SAD TRAGEDY IN A WESTERN HOSPITAL

Winnipeg, Dec. 4—The city council of Kenora is investigating the facts of a startling incident at the Jubilee Hospital connected with the death of a young man named Fairclough. Fairclough was recuperating from a slight attack of fever at the hospital.

A patient whose illness had not been definitely diagnosed was admitted. This patient was suffering from a virulent form of black diphtheria, and died from the effects. Soon afterwards young Fairclough developed symptoms of the same disease and died.

The nurse who attended him also contracted the disease, and her condition is so dangerous that her life is despaired of.

AMUSEMENTS

PRIZE MATINEE AT THE NICKEL TODAY

This is the day the Nickel's Kris Kringle Limerick Jingle contest begins and at the matinee every boy and girl—in fact every person who passes in the door—will be given a slip with the magic but incomplete verse printed upon it, and with spaces for the writer's name and address. These limericks may be completed either in the theatre or in the home and deposited in the prize ballot box in the Nickel lobby. A committee of newspaper men will be the judges and during Christmas week the prizes will be awarded. Read the advt. in this issue for the list of prizes. The show for today at the Nickel is a delightful one—two very funny comedies and a colored magic picture; two songs and the Dramagraph Co.

BEST CAMERAPHONE PROGRAMME TODAY

Those who have not seen and heard the wonderful cameraphone are asked to avail themselves of the remarkable week-end programme today, comprising six cameraphone numbers and two moving picture numbers. Rose Bergere, one of the best in vaudeville, will be heard in two characteristic selections, Charles Ellison's yodling song is worth going to the Opera House to hear, while Farmer Boys' Fun, a comedy vaudeville sketch, is a scream from start to finish. The Hand of Fate, a melodrama, will show the cameraphone in a different role from any other production of the week. The programme will be rounded out by two motion picture subjects. This will again be heard in the Opera House the week of Dec. 14, with an entire change of and several additions to the programme.

HARKINS COMPANY OPENS ON MONDAY

In a Bishop's Carriage, which the Harkins company are to present on Monday night next is a most absorbing play. It tells a straightforward story of a girl brought up by the society for the prevention of cruelty to children. She is taught to steal even while an inmate of the institutions, first for fun, then through necessity, and lastly through "love of the game." She and her partner, "Tom Dorgan," start out upon careers that are nothing if not exciting, and they work some rich hauls. This woman runs afoul of a man who has enough of the milk of human kindness in his heart to attempt her salvation, and she "turns cold" attempting to rob his home with her pal, and they are caught in the act.

Cures All Pleuritic Pains.

Just now they are very common, and many people seem subject to a mild inflammation of the lining of the lungs which, if neglected, spreads to the lung itself.

Prompt treatment with Nerviline is needed. Rub it in deeply—pain vanishes, relief is instant—pleurisy is cured. Quicker than a mustard plaster, more soothing and healing, Nerviline is sure to cure any ache, pain or congestion because it contains a combination of remedies that destroy internal and external pain of every kind; try a 25c. bottle—that will convince you.

NO BILL FOUND IN MAINE CASE

A telephone message to The Telegraph from Eastport last evening stated that the case of the United States against the Maine Mercantile Company of Eastport had been called yesterday before District-Attorney Whitehouse in Portland and presented to the jury who had returned no bill.

This case was brought charging the company, which markets the product of the sardine factories, with being a combine in restraint of trade and liable under the Sherman anti-trust law.

Rev. Dr. Pringle will address the Canadian Club in the hall at the new Y. M. C. A. building on Thursday next at 6.30 p. m. on The Yukon.
