MARKET AGAIN TREMBLES AS STOCK PRICES FALL

Low Record for Six Years Almost Brings on Panic ---More Than 40 Securities Come Crashing Down as Result of Uncertainty of Government Action in Anti-Corporation Crusade---London Trading Weak.

(New York Commercial, Tuesday.)

Many more millions were taken off the market value of securities yesterday by a decline more violent than any of those last week. Trading was in greater volume and more excited, liquidation was heavier and more costly and the apprehensions of trouble as a result of the break keener and more acute. To all inquiries as to the cause of the break there was the same old answer. Radical anti-corporation action by various state and national authorities had frightened holders of stocks into changing them for cash.

"If a redistribution of wealth is still advocated by the national administration," cynically remarked a banker while the liquidation was heaviest, "it is bringing this about rapidly by bringing about a break in the market. There has already taken place a tremendous depreciation in the value of large fortunes. But it must impress every one as rather unfortunate that thousands of small investors have suffered a corresponding loss."

The market was badly upset in the early trading. Both then and at subsequent times in the day there were collapses in prices which seemed to bring it near to demoralization and panic. Complete collapse was stayed, apparently, by supporting orders on these bad spots. There was accordingly no panic, but almost all day long stocks sold at lower than panic prices. The low average of the day was well below the day of any preceding break since the Northern Pacific panic. The silent panic of March was wiped out for purposes of comparison.

CONSERVATIVE SUPPORT LACKING.

At the close there was no suggestion of concerted support from large financial interests. Apparently, much as they disliked the depreciation in their own holdings, they considered it idle, in the present straitened condition of the money market, to step in and take all the stocks thrown over by big and little frightened investors. The selling movement was so widespread, it was generally agreed, that prices could be held up only by an extension of credits which most of the leading financial interests considered altogether inadvisable.

Two bankers made suggestions, which, they said they had reason to believe might bear fruit. They propsed going to the root of the trouble and curing the disease by endeavoring to remove its cause. They advocated intercession with the national authorities and a formal and concerted request that either it modify its anti-corporation programme or let it be known precisely what this programme is, so that investors might know which stocks stand a chance of decrease of dividend return from imposition of penalties and which corporations are the sheep and which the goats.

There were rather persistent failure rumors yesterday but when names were mentioned they were mentioned guardedly. Generally they were unaccompanied by names. Many of them, as is the case on every sharp decline, were doubtless promulgated without foundation by bear operators. Practically all of the others, no doubt, took their inspiration from the quotations. Aprehensions of failures were as keen in the morning as at any other time of the day.

TWO SCORE OF STOCKS DROP.

Altogether at least two-score stocks established new low records in the early trading. The market seemed entirely demoralized. Purchasing power remained for all the active stocks, though it was a weak purchasing power, but in some of those not so active speculatively, there was no response whatever to selling orders. The general condition was the closest approach to a panic market that has been seen since last week when the downward movement began.

The day opened with disconcerting reports from abroad. The London market was nervous and unsettled, for the continent was asking for gold which London was loath to give, and Berlin, which was selling American stocks freely, was nervous over the condition of one of its banks. American stocks declined very sharply in the London market in consequence and very heavy selling orders were sent over from both London and Berlin for execution in the early trading here.

Brokers on this side had a multitude of selling orders, many of which had appeared in the Monday morning mail. Reflection over the drastic anti-corporation developments of the week had apparently intensified the alarm of investors. The number of selling orders so far overmatched the buying orders that floor traders quickly saw the impossibility of executing them at prices even close to Saturday's closing. The rush to execute them at the smallest possible concessions from Saturday's prices brought about the most exciting opening trading of the year. About the same posts stocks sold at the same instant sold at widely different prices. The trading was on an enormous scale and the excitement intense.

The early smash in prices resulted in the breaking of nearly every low record. Standard Oil, although not listed on the New York Stock Exchange, sold more than 400 points lower than at any time in six years, and this was an influence for evil. Traders were prepared for a bad opening, and rushed to sell, while orders to dispose at any price came in by both mail and telegraph. On Saturday last there was heavy calling of margins, and this frightened those who were carrying stocks on margin more than ever. Their nerves had been shattered by the experiences of the week before, and they were in no shape to go through the ordeal again.

FARM LABORERS EXCURSIONS, 1907

Thousands of Laborers Required to Assist in Gathering the Western Wheat Crop.

Advices just received by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company indicate that the wheat crop of Manitoba and the Canadian Northwest will, though not as heavy as last year, owing to the increased acreage under cultivation, equal the enormous harvest of last season. Consequently thousands of laborers are again required to assist in its gathering. There is work for all who can go—work for a vast army of helpers. The call of the West for help is one that must be heeded, for upon it depends largely the growth and development of our country.

