Tonic for Merriment.
By RYAN WALKER.

ACME OF EGOTISM.

Arthur—What a narrow-minded person Bruce is!

Howard—Yes; he's one of these fellows who think the whole world is warm when they get their winter flannels on.

TIRED OF HOLD-UPS.

Robber—Hold up your hands!

Victim—Take my money, but I'll be blamed if I'll hold up my hands. I've been hanging on a car strap all the way from town!

HIS FATAL MISTAKE.

Visitor—I suppose now, you wish you had taken the straight and narrow path.

Prisoner—G'wan! Dat's what I did take. If I'd only dodged inter dat crooked alley dey wouldn't a' ketched me.

BLEW HIMSELF UP.

First Autoist—They tell me your chauffeur is an angel.

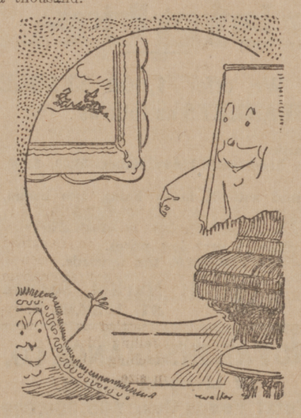

Second Autoist—I reckon he is about now. He lit a match this morning to see if the gasoline tank was full.

PROOF.

Smart—The world is getting better.

Wise—That's right. Some preachers are getting three thousand dollars a year now, where 20 years ago they were lucky to get a thousand.

IN THE PARLOR.

The Piano Cover—How is your friend the carpet-cleaner?

The Rug—Don't mention his name. He shook me for a woman with money.

OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

Some of the New Shows Booked for Early Dates.

There was another change of pictures at the Opera House last evening and these, with the Elliott sisters, form a very strong attraction and one which none should miss. The picture Saved from the Wreck, shows an Atlantic liner being actually dashed to pieces on the rocks in a terrific storm, the mountainous waves engulphing the derelict and scattering the wreckage on the billows. A good comedy picture is that of a rural band departing for and entering a contest to decide the best band in the district. This picture is aided by the orchestral effects. Charley and His Paint Brush is another good comedy film, which provokes plenty of laughter.

The Elliott sisters appear at every show during the evenings and those who have not yet heard them should avail themselves before the engagement ceases.

The Village Parson, W. E. Nankerville's best success, is booked for the Opera House for two nights and a matinee, starting Tuesday, Oct. 22. The drama is one of the most pleasing rural plays yet presented and all who attend will doubtless enjoy an evening of enjoyment. Seats are now on sale at the Opera House box office.

The seat plan for the evening of dramatic readings and music by Miss Mildred Isaacs, who is to hold her first public recital in the Opera House on Monday evening, Oct. 21, will open at the Opera House box office on Friday, Oct. 18. The public will remember the pleasant and enjoyable evening given by Miss Isaacs in the York Theatre some months ago, which was pronounced one of the most enjoyable of the season. There will, no doubt, be a large and fashionable audience on Monday evening next as the gifted young lady has many friends who will avail themselves of the opportunity.

MANAGER HACKETT RESIGNS

L. A. Hackett, general manager of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, Ltd., has resigned his position, and the probability is that he will be succeeded by H. P. Robinson of Sussex, at present one of the directors of the company. Mr. Hackett's resignation has been accepted and he will severe his connection with the company Monday next, meanwhile Mr. Robinson is acting general manager.

Mr. Hackett came here from Maine about a year ago to assume general direction of the company's business, and it is said for him that his decision to leave was learned with a great deal of regret by the directors, as his services have been highly valued. It is announced that he will return to Maine and carry on the business of orange box manufacturing at which he was engaged previous to his coming to New Brunswick.

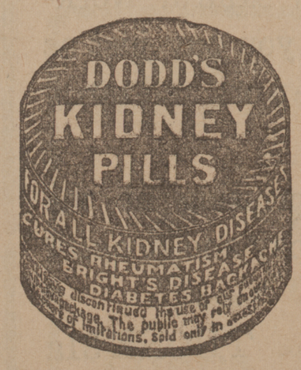

Mr. Robinson, acting general manager, left for Toronto last night.

GOOD CLEAN SHOW GIVEN AT NICKEL

New Comedy Films Give Entire Satisfaction.

The show now on at the Nickel is a good one, full of clean entertainment and special features. The new films, Good Wine, Terrible Ted and Who Owns the Pear? are extremely funny, something really unique in the line of comedy, showing the apparently inexhaustible store from which the expert photographers draw. The pictures of the king and queen, which were shown again by request last evening, brought forth many expressions of loyalty. The national airs as played by the orchestra added but fuel to the fire of applause. The new song, Red Wings, caught the crowds and Mr. Brown and Miss Felix had to respond to encores. The stationary slides and motion illustrations of this catchy Indian intermezzo were a particularly good feature. Last time for this programme is today.

When the children need a laxative, don't dose them with castor oil, salts, senna or calomel.

Fruit-a-tives
