GREEN'S SLAYERS CAPTURED NEAR SCENE OF THEIR CRIME

They Were Run to Earth Last Night—Found Frost Bitten Huddled in a Shack

Alex. Panarsky, The Jew, Who Was With Green When He Was Killed Identifies the Two Men as the Guilty Parties—None of the Booty Found on Them.

Plaster Rock, N. B., Dec. 21.—Cowering in a shack, with feet and hands frozen, the two Italians, Leon Sepepila and Tony Arosha, who are wanted on the charge of murdering and robbing Edward Green, known as "Paddy" Green, peddler, last Sunday morning, were arrested this afternoon by Chief of G. T. P. Police A. R. Foster, on the right of way, not more than two miles from the scene of the tragedy. They denied all knowledge of the crime.

Alex. Panarsky, the Jew who was also shot at and narrowly escaped sharing Green's fate, has identified the men, and they are now in custody at Bishop's hotel here. They will be taken to Andover for the preliminary investigation before Commissioner Farris tomorrow morning.

Only a few dollars were found on the men when arrested, but it is believed they made off with about $3,400 and forty watches after killing Green and rifling his peddler's box. A search for the missing booty will be made tomorrow.

The snow is about a foot deep in the woods and the thermometer below zero last night, and the wonder is that the fugitives did not perish as they laid in the snow all night.

The whole district was thoroughly aroused over the cold-blooded character of the crime, and on Sunday as many as six parties were in pursuit of the murderers. A. R. Foster, chief of the G. T. P. police, with Constable Joseph Pearson left Bristol as soon as word reached them and drove to Beaufort Settlement, where they struck the right of way, and then turned up to head off the fugitives.

Parties from Johnstone's camps, No. 1 and No. 2, kept watch all night at the point where the portage road crossed the right of way, and another party, under D. O. Johnston, the contractor, were on the look out at Wapske.

McDonald's camp sent a contingent to watch the Tobique Valley railway and the main road. A party under Constable MacRae, consisting of Benjamin Gee, Seymour Trafton, the game warden; Time Keeper King and others, spent the night in going from one camp to another, and on the west side of the Tobique men from Phillips and Burden's camp were on the alert to prevent the fugitives from joining the Italian camps in the neighborhood, where their identity would have been lost.

All this morning and well on into the afternoon the search was continued. In their flight the two Italians, either from ignorance of the district or from design, constantly doubled on their tracks, and went round in wide circles, which added to the difficulties of tracking them.

With the assistance of Benjamin Gee, who acted as guide, the posse under Constable MacRae picked up the trail this morning and, following it up, discovered where the men had lain down in the snow and lighted a fire. In another spot the remains of a lunch were found, and further on the party came on a large knife which had been thrown away.

Frozen swamps, where the brush was so thick that the tracks could scarcely be seen, were encountered and added to the difficulties. Other parties came upon the tracks, lost them, and found them again, and in some places it appeared as if the Italians had made desperate attempts to baffle their pursuers by jumping from the top of wind-falls.

While the other parties were scouring the country in the neighborhood of the crime, Chief of Police Foster and Constable Pearson were driving up the right of way from Beaufort Settlement. They traveled some twenty-five miles on Sunday and spent the night at Gilmore Brown's residence by previous arrangement. They were joined there by G. W. Bishop, of Plaster Rock, and James McLean, resident engineer on the G. T. P., and together the four started out again early this morning. Frequent excursions were made into the woods, and by noon the camp of Contractors Moore and Stubbs was reached and a halt was called for dinner. Resuming their drive up the right of way, it was about 4 o'clock when the party, in crossing the track, came in sight of a shack used by the Italian laborers. A little boy was splitting wood in the door way.

Chief of Police Foster was the first to enter. The first glance into the interior told him that the hunt was at an end. With feet and hands frozen and looking utterly done up and dejected, crouched the two Italians. They made no attempt at resistance. When asked what they were doing there, one who could speak English replied that they had just come along the right of way from Plaster Rock.

This was known to be incorrect, as a posse of men were guarding the right of way. Evidence of the men's foot prints where they had come out of the woods close by was clearly seen in the snow. They were promptly handcuffed and placed in the sleigh and a start was made for Plaster Rock.

The spot where they were discovered was about two miles from the scene of the murder, on the right of way. Panarasky, the Jew, who was with Freen, was overtaken in company with R. K. Beveridge, the coroner. He at once identified the Italians as the men who had done the shooting.

On arrival at Plaster Rock the men were taken to Bishop's hotel and searched. On Leon Sepepil was found $37 in money, a razor and a large open knife and a few pieces of jewelry. A few dollars were also found on Tony Arosha. The money found on them is believed to have been in their possession before the shooting. It is supposed that the proceeds of the robbery have been hidden. A thorough search, starting from the shack where the men were found, will be made tomorrow.

When questioned, the Italians denied all knowledge of the crime. One of them, who would appear to be not more than twenty years old, was much exhausted. It is believed they would not have survived another night in the open. After having eaten some supper they went to bed in charge of Chief Foster, who will look after them for the night. They will be taken to Andover in the morning, where a preliminary hearing will take place before Commissioner Farris, who is there in connection with some liquor cases.

Hon. W. P. Jones has been retained at the instance of J. G. Gagne, an attorney of Montreal, to represent Green's relatives at the investigation. An inquest will probably be held at Plaster Rock this evening.

