

KASER BITTERLY ASSAILED OVER THE LONDON INTERVIEW

Emperor of Germany Was Severely Judged By His Parliament Yesterday— Many Criticized Him But Not One Voice Was Raised In His Defence.

Berlin, Nov. 10.—Emperor William never has been so severely judged by his parliament as he was today during the debate in the Reichstag on the interpellations concerning the conversations published with the permission of the emperor in the London Daily Telegraph, on October 28. The criticisms of His Majesty's court, his ministers and His Majesty's treatment of the constitution, as well as of his freedom of speech, went to lengths that astonished observers acquainted with the traditional caution of the chamber in dealing with the personality of the sovereign. And the emperor seemed to have no defenders.

Chancellor Von Buelow made an address lasting 15 minutes, but he lacked his usual spirit and a person high in his confidence is authority for the statement that he had told the emperor that neither himself nor his successors could remain in office unless His Majesty were more reserved. Prince Von Buelow spoke solemnly, and without making use of any dramatic effects. The house received his explanation in icy silence, instead of giving it that cordial applause which is a general thing following the chancellor's fine parliamentary declarations.

The Conservatives, representing largely the landed nobility, were almost as relentless as the Socialists, the Radicals and the National-Liberals, and today's proceedings are regarded by the extreme Liberals as the beginning of a long contest between the Crown and parliament, that may end in Germany having a ministry responsible to parliament and not to the Crown alone.

When Herr Bassermann, the National-Liberal leader, a friend of Chancellor Von Buelow's, and a specialist in foreign affairs, began his discussion of the incident there was hardly a vacant seat on the members' benches, while the galleries were brilliant with the uniforms of officers and the costumes of women. In the royal box were Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein; Duke Ernst Guenther, a brother of the emperor; General Jacoby, the Imperial adjutant, and General Von Moltke, chief of the general staff, while on the raised platforms facing the chamber sat the members of the Bundesrat, including the resident envoys of all the German federated states. Some thirty foreign newspaper correspondents were in the press tribune.

Herr Bassermann was followed by Herr Weimer, Radical, and in turn gave way to Herr Singer, Socialist, who declared that if any other servant of the state had done such a thing as had Emperor William, he would be brought before an Imperial court for trial.

Prince Von Buelow spoke earnestly in reply to the critics of the government and the emperor. His address was devoid of gesture. He said:

"I must weigh my words because of the effect they will have abroad. I do not wish to add fresh prejudice to the damage already caused by the publication in the Daily Telegraph. I assume that the details given therein are not all correct and I am certain that the story of a detailed plan of campaign to end the Boer war is not right."

"This plan consisted merely of some academic ideas concerning the conduct of war in general, which the emperor conveyed to Queen Victoria in the course of their correspondence, and which was of no practical significance for the operations then going on or for the end of the war. We must defend our policy during the Boer war against accusation and equivocation. We gave timely warning to the Boers that they would be alone against England and that there was no doubt regarding the result.

"The facts with reference to the question of intervention long have been public property, and whether the communication of these to Queen Victoria constituted a violation of diplomatic rules depends on circumstances unknown to the public."

"Concerning the statement attributed to Emperor William that a majority of the German people is hostile to Great Britain, the expressions used by the Telegraph are too strong. Serious and regrettable misunderstandings have existed between Great Britain and Germany, but the German people desire peaceful and friendly relations, with that empire, joined with mutual respect."

"Too great stress is also laid upon the point in the interview dealing with our interests in the Pacific Ocean, which are incorrectly presented as inimical to Japan. We never thought about Asia. The emperor's policy is not to limit the development of Japan."

"For twenty years the Emperor has striven to improve the relations with Great Britain, often under difficult circumstances. The peoples of both countries occasionally have attacked each other without real justification and the emperor considered this a misfortune for both and a danger to the civilized world. The emperor's idealistic thoughts, purposes and efforts often, without reason, have caused doubts to arise. We wish to avoid anything like the currying of favor abroad or anything appearing to savor of our insecurity or the running after anyone, but I quite understand the emperor feeling aggrieved when attacked, because of his zealous and honest efforts to bring about good relations with Great Britain. Some have gone so far as to imply secret designs against Great Britain in connection with the fleet, but these implications are entirely false."

