FREDERICTON FOR NEW FEDERATION

After quotations from some local papers on Saturday night's meeting with President Lithgow of the M. P. A. A. A., the Fredericton Gleaner concludes as follows:

"Without hesitation the writer once more goes on record as favoring the rules of the Federation which allows professionals and amateurs to play together and cut out all necessity for hypocrisy and other evils and which for various reasons seem much more suitable than those almost disallowing "pros" and "simon pures" to walk on the same side of the street together. The matter is one needing attention from all interested in sport in the provinces."

To all of which this paper can fully subscribe. It only remains for the New Brunswick people, or a reasonable number of the clubs, to say the word.

ATHLETIC

GOTCH AND " YANK" ROGERS.

MONTREAL, Nov. 27— Championship attractions seem to be the real thing in the wrestling line in this city. The very deserving competition between Eugene Tremblay and George Bothner at Sohmer Park last Friday evening, was so well patronized by local lovers of the game that the management have announced for the coming Friday evening another championship affair. The old favorite, Frank Gotch, America's heavyweight champion, will, this week, take on Yankee Rogers in a match for the title, best two in three falls. A number of good preliminaries have been arranged.

PROKOS ROUGHLY HANDLED.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25—Charley Olsen defeated and almost killed James Prokos, a Lowell, Mass., Greek, in a wrestling match at the Missouri A. C. today. Olsen gained the first fall in seven minutes and the second in three seconds. Prokos was rendered unconscious in the second round, and it was half an hour before he revived. The blood gushed from his ears, nose and mouth.

EVEN FRANK GRIERSON IS SATISFIED.

In connection with the charges against the Irish Canadians, Vice-president Frank Grierson, of the C. A. A. U., made an interesting statement also. Mr. Grierson has looked into the Carnival committee's accounts which were in the hands of Mr. Plunkett B. Taylor, and says positively that Flanagan's statesment as far as the total sum received goes, is absolutely correct. Mr. Grierson has secured a copy of the receipts and accounts that passed between the Irish Canadians and the Sports committee, and is satisfied that Mr. Flanagan's statement of expense is an honest one.

WALKING BARBER AT LAST.

TORONTO, Nov. 25—Dave Hartley, of Peterboro, defeated "Jimmy" Reynolds, the Port Hope barber, by one mile in the 12-hour matched walking race at Mutual street rink on Saturday. Hartley covered 57 1-3 miles, and Reynolds a mile less, at an average speed of 4-34 miles an hour.

FOOTBALL

NO ONE AFRAID OF PLAYING WITH THE MONTREAL TEAM.

TORONTO, Nov. 25—'Varsity II. having captured the Canadian Amateur Championship by defeating Tammany Tigers, would like to have a whirl at the Interprovincial Intermediate Champions, and the Intercollegiate Union officials are now being communicated with in regard to the matter.

BILLARDS

DE ORO DOWNS HORGAN.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 25—The 30th. match in the three-cushion billiard tournament tonight at the Royal resulted in victory for De Oro over Horgan, 50 to 38. High run. De Oro 5, Horgan, 4.

PARKER, WITH CUTLER, ON TOP.

BOSTON, Nov. 27—At the Hub parlors last night Parker and Ashe contested in the class B billiard tournament, the former winning by a big margin. Parker's average was 5 5-39, his total for the 39 innings being 200 to his opponent's 71.

In the afternoon Albert Cutler played with Laurie, 18-1 against 18-2, a 300-point game. Cutler's high run was 127 to Laurie's 42, and his average 13 14-22, Laurie's 8 20-21. Cutler made his high run in the 21st inning, netting him his 300 score to Laurie's 188.

BASE BALL

BILL DONOVAN TOPS

The American league fielding averages and records of the league's pitchers have been announcel by President Ban B. Johnson.

For pitchers the figures show that the season's honors were divided between Addie Joss of the Cleveland club, White of the Chicago White Sox and Wild Bill Donovan, of the Detroit team. Joss and White are tied for greatest number of games won, each having 27 victories to his credit. Of the two, Joss has the higher average, winning 27 and losing 11, while White lost 13.