It is learned today that on Saturday night last Green and Panarsky were at Ferguson's camp, about a mile from where the shooting took place. The murderers belonged to a camp about two miles west of this one which had been visited by the two pedlars the day before. These two Italians are believed to have overheard the plans of Green and his companion and knew that they were going to proceed on Sunday morning, so they hid in ambush behind a pile of logs.

When the two pedlars came along one of the Italians opened fire. The Jew was nearer in the line of fire and a bullet, grazing his chest, glanced off his pocket-book and went through Green's heart. The Jew pedlar ran for a mile and a half till he came to a camp of engineers and told what had happened. One of them got a powerful field glass and, looking down the right of way, saw two men bending over what is thought to have been the body of Green. The supposition is that at that time the Italians were employed in robbing the victim.

A sleigh was hitched up and the engineers went in pursuit of the murderers but by the time they reached the side of the body the murderers were far away.

About a quarter of a mile from where they killed Green the Italians discarded a portion of their plunder, then walked a couple of miles further, got rid of their weapons and pedlar's pack and there were evidences of their having taken luncheon.

They concealed some of their plunder under a log and covered it with spruce boughs. A case containing watches and a gun were found about a quarter of a mile from where the shooting took place. All the drawers of the pack had been opened and the watches with the cash had been taken.

Fredericton, Dec. 21—"Paddy" Green was known to railroad men all over Canada. For years he had followed the business of selling jewelry, pipes, etc., to men employed on railroad construction work. When the Temiskaming road construction was in progress in Ontario he made his head-quarters in North Bay and Toronto, and since the Grand Trunk Pacific has been building he made his home in Montreal, living when there at the Turkish Bath Hotel and having his mail re-addressed in care of Ed. Green, Craig street, Montreal.

Green was a native of Ireland. He was about forty years old and had a crippled arm. At times he cashed time checks on a liberal commission, and was in the habit of carrying a large amount of money with him and, being well known to the men and having the respect of the Swedes, especially with whom he did most of his business, he seldom met with trouble, as he never was known to do otherwise than play fair with his customers.

FLOATED BONDS IN ENGLISH MARKET

William Mackenzie, of the C. N. R., Successfully Floats $30,000,000 Worth of Bonds.

Toronto, Dec. 21.—"An electric railway along the line of the Electrical Development towers from Niagara to Toronto is a thing of the near future."

This was the announcement made by William MacKenzie this afternoon, just from England. The C. N. R. magnate issued denial of any knowledge of an electric merger but admitted the probability of a new suburban road from the falls to this city.

While admitting that he met Sir Henry Pellatt in England, Mr. MacKenzie denied that there was any change in the situation as regards acquiring the Toronto Electric Light Company.

MacKenzie declared that his whole mission in England had to do with floating certain bonds for the Monterey (Mexico) railway and water works and for the C. N. R. He floated £1,000,000 of bonds for the former and C. N. R. land grant bonds amounting to £5,000,000 were also floated. The former, bearing interest at 5 per cent, were disposed of at 89 and the C. N. R. 4 per cents at 95.

F. R. Crosby, of the finance department, Ottawa, and his brother, N. L. Crosby, of Pittsburg, are at the Royal They are on their way to Yarmouth (N S.), where they have been called by the illness of their mother.

LETTER FROM A FORTY-NINER

Here is a simple, interesting and sincere letter from a rugged pioneer of '49, who braved the dangers and hardships of the overland trail to California. It should appeal to all catarrh victims.

Santa Rosa, Cal., May 5, 1908.
Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sirs,—I was afflicted with catarrh and tried a number of remedies, but received no relief. I purchased an outfit of Hyomei, and before I had used the bottle I noted a marked relief. I used it for a month or so, and thought I was cured, and stopped using it for a year or so. Thought I was getting catarrh again, and started using it again. I use it every morning, and keep myself clear of catarrh. I consider it the best catarrh medicine that is used. I have often recommended it to my friends. I am 81 years old. I came to California in 1849, and of course am not as vigorous as I was 58 years ago. My address is 841 4th Street. Yours truly, W. Mock.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) is guaranteed by Charles Wasson, not only for catarrh, but for grip, coughs, colds, bronchitis and croup. A complete outfit, including inhaler, costs only $1.00; extra bottles of Hyomei, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents.

WILL ASK MAYOR TO TEST THE FEELING

Local Option Workers Will Ask for a Vote in Dukes, Victoria, Lorne and Lansdowne Wards.

Before the close of the year application will be made to Mayor Bullock for the taking of a vote on local option in Dukes, Victoria, Lorne and Lansdowne wards. It will be asked that the vote be taken at the elections for mayor and aldermen, on the third Tuesday of April next.

Meetings were held last night in Victoria, Lorne and Lansdowne wards. All the lists are not yet in but from those already in hand it was said that about 33 per cent of the electors in Lansdowne ward have signed the petitions and about 35 per cent in Lorne. When the lists are all in it is expected that these figures will be raised to 35 per cent in Lansdowne and from 45 to 50 per cent in Lorne. In these two wards the lists will close next Monday.

Good progress is also reported from Victoria ward. It is said that some of the lists have been signed by 70 to 80 per cent of the electors. When the lists are finally closed representatives from each of the four wards will meet and call upon the mayor for the purpose of asking him to have the vote taken.

M. F. Irwin, former manager of the McClary Manufacturing Company's branch here, left last evening for London (Ont.), where he will assume the position of sales manager.
