HOLIDAY BILL AT THE NICKEL

Splendid New Programme Arranged for Tomorrow--Today's Bill.

The rain of yesterday did not deter the people from seeing the excellent pictures of the German navy at sea, the Hollanders' Harvest Festival, Lucy Takes a Dive, and The Up-To-Date Burglars. It was one of the best shows the Nickel has presented in a long while and emphasizes the big leadership of the big house in motion photograph entertainment; same pictures this afternoon and tonight; new songs also.

The new pictures for the holiday are all star features; they are: A Night in Dreamland, a fairy fantasy in which toys are imbued with life; A Clown's Love Story, dramatic photo-play realing with the sawdust ring; A Day With The French Navy, more interesting nautical pictures and an irresistible comedy Disrobing With Difficulty; new songs by Miss Elsa, Master Hanlon and Mr. Newcombe; orchestra afternoon and evening.

BROTHERHOOD SOCIAL

About 130 men, undaunted by the inclement weather, gathered in the Victoria street church last evening at a pleasant social given by the Victoria secret brotherhood. The majority of those present were members of the association and the names of twenty-four were added to the roll last evening. Helpful and interesting addresses were given by Capt. C. F. Keast, the president, who occupied the chair; Rev. E. C. Jenkins, Rev. B. H. Nobles, the pastor, and Miles F. McCutcheon. The programme consisted of selections by the orchestra, selections by a male quartette made up of the Messrs. Holder and Dunham; duets by Messrs. W. and J. Burtt and the Nobles brothers, and readings by John Salmon. Refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed. The brotherhood was but recently organized and now has 127 members.

Tonight the young ladies' class of the church will meet to organize a sisterhood and all young ladies are invited to attend and join. The class numbers about sixty with Guy Kierstead as teacher.

T. Walter Magee, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Shelburne (N. S.), and Mrs. Magee are in the city.

Combine Defaults

New York, N. Y., Dec. 30—Announcement was made tonight on behalf of the Consolidated Steamship lines by N. H. Campbell, the treasurer, that the company would default on the interest on its $60,000,000 collateral trust bonds, due tomorrow. The official statement explains the reason for the default.

"The inability of the company to make the payment of interest on the bonds on the above date is chiefly due to the fact that while it has made most substantial earnings, after paying interest on the underlying bonds and all other interest and general charges, owing to the prevailing financial condition, it has been compelled to devote its earnings to the payment of new ships recently completed or under construction and hence is unable to meet the coupons maturing on the above date."

The Consolidated S. S. Company is popularly known as the Morse Coastwise S. S Combination.
