FINANCIAL and COMMERCIAL

Furnished by D. C. Clinch, Banker and Broker, Oct. 15th 1908.)

NEW YORK FINANCIAL BUREAU.

The Herald has an interesting poll among firms here. Foreign news shows no change in the situation this morning. There may be a few more uneasy reports from abroad but the matter seems likely to be closed for some time to come. The reports on business are still indicative of moderate improvement that will be converted into bustling activity in the event of the election of Taft. Money conditions show some firmness in rates and this may be experienced for a few weeks but we see no cause for apprehension. Firmness will check all talk of gold exports and may bring forward the question of imports. We see no reason to change the conservative position on the general list.

DETAILED STOCK GOSSIP.

N. P. information keeps bullish. Atch. is being taken back by foreign interests. U. P. is well bought on heaviness. The same may be said of So. Pac. Frick buying of Reading is reported on declines. Great Northern Pfd. should be taken on reactions and it will probably sympathize with N. P. Another drive at Mo. Pac. shorts is not far away. The Gould stocks deserve attention by bulls. Erie operations seem to be temporarily in suspension. The Amn. confirms our exclusive story to the effect that Harriman is lending assistance to Westinghouse on which information is bullish. Paul is still sold on rallies by professionals for turns. A.R., ACP., and Lead keep marking time without initiative. Good buying of Con. Gas is noted on declines with gossip that if the company wins its suit as expected, the gas rate will we cut to 90 cents to forestall legislation. The Herald says the Steel Corp'n is now operating at about 70 per cent. of capacity. Low priced specialities are still under bullish manipulation. We would not over-look K. T., Pump, Alton, Wabashes, etc.

Liverpool due 1 point higher on March and unchanged on other positions. Opened quiet and steady 1-2 to 1 1-2 points higher. 12.15 p.m.—Steady net 3 to 3 1-2 higher from Oct. to Feby. March inclusive and two points higher on later positions. Spot steady 1 point higher, mid. up's 5.03d.

Sales 4,000, speculation and export 200, American 3,000, imports 14,000, including 10,400 American.

Weather.—Generally fair is indicated for today and tomorrow over the belt.

Commercial.—"There is to be a meeting of Southern cotton men in Memphis early in Nov. It may not accomplish much, but it is well to bear in mind that upon the day the convention at which the Southern Cotton Association was organized was called to order in New Orleans. Cotton began to advance, and it is also history that it has never again sold as low as it was selling the day before that gathering."

TOWN TOPICS.

While the rallies may run a little further, we look for a downward tendency during the day, especially among the leading active stocks, which we would sell on bulges for turns. The technical position of the Harriman and Hill issues, Reading, St. Paul and ACP appear weak, as the short interest is small and continued selling by those who bought last week is to be looked for. Important banking interests will hardly attempt any aggressive bull demonstrations until the short interest increases or there is important favorable developments, which at the moment seems unlikely. On the other hand, another election scare is possible, and indeed, the political situation abroad might easily assume a grave aspect. Unless prepared to hold stocks through a slump, we think that longs, generally speaking, would do the wisely conservative trading to release onslaughts. The undertone in Penna., Atch., B. O., LN, the Southern Rails, KT. and Denvers, Mo. Pac., Tex. Pac., R. I. Pfd., Frisco 2nd Pfd., Fuel and Pump is strong and except in case of any general break, the long side of those stocks on reactions should be preferable for turns. Steel should do better, though for the long pull we are bearish on this issue.

SUMMARY.

Americans in London irregular with small changes.

Bank of England rate unchanged. Consols 1-4 lower at 84 3-4.

C. P. R. may electrify 700 miles of its Rocky Mountain system.

3rd Ave. will give transfers to cross town line, thereby competing strongly with Met.

No change in ACP. div. expected.

Iron Age takes conservative view of trade situation.

Light demand for stocks in the loan crowd.

C. B. Q. after charging $3,225,993 to betterments, show surplus after divs. for last year ended June 30, 1908, of $22,367, against $5,396,470 in previous year.

Balance after charges, 10.93 per cent. on stock.

Abnormally large cash reserves of banks offsetting usual harder tendency of money at this season.

Iron Trade Review reports better inquiry for railway equipment.

29 roads first week October show average gross decrease of 1.77 per cent.

Pac. Coast declared regular quarterly divs. of 1 per cent. on common, 1 per cent on 2nd pfd., and 1½ per cent. on First pfd.

12 industrials advanced .29, 20 active rails declined .04 per cent.

London, 2 p. m.—Consols, 84⅞; Anc., 43¾; C., 75½; Atch., 90¼; BO., 96; CPR., 175⅛; Den., 23¼; Erie, 31½; EF., 44¼; Ills., 138¼; KT., 36⅝; LN., 106¾; NP., 142¼; Cen., 104¼; OW., 40⅞; Pa., 123½; RG., 130; RI., 19¾; SR., 22; SJ., 53⅛; SP., 104; St. Paul, 136¼; UP., 165¼; US., 46⅞; UX., 109¾; WZ., 27¼.

BANK OF ENGLAND STATEMENT.

