AN ADAPTATION FROM THE OLD TIME CIRCULAR.

An exquisite evening wrap of pearl gray chiffon velvet, very much on the lines of the "circular," a fashionable outer garment of twenty years ago. The new model is much fuller and infinitely more graceful than the old. Here the cape, which cuts away from the straight fronts is pleated over the arms to give the effect of a draped sleeve, each pleat stitched flat and trimmed with large crochet buttons. There is a deep yoke of handsome white lace and the pointed shoulder cape and cutaway arm opening is accented with this same trimming. A flat roll collar of the velvet is embroidered in shades of gray silk and silver threads, and handsome cord ornaments with long knotted ends falling below the knees are set on the fronts at the bustline. The wrap is lined with white satin draped with chiffon of a delicate pink shade.

ORGANIZATION OF A U. B. Y. P. LEAGUE

Convention Held at Tracy Station Effects Provincial Organization.

A. J. Dearness of St. John Chosen as the First Provincial President —Encouraging Reports From Delegates.

Previous to the union of the two Baptist bodies in this province the Free Baptist young people had a provincial organization designated the Free Baptist Young People's Provincial League. When the two bodies became united this organization was suspended with the hope that a larger organization might be called into being to replace it. At the United Baptist Association held in Woodstock in July a committee, consisting of Revs. A. A. Rideout, J. H. McDougall, E. H. Cochrane, J. B. Daggett and D. Hutchinson, was appointed to call together delegates from the young people's societies throughout the province. The beautiful countryside at Tracy Station was selected as the place of meeting and accordingly, on the 15th instant, the trains going toward Tracy Station were well freighted with enthusiastic young people, with bright visions of future conquests for the cause of Christ.

The first meeting of the delegates convened in the United Baptist church at Tracy at 8 o'clock. Rev. A. A. Rideout, of Fredericton, chairman of the committee, called the meeting to order. After the singing of a hymn, Rev. Mr. Hayward read the scriptures and led in prayer.

Another hymn was sung and then Rev. J. W. Kierstead was called to the platform and discoursed interestingly on the subject, "Methods and motives to be employed by our young people in their evangelistic enterprise." The speaker briefly sketched the history of the United Baptist body during the last century and a quarter. At that time there was only one Baptist in the maritime provinces, with no church, no educational institutions, and no missions. But now, after 125 years, what have we? As an answer he pointed his audience to the 650 United Baptist churches in the maritime convention; to the 70,000 believers who, having been baptized upon a profession of their faith in Jesus, are now living in fellowship with these churches; to a well-equipped college, seminary and academy, with property and endowment worth $500,000, with a teaching staff of about thirty well trained and consecrated men and women; a student body of about 450, and best of all, to a staff of 120 missionaries, through whom the maritime Baptists are endeavoring to preach the gospel to about 2,000,000 Telegues.

After the singing of another hymn, Rev. A. A. Rideout, of Fredericton, followed with a stirring address.

He said he wanted to give the young people of the province the message which Moses was commanded to give the Hebrews as they stood on the shore of the Red Sea, namely, "Go forward."

Another hymn was sung and a most successful session was brought to a close by the benediction, which was pronounced by Rev. J. W. Keirstead.

The session Wednesday morning was opened with a devotional service, led by A. R. Dearness, of St. John.

This was followed with an address by Rev. D. Hutchinson, of St. Josn, on The Problems in Young People's Work, and How to Solve Them. He first gave a review of the birth and growth of the young people's movement in a Congregational church in Portland (Me.), and of the monster conventions in Boston, Toronto and Buffalo.

He mentioned the following as conducive to the weakness of local organizations: Lack of preparation by leaders, failure to select appropriate hymns and to vary the form of service. For the health of a society there should be three well defined features of work, the evangelistic, educational and missionary.

At the close of this address, Mr. Hutchinson remained upon the platform and conducted a conference on the matter of his address.

Rev. Mr. Daggert thought that if a few years ago any one should have asked if Dr. Clark, of Christian Endeavor fame, was led by God in initiating this movement, he would have been regarded as a heathen and a publican, and if God was leading in the matter then He could only have forsaken it on account of the half-heartedness of those who ought to be full of hope and perseverance.

Rev. J. W. Keirstead thought we had a place to be filled in our churches by the young people's societies. He advised that when the societies should come together it would be a good thing now and then to tarry in the place of meeting simply long enough to hold a brief prayer and then scatter and go, two and two, into homes of sick and aged and shut-ins, there to speak words of cheer and to pray.

Mr. Dearness, of St. John, told of the inner circle in his home society, and of how the spiritual tone of the society was helped there.

At the close of this discussion Rev. J. B. Daggett, of Florenceville, moved the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, a prayer of confession having been offered in accordance with the second clause of the resolution:

(1) "Resolved, that we believe the young people's movement is of God; (2), that we humbly confess our shortcomings and earnestly pray for His direction for the future; (3), that we proceed with the provincial organization, binding ourselves together, and that a committee be appointed to report this afternoon on the name and form of organization."

The session then adjourned until the afternoon.

The first quarter of an hour in the afternoon was spent in devotional exercises, led by Wednall Clark, of Sussex.

Rev. J. B. Daggett was then called to the platform and gave a most inspiring address on the Young People as a Factor in Missions.

The report of the committee on organization was then presented and adopted.

While the nominating committee were finishing their report, Mr. Lake was called to the platform and discoursed upon different features of young people's work.

The nominating committee's report was then presented and accepted in toto. It was as follows: President, A. J. Dearness; vice-president, E. H. Cochrane; recording secretary, Rev. J. B. Daggett; treasurer, C. A. Lake; corresponding secretary, C. R. Wasson; auditor, Rev. D. Hutchinson; superintendents for districts: No. 1, Rev. L. A. Fenwick; No. 2, Rev. B. S. Freeman; No. 3, Rev. A. A. Rideout; No. 4, Rev. E. H. Cochrane; No. 5, Rev. M. Addison; No. 6, Wendall Clark; No. 7, Rev. E. C. Jenkins; No. 8, Rev. Z. L. Fash; No. 9, Rev. R. H. Ferguson; No. 10, Rev. P. J. Stackhouse.

President Dearness was then called to the platform and, in a very graceful speech, thanked the members of the league for the unexpected honor which they had thrust upon him.

The matter of the young people's page in the Maritime Baptist was taken up. It was the unanimous opinion of the members of the league that if the new organization should serve its function it must have an organ through which it can communicate its life.

Rev. J. W. Keirstead was by vote appointed to be the editor of the young people's page in case the executive could make satisfactory arrangements with the management of the paper for his remuneration for this work. The local societies were requested to secure at least 100 new subscribers for the Maritime Baptist. Several persons pledged themselves to secure at least five new subscribers for the paper before the close of the year.

At 7 p. m., President A. J. Dearness took the chair and, after conducting devotional service, took up the few fragments of business left over from the afternoon. A resolution of thanks to the Tracy people was enthusiastically passed.

Rev. W. Alton, of Sussex, was then called to the platform and preached a very helpful sermon on the subject of Consecration.

The brief conference at the close of the sermon, conducted by Rev. D. Hutchinson, was a sermon of heart searching, and many in the congregation rededicated themselves to God and not a few indicated their desire to give themselves to Jesus. After singing and benediction this first session of the United Baptist Young People's League was adjourned to meet on the Tuesday before the first full moon in October.
