PEOPLE OF NOTE

J. Ogden Armour

Jonathan Ogden Armour, the millionaire capitalist and packer, was born in Milwaukee on Nov. 11th. 1863, and was the son of Philip Danforth and Malvina Belle Armour. He was educated at private institutions and finally was entered at Yale University but on the urgent request of his father he returned to Chicago to assist his father in his rapidly growing commercial enterprises. Young Armour at once showed marked business capacity and built up an enormous fortune. He married Miss Lolita Sheldon of New York city.

AN EATING ULCER.

Ulcers are a skin disease, and are more or less directly occasioned by a bad state of the blood, which produces acrid humors and corrupts the secretions.

No one can expect to have a skin free from disease when the blood is in a disordered condition and the stomach and bowels acting feebly in consequence.

Through its wonderful cleansing, purifying powers on the blood, and its renovating action on the entire system, Burdock Blood Bitters has made thousands of cures of different skin diseases during the past thirty years it has been on the market.

Mrs. Joseph Robinson, Hallerton, Que., writes: "I had an eating ulcer on my ankle. I took two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and it worked like a charm, cleaning out all the impurities from my system and improving my appetite. While taking the B.B.B. internally I used it externally to cleanse the sore, and it helped a lot."

WEALTH FROM WILD FRUIT.

(Westminster Gazette).

Blackberries and nuts are being sold in London for sixpence a pound, which is about three times the price lately realized by the best cultivated fruits. The idle horticulturalist who has allowed brambles and hazels to run riot over his land is, presumably, living in luxury; while his industrious rival, ruined by prolific but unsalable plum crops, is having unpleasant interviews with the Official Receiver.

Capt. D. J. Johnson, of Brunswick county (Va.), has been voting the Democratic ticket 68 years and never missed a presidential election in all that time. He is now 89, but says he feels as young as ever.

Joys of Society.
By GEORGE O. BAKER.

MEAN OF HIM.

Mrs. Digs—She's a horrid flirt.
Mr. Digs—Attractive girls usually are.

ETIQUETTE.

Mrs. Dobbins—Is your husband going to Mrs. Jobbins' funeral?
Mrs. Tobbins—Decidedly not! She never returned my last call.

He AGREED WITH HER.

Mrs. Digs—After all, dear, home is the dearest spot on earth.
Mr. Digs (engaged in auditing the month's bills)—It is.

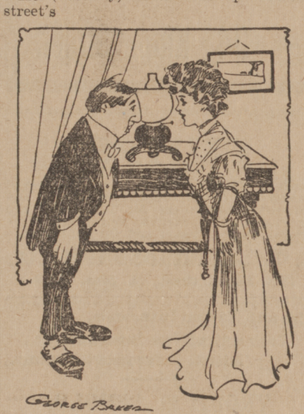

EASIEST TOO.

She—What is the best way to tell a man's fortune?
He (absently)—Look him up in Bradstreet's

WAS RATHER TAME.

Grace—I heard that you were hurt in a football game recently.
Harry—Oh! not of any account. I was only two days in the hospital.

A WELCOME ARRIVAL

Mr. Collier Down—Intelligence has just reached me.
Mrs. Collier Down—Thank Heaven, it has come at last.

SOME MORE OF THEM

The world didn't come to an end the other day as predicted, and a tidal wave didn't sweep the Atlantic coast, but no one should be discouraged. There are plenty more predictions left, and among them the following:

December 16th.— The State of Texas will sink three feet and all the milk pans within its confines will slop over.

December 30th.— The investigation of the Alton Railroad will be finished with a jar that will be felt all over the United States. Don't take it that Mr. Harriman started to sit down and missed the chair.

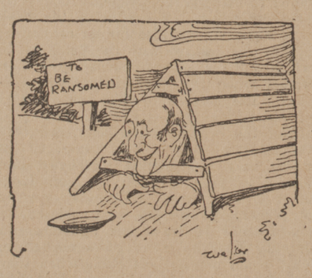

January 1st, '08.— Feeling it a duty to let the country know it is on deck and prepared for business, the New Year will usher itself in with a little ruction that will move the Rocky mountains over the Canadian border and give us sites for more strawberry beds. Canada may not want any more mountains, but she's got to take what comes her way.

From Jan. 2nd to Jan 31st.— Railroad accident every day, and on some days in order to show what we can do in that line, two or more accidents. The usual number of passengers killed and crippled, and the usual verdict—"no one to blame."

February 3rd.— The Black Hand band will seize Chauncey Depew and hold him captive in a Virginia hencoop, and demand one million dollars ransom. His many friends will rally and make up and offer a purse of $300.

February 26th.—Country will be buried under 19 feet of snow, and all spelling-schools and husking bees will be declared off. It will be a time when every patriot will have to dig for himself.

March—Close up your business, settle with your creditors and get ready. Earthquakes—cyclones—tidal waves—conflagrations—plagues — floods. The old globe will take a shoot into space and bring up somewhere with a bang, and it will take all the sweat-shops in Mars to pick up the breeches buttons and sew them on again. JOE KERR.

The Bandit—"Gee! He had only two marbles an' a good conduct card! It ain't hardly worth while in de bandit bizness dese times."

THE NEW FIRST READER

"What is a pipe line?"

"It is a line of iron pipes running from an oil field into No. 26 Broadway."

"For what is it used?"

"To conduct oil from certain wells to grease the boots of a number of tender-footed capitalists."

"Is there any profit in it?"

"Only four hundred per cent., and a public movement should at once be started to take up a subscription for the gentlemen referred to."

"What is a refinery?"

"It is a place where the crude oil taken out of the ground is made into kerosene and other products."

"Is it a philanthropic business?"

"Very much so A refinery seldom makes over 700 per cent. profit, and there is the wear and tear of the oil barrels and bungholes to come out of that. There are times when these philanthropists get almost discouraged. They would throw the business up if they didn't have such a deep feeling for the dear public."

"What is a committee of investigation?"

"It is a number of gentlemen empowered to ascertain just how much these pipe lines and refineries are making and sending to the heathen of Africa every year."

"And what is bookkeeping?"

"It is dropping five or ten million dollars out of sight so deftly that no committee can tell where it went to"

"Has dealings in oil a tendency to make men slick?"

"All the eels in the country wriggling 24 hours a day all the year 'round can't begin with them." JOE KERR.