"The recognition by His Majesty of the unjustified misunderstanding of his utterances with reference to Great Britain and the excitement and regret aroused thereby, I am convinced, will lead the emperor in future private conversations to exercise that care which in the interest of a uniform policy and the authority of the crown is indispensable. If this prove not to be so, neither I nor anyone of my successors could take the responsibility. I accepted the blame for the publication of the article in the Daily Telegraph and offered my resignation, and it was the most difficult task in my political life to resolve to remain in office. How long I will continue there, I do not know, but I consider it my duty at this difficult period to continue to serve the emperor and the nation."

B. R. MACAULAY IS RE-ELECTED

He is Again the Head of the Westfield Outing Association for Another Year.

The annual meeting of the Westfield Outing Association held last night in the board of trade rooms was very successful. The project of building a pavilion at Westfield was talked over and a committee was appointed to arrange for the raising of funds. It was suggested that the association hold an annual cruise on the river. The matter was left in the hands of the sailing committee to confer with the boat owners and report at the first meeting of the association in the new year.

The president, B. R. Macaulay, was in the chair. The reports from the officers and committees were read and adopted. They showed that the association was in a healthy condition financially. The membership has also grown, the present figures, 203, showing an increase of fifty over last year. The suggestion to build a pavilion at Westfield was received with enthusiasm and a committee was appointed to plan entertainments during the winter, the proceeds to go towards defraying the expense.

The election of officers resulted as follows: B. R. Macaulay, president; W. C. Rothwell, vice-president; E. E. Church, secretary-treasurer; H. B. Robinson, E. A. Inches, D. W. Ledingham, Dr. J. R. McIntosh, J. H. Dooly, M. M. Jarvis, J. A. Likely, Geo. L. Warwick, Alex. Macaulay, G. M. Robertson, John Frodsham, R. M. Magee, P. D. McAvity, G. W. Paterson, executive committee; F. H. Ruel, G. M. Robertson, W. A. Church, Charles Leonard, J. A. Likely, J. Clawson, Dr. H. C. Wetmore, and H. B. Robinson, sailing committee. A committee was also appointed to make train arrangements for the season with the C. P.R.

TWO IN ONE ALBERTA FAMILY

Cured of Eczema by D. D. D. Prescription, Mrs. D. McGillivray of Nanton, Alta, tells her Experience Last Spring.

She wrote us on March 9th, 1908: "I am glad to say I received the three One Dollar Bottles of D. D. D. and two cakes of Soap safely, and am delighted with the result of both prescription and Soap. The Soap is all that is required to complete the treatment. The little boy of two years and a half is to all appearances cured of the dreadful Eczema. "My baby girl at two months broke out with the same rash and I treated her with the D. D. D. and an perfectly satisfied she is cured, to our great joy. I feel sure it is a splendid remedy for all skin diseases and I can highly recommend it. I shall always try and keep a bottle as a household remedy, for we feel thankful to you for it. I shall be glad to recommend it to any one suffering with skin troubles."

Why let the little ones suffer tortures from horrid, itching skin disease? Why upset their stomachs with vile drugs when D. D. D. Prescription, applied externally, will give instant relief and a speedy cure.

CAPT. BELVEA OF SCHR. R. D. SPEAR REACHES ST. JOHN

He Says Crew of the Wrecked Schooner Had Hard Time Before Austrian Steamer Rescued Them.

Captain Belvea and crew of the United States schooner R. D. Spear, before reported lost off Bermuda on the night of Oct. 29, while on the passage from Philadelphia to Calais, arrived in this city last Monday night. Captain Belvea says that before the Austrian steamship Maria came to their rescue he thought it was all up with him and the crew. The great gale had stripped the vessel of her rigging and her sails had blown away, the vessel was rapidly filling, great waves washing over her deck. Those on board when the steamer hove in sight worked like beavers to keep her aloft and when they were rescued by the Maria's crew they were pretty well worn out.

Captain Belvea also says that too much praise cannot be given to the master and crew of the Maria for their timely rescue of her deck. Those on board were of thanks to Captain Zavevick of the Maria.

Captain Belvea, whose home is in Calais, will leave this morning for home. His friends in the city are glad to see him back safely after his escape.