In winning average Donovan leads both Joss and White, for, by winning 25 and losing 4, with one tied game, he gets an average of .862 against the .711 of Joss and the .675 of White. Dygert of the Philadelphia Athletics also pitched creditable ball, getting 20 victories and nine defeats, but he was taken out five times. His average of .690 places him between Joss and White in the average list.

Old "Cy" Young leads the Boston Americans in winning average, and, of course, in games won. Despite the rather weak team he had behind him all season, Cy pulled out 22 victories, a performance surpassed by only seven men. Young lost 15 games, was twice taken out and twice in tie encounters, giving him an average of .595—just a point better than that of eccentric Rube Waddell of the Athletics, who won 19, lost 13 and seven times was removed. In being batted out of the box Waddell shares leather medal honors with Prueitt of the Boston club, who failed in seven games to last out the contest. Prueitt, however, is way below Waddell's average, the Boston twirler's figures being only .214. Harris, another Boston man, brings up at the tail-end of the entire list, pitching through eight games without pulling out a single victory.

In fielding, Unglaub, at first base, has the best relative average of any of the Boston men. His average is .986, enough to beat out all the others, excepting Donohue of the White Sox, whose fielding easily places him in a class by himself. Playing in 157 games, Donohue made but 12 errors and has an average of 994—a really remarkable performance. Unglaub in 139 games made 23 errors, giving him an average of .986. Hal Chase of New York and Davis of Philadelphia show up rather poorly in the figures, Davis having 38 and Chase 34, the largest two numbers of misplays made by any of the first sack artists.

Of the regular second basemen of the league, Lajoie of Cleveland makes up in fielding, in a measure at least, for his falling off in stick work. Several of the regular second basemen are, however, very closely bunched in their averages. Lajoie leads with .969; then comes Ferris with .967—and Ferris, by the way, played in more games than any other second baseman—with Williams of New York third on .966, and Murphy of Philadelphia one notch further down the ladder with .965. Ferris and Isbell of Chicago each had 30 errors, the maximum number for second basemen, but Ferris, by having a larger number of chances, has the better average.

Cross of Philadelphia, playing in 74 games, has an average of 954, with Turner, of Cleveland, Davis of Chicago, and O'Leary following in the order named with averages of .950, .949, and .948 respectively. Wagner of Boston fielded to an average of .931, while Parent, who played in 43 games for Boston, is at the bottom of the regulars on an average of .922. Wallace of St. Louis, at .941, made 54 errors, the biggest number made not only by any shortstop, but by any player in the league during the season. Elberfield of New York, having an average of .930, ranks second in errors with 51 in 118 games, while Wagner of Boston miscued an even half-hundred number of times in 109 games.

Among the third basemen it was a toss-up between Knight and Collins on errors. They are the two men that Philadelphia and Boston exchanged for each other. Knight made 49 errors in 132 games, while Collins erred 47 times in 133 games. Knight's average was up better than Collins', the figures standing .900 and .895 respectively. Cross of Washington, during the 41 games he was at third base, made a great record for third basemen, making but three errors and getting the high average of .978, nearly 25 points better than the average of any of the shortstops.

Of the catchers, Schreck of Philadelphia and Sullivan of Chicago share the honors among the men who caught in any substantial number of games.

THE RING

GUNTHER BARELY GOT THERE.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25—George Gunther, the Australian middle-weight, barely outpointed Mike Donovan, of Rochester, in six rounds at the Spring Garden A. C. tonight. There was little to choose between the men in height, weight and reach, but Gunther was the more clever of the two and his skill in avoiding the bulldog rushes of his opponent and block his vicious leads, earned him the decision.

It was not the kind of a fight that appeals to the Spring Garden patrons, as Gunther persisted in covering up, robbing the contest of much of its interest. Donovan carried the fight to the Australian, but Gunther refused to be tempted and took no chances in exchanging blows with his husky opponent.

