KAISER EVIDENTLY IS ANXIOUS FOR TROUBLE

German Emperor Wants to Humiliate France.

German Government Insists Upon an Apology for Case Blanca Incident—William Alone is Responsible for This Attitude.

Paris, Nov. 7.—The Matins Berlin correspondent says:—It is declared in official circles late tonight that Germany has rejected the French proposal submitted by Ambassador Cambon, and that the Government insists on France expressing regret at the actions of the French soldiers at Casablanca toward an official of the German consulate. The Emperor alone is responsible for this attitude, and requires that every modification of the German demands be submitted to him by Prince Von Buelow, the Imperial Chancellor, and Herr Van Schoenen, Secretary for Foreign Affairs.

McQUADE'S FONDNESS FOR FOWL HIS UNDOING

Caught With Four Chickens in a Bag He Will Eat His Thanksgiving Dinner in Jail.

In the police court this morning, Joseph McQuade, aged 30, was accused of purloining four Plymouth rock chickens from some unknown person. He denied that he had surreptiously invaded a henhouse, and also pleaded not guilty to lying and lurking in a yard off Brussels street last night. Policeman Ward testified that he and Sergt. Caples saw McQuade behaving suspiciously in the yard, as if seeking a rendezvous to conceal himself and a bag he had in one hand from the eyes of the police. On investigation, the officers found McQuade under an old shed, and when asked to explain his presence there, he said, "Oh, I'm doing nothing. I'm just here, that's all." He denied having a bundle, but when a bag containing the chickens was uncovered, he recalled that statement and said a man named McHugh presented them to him on the Marsh Bridge, and he intended to dispose of them to a Chinaman.

The prisoner is a well-known character on the Marsh Road. To ascertain the identity of the loser of the poultry, McQuade was remanded to jail, where he will partake of his Thanksgiving dinner with chicken absent from the menu.

Frank Hayes, a twenty-year-old youth, admitted the charge of inebriation on City Road at midnight. He repeated the thread bare tale, "I got it from two fellows on King square, and I don't know the fellows."

Magistrate—Well, you should be in a lunatic asylum. You mustn't be right to take stuff from a bottle when you don't know whether it's vitriol or not.

Prisoner—I guess I'm not right in the head, your honor, anyway.

He has been at Chipman employed on the G. T. P. He was remanded for enquiries.

DELEGATES ARE BACK FROM OTTAWA

Rev. David Hutchinson Talks of Union Scheme

Had it not Been for the Attitude of Some Ontario Baptists Union Plan Could have Been Adopted at Ottawa Meeting.

Rev. David Hutchinson and T. S. Simms, of this city, delegates to the Canadian Baptist Union, which met at Ottawa, returned on today's Montreal train.

To a Times reporter, Rev. Mr. Hutchinson talked very interestingly of the convention. At first he said there was a feeling of disappointment on the part of the Maritime Baptists, owing to the resolution that was passed by the Jarvis street church, Toronto. Mr. G. A. Thompson, an active deacon of the Jarvis street church, brought on a resolution which discouraged the formation of a union, and was calculated to defeat the purpose for which the delegates were assembled.

Rev. Mr. Huitchinson, securing the privilege of the Ontario and Quebec conventions, immediately pointed out that if the resolution referred to reflected the feeling of the Ontario and Quebec Baptists, the Maritime body had been misled, and in coming to Ottawa were wasting time and money. Mr. Thompson's motion did not carry, and another motion, much modified and more fraternal in its character, was carried.

Mr. Hutchinson told of the meeting at which there were more than 300 delegates, and at which Councillor C. C. Jones, of U. N. B., presided. At this meeting a constitution and bye-laws were adopted to be submitted to the various churches. The Union could have been consummated at once by a large majority vote, but it was thought, as the executive could not execute its prerogative for a year and for the sake of an element of Ontario Baptists, it was better to defer action for a year.

Among the Maritime members on the general committee in charge of the project are Rev. D. Hutchinson, chairman of Maritime committee; Rev. Dr. McLeod and Dr. Creed, of Fredericton; Rev. A. Calhoun, D. D., and Rev. W. V. Higgins, of Wolfville; Judge F. W. Emmerson, of Moncton; and T. S. Simms, of St. John.

HEAVY FREIGHTS FOR THE RIVER STEAMERS

The steamer Champlain brought up a record cargo of produce today. She was delayed some two hours at Brown's Wharf landing some men, horses and supplies for the lumber woods. There was so much freight offering for the up river trip that it was necessary to refuse a lot of it. The Sincennes, too, carried a very large cargo up river finding it necessary also to refuse a large portion. Both up and down river business is very brisk.

SOBS AND TEARS WERE OF NO AVAIL

Affecting Scene in Police Court This Morning.

Blind Foster Father of Eldon Morrish Pleaded for the Wayward Youth—He may be Sent to Reformatory for Four Years.

Despite the entreaties of his foster parents and his own sobs and supplications, Eldon Morrish, the twelve-year-old boy, who confessed to securing $10 under false pretences from the sister of his blind foster father, was remanded to jail until Tuesday by Magistrate Ritchie in the session of the juvenile court this morning, after the conclusion of the examination. From the evidence adduced, his honor stated that it would be imperative that the future moral welfare of the boy be considered, therefore in all likelihood a sentence of four years in the Reformatory would be imposed.