FOUR NOTED CANADIANS WHO WERE KNIGHTED BY THE KING

E. S. Clouston, General Manager of the Bank of Montreal, is Given a Baronety While General Lake, Hugh Graham and General McDonald are Knighted.

The King's birthday honors include the following Canadians: E. S. Clouston, Montreal, a baronetcy. Major-General P. H. N. Lake, Ottawa, knight commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. Brigadier-General D. A. McDonald, Ottawa, Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. Hugh Graham, Montreal, knight bachelor.

The Order of Baronets, the lowest hereditary rank, was instituted in 1811. Sir E. S. Clouston is the first Canadian to hold the title, the list being:

Sir Wm. George Johnson (4th).
Major-General Sir Edward Andrew Stuart (3rd).
Sir John Beverley Robinson (4th).
Sir Cyril S. Ross, K.C.M.G., C.B., (1st).
Sir Charles Tupper, G.C.M.G., C.B., (1st).
SIR EDWARD S. CLOUSTON.

Sir Edward Seaborn Clouston is the son of the late James Clouston, chief factor of the Hudson's Bay Company, and was born at Moose Factory, N.W.T. He was educated at the Montreal School and entered the service of the Bank of Montreal as a junior clerk on March 8, 1865. After passing through the various grades of service, he was appointed assistant general manager in 1887, acting general manager in 1888, and general manager of the bank in November, 1889. He had the advantage of serving under or acting with six of the ablest financiers Canada has ever known, the late E. H. King, the late C. F. Smith, R. B. Angus, W. J. Buchanan, Lord Mount Stephen and Lord Strathcona. Mr. Clouston was largely instrumental in the framing of the Bank Act of 1890, and in its subsequent revision, and was honored by the Canadian Bankers' Association by election to its presidency on its formation, an office he was unable to accept on account of other engagements, but which he has since filled and which he now holds. He is one of the governors of the Royal Victoria Hospital, a member of the council of the Art Association, besides being identified with many other local societies and associations. He is also the directorate of a number of large business corporations. When Lord Strathcona retired from the presidency of the Bank of Montreal, becoming its first honorary president, being succeeded in the presidency by Sir George A. Drummond, Sir Edward Clouston was elected to the vice-presidency, retaining the position of general manager. He was married in November, 1875, to Annie, the youngest daughter of George Easton, formerly collector of customs at Brockville, Ont.

SIR PERCY LAKE.

Major-General Sir Percy Henry Noel Lake is the son of Lt.-Col. P. G. B. Lake, formerly an officer in the 1st and 2nd regiments, and of Wimmerleigh Grange, Grenfell, N. W. T., by his wife, a daughter of the late Wm. Phillips, Quebec. He was born at Tenby, Pembrokeshire, England, June 29th, 1855, was educated at Uppingham and entered the army as cadet in the 10th regiment in August, 1873. He was promoted to be captain in the East Lancashire Regiment, October, 1885, and major in July, 1891. September, 1895, he became lieutenant colonel, and colonel in the same year. He served in the Afghan War in 1879 as assistant field engineer with the Southern Afghanistan field force (medal) and in the Sudan, 1885, attached to the intelligence department, and was present at the engagements at Hasheen and Tondra, and in the advance to Tonal (medal with two clasps and Kheive's star). He passed the staff college course with honours in 1884; was on the headquarters staff of the army 1887-88, D. A. general intelligence headquarters of the army, 1888-90; and D. A. general, Dublin, 1892-3. He acted also as secretary to Lord Wontage's intelligence headquarters of the army, 1894-5, and displayed great ability, industry and tact in the performance of his duties. On the outbreak of the Boer war he was appointed general of the Canadian militia he was appointed to it in September, 1899. In 1896 he was entrusted with a mission to England in connection with the re-arming of the militia. He resigned his connection with the Canadian forces in 1898 and returned to England, served as assistant quartermaster-general at army headquarters from 1896 to 1899, and as chief staff officer, second army corps, 1901-2, in the latter year accepting the appointment to the office of chief of the general staff of the Canadian militia. In 1902 he was created a Companion of the Bath, and in 1905 a commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, of which he has now been made a Knight Commander.

SIR HUGH GRAHAM.

