Duke street was charged by his wife with assaulting her and doing grievous bodily injury. Boyd denied the charge and begged his wife's forgiveness saying he would do all in his power to provide for her and their two little children.

Mrs. Boyd declared that her husband had been keeping company with Mattie Mann for two months, had done nothing towards the maintenance of the household. On searching for Boyd about one o'clock this morning, she found him in an alley in company with another woman. Her husband, she said, caught hold of her and threw her down twice.

Boyd said he had never raised a hand to strike his wife, and only tried to keep her away from the other woman. Then, amid laughter from the spectators, he placed his hands tenderly upon the shoulders of his better half to illustrate just how he had tried to part her from the woman. He declared that he would do no condition either to fight with the other woman or to work for the support of the children. He evaded all questions as to why he had done nothing for his wife and family for the past two months, but said he didn't want to go to jail, as he had employment and would arrange that he should draw his wages. He only wanted his wife's forgiveness.

Boyd was told by the court that he was liable to two months in jail and was remanded.

James Connors and Joseph Devine, arrested last night in Queen Square, having failed to give a satisfactory account of themselves to the police, were also in court. Both prisoners, but particularly Connors, expressed the opinion that their arrests were quite unwarranted, and both were remanded so that witnesses could be brought.

James McCauley and Richard Fitzgerald were fined $4 or ten days each for drunkenness and James Adams and Perl Lanox were fined $8 or thirty days each on similar charges.

A STATEMENT MADE BY CONDUCTOR WOOD

He Says the Magistrate Came to Him About the Crawford Affair

Harry D. Wood called at the Times office this morning to explain his position in the matter between the police magistrate and ex-officer Robert Crawford. Mr. Wood states emphatically that he did not go to the magistrate with a statement of what he had heard Officer Crawford say about the former's motor car. On the contrary he was accosted on the street car by the magistrate, who asked him if he would come to his private office and have an interview. Mr. Wood replied in the affirmative and went. There he was asked to tell what he knew about the alleged epithet used on his car by Officer Crawford concerning the magistrate. He said to the latter that what he might say was to go no further, and the magistrate agreed. He had no idea then that the police clerk was taking down what he said, and when his statement was read to him and he was asked to sign it he had no idea of what would follow. He did not realize that the statement had the force of an oath, and if put on oath he could not swear positively that it was Officer Crawford who used the epithet. He wished to make it clear that he did not voluntarily go to the magistrate, but the latter, who evidently got information from someone too cowardly to come out in the open was sent to him for confirmation.

SOLDIERS MASSACRED

Rebels in Java Attacked Infantry Detachment and Killed Forty-five.

BATAVIA, Java, Aug. 9.—A detachment of infantry commanded by two lieutenants has been massacred by rebels in the Moridist division of Celsbes. The victims, including some convicts, numbered forty-five.

CIVIC PAY DAY

Chamberlain Sandall this morning disbursed the city laborers' pay for the past fortnight. The amount was heavier than usual owing to the large number of men employed on Union street, west end, and in repairs and construction work in the water and sewerage department. Nearly $700 was for repairs to the No. 2 water main. Following are the amounts:—

Street	$4,276.1
Water and sewerage	3,016.22
Ferry	162.30
	$7,454.73

CROP PROSPECTS ARE FAIRLY GOOD

New Brunswick's Crop Will be up to Average

POTATO CROP HEAVY

And in the River Counties it Will Probably be a Record Breaker—Grain Yield Will Also be Good—Upland Hay Better Than for Years.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Aug. 9.—(Special).—Information in the possession of the agricultural department here goes to show that all crops in New Brunswick this season will be pretty well up to the average, providing there is favorable weather for harvesting.

In York, Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska counties the hay crop has not been so good for years, but what has been cut so far has been injured by bad weather. In the eastern part of the province the crop is very good on the uplands but very well but is unlikely that the potato will be up to that of last year. The potato crop particularly in the St. John river counties promises to be a record breaker.

Grain in all sections of the province is looking well and the yield promises to be well up to the average. Apples are doing very well but it is unlikely that the yield will be up to that of last year. The potato crop particularly in the St. John river counties promises to be a record breaker.

HARD ON THEM NOW

German Dancing Masters Must Call Their Dances by German Names—Imagine "Gesellschaftstanz" for "Cotillion."

DRESDEN, Saxony, Aug. 9.—A wet and otherwise cheerless season has been somewhat brightened here by a convention of dancing masters. In their debates they demanded that the government recognize their work as a trade or a profession and forbid any one to practice it unless he can convince a committee of "professors," that he is competent and respectable. They argue that, so many in the business are not fit to teach a dance to a graduate teacher. Taking their cue from Emperor William, perhaps, they object to French dancing terms. A committee which had been studying the subject a year reported in favor of using "the foreign" (courtly pronunciation) for "quadrille," "geisteslich" for "franchise," "geisteslich" for "Gesellschaftstanz" for "cotillion" and "begruessungszug" for "polonaise." But no German equivalents were found for sundry other terms, and after sifting the committee severely for this lapse, the convention postponed the subject for a year when an international dancing congress is to be called to "improve our position in the eyes of the people."

ALGER JOINS MARK TWAIN ON WORCESTER BLACKLIST

New York Writer's Stories for Boys too Sensational, Says Its Censor.

WORCESTER, Aug. 9.—Horatio Alger, Jr., of New York, the well-known writer of books for boys, according to an edict at the public library here has been put in the same class with Mark Twain, Robert W. Chambers, Walt Whitman and other well known producers of literature, some of whose works have recently been barred from the circulating shelves of Worcester county libraries.

All of Alger's works have been removed from the circulating shelves at the library. The librarian of the children's department says they were put under ban because they were not truthful, were too sensational and altogether undesirable for young boys to read.

TRAGEDY SOLVED BY FINDING OF BODIES

Bodies of Shirley Davidson and Miss Hingston Found Near Varennes This Morning

MONTREAL, Aug. 9.—(Special).—The Varennes drowning tragedy was cleared up by finding the two bodies this morning. The body of Shirley Davidson was found about four miles below the Hingston home, Varennes. Later, Miss Hingston's body was found eleven miles below where the drowning is supposed to have taken place.

The funeral of John Tipping took place from the residence of Mrs. Burnside, 80 Dorchester street this afternoon at 12:30. The body was taken to the I. C. R. depot for shipment to Model Farm for interment. Rev. J. F. Ford held services at the house last evening and accompanied the remains.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

GETTING NEXT TO THE JOB.

It is reported that the new I. C. R. motor car sneaked down the Long Wharf last night and was met there by Wun Lung, which sneaked up the harbor to the trying place, and that the two held a long conference. Wun Lung is said to have pointed out to the new comer from Moncton that to have a time-table and stick to it was not considered good form in this city, and that if the motor car wanted to make a hit on the suburban route it should announce its departure for 9 o'clock and go at 1:30. The motor car apologized for having given offence and promised to do better. Then they embraced and parted.

When the Ludlow learned that $3,000 had been spent in repairs on the water main between the One Mile House and Silver Falls, she became greatly agitated and blew out several other sections of herself. It is said to be her fixed determination not to be outdone in the matter of repairs by any old water pipe that has been under ground for forty years.

A man who has spent the last fifteen years as a guide in the Yukon is in the city and is said to be a favorite with many aldermen for the office of director of public works. He says the streets of St. John are so much like Yukon trails—especially the paved streets—that he feels perfectly at home in this city.

The prolonged appearance of the sun today is said to have quite seriously affected the sight of some persons, who were not prepared for a whole day of fine weather.
