NEW YORK WORLD TAKES IT BACK

American Newspaper Apologizes for Publication of Alleged Hale Interview.

New York, Nov. 29—The New York World which recently published what it explains it then honestly believed to be a correct synopsis of the interview given by the German emperor to Dr. Wm. Bayard Hale and subsequently suppressed, has sent a cablegram to Chancellor Von Buelow saying the Hale interview was incorrect and unjustified.

The cablegram is as follows:

"After a painstaking investigation, the New York World find no convincing basis of fact for its published synopsis of the Hale interview with His Majesty, the German Emperor. It accepts your verdict that the alleged interview ascribed to the Emperor 'stupidly absurd words which he cannot have uttered.' As a matter of simple justice to the German Emperor and the German people, the World will print an editorial leader Monday morning expressing its sincere regret at the publication of a synopsis which it regards as misleading and mischievous. It was an honest mistake committed merely through over-zeal, without the knowledge of the proprietor or chief editor, and so late at night that the article did not appear in the first edition. Proofs of the synopsis sent to the author of the interview had been corrected in his own handwriting, and this was naturally accepted as evidence that the article, as printed, was personally approved by him.

"The New York World."

In publishing the foregoing cablegram tomorrow, the World will state that the synopsis was submitted to Dr. Hale prior to its publication and that "ten words from him would have made publication impossible." It will add that Dr. Hale, having contented himself with the excision of several statements, the World printed the corrected copy in the belief that Dr. Hale in personally correcting the proofs, had affirmed the truth of every statement he left untouched."

CAME LONG DISTANCE TO MARRY IN ST. JOHN

Miss Pierson, of London, and A. E. Hagger, of Vancouver, Are Wedded Here.

Within four hours of setting foot on Canadian soil, Miss G. Pierson, of London (Eng.), yesterday became the bride of A. E. Hagger, of Vancouver. The lady was a passenger on the Allan line S. S. Victorian, which arrived at noon, and awaiting her was Mr. Hagger, who, since his arrival in the city last Thursday to meet his bride, had made all arrangements for the wedding.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. G. A. Kuhring, the rector, took place in the Stone church at 3.30 p. m. Miss Pierson, who carried a bouquet of white roses, presented to her in token of welcome to Canada, was given away by William Downie, an old friend of the groom. Miss Downie was bridesmaid and a number of friends were present to witness the happy event.

Arnold Fox presided at the organ and at the conclusion of the ceremony, played the wedding march.

It had been expected by the groom that his bride to be would reach here on Saturday and the Sunday wedding was because of the lady's arrival being a day late.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagger, who are staying at the Royal, will leave on the C. P. R. this evening for their home in Vancouver, where Mr. Hagger is the representative of a large English firm.

THE ART CLUB

At a meeting of the executive committee of the new art association on Friday evening it was decided that the society should be known as The Art Club, and should have as its objects "the advancement of the knowledge and love of art, through the exhibition of works of art, the acquisition of books and papers for the purpose of forming an art library, lectures upon subjects pertaining to art, and by other kindred means, and the promotion of social intercourse among its members."

The membership fee per annum was fixed at $2 for gentlemen and $1 for ladies, with the proviso that such members as used the studio in carrying on their art work should pay $1 additional per annum for the privilege.

The charter list of members will be kept open for some weeks, and it is hoped that many who have not yet signified their intention of joining the club will hand in their names without delay to any member of the executive committee which is now composed as follows: President, W. S. Fisher; vice-presidents, Mrs. Silas Alward, Miss McGivern and Alex. Watson; secretary, Wm. Brodie; assistant secretary, Mrs. R. G. Murray; treasurer, M. V. Paddock; and Mrs. Murray MacLaren and E. T. Sturdee, F. E. Holman.

There will be meetings tonight to consider ward prohibition. They will be in Carmarthen street Methodist church for Sydney ward; Tabernacle hall, for Victoria ward; and Christian church, Douglas avenue, for Thorne and Lansdowne wards.

The steamer Mauretania has gone into dry dock at Liverpool for an extensive overhaul. The Lusitania will continue running during the greater part of the winter.

Cameraphone Postponement

TILL TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Owing to the shipping office of the Cameraphone Co. in New York, sending the Cameraphone outfit via Montreal, by mistake, the apparatus has unfortunately been delayed, and will not arrive until today at noon, too late for today's showing.

The management exceedingly regrets the necessity existing for above announcement and begs the indulgence of the public assuring them at the same time that the remarkable Cameraphone performances of Mikado and other big features are well worth waiting longer for, than this instance will necessitate.

A private rehearsal will be held tonight and everything ready for the public tomorrow at 2.30.

MIKADO will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday and change of programme Thursday and Saturday.

Afternoon 2.30 till 5.30, Evening 7 till 10.30
Prices afternoon and evening 5c. and 10c.

SPEAKS OF DIFFERENCES OF CHIEF AND MAGISTRATE

Relations Between Chief Clark and Magistrate Ritchie Subject of Pulpit Criticism.

Rev. J. C. Berrie, pastor of the Methodist church in Marysville, in the course of a temperance sermon in Centenary church last evening, referring to the liquor traffic said many regarded it as too great a problem and were afraid to touch it. This was true of the courts of justice and of officers of law.

He regretted to read in the newspapers that the police magistrate and chief of police in St. John were constantly criticizing each other. It was not in the interests of justice or morality. The same was true of the differences between the Fredericton city council and the police commission. These things were not conducive to the maintenance of law and order.

It was about time that the masters of these men saw that justice was done and that the rights of the people were protected.

Palpitation of the Heart.

One of the first danger signals that announce something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or again, there may be a most violent beating, with flushings of the skin and visable pulsations of the arteries. The person may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond all question, marvellous. They give such prompt relief that no one need suffer.

Mr. Sylvester Smith, Hampton, N.B., writes:—"I was troubled with palpitation of the heart and tried doctor's medicines, but they only gave me temporary relief. I heard of your Heart and Nerve Pills and bought two boxes and before I had used them I was completely cured and would recommend them to all similarly affected."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