Sir Hugh Graham is the son of the late W. R. Graham, of Huntingdon, Que., and was born at Athelstan, Que., on July 18th, 1848. He was educated at Huntingdon Academy and served his apprenticeship in newspaper work under his uncle, the late E. H. Parsons, who published the Commercial Advertiser and afterwards the Evening Telegram in Montreal. On the discontinuance of the last-named paper, on which he had been engaged, Mr. Graham became for a time secretary-treasurer of the association publishing The Gazette, in January, 1899, in company with the late G. T. Laidlaw and Marshall Hall. He commenced the publication of the Evening Star, the full control of the paper soon after passed into Mr. Graham's hands. He married in March, 1882, Miss Annie Beckman Hamilton.

BRIGADIER-GENERAL MACDONALD, G. M. G.

Brigadier-General D. A. Macdonald was born in 1845, and is a son of the late A. E. Macdonald, deputy clerk of the crown and registrar of the Surrogate Court at Cornwall, Ont. He married in 1876, Mary, second daughter of the late Hon. Mr. Justice Richardson, of the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories. He served during the Fenian raids in 1866 and the Red River Rebellion of 1870, receiving a medal with two clasps. He also served in the Northwest Rebellion of 1885, and received another medal. He holds the long service medal. He was for some time chief appointment of military stores and director-general of ordnance, and since 1904 has been quartermaster-general of ordnance. In 1905 he received the I. S. O.

Mrs. Chas. F. Tilley and her niece, Mrs. Wm. H. Shaw, left yesterday on a trip to Europe. They expect to spend the winter in Italy.

Mrs. L. Garside

PSYCHINE SAVED THIS LADY'S LIFE

This statement is no fiction, for Mrs. L. Garside resides at 509 York Street, London, Ont., and to use her own words is: "Always happy to reply to anxious enquirers and let them know what PSYCHINE has done for me. Four years ago, Mrs. Garside wrote: "Your remedy, PSYCHINE, did wonders for me. I was about 28 or 30 years of age when I took your treatment. I was in consumption and the very best doctors told me there was nothing else that could be done, (this was 20 years ago) so as a last hope I gave your remedies a trial. From the first this was a most wonderful success. PSYCHINE certainly gave me new lungs, and I honestly believe PSYCHINE saved my life."

Writing four years after under date August 7, 1908, Mrs. Garside says: "My statement still holds good, my lungs never troubled me after your treatment which I took after being told there was no hope."

PSYCHINE, Dr. Slocum's great Health Remedy, is known everywhere as Nature's Greatest Tonic, building up the entire system not only rendering it proof against these terrible germ and other diseases, that are so deadly in their operation, but it is the sworn and deadly foe of the germs and the diseases themselves. Bacilli, or disease germs, cannot live in the system with PSYCHINE. Send for FREE TRIAL BOTTLE. See coupon.

All druggists and dealers sell PSYCHINE, 50c & $1.00 bottle.

WILL BE A DEADLOCK IN THE NEWFOUNDLAND HOUSE

Formal Returns From the Elections Give Each Party Eighteen Seats—Recount Asked in Harbor Grace Where Government Supporter Has Majority of One Vote.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 10.—The returns from St. Barbe, the final constituency to be heard from in Newfoundland, turned out as anticipated, the latest bulletin giving Clapp (Government) 9/2, and Mott (Opposition) 6/7. This leaves the standing of the parties in the legislature as follows: Government, 18; Opposition, 18. The districts now line up as a result of the general election as follows:—

Constituency	Opp.	Gov.
Carboneau	1	1
Harbor Grace	1	2
Hazler Maine	2	1
Southern Shore	1	1
Bay de Verde	2	1
Port Degrave	1	3
St. John's East	1	2
St. John's West	3	1
Burin	1	1
St. George's	1	1
Trillivant	1	3
Placentia	1	3
Fogo	1	1
Fortune Bay	1	1
Burgeo	1	1
St. George's	1	1
Bonaville	1	1
St. Barbe	1	1
Totals	18	18

This standing may be affected by a recount in Harbor Grace, which has been demanded. In that constituency Hon. Eli Dawe (Government) was declared elected over Mr. Seymour (Opposition) by a majority of one, the total vote between these two candidates being Dawe, 1,147; Seymour, 1,146. Harbor Grace has three representatives two of them having gone to the government and one to the opposition.