A Farm Laborers' Excursion will be run from all points in Nova Scotia, and from points in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island on Tuesday, August 20th. One way second class tickets to Winnipeg will be sold from coupon ticket stations. The rate from C. P. R. lines in New Brunswick will be $12.00 going and $18.00 returning. From points on I. C. R. lines in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, also from points on the D. A. R. the rate will be $13.00 going and $19.00 returning. From points on the P. E. I. Ry. the rate will be $13.50 going and $19.50 returning. Tickets will be sold to female as well as to male laborers, but tickets will not be sold at half rate to children. (See advertisement in this issue.) With each ticket purchaser will receive a verification certificate with an extension coupon, which when signed at Winnipeg by a farmer showing the holder has engaged to work as a farm laborer, will be honored prior to September 30th for a free ticket to any station in Manitoba or Saskatchewan southwest, northwest or west of Winnipeg, to and including Moosejaw Swan River and Kamsack. From these points to Calgary and Macleod, including Strathcona and Macleod branches, tickets will be issued at one cent per mile. If on arrival at western destination, verification certificate is deposited with agent and holder works at least thirty days as a farm laborer, he will be issued on or before November 30th, 1907, second class ticket from Moosejaw, Swan River, Kamsack, and any station east thereof in territory mentioned, to original starting point in the east by same route as travelled on the going journey on payment of the returning rate as shown above, and from stations west of these points, in territory mentioned, tickets will be issued on payment of one cent per mile to Moosejaw, Swan River or Kamsack plus farm laborers' rate shown above to eastern destination. 150 lbs baggage, wearing apparel only, will be allowed free on each ticket, and each piece of baggage checked should bear the name of the owner, and show their home address. It is expected that special passenger trains (particulars to be announced later) will be run on the main lines, and tickets will not be accepted on regular trains. All further information can be had on application to nearest agent or from W. B. Howard, D. P. A., C. P. Ry., St. John, N. B.

PARTY SPLIT IN STORMONT

The Trouble in the Liberal Ranks is of Ten Years' Standing --- An Interesting Story.

There is an interesting political story in connection with the announcement that Ambrose Mulhern will run as an independent liberal in the federal elections, in Stormont, Ont., in opposition to Robert Smith, the regular liberal nominee. The Montreal Star tells the story as follows:—

How the trouble started is a long story, but an interesting one, and it is a fair example of the harm that two men, both ambitious, can do to a party The strife started almost ten years ago, or in 1898, and at this time Mr. Mulhern, who had been a supposed Conservative, renounced his allegiance to that party and joined the Liberal ranks. At that time the matter of the choice of a candidate for the provincial house was agitating the minds of the Liberal party of this county, and the contest for the nomination was between Messrs. Smith and Mulhern, the former, a lawyer of Cornwall, and a man up in the counsels of the party, and the latter, a coal dealer, and one of the most popular young men in the town. At that time it was the custom to choose the candidates at open mass meeting, but feeling ran high, and no choice could be made. So, finally, a convention of delegates was called for the purpose. The delegates met and the two names came up, and, as a result, Mr. Smith was chosen as standard- bearer of the party by a large majority.

Nothwithstanding this fact, however, and nothwithstanding the fact that the then provincial premier, Hon. A.S. Hardy, threw in his influence, to have the Liberal nominee supported by the whole Liberal party in the county, Mr. Mulhern and his friends were accused of knifing Mr. Smith and an independent Liberal candidate was brought out and Mr. Smith was defeated.

THE 1900 ELECTION.

Then came the 1900 election and again the contest between Smith and Mulhern for the nomination. Both names were before the convention and Mulhern won the nomination by a narrow majority. In this contest the same accusation was made namely, that Smith and his friends had knifed Mulhern, and the Conservative candidate was again elected.

Again in 1904 these same two gentlemen were in the field for the Liberal nomination and again the bitter fight was waged and this time Smith was successful, and by a small majority carried the primaries Result, Mr. Robert Pringle, the present Conservative M. P., carried the county and the story that the Liberal candidate had been knifed by Mulhern and his friends again went forth.

AT THE PRESENT DAY.

Thus is the scene brought down to the present day. A story of constant bickering between the two would-be candidates and their friends, and all the time the breach seems to have been growing wider until the culmination was reached this week.

On Monday evening last, meetings were called by the Liberal executive of the county, in the various subdivisions for the purpose of selecting delegates to go to the convention at New England to select the Liberal standard-bearer for the next election. Then the friends of the two candidates got busy and since then there has been trouble every minute. The convention was called for Wednesday at New England, and when it came to order it was found that some of the divisions of the town of Cornwall were represented by two sets of delegates. One set of delegates, and they were Smith men, bore certificates in most cases from the chairman of the meeting, while the rest bore affidavits to the effect that they represented the majority of the electors present at these meetings. Charges and counter charges flew thick and fast, and Mr. Mulhern stated the case from his point of view, and called upon the Liberal executive to accept the delegates that bore affidavits that they represented the majority. The executive, however, seems to have been composed of men favorable to Mr. Smith's candidature and they refused. Therefore Mr. Mulhern withdrew and announced himself as an Independent Liberal candidate, in the fight to stay, while the convention, asserted by the Mulhern faction to be under the control of Smith, nominated that gentleman as the candidate of the Liberal party in Stormont.

A meeting was called by Mr. Mulhern in the East Ward at Cornwall. This ward is one of those, which he alleges had been disfranchised by the executive's action, and one in which he is particularly strong, and at this his candidature as an Independent Liberal was announced.