JIM DONOVAN'S BOUT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25—Jim Donovan of England evened up with Jack Robinson of Chicago for a previous beating by outpointing the westerner in the six-round wind-up at Billy Elmer's Consolidated A. C. tonight. Robinson was clever, but frequently a target for Donovan's straight lefts. Donovan once floored Robinson. An amateur, posing under the name "Young Cunningham," tried to earn some money against Kid Mahoney. After Mahoney had landed three times on Cunningham's jaw the ambitious athlete couldn't get out of the ring quick enough.

DOHAN BEATS GRANT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25—Johnny Dohan of Brooklyn substituted for Dick Nelson against Dick Grant in the final bout at the Dry Dock A. C. tonight and won on points. Dohan was clever, and carried the fight to his willing opponent all the way. Phil McGovern, brother of Terry, stopped Young Frenchy in three rounds. Terry Edwards had a shade on Young Wagner, Pat McCloskey and Al Schumacher fought a draw, and Charlie Goldman and Griff Jones fought so fast that neither had a punch at the end of a four-round draw.

TOM SAWYER KNOCKED OUT.

ROCKLAND, Me., Nov. 25—Tom Sawyer of this city was knocked out in the third round of his bout with Sam Clements of Reading, Mass., at the Arcade tonight. Kid Carrie of Gardiner and Bobby Goode of Brockton, fought a six-round preliminary.

BOXING GOSSIP.

Larry Conley, the South Boston welterweight boxes Dave Sawyer at Waterville, Me. tonight.

Long Jack McLean, the Cincinnati catcher is booked to box an exhibition bout with Jack O'Brien at Cincinnati this week.

Tommy Quill, who boxes Young Donohue at the Cooper A. C. Thursday afternoon, will meet Unk Russell at Philadelphia the following evening.

Manchester sports figure on a ratling bout when Al Delmont and Kid Dufresne clash tomorrow. The boys have already boxed two draws.

Leo Pardello and John Perelli, rival wrestlers, will lay aside their personal feelings Thursday, when both will second Jim Barry at Chelsea against Tony Ross.

Jimmy Britt has decided that he is through with ring affairs. He is at present in Honolulu, but on his return intends trying bookmaking at the coast winter tracks.

Owen Moran is authority for the statement that win or lose with Burns next week, Gunner Moir will never consent to meet Jack Johnson. As Moran and Moir are close personal friends, the statement is significant.

McGOLDRICK STANDS ALONE AGAINST THE WHOLE BOARD

Not One Member of the Board of Works Agreed With His Decision to Exclude Newspaper Reporters---Chairman Gets Sharp Rebuke from Other Members.

At the regular meeting of the board of works last evening it was decided that newspaper men should be admitted to the meetings.

This action was directly contra to Chairman McGoldrick's ruling in claiming that he could hold a private session at his pleasure.

A complaint from J. K. Scammell that the Monmouth, lying at No. 3 berth, was discharging coal without taking proper precautions against its being dumped into the harbor, and that the ash ports were not sealed, was referred to the west side committee with power to act.

A request from Ald. Pickett for a report from the west side committee caused a breezy discussion between himself and the chairman, who said there was nothing to report. The fact was disclosed during the meeting that the city had been occupying a private citizen's stable and yard on the west side for sixteen years and paying nothing for it. Compensation to the extent of $250 was recommended.

The director was instructed to report at at the next meeting as to the cost of adding another story in the shed for an office and waiting room.

The subject of the chairman's action in excluding the press was then taken up, and resulted in considerable discussion.

It was learned after the meeting that the initiative was taken by Ald. Pickett. The alderman for Victoria ward arrived late and at once proceeded to ask the chairman what the cards on the doors meant, and by whose authority they were put up. He remarked that the board was no close corporation, and he strongly objected to it.

The chairman intimated that he was personally responsible, adding that if the alderman did not like it, it was up to him to move a resolution.

Ald. Pickett asked the chairman if he was not aware that since 1892 the board meetings had been open to the press by order of the common council, unless the press were excluded by special resolution. He claimed that the common council was being set at defiance.

The chairman replied that he had taken the responsibility. It was not now up to him to make a motion.

Ald. Pickett suggested that any action might be left to the chairman's own good sense. The matter might properly be debated in the common council.

Ald. Baskin supported Ald. Pickett, expressing the opinion that a big mistake had been made. As the chairman wanted a motion he moved that the press be allowed to remain present during the meetings.