There is little doubt that Premier Bond will find means of retaining power, providing the recount in Harbor Grace does not change the representation there and make the standing 19 to 17 instead of the tie that now prevails.

It has happened before in Newfoundland political history that a candidate has accepted office and vacated a seat in the legislature. The house will not meet till late in the winter or early in the spring. In Newfoundland an election cannot be held in the outlying districts except in the summer or autumn.

If, when Premier Bond meets the house, there are one or two vacancies on the opposition side, even if the legislature meets in the winter an election on before the spring or early summer would not be considered. Premier Bond has held power for now for two terms. This is the beginning of a third. For eight years he has held sway in the Antigonish Colony, and there will be some exciting times in deciding whether it is to continue.

LOCAL BYE ELECTIONS ARE CALLED FOR DEC. 1

Nomination in Northumberland and Carleton Counties Will be Held on Nov. 24.

The bye-elections in Northumberland and Carleton Counties were decided on at a meeting of the provincial government held here yesterday. Nominations will take place on November 24, and polling a week later, on December 1.

Donald Morrison, of Northumberland, former speaker in the house, and B. Frank Smith, of Carleton, both resigned their seats to enter the contest for federal honors and were defeated. It is announced that Ernest Hutchinson, of Douglas town, a well known lumberman, will be a candidate in Northumberland, either as an independent or a local government candidate.

The Drummond Company asked for certain privileges in connection with their iron mines at Bathurst, and as legislation would have to be obtained to grant their request, a committee consisting of Surveyor-General Grimmer, Hon. Mr. Morrissey and Hon. Mr. Maxwell, was appointed to visit Bathurst and inspect the mines. The committee will leave for Bathurst today.

It is announced that W. A. Quinton, for many years steward of the Provincial Hospital, Lancaster, will sever his connection with that institution this week and his duties will be taken over by Dr. J. V. Anglin, the superintendent. This is in accordance with a decision reached some time ago.

Among the matters considered was the sending of an agent of the government to Kentucky to purchase a number of brood mares of high quality and bring them to New Brunswick for the purpose of improving the stock in the province. The Provincial Hospital commissioners yesterday awarded contracts for the supplies for the hospital as follows:—
Dry goods—Manchester, Robertson & Allison.

THE CITY VOTERS

Revisors' Lists Filed With Common Clerk Show an Increase of 286 Voters During Year.

In compliance with the law which requires the voters' lists to be filed with the common clerk on or before Nov. 10, the revisors handed in the lists for 1909 yesterday. There are 11,177 voters on the new lists as against 10,891 last year, making an increase of 286.

The revisors this year were S. E. Logan, Ald. Christie and Ald. Sproul.

MANY HAD RECIPED FILLED

Tremendous Popularity of the Home Prescriptions Says Local Druggist Who Fills the Simple Recipe Many Times

That the readers of this paper appreciate advice when given in good faith is plainly demonstrated by the fact that one well-known local pharmacy supplied the ingredients for the "vegetable prescription" many times within the past two weeks. The announcement of this simple, harmless mixture has certainly accomplished much in reducing the great many cases of kidney complaint and rheumatism here relieving pain and misery, especially among the older population, who are always suffering more or less with bladder and urinary troubles, backache and particularly rheumatism.

Another well-known druggist asks us to continue the announcement of this prescription. It is doing so much real good here, he continues, that it would be a crime not to do so. It can not be repeated too often, and further states many cases of remarkable cures wrought.

The following is the prescription, of simple ingredients, making a harmless, expensive compound, which any person can prepare by shaking well in a bottle: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Any first-class drug store will sell this amount of each ingredient, and the dose for adults is one teaspoonful to be taken after each meal and again at bedtime. There is enough here to last for one week, if taken according to directions. Good results will be apparent from the first few doses.

INTERESTING LIQUOR CASES UP AT SUSSEX

Canadian Express Company Charged With Violating Temperance Act.

Sussex, N. B., Nov. 10.—Two cases of unusual interest came before the police court here today, which took up the greater part of the day.

On October 29, Scott Act constables made a seizure of supposed liquor from the office of the Canadian Express Company at Sussex and Apohaqui Stations, and in each case took away two boxes.