WHAT MR. PRINGLE SAYS

Robert Pringle, M. P., the present member for Stormont, was seen at the Rossmore House by the Star during the evening. Mr. Pringle was not anxious to discuss the situation: "I have no opinion to offer," he said. "Both gentlemen are good citizens. One opposed me in 1900 and the other in 1904, and I have no fault to find with the manner in which either conducted the campaign, and I am now ready for the next fight when it starts."

HONEY CROP WILL BE SMALL

Fifty Per Cent of Bees in Ontario Perished Last Winter.

(Mail and Empire.)

The honey crop committee, Messrs. Sibbald, Couse and Craig, of the Ontario Beekeeper's Association, met yesterday afternoon to discuss the probable value of honey. Reports indicated that fully 50 per cent of the bees throughout the country perished during the last winter and spring and the honey flow in many districts has been very poor; in not a few instances the crop has been altogether nil, making in all a very low average, considerably less than last season. The quality, however, is much superior to that of last season. In view of the shortage in the fruit crop and the high prices prevailing on this and farm products generally, it was the opinion of the committee that an advance of prices over those of last season should be obtained. The wholesale price for No. 1 white honey should range from 11 1-2 to 12 1-2 cents per pound, retail 14 to 15 cents per pound. Comb honey will be very scarce and should bring for No. 1 grade $2.50 to $2.75. No. 2 grade, $1.75 to $2.25.

A DESPERATE CHANCE

Thrilling Melodrama Founded on Story of the Biddle Brothers Will Be at the Opera House Next Week.

Next week the greatest melodrama from the pen of the successful author, Theodore Kremer, entitled "A Desperate Chance," will be seen at the Opera House.

All, or most of the theatre-going public are familiar with the incidents surrounding the trial and escape of the celebrated Biddle Brothers, in Pittsburg, and will be anxious to see what sort of personages they will be when shown in a play.

While Mr. Kremer has followed as near as practicable the facts of the case, he has of course elaborated and added until he has evolved a story of intense heart interest that cannot fail to entertain all lovers of the drama.

Briefly, the story runs as follows: Jack and Ed. Biddle have entered the grocery store of Kenny for the purpose of robbery. They are discovered at work by the proprietor, whom they shoot. They are suspected and in attempting to arrest them a detective is also killed. For these crimes they are sentenced to be hanged. A few days before the execution a respite is gained by a society woman who brought influence to bear on the governor. During the respite, Ed. Biddle, through the hypnotic power he possessed, succeeded in convincing the warden's wife that he was innocent and persuaded her to furnish him with revolvers and saws with which he severed the bars of his cell, and after liberating his brother Jack they overpowered the guards and with the assistance of the warden's wife, who went with them, they escaped and started for Canada. They had only succeeded in getting a short distance when the officers got track of them, and after an exciting battle, they were recaptured and returned to jail. The two brothers, however, are fatally wounded, and the next day pay the penalty of their misdoings. The final act shows the warden and his wife re-united through their little daughter. This child, by the way, having a prominent part in the unravelling of the plot.

GENEVIEVE OF BRABANT THE NEW NICKEL FEATURE

Genevieve of Brabant will be the leading number on the Nickel's new programme of animated photographs today and for the remainder of the week. It is an illuminated film of exceptional beauty and striking value, tracing a legend of the eighth century with remarkable historical accuracy. The false accusation against the beautiful noble lady, her abandonment with infant child in the wilderness, the baby's animal foster-mother and the dramatic reunion of the family in the deer hunt scene after seven years of wandering and privation add zest to the hanging act which follows, the villainous Golo being the star actor in this finale.

Express Modellers, or lightning clay modellers, is extremely clever and a decided novelty. Poor Little Mites is a story of children lost in a blizzard, while fun is supplied by the barrel in Chasing A Motorist. Miss Felix will sing this afternoon that new Spanish love song, Fenella, and tonight Mr. Brown is booked for Stingy Moon.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE HAPPY HALF HOUR

"It is to laugh," is the watchword at The Happy Half Hour. The new pictures for the last half of the week commenced today and they are as usual excelent. If You Had A Wife Like This, is a continuous laugh from start to finish. From Jealousy to Madness, is a very strong dramatic picture. One Man Baseball and Happy Bob Rat Hunting, are both intended to produce laughter. The latest illustrated march song, Two Little Sailor Boys will be sung by those two splendid singers, Le Domino Rouge, and Harry B. LeRoy. Those who appreciate good pictures, particularly clear and steady, and good singing should visit The Happy Half Hour.

Quite a sensation was caused at yesterday afternoon's hearing in the Assyrian riot case, when Fred. Isaac, one of the participants in the street fight, stated under oath that Tom Simon told him that he had killed a Turk in Syria, with a knife, and was obliged to hide for three months before he could make his escape to Canada.

AFRAID TO PROMOTE HIM.

"Slowboy has been slaving away at that desk for twenty years or so. Wonder why he's never promoted."

"Why, he's always taken a pride in doing more than he's paid for, and his employers have been afraid they couldn't find a man to fill his place."
