CARVELL OR PUGSLEY?

Ottawa, Aug. 7—(Special)—The Liberal members of the commons from New Brunswick are en route to Ottawa and will all be here tomorrow for a conference with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in reference to the choice of New Brunswick's representative in the cabinet to succeed Hon. H. R. Emmerson, ex-minister of railways.

The new minister, it is understood, will be either F. B. Carvell, member for Carleton county, or Hon. William Pugsley, ex-premier of New Brunswick and now Liberal candidate for St. John in the federal bye-election.

Sir Wilfrid's choice will doubtless be largely influenced by the views expressed tomorrow by the New Brunswick members.

HORSES SOLD AT MONCTON

Remaining Nineteen Horses of Government Importation Disposed of Yesterday at Good Prices.

Moncton, N. B., Aug. 7—The sale of horses imported by the local government took place at the exhibition speedway this afternoon, and was largely attended by horsemen from surrounding towns. WILL SPEAK IN PICTOU

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper Will Address Meeting There Tonight ---Demonstration at Westville.

Halifax, Aug. 7—Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, who was in Halifax today, will leave in the morning for Pictou. He will address a meeting in Pictou town Thursday evening and a big demonstration will be given in his honor at Westville on Friday. He has not been in Pictou since he was last elected to parliament and he is now going there to thank the people for the favor done him—"for favors past, not to come," he added.

His time in Nova Scotia will be brief and he says he will spend practically all of it in Pictou seeing his friends there. Next week he will go to Quebec to meet his son, who is coming from England, and whom he will escort to Vancouver.

WEDDINGS

Tingley--MacRae

Caledonia, Albert county—At 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, July 24, a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Amanda MacRae, of Caledonia, when her daughter, Miss Eliza E. MacRae, was united in marriage to Arthur B. Tingley, of Caledonia, by Rev. Mr. Ganong, in the presence of about eighty guests. The bride was dressed in white silk and carried a pretty bouquet of maiden blush roses. She was unattended. Little Bernard Davis, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer. The bride and groom stood under an arch made of roses and ferns, beneath some pretty trees on the lawn. Lunch was served on the lawn also. The bride and groom received a large number of handsome and useful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold brooch. They will reside at the home of the groom in Caledonia.

CAMPBELLTON WEDDINGS

Campbellton, N. B., Aug. 7—The marriage of Miss Maud Lacasse, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Lacasse, and Alexander Roy, formerly of Petit Rocher, but now with the Peter McSweeney Company, of Moncton, took place in the Church of Our Lady of the Snows today. The newly wedded couple left at 6 o'clock on the Lady Eileen for Gaspe, from there they will go to Charlottetown and thence to Halifax.

Councillor J. H. Taylor was married here this morning to Miss May Ann Dickie, formerly of Charlo.

Nathan Green, of Chicago, who formerly conducted a large wholesale and retail cigar business in this city, and is well remembered by the older residents, arrived in St. John yesterday. On retiring from business here, Mr. Green removed to Chicago, where he has since resided. Two of his daughters, Mrs. H. J. Franks, of Chicago, and Mrs. E. Berger, of Boston, both of whom are natives of St. John, and received their education here, accompanied their father. The party, which also includes Miss Jennie Franks, a granddaughter of Mr. Green, are the guests of Louis Green.

C. E. McIsaac, of the transcontinental railway commission, and F. E. McIsaac are at the Royal. They have been spending a vacation for the last two weeks in Antigonish and will leave here for that summer resort again to spend a few days before returning to Ottawa. While here yesterday, they went driving with Chief Engineer Dunn, and had a consultation on the general progress of the transcontinental railway work in the province.

Senator King, of Chipman, is at the Royal. He says that the government is arranging for an excursion of members of the house, newspaper men and others over the line of the Central Railway early in September. Engineer W. C. Hunter has been laid up for a week past with an injury to his knee but is around again.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Chester I. Long

Senator Chester I. Long, of Kansas, was born at Perry Pa., on October 12, 1860. He was taken to Dariess county, Mo., when five years of age, and was educated in the public schools of that district. He migrated to Kansas in 1879, and settled at Paola, where he studied law, and was admitted to practice in 1885. On February 12, 1895, he married Miss Anna Bache at Paola. Previous to his marriage Senator Long had already served two terms in the Kansas State Senate, and was elected to congress, serving from 1895 to 1897, and from 1899 until 1903, when he was elected to the upper house of congress. The Long residence is at Medicine Lodge, Kansas.

N. B. COLD STORAGE CO.

Organization Was Completed Yesterday and Officers Were Appointed.

The New Brunswick Cold Storage Company was organized at a meeting in the city last evening and is an amalgamation of the provincial company with the company now building the warehouse near the I. C. R. pier.

The following officers were elected: R. J. Graham, president; George McAvity, vice-president; L. S. Macoun, secretary-treasurer, and H. R. Ross, of Sussex, and A. I. Trueman, directors.

It is understood the company will proceed with the building of the warehouse now being erected at a cost of $125,000, and will operate under the provincial charter granted to the New Brunswick Company.

ANOTHER SESSION BEFORE ELECTION

This is What R. L. Borden Said in Toronto Yesterday---His Political Tour.

Toronto, Aug. 7—(Special)—"I have every reason to believe there will be another session before election," said R. L. Borden, M. P., who arrived at the King Edward today from Montreal.

Mr. Borden will commence his political tour this month, beginning in the maritime provinces and going westward to the coast, which he will reach by Nov. 1.

OBITUARY

Thomas Dykeman

Thomas Dykeman, a merchant and farmer, of Jemseg, died there last Monday. He was about eighty years old, and is survived by his wife.

Mrs. Matilda M. Quinton

Mrs. Matilda M., widow of William Quinton, died in her home in Kincardine (Ont.), on Monday. Mrs. Quinton was a former resident of this city, and conducted a boarding house for many years at the corner of Sewell and Coburg streets. She belonged to Kincardine, where her brother, John Fisher, a prominent farmer, died recently. W. A. Quinton, of the provincial hospital, is a relative, and Mrs. Charles K. Cameron is a sister-in-law of the deceased. Mrs. Quinton was deeply interested in Methodist church affairs in St. John, and was a woman who was held in high esteem. She was more than seventy years of age.

As many of the members of the Neptune Rowing Club who intend participating in the regatta on Lily Lake on Saturday, Aug. 10, will be out of the city on that date, it has been decided to postpone the water sports until Saturday, Aug. 24.
