MIRROR CURE FOR SEASICKNESS

Old Sailor Prescribes New Remedy for Evil --- Pocket Looking Glass, Steadily Regarded, Will Remove All Feeling of Nausea.

LONDON, Sept 11—A new remedy has been discovered for sea sickness. An old sailor has proved that a pocket looking glass is an infallible cure.

The looking-glass cure must be taken immediately the sufferer steps on board ship. The prescription directs the patient, when the first indescribable feeling comes on., to take out the pocket looking-glass and look himself fair and square in the eyes.

The result is alleged to be that the rolling of the ship, and even the smell of the engines, will pass unnoticed, and a little perseverance will transform a bad sailor into a good one.

"It is a very curious fact, and one for which it is difficult to account," said a noted city physician yesterday. "that a casual glance in the looking glass may arrest sea sickness. It may be that the woebegone countenance is responsible for introducing a vein of humor, and the sufferer resolves to 'cheer up.'"

"Personally I think there is a more scientific reason. It is well known among sailors that the rise and fall of the horizon is responsible for the early stages of this distressing malady. Physicians in consequence often recommend their patients to try to fix their eyes on some immovable object, such as a ring on their finger or a book held firmly on the knee. The looking glass is probably the same kind of antidote to the movement of the ship.

"It would be necessary, of course, to hold the glass firmly and fix the gaze steadily on the reflected image.

"The looking-glass remedy may be something in the nature of a faith cure. If the attention can be absolutely concentrated on the image in the glass and all thought of illness banished there is an excellent chance that the voyage will have no bad effects.

"With regard to the length of time required for the cure; it is a general fact that if sickness can be successfully awarded off for several hours the symptoms are not likely to recur, except in cases where no remedy will relieve the unfortunate sufferer, and sea and brain sickness are interchangeable terms."

HAVE YOU HAY FEVER?

You can be cured—permanently—quickly—cheaply. Use Catarrhozone. It is guaranteed to cure the worst case. It kills the germ, stops the sneezing, gives relief in a few minutes. Pleasant, harmless, and so sure to cure that no sufferer can afford to be without it.

O. L. Barbour, of the Sun staff, returned to the city yesterday after a three weeks' visit to the west. During his trip Mr. Barbour went as far west as Banff and en route renewed acquaintance with some St. John friends, including several from newspaper row who are doing well in the thriving towns in the wheat belt.

This evening the members of York L. O. L., No. 3, intend visiting Gideon Lodge, No. 7, in their lodge room, Germain street. The members of No. 3 are cordially invited to be present.

Ottawa, Sept. 11.—The I. C. R. freight handlers at St. John have been conceded the same increase by the railway as was awarded the freight handlers at Halifax by the conciliation board.

Louvre Art Treasure Partly Destroyed by Vandalism.

"SIXTINE CHAPEL," INGRES' MASTERPIECE IN THE LOUVRE, INJURED BY A WOMAN'S VANDALISM.

PARIS, Sept. 12 — A young woman recently entered the Louvre Museum and cut with a scissors the canvas of Ingres' masterpiece, "The Sistine Chapel." She was at once apprehended and explained that she had damaged the painting from a desire to be arrested. This is the third time with two months that paintings in the galleries have been damaged.

HUNT TREASURE BY SUBMARINE

Effort to Recover Bullion of Lost Warship--When Vessel Went Down She Had $2,500,000 on Board---$500,000 Recovered.

LONDON, Sept. 11—The latest invention is a submarine for salving wrecks, and it will be used in an attempt to salve H. M. S. Lutine, which was wrecked off Terchelling Island, on the coast of Holland, in 1799.

"The submarine is fited with a special internal apparatus," said J. Garner Flood, who will be engaged in the work. "It has regulators, by the aid of which the operator can control the pressure of air inside, and so make it the same as that of the water. The bottom can then be opened with perfect safety, and the wreck examined with ease.

"I have just returned from the wreck and I think that we shall be successful in our efforts. It is well marked, and is guarded by the local authorities.

"There are, naturally, many difficulties to be overcome, one of the greatest being the continual shifting of the sand around the vessel. At some times the wreck is completely covered, and then our work is twice as hard.

"The Lutine now lies right in the centre of a number of dangerous sandbanks, and some of the operations, which have been frequent during the last century, have been attended with loss of life.

"It is stated that when the vessel went down there was bullion on board to the value of $2,500,000, but so far only $500,000 has been recovered, and we are now going to try to recover the remainder.

"Unfortunately the weather handicaps us considerably, and during the whole of this year we have not had one really favorable day. As can be easily imagined, when the sea is rough the work is very difficult to carry out, and on one occasion, when an attempt was being made with the aid of a diving bell, the waves almost overturned it.

DANGER AT A MINIMUM.

"With submarines the danger will be removed, but nevertheless, on a rough day ,the shoals of continually moving sand interfere with our work to a great extent, and prevent our getting at the wreck.

"One day, for instance, the sand is all removed from above the wreck, but by the next it is frequently covered up again, and the work has to be begun all over again.

"The Lutine now belongs to Lloyd's and we have already placed the order for the building of the necessary apparatus, so that we shall begin salving operations very shortly. I think they will be successful, and that with the submarine we shall recover all the bullion still remaining in the hold of the ship.

David X. Coughlan, of the Boston Globe, former president of the Boston Typographical Union, is in the city on vacation, accompanied by his wife. They have been enjoying a visit to the North Shore and will remain until Saturday in St. John, which is Mr. Coughlan's former home and where he is always warmly welcomed.

With reference to an Ottawa despatch to the effect that the St. John freight handlers were to receive the same increase that was granted the Halifax men, it is learned that the men here have had no notification of the increase. It is thought likely, however, that it will be included in the pay cheques today. About fifty men here will be affected.

THE TREATY WITH JAPAN

The following clause is contained in the treaty with Japan ratified only last session of Parliament:—

"The subjects of each of the two high contracting parties shall have full liberty to enter, travel, or reside in any part of the dominions or possessions of the other contracting party, and shall enjoy full and perfect protection for their persons and property."

Previous to the ratification by Canada of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty of 1899, the arrangement between this country and Japan was that the Mikado's government would allow only four Japanese from each province of the kingdom to emigrate to the Dominion in any one year. But when Canada accepted the treaty of 1894 in its entirety, and by legislation last session ratified it, it became the law of Canada, so that instead of the restriction previously obtaining as regards Japanese immigration, full liberty to enter was granted to all Japanese.

KILLED AT SYDNEY MINES

Sydney Mines, N. S., Sept. 11.—Struck by a fall of stone weighing nearly 500 pounds the life was crushed out of a young Englishman named Charles Brown this forenoon in No. 5 colliery of the Nova Scotia Steel Co. The rock struck the unfortunate young man on the left side of the head, fracturing the skull and almost entirely tearing off the ear. Men who witnesed the accident, including a brother of deceased, say Brown walked a few steps after being struck and then dropped dead.

Brown, with his mother and half-brother, came to this country October 24, 1906, from Leigh, Lancashire, England, and has ever since been in the employ of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Co. A few months ago he married a young woman belonging to England.
