PEOPLE OF NOTE

Mrs. John A. Logan

Mrs. Mary Simmerson Cunningham Logan, the widow of Gen. John A. Logan, was born at Petersburg, Boone County, Mo. She was educated in a convent school in Kentucky and married her famous husband on November 27th, 1855. General Logan died in 1886. She has long been noted as a literary personage and has been connected in an editorial capacity with some of the most prominent newspapers in the country. She has contributed articles to most of the high class periodicals and magazines in the country. Her home is in Washington, D. C.

"Don't Neglect a Cough or Cold."

It can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the medicine you need. It is without an equal as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Pain in the Chest, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Quinsy and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

A single dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs, the healing properties of the Norway Pine Tree will proclaim its great virtue by promptly eradicating the bad effects, and a persistent use of the remedy cannot fail to bring about a complete cure.

Do not be humbugged into buying so-called Norway Pine Syrups, but be sure and insist on having Dr. Wood's. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25 cents.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Mr. Wm. O'Hara, Souris, Man., writes: "Having suffered for a long time with a severe attack of Chronic Bronchitis, which I could not get cured, I eventually tried your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and I am glad to state it has given me a complete cure."

N. Johnstone, of the Reid-Newfoundland Railway, is in the city meeting friends.

Sadness Removers.
By RYAN WALKER.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

Mrs. Henpeck (waking up at 2 A. M.)—Ugh! What a horrible dream. If brigands should steal me and demand two millions for my ransom, what would you do?

Mr. Henpeck—Quit your kidding. I want to go to sleep.

AS THE COUNT UNDERSTOOD.

The Count—You climbed ze Matterhorn? Zat was a great foot.

The Girl—Great feat, you mean, Count.

The Count—Ah! Zen you climbed him more as once!

DEPTH OF CHIROMANCY.

Hand Reader (after carefully examining old lady's hand for some time)—You have a life line.

Old Lady (skeptically and with disdain)—Well, I have hung out on it for 86 years.

Dr. Emdee—Are you attending old man Skinner?

Dr. Phil Graves—Yes; but I can't make anything out of his case.

Dr. Emdee—Why not?

Dr. Phil Graves—He made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors yesterday.

THEN THE BARBER SHUT UP.

The Barber—You're pretty young to be so bald, sir.

Man in chair—Can't help it. I was born bald.

SURE THING.

Willie (aged 7)—Say, pa, I can do something you can't.

His rather—What's that?

Willie—Grow.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

For Her Sake to be Presented by the Harkins Company.

Without doubt The Usurper is one of the best plays seen in St. John in some years. It drew a fashionable audience at the Opera House last night and all present were thoroughly delighted. Tonight the company will appear in the great Russian melo-drama For Her Sake. There is a certain magic in the name Siberia, and when it figures in a play the theatre-goer is assured at least of thrilling scenes and situations. For Her Sake is the latest play having to do with Russian life, with the moving sorrows of serfdom and the experiences of life in the Siberian convict mines.

For Her Sake is credited with possessing an element which its predecessors lacked. It has the comedy element clearly and consistently ingrained in its plot, and the heart interest is intense throughout the four acts. For Her Sake will be the bill tonight and tomorrow night, and for the good bye matinee Saturday afternoon the favorite play, The Little Minister. In order to avoid the rush on Saturday matinee tickets will be placed on sale at the box office today.

NICKEL TO OBSERVE THE KING'S BIRTHDAY

Saturday will be the birthday of His Majesty King Edward VII and the Nickel will have as a special feature in its brand new programme a score of views of great events in English history in which the king has participated. It will also present portraits of his majesty from his babyhood to grandfatherhood, a most interesting chain of pictures. These special slides are to be shown tonight and all day Saturday and will be a great treat for the school children tomorrow afternoon.

The regular show will be entirely new and will include the following pictures: When the Cat's Away, or how a large manufacturing boss caught his help at their capers; A Woodland Tragedy, or a misunderstanding between landowner and huntsmen; Jane is Simply Furious, a very comical set of pictures, and The Judge and the Girl, a Western romance with a whole lot of human nature in it. This combination of stationary pictures and motion scenes will make a particularly long and engrossing programme. Mr. Cairns will sing tonight and on Saturday afternoon; Mr. Newcombe this afternoon and Saturday night.

SIS IN NEW YORK

The ruralite in a great city has furnished the funny page with most of its material for the past decade, and the bewhiskered charmer looking down cable slots and blowing out the gas has become a familiar figure, but the author of Sis In New York has left the beaten path, and instead of her dad floundering around the city streets there is the philosophic Hoosier lass on her first visit to the big city by the sea. The advance notices and the critics along the line where the show has been say she is supplied with the best vehicle she has had in these many days. Suffice the same old rural favorites and fun-makers will accompany her when she comes to the Opera House Monday, Nov. 11.

THE ROYAL SCOTS

Two and a half hours of solid enjoyment is the story in brief of the entertainment in Kindergarten Hall by the Royal Scots Concert Company. It is safe to say that no more enjoyable entertainment has ever been given in this city. There were thirteen numbers in all on the programme, each one of which was rapturously encored. Miss Flora Donaldson is well named the "Queen of Scottish Song." She has a magnificent soprano voice of great range and in her solos, Sound the Pibroch, Over the Sea to Skye, The Bonny, Bonny Banks, and The Hundred Pipers, she captivated her hearers completely.—Charlottetown Examiner.

The company will be in the Opera House here Nov. 12 and 13.
