SHOOTS SISTER AND BROTHER

Versailles, July 28.—Henry Huntington, son of Douglas St. Georges Huntington, a former attache of the United States embassy in Paris, was arrested here tonight on the charge of shooting his two sisters and one of his brothers. The condition of the sisters was said to be serious.

The tragedy occurred at the bedside of the father, who was dying. Henry had returned to ask his father's forgiveness, he having been estranged from his parents for some time past. Around the bedside were grouped the weeping wife, the daughters, Edith and Elizabeth, and the sons, Alonzo and Douglas.

Henry pleaded forgiveness for the sorrows he had caused and had received his father's blessing, when Douglas requested him to seek the pardon of his mother also. This Henry declined to do, and, thereupon Alonzo asked him to leave the room.

According to the police, Henry immediately drew out a revolver and fired at Alonzo. He then wheeled and shot both his sisters and endeavored to make his escape. He was captured, however, by a guard who ran into the house to investigate the cause of the shots.

Mr. Huntington was sinking rapidly and was not expected to survive the night.

Later it developed that Douglas Huntington also had been hit by flying bullets. The sister, Elizabeth, is dying from a wound over her heart.