Mr. Sherwood, of Sussex, and Mr. Morrison, of Apohaqui, agents for the Express Company, were summoned to appear in court, charged with violating the Temperance Act in keeping liquor for delivery. Mr. Sherwood's case was heard first. The two boxes seized from his office were addressed to private individuals, who appeared on the stand and swore that the goods addressed to them were for their own private use and not for sale. The evidence in this case is all in and it only remains for the counsel to address the court.

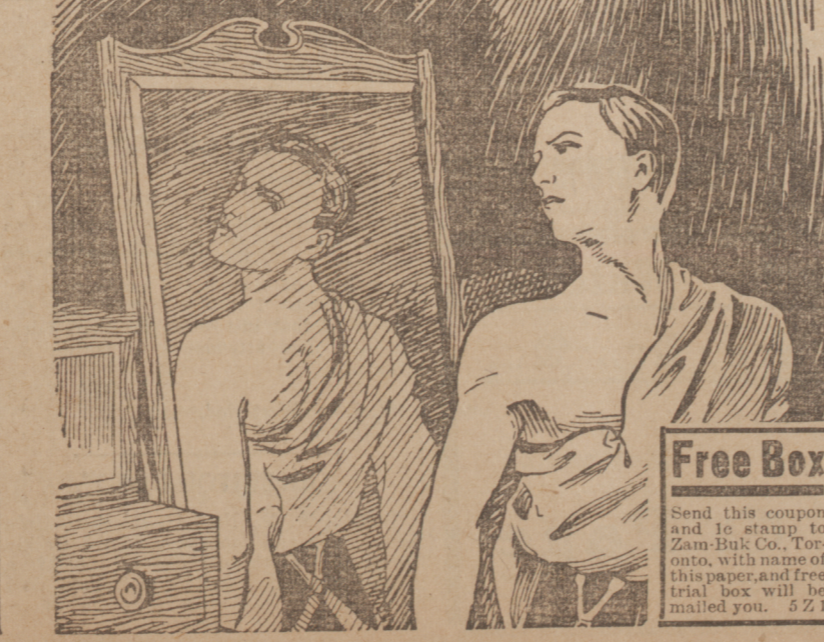

The case against Mr. Morrison, agent at Apohaqui, was next argued. The two boxes that were seized were taken from the platform immediately after the arrival of the Sussex train, Oct. 20th.

ZAM-BUK AND A MIRACLE OF HEALING

Over and over again Zam-Buk has performed a miracle of healing when applied to sores and skin injuries which have refused to heal under any other form of treatment. Why not let it heal your troubles? Immediately Zam-Buk is applied to a sore or wound or diseased portion of flesh it commences its work in two directions. It antiseptics prevent any germs and bacilli from creating trouble. Then the herbal essence and juices so finely purified and concentrated, penetrate the subjacent layers and stimulate the weakened or diseased cells to active, healthy operation. These cells then put forth their "Building" products and replace the diseased outer layer with fresh and healthy tissue. By degressing the whole diseased surface is thus replaced by new healthy skin.

In this way Zam-Buk cures cuts, burns, blisters, ulcers, abscesses, itch, eczema, eruptions, pustules, scabs, the salt scum, blood poison, and other forms of skin trouble. Zam-Buk also cures piles, varicose ulcers, etc. All druggists and stores sell at 50c per box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 6 boxes $2.50.

Hidden Skin Troubles

Have you on some part of your body a sore, or eruption, or ulcer, or eczematous patch which, hidden from the gaze of others, yet causes you hours and hours of pain and inconvenience? Have you tried this, and that, and the other remedy in vain, and are you feeling disheartened and discouraged? If so read the following instances of Zam-Buk's healing power, and apply it to your case:

"I had an ulcerated leg for several years. The ulcers spread all round the limb, which was swollen to nearly twice its normal size. Several doctors treated me. One suggested amputation. None did me any good. Zam-Buk healed the sores!" So says Mrs. Gilmour, of Princess St., Kingston, Ont., real this—
"My mother tried many things for abscesses and eruptions, but in vain. In Zam-Buk she found a complete cure." So says Miss A. Coggill, of Wapella (Sask.).
Sufferers from these "Hidden Skin Troubles" of any nature should profit by such experiences as this. Zam-Buk is seen at its best when applied to cases which have defied ordinary treatment. Write for trial box, and test it at our expense.