	This week	Last week.
Circulation	£29,058,000	£29,428,000
Public deposits	4,047,000	4,355,000
Private deposits	46,707,000	46,596,000

Propn. of res. to liabs.	51.03	50.93
Bullion	36,345,000	36,749,000

Bank rate 2½ per cent., unchanged.

Liverpool.—Wheat opened dull, ⅛ off; corn quiet, unchanged.

1.30 p. m.—Wheat ⅜ to ⅝ off from opening; corn ¼ off.

London.—Copper easy, spot 59, 10s., off 5s. Futures 60, 7s. 6d., off 5s.

The market may continue dull for a little while longer, but I think that stocks are a purchase on all reactions such as we had yesterday. Take profits on part of your line on the bulges, but keep long of some stocks, as I believe prices are going higher between now and election.

EVANS.

New York.—We find very persistent bulling of Nor. Pac. in a quiet way among certain well informed people who declare that they have not given up hope for an extra dividend for the stock. Much is being made of the C. P. R. improvement to capture the grain trade of the Northwest for shipment to Europe. Competent authorities say Europe is beginning to take back sold stocks. Instead of shipping certificates here the borrowing has been allowed to stand and repurchases made. This is especially for German account, according to reports received.

FAMOUS ENGLISH DETECTIVE QUITS

After Twenty-Seven Years' Service, Inspector Drew Ceases Once Onerous Work.

London, Oct. 14.—Edward Drew, senior chief inspector of the Criminal Investigation Department of Scotland Yard, and one of the famous "Council of Seven," has resigned after more than twenty-six years service "for private reasons."

His work in criminal investigation earned him the reputation of the greatest jewel theft detective of modern times. He has been instrumental in the recovery of tens of thousand of pounds worth of property and the capture of some of the cleverest criminals in the world.

Inspector Drew did a great deal of useful and quiet service in preventing robberies as well as in recovering stolen goods. He invariably had charge of the valuable presents conveyed to Sandringham for the King's birthday.

His ingenuity, especially in disguises, has led to many wonderful captures. He achieved a typical one a few years ago in the arrest of four men who had stolen $50,000 worth of jewels. To arrest them he had to effect a sudden entry into the house where the men were staying without arousing suspicion.

Milkmen arrived at the house one Sunday morning dressed in the usual aprons and glazed hats. The door was opened and left ajar while the opener went for a milk jug. In a moment the "milkmen." Inspector Drew among them, were in the house, and had arrested the thieves in their beds.

CHATHAM NEWS

Chatham, N. B., Oct. 15 (Special).—Tom Holmes who will take charge of the Chatham race track shortly, as Charles Henry intends moving west, reached town last night with Miss Gazette, the last little mare which took the 2.37 event at Bathurst and is now owned by J. D. Johnston, of Chatham. Mr. Holmes says the horse nearly broke its leg in a bad hole in Bathurst bridge. Commissioner Morrissey had been notified of the condition of the bridge but has done nothing.

Neil Black is in the Hotel Dieu Hospital in a dangerous condition. Besides his bruises it has been found that several of his ribs were stove in by Mariner when he jumped on him and it is agony for him to cough or move. Mariner's trial comes up tomorrow.

JAMES ROBINSON, CONSERVATIVE EX-M.P., WHEN ASKED BY A WINNIPEG REPORTER IN RESPECT TO THE COMING ELECTION IN NEW BRUNSWICK, REPLIED THAT HE FELT SURE THE HON. WM. PUGSLEY WOULD CARRY THE PROVINCE FOR THE LAURIER GOVERNMENT, PROBABLY TEN LIBERALS TO THREE CONSERVATIVES.

"I CAN ONLY HOPE THAT EVERY FAIR MINDED CITIZEN OF CANADA WILL RECOGNIZE THE DASTARDLY ATTEMPTS OF PREMIER HAZEN AND THE MEMBERS OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY TO USE ANY MEANS, NO MATTER HOW UNFAIR OR DISHONORABLE, TO DESTROY ME POLITICALLY."

HON. DR. PUGSLEY.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Ungar's Laundry has been a boon to the ladies this summer. Their white suit laundering is the praise of the town.

The home of good clothes, good shoes and low prices. A grand line of men's $15 suits for $12.48. C. B. Pidgeon makes good. Corner Main and Bridge streets.

John White has removed his stock of furniture to the first and second floors of his present building, where he will continue his great sale till entire stock is sold which must be by Feb. 1st, as building is rented for occupancy on that date.

AMATEURS AT THE PALACE.

Tonight will be amateur night at the Palace, owing to the fact that the hall is to be used for a political meeting Friday night.

There is a big list of amateurs already entered, and tonight promises to bring forth many new ones.

A big special bill of motion pictures will be shown, seven pictures in all, and every picture new and shown in first-class condition. No stops or breaks.

The illustrated song will be "When the Nightingales are Singing, Sweet Irene," with the most beautiful set of sudes ever shown on any curtain.

The performance will commence at 8 o'clock sharp.

A handsome watch will be given to the child who holds the lucky ticket at Saturday's matinee.
