MEN TO DRESS LIKE WALKING RAINBOWS

Forecast of Men's Fashions for Winter Predicts a Run on Bright Hued Clothing.

LONDON, Sept 10—The editor of the Tailor and Cutter, the recognized authority in matters of English masculine dress, outlines the men's fashions for the coming winter. It says that the success of the introduction of green tweed has induced manufacturers to prepare other colors, such as light blue, bright brown, and various shades of purple and green. If these should be generally adopted, the streets would become radiant with many rainbow hues. The latest style of evening dress is a swallow-tail coat made of blue cloth, with a velvet collar. The novelties of the winter will be a double-breasted jacket, for which the king has set the fashion. It is cut rather long, and made to define the figure at the waist.

LOVE THE BRETHREN

(St. John Globe)

Hon. Mr. Pugsley is the man of the hour, and the newspaper announcements plainly show that he is displaying great activity. He is here, there and everywhere; and he is getting one minister to do this, and the other to do that with wonderful ease. He is evidently shaking up the administration as it never was shaken up before, and it is getting to work. Although not called to be Minister of Railways and Canals, he is doing a good deal of work in that department, and, apparently, is to have done all that Mr. Emmerson did not do. At one time we all thought that Mr. Emmerson neglected nothing. Certainly Mr. Graham, the new Minister of Railways, is showing quite a good disposition towards his colleague.

HIS WORD NOT GOOD.

John and Jim agreed to settle a difference by fighting it out. It was understood that whoever wanted to quit should cry " 'nough!" John got Jim down and was hammering him soundly when Jim cried " 'nough!" But John paid no attention to his cry and kept on pounding him. Again and again Jim called out " 'nough" But John paid no heed and kept busy with his fists. A boy standing near asked: "Why don't you let the feller up? He's yelled 'nough!' "

"But he's such a liar you can't believe him."

There is in Townshend, Vt., an apple treee which now displaying both fruit and flowers.

A Coruer in Humor.

By GEORGE O. BAKER.

SHE WAS WISE.

Mrs. Justwed—This is our thirteenth quarrel.

Mr. Justwed (solemnly) —Maybe we'll never have another.

Mrs. Justwed—I'm not at all superstitious.

HER REGRETS.

Miss De Witt—It is a pity how chance destroys the harmony of things in this world.

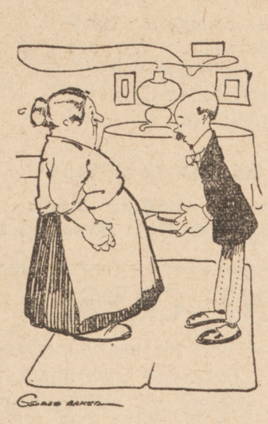

Reggy—I don't quite follow you.

Miss De Witt—It happens so often that the young man who looks most stunning in a yachting suit hasn't enouggh ambition or ability to earn the price of a rowboat.

She—She's a riddle. She has just gotten her fourth divorce.

He—Maybe that's why her husbands gave her up.

HE WAS DIFFERENT.

Mrs. Henpeck—Some people say that a woman need not expect a man to pay her as much attention after they are married as he paid her before.

Mr. Henpeck—Why, I'm sure my dear that I mind quicker now than I ever did.

She—That rich old maid refuses all offers of marriage.

He—I guess she knows a better way to husband her resources.

AT THE ART EXHIBITION

She—The works of the old masters were very well done.

He—And yet they are very rare now.

MR. MANTELL'S NEW SHYLOCK

Famous Actor Will Play Shakspeare's Jew in St. John Next Week.

Midway in his next week's engagement of five nights in the St. John Opera House Robert Mantell will be seen for the first time in this city as Shylock—a role that was not in his repertoire when he was last in this city, a year ago, but which, since added thereto, has been, from all accounts, quite as successful an impersonation as either his majestic Lear or his wonderfully dramatic Macbeth.

Mr. Mantell first appeared in the character of Shylock, in Shakespeare's beautiful comedy of "The Merchant of Venice," on October 26, 1906, a little more than a month after his engagement in St. John, and he has since then played the role of Shakespeare's Jew more than a hundred times, for the reason that it was in uncommon demand everywhere that he played an engagement of more than a single week.

When he played the role in Toronto, Ontario, the week after the Buffalo engagement, he turned hundreds away, and was urged to repeat the comedy at the Saturday matinee, although "Richelieu" had been announced there by requests that are said to have represented more than 1200 of the regular clientele of the Princess Theatre of that city. Two extra matinees had to be played in Chicago, to satisfy the demand there for the new Mantell Shylock.

The arrangement of roles for Mr. Mantell's appearance in the Opera House here is as follows:—

King Lear, ... Monday night.
Macbeth ... ...Tuesday night.
Shylock (first time) ..Wednesday night.
Hamlet ... ...Thursday night.
Richard III. ... .Friday night.

Seats are ready for all the performances. The prices for the Mantell engagement will be from 25 cents to $1.50.

It will be necessary for Mr. Mantell to omit performances on Saturday, by reason of the fact that he will begin an engagement in Brooklyn, N. Y. of a week, on Monday night, September 23, under the auspices of the People's Institute, which has guaranteed that more than 10,000 persons will see Mr. Mantell in the Shakesperian characters he will play there next week.

NEW CAR SHOPS AT LONDON

Contract for $50,000 Addition Has Been Awarded.

LONDON, Ont. Sept. 11—Contracts for the erection of a $50,000 addition to the car shops here have been let to John Hayman, and work will be commenced immediately. The capacity of the car shops will be nearly doubled by the extension.

AT THE NICKEL

Tonight the Nickel will show the new list of pictures for the last time, and it is one of the best programmes yet thrown on the curtain introducing the illustrated dramas and comedies entitled The Sea Wolf, A Double-Barreled Suicide, The Book Agent and Lifeboat Manoeuvres, any of which is alone worth the price of admission to see. Therefore this afternoon and evening all who like real good and naturally photographed motion views should not miss the list here given. On Friday the bill will change again. Today there will be two new illustrated songs and a group of new stereoptican slides pictorial of Lower Canadian towns and cities with which not every St. John person is familiar; the orchestra in the evening as usual.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people — without a penny's cost — the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by all druggists.

Ottawa, Sept. 11—The Canadian government has passed an order-in-council calling the attention of the imperial authorities to an advertisement appearing in a Falkirk, Scotland, newspaper under the name of Alexander Caven, of Glasgow, asking for men to work in the Buck Stove Works, Brantford, Canada. Although a strike was in progress in that establishment, the advertisement said there was no strike. The labor congress asks that Caven be prosecuted. The Buck Stove Company deny all responsibility.

Belfast, Sept. 11—The shipbuilding firm of Harland & Wolff admit officially that they are at work on plans for a White Star steamer that is to be bigger than the Lusitania. According to information received from another source, the new vessel is to be of 40,000 tons register.