The chairman said as all reports were to be made to the common council, the board now having no power, he wished to give the aldermen an opportunity to talk. He was going to stand by what he said. If they wanted to vote it down they could do it.

Ald. Bullock is reported to have sympathized with the chairman's position and to have claimed that the press had abused their privileges. He is said to have thrown out a suggestion as to "keyholes," but the idea that the newspapers obtained information by such methods was at once denied by others present.

Ald. Baxter is said to have agreed with Ald. Bullock as to the chairman having been the subject of unjust criticism. He urged that no motion should be put, as it was unnecessary and that the press should be allowed in after the discussion.

After a few remarks from other aldermen the reporters were called into the committee room.

The chairman, addressing them, said he wanted them to know that he was opposed to their being present. He was about to put a motion and they could take a note how the board stood.

Ald. Baskin's motion was then put. There were several ayes, and a dead silence on the call for nays.

The chairman—"Is nobody voting against it?"

Somebody called "question," and Ald. Pickett, Willet, Sprague, Baskin and Sproul stood up in favor of the motion. Ald. McGowan also rose but was reminded by the chairman that he was not a member of the board.

There was no response when "nay" was called.

Ald. Vanwart, Baxter and Bullock took no part in the proceeding.

Subsequently, in reply to a question, the aldermen gave their reasons.

Ald. Vanwart said he did not vote out of respect for the chairman.

Ald. Baxter said as there was already an order of the common council that the press were to be admitted, no vote was necessary. The chairman had also taken the sense of the meeting on the question.

Ald. Bullock thought the motion was ridiculous, especially after the press had been invited in. Personally, he said, he was in favor of the reporters being present.

The chairman and Ald. Lewis, with the director, were appointed a committee to report on a request from Francis Kerr to lease part of the wharf property in Britain street and for the privilege of building an overhead story in connection with coal pockets which it was proposed to erect.

Applications from J. W. Roop and J. G. Cliff for positions in the Sand Point sheds, were referred to the director. The vacancies have already been filled.

On motion of Ald. Baskin, an application from T. H. Sime, agent for the Cumberland Railway & Coal Company, for the privilege of using the Dunn wharf for barges, was referred to the west side committee with power to act.

Ald. Pickett said he thought the board should have a report from the west side committee. It was the biggest spending body in the council and a sub-committee of the board, and as he was not a member he would like to know what was being done.

Ald. Bullock suggested the alderman should visit the formal opening of No. 5 shed on Thursday.

Ald. Pickett remarked that there would probably be more wind than information on that occasion. He proceeded to recall the proposed concession of a valuable piece of land to the C. P. R. in Fairville, on consideration of the company bringing gravel to Union street, and asked how that was getting on.

Ald. Baxter—"It's all dropped."

Ald. Pickett—"Not carried through? Why I thought a deed was being prepared?

Ald. Bullock—"The committee should report to the council."

Ald. Pickett—"No, to this board."

Ald. Baxter—"We've nothing to report but a few bills."

Ald. Pickett—"I have to depend on the newspapers for my information."

The Chairman—"Oh, that's where you get your news. Why don't you come to city hall oftener."

Ald. Pickett—"It seems I can't get news anywhere else, and it's a pretty good place to get it."

The discussion then turned on the fact that the new cribs had not been placed.

Ald. Pickett wanted to know if it was the city's fault, as the newspapers were blaming the council.

Ald. Baxter in a lengthy speech claimed that the council and board of works had nothing to do with the dredging and were not to blame if the government department was slow. Everything possible had been done. The alderman commented on a recent statement in a city newspaper, intimating that the common council was responsible for the fog which delayed the ferry boat. It was not meant seriously, perhaps, or unkindly, but foolishly awakened a spirit of fault-finding.

A long discussion took place as to what action should be taken with regard to a wall attached to the Orange Hall, North End. It was claimed that water had flooded the cellars and caused a loss of $125 in rentals. The matter was finally sent to the claims committee.

A motion to build a concrete retaining wall in the rear of W. V. Hatfield's property on Union street, was lost.

