Life's Merry Side.
By OLIVER MOORE.

TOO GOOD TO LIVE.

She—Has that novel got a pleasant ending.

He—Yes. The hero and the heroine die in the last chapter.

She—He stopped drinking on the day he was married, I believe.

He—Yes. He didn't drink a drop the whole day.

FORCE OF HABIT.

Spinks—How Bentluy chops off his words! You would think to hear him that it costs money to talk and that he must therefore say everything in the shortest way.

Winks—Oh! that's only another illustration of the force of habit. He has lived in a flat so long that it has become second nature to him to condense wherever such a thing is possible.

UP IN THE WORLD.

Blanks—Jinks doesn't trade horses any more—he's getting very chesty.

Blinks—What's he trade nowadays?

Blanks—Automobiles.

WHY THEY WERE AFTER HIM.

Orville Short—You never see me running after people who have money.

Luke Sharpe—No, but I've seen people running after you because you didn't have any.

NOT HIS CHOICE.

She—You're inclined to be stout, aren't you?

He (rather obese)—No, indeed. I simply can't help it.

WORKING FOR A SANITARIUM

A Fund of $100,000 Being Raised in British Columbia--The Ravages of Consumption.

(Victoria B. C. Colonist)

"Consumption is certainly spreading rapidly in this city," said Dr. C. J. Fagan, secretary of the provincial board of health in an interview at Vancouver. "Statistics prove that almost 200 people are killed by this disease every year in British Columbia, and according to the official organs 23 deaths were reported in the months of January and February in Vancouver. This is a most serious state of affairs, and deserves much thought. Consumption may be cured and can be prevented, and yet it is the only disease for which nothing has actually been done; even the public hospitals do not admit consumptives."

Dr. Fagan is one of the foremost workers of the British Columbia Anti-Tuberculosis Society, which organization has undertaken the work of providing the Sanitarium on the shores of Kamloops lake, and the auxiliary institution at Fish lake, 25 miles from Kamloops, where 400 acres have been secured, with an elevation of 4200 feet above sea level, where it is proposed to establish a home and camping ground for people afflicted with the incipient stages of the dread disease. Just as soon as the spring weather is sufficiently advanced for work to be started, building will be begun and pushed forward with every possible despatch so that the sanitarium proper and chalets at Fish lake may open for the reception of patients before summer actually begins.

"It is everywhere admitted," said Dr. Fagan "that the only way to treat consumption with effect is in a properly equipped hospital, and wherever these steps have been taken the results are very striking.

"In England the death rate has been reduced 50 per cent; in Germany 60 per cent., but in Ireland where no steps have been taken, the deaths from consumption have increased 15 per cent.

"A consumptive hospital," pursued the doctor, "benefits the community in three ways. It may be the consumptives will be cured; removing the consumption from a family takes away the source of infection; and when the consumptive returns to his home, whether better or not better, he is educated so that he need no longer be a source of danger to his family or to the community, and further, he becomes a centre of education to his circle of acquaintances, whih has a most far-reaching effect.

"It is estimated that the Sanitarium at Kamloops lake will cost about $50,000. The city of Vancouver has promised $5,000 and when we have collected $50,000 we will be entitled to the donation of Lieut-Gov. Dunsmuir of $10,000. In all, we are asking for $100,000, which is deemed sufficient for establishing both the hospital and the auxiliary institution on a firm financial basis. All funds which are collected will be placed in the hands of trustees in the Bank of Montreal. The gentlemen who have assumed this responsibility are Chief Justice Hunter, Mr. Campbell Sweeney, manager of the Bank of Montreal, Vancouver, and George Gillespie, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Victoria."

NERVOUS and WEAK

To the thousands of people all over this land who are tossing on sleepless pillows night after night, or who pace the bedroom floor with nerves unhinged, and to whose eyes sleep will not come,

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They restore the equilibrium of the deranged nerve centres, and bring back the shattered nervous system to perfect condition.

Mrs. Wm. Richardson, Pontypool, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was troubled at times with my heart, felt weak and nervous and could not sleep at night. I have taken several boxes of the pills and am wonderfully improved.

I have recommended them to others and they have found them just what they needed."

The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