The chairman reported that a bill for extras from Clark & Adams for No. 5 warehouse amounted to $1,004.

On motion of Ald. Bullock the director was requested to submit an itemized account of all extras on the D. C. Clarke (No. 5) wharf and warehouse.

The director was given authority to call for tenders for supplies and the board adjourned.

OPERA HOUSE PICTURES

Splendid Entertainment Given Yesterday Afternoon and Evening.

The hundreds of people who attended the moving picture show at the Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening heartily praised the splendid pictures now being shown. The installation of the new lighting apparatus has tended to provide a clear, bright picture that is unexcelled. Every subject is a good one and is new to moving picture patrons.

Another pleasant surprise was the comedy sketch by Bert Howe, the singing comedian, whose performance is clean, and witty. Mr. Howe, who appears every afternoon and evening, will introduce on Thursday his new idea, in the latest American fad in giving St. John patrons illustrated recitations. His subject will be doubly interesting to Masons, Knights of Pythias and members of secret orders. There will be an entire change of picture subjects, music and songs at today and tomorrow's shows.

The new subjects will be—A Pressing Letter, A Four Year Old Heroine, An Episode of Paris, A Commune Volunteer.

HARKINS COMING BACK

Will Open a Week's Engagement at the Opera House on Monday Night.

The W. S. Harkins Company will commence a week's engagement at the Opera House next Monday night. The play will be Squire Kate. The Halifax Acadian Recorder speaks of it as follows: "W. S. Harkins gave our theatre goers another great success last evening, Pinero's Squire Kate, which had such a long run in London and New York. It is a thoroughly English play, with characters all typical of life in the old country.

"Miss Van Duser, as Squire Kate, gave a superb portrayal, bright and winsome at the outset, sympathetic and emotional in her trials and troubles. Orson Dunn gave a most remarkable performance for a stock actor as Gaffer Kingsley. Were he starring in the part not more would be expected of him. It was a splendid piece of acting, and hearty applause rewarded him on many occasions."

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

A message from Chatham announces that His Honor Lieut.-Governor Tweedie is ill with la grippe. He was much better yesterday, however, yet his physician has advised him to cancel all engagements made for the next ten days. These included St. Andrew's Society dinner in this city on next Friday, the opening of the maritime winter fair at Amherst on Dec. 2, and the government meeting in Fredericton on Tuesday next. There will be general hope for his honor's speedy recovery.

It will be interesting to the friends of Rev. W. W. McMaster, pastor of Germain street Baptist church, to know that his brother-in-law was one of those honored in the king's birthday list this month. In the list appeared the name of Jeremiah Colman, of Surrey (Eng.), who was created a baronet. Mrs. Colman is a sister of Rev. Mr. McMaster.

I. Medley Richards, of Edmundston, and A. H. Woods, of Fredericton, were registered at the Victoria yesterday.

THE LAUNCHING OF THE DREADNOUGHT

This is the Feature Picture at the Nickel Tonight and Tomorrow.

The inspiring British naval pictures shown the first of the week at the Nickel were only the foretaste of what is to follow today and tomorrow. This later programme eclipses anything yet attempted in this city in the way of genuinely interesting and instructive motion photographs and is as follows:

King Edward at the launching of the greatest battleship in the World, H. M. S. Dreadnought; his majesty is seen at closest range as he smashes a bottle of champagne against the monster craft, which soon slides off the ways with a great splash and swelling of the tide. Several picture machines were employed in taking this film, as more than one view of the launching is given.

Picture number two is Grand Royal Review of the British Home Fleets, with life-like groups of admirals and a pleasant chat between the king and Sir John A. Fisher, first sea lord, who will be remembered by many in this city as in command of the North Atlantic Squadron at Halifax about ten years ago. Here we have a twelve minutes picture showing Britain's might afloat, as seen from the royal yacht.

How They Enjoy Winter in Norway will be looked at with rapt attention, for it shows the northern people at ski-jumping pastimes, sleighing, ice boating, skate sailing and other pastimes. Tommy in Society is a clever comedy, with children in the principal roles.

Perney Hirtschman Tells His Part of Story

The Case Fully Reported, Proves the Work Was Done by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 26.—A well-known resident at 93 Sackville street, Mr. Perney Hirtschman, who has been in a somewhat serious condition lately, has recovered, and says: "Six months ago my appetite fell off and my health became very poor. I had terrible attacks of indigestion and often was unable to sleep at night. My poor color showed what an ill man I was I tried numerous remedies but the only genuine one was Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Two boxes cured my indigestion. My appetite increased and my strength came back quickly. Today I have a fine zest for my meals. I feel as strong and healthy as a young boy. Because they are so cleansing and so tonic in their effect I think Dr. Hamilton's Pills should be used by every person. My wife used them regularly with grand results."

HOCKEY

Good hockey prospects for St. John seem to have been assured by the action of a ring of young men interested in athletics who, headed by H. J. Smith as president, have leased the Queen's Rink from H. L. Fleming and J. M. Queen, and this winter will open it to the public as a sporting and skating rink.

The rink will be entirely under new management and will be known as the Glacier Rink. The idea is to have the hockey element treated fairly, while the general skating public will be given a chance to indulge in the favorite winter amusement. New ideas will be introduced and the rink will be conducted on sound business principles though it is said it is not undertaken as a business venture by Mr. Smith or any of those concerned. It is planned to show every consideration to ladies and children and on band nights a matron will be in attendance to look after the young ladies.

RATHER SEVERE ON THE M. P. A. A. A.

(Halifax Recorder.)

If Halifax wants to be in the running another year in the hockey world, it looks like if it will have to follow the example of other places and have manufacturing or other concerns where men may obtain positions, and when the winter arrives "play hockey for recreation purposes."

Mr. Lithgow will please take note. This is certainly coming nearer home.

Rouse O'Brien has wisely called off all prospective matches and will spend some time in the country recuperating. O'Brien when right, rates high in his class, but has not shewn his own form for some time past.

If We Could Look at the Heart of a Pale-Faced Person!

Few people ever stop to consider what pallor to the countenance means. In the first place it indicates an absence from the blood of the rich, red, life-giving elements so requisite to health; and in the second place it indicates a weakened heart action. These two things act and re-act. If we could look at the heart of one of these pale-faced people, we would see it flabby, weak and palid. No wonder they are easily tired, get out of breath quickly, have palpitation, are nervous and downhearted. Their muscles are poor, their stomach disordered, and their lives are seldom free from misery.

Let them take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills; there is no remedy to equal them for making pale faces rosy, weak hearts and shaky nerves strong, flabby muscles firm, and infusing new hope and ambition into life.

Mr. W. J. Churchill, Lombardy, Ont., writes: "I was troubled for three years with a weak heart and nervousness. I could not sleep and ever so little food would distress me. I also had faint and dizzy spells, and doctored with three doctors but was growing worse. After taking three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I feel as well as ever I did. They are the best pills on earth."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25 at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

AT THE PRINCESS

Three entirely new films, generally conceded to be among the best ever shown in St. John, were presented to the large gatherings in the Princess Theatre yesterday. The story of Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, colored in tints of Oriental beauty, was universally admired and especially delighted the children. The other novelties were The Simple Peasants, a stirring incident in a French village, an The Artistic Carver, a fine educational series. The programme will be repeated today with Cheyenne as the illustrated song, sung by A. Bernard.

Charley Mitchell, the English pugilist, is picking Tommy Burns to whip Gunner Moir in London next week.

Schooner Cora B., Captain Johnson, was wrecked during last Monday's gale at Fresh Water Cove, near Gloucester (Mass.) The Cora May hails from this port, and was owned in Annapolis.

Among the arrivals at Portland Sunday was the British schooner H. A. Holder, from St. John with spruce boards. The vessel left St. John about the 9th, and was delayed along the coast by storms.

Steamship Oruro, Captain Bale, of the West India line, will go direct to Halifax from Bermuda this trip.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES OR IMITATIONS—GET WHAT YOU ASK FOR.

When you ask your dealer for an advertised article and he tries to sell you a substitute, which he claims is just as good, it's because he makes a larger profit on the substitute. Insist on getting what you ask for.