This phase of the situation evoked many protestations from William Morrish and his wife and a storm of tears from the lad. "Let me take him home again. We'll watch him, your honor, and he's been such a good boy, your honor," pleaded the blind foster father, who had adopted the boy when a child from the Middlemore Home at Model Farm and had become greatly attached to him. "I'll never, never be bad, sir, if you'll only let me go home. I'll not even do one thing," promised the boy, as the sobs shook his slender frame.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jennings stated that Eldon procured $10 from her on the strength of an avowal that Mr. Morrish sent him to her for it. He was accompanied by a companion at the time. She resides in West End, at City Line.

James Reid, thirteen years old, a pupil in the same class in school, and who was implicated by young Moorish, said he met the latter at school on Tuesday, and at noon both repaired to the house occupied by Mrs. Jennings. He was aware that Mr. Morrish did not send him for the money, but did not desist from accompanying his schoolfellow to Adams' watch repairing shop, where the ten dollar bill was converted into notes of lesser denominations. Afterward they came to the city proper and purchased a 22 calibre rifle at LeLacheur's and another at Scribner's for $2 each. He denied having accepted one of the rifles as a gift, but admitted carrying the weapon and discharging several shots from it in the rear of Martello Tower. At this point he was contradicted by the prisoner, who accused him of accepting the rifle as a present.

Reid, continuing, acknowledged that he neglected to inform his playmate that he was committing an offence, and Police Clerk Henderson drew attention to a button attached to the lapel of Reid's coat, which bore the inscription, "Vote no for my sake," and remarked that if he had abided by that injunction, he would be absolved from complicity.

Young Morrish said he lost $5.50 of the ill-gotten money in the woods while he and Reid were discharging the rifles and thus did poor fortune pursue him. He lost the mitten containing the money while fascinated by the prospect of shooting big game..

"You should be given a dose of the cat-o'-nine tails in this court room before going to jail," remarked his honor to the youthful prisoner.

BARRY BESTS FLYNN

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 7.—Jim Barry, of Chicago, had the better in a ten-round bout over Jim Flynn, of Pueblo, before the Pacific Athletic Club last night. Flynn showed fine form, but was unable to stop the fireman. Barry was aggressive and shifty. The men fought so furiously that both fell in the second round. Flynn rallied strongly in the final rounds, showing even with Barry at the finish, but he assimilated by far the most punishment. Barry weighed 195 pounds and Flynn 175, the latter appearing soft.

FOUND WIFE AND CHILD DEAD IN HOME

McKeesport Man Made a Ghastly Discovery.

During William Casey's Absence at Work his Wife and Adopted Daughter Were Murdered—Murderer Committs Suicide.

East Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife dying on a bed, her throat cut from ear, his six-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed, a razor dripping blood on the bed beside the dead woman and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing, was the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early this morning. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago and who had been boarding recently with the Caseys. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but five minutes later he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

BOY BURGLARS LEFT IN HASTE

Attempted Burglary of Walter S. Vaughan's Grocery Store Was Frustrated Last Night.

What was undoubtedly a daring attempt to break into the grocery store of Walter S. Vaughan, Pitt street, was frustrated last night by C. D. Trueman, who lives close by. Mr. Trueman had occasion to go out in his yard which is in the rear of Vaughan's store, last night about 10.30 o'clock, with a lantern and as he left his house he heard a noise, as if some persons were getting away in a hurry. Flashing the lantern around he discovered two boys about 12 or 15 years of age, crawling through a hole in the fence. They made their escape over fences and through several yards.

Mr. Trueman, on looking around, found that a couple of barrels had been arranged with a plank across the top so that the boys could reach a window in the rear of the store. The window was not broken as the would-be-thieves were evidently frightened away just as they were ready to break in.

Mr. Vaughan's store was entered several times in the past few years.

MORGAN HELPS TO BUY ABBEY

He Contributes $1250 to Fund for the Purchase of Glastonbury Abbey in England.

London, Nov. 7.—J. Pierpont Morgan has donated $1,250 to the fund that is being raised to purchase Glastonbury Abbey.

Glastonbury Abbey was founded by King Ina in the eighth century and was replaced two centuries later by St. Dunstan. In 1184 it was destroyed by fire and was rebuilt by Henry II and dedicated in 1303, long after the death of Henry II. In the reign of Henry VIII that monarch had the Abbey dismantled and the Abbott hanged. The most interesting of the ruins still standing is the Chapel of the Virgin of St. Joseph, which was erected by Henry II.

FIERCE FIGHTING IN IRELAND

Man Killed and Many Hurt in Fight With Cattle Drivers.

A fierce fight took place recently between the police and a party of cattle-drivers at Riverstown, Ireland.

The cattle-drivers, who were mostly young men, numbered at least 300. When they entered upon Mr. Phibbs's farm at Ardkeerin, and were proceeding to scatter the cattle, they were met by a dozen police.

The police were put to flight by revolver shots, broken bottles and stones. Reinforced by Head Constable Donovan, of Ballymoat, and five men, the constabulary returned and more revolver shots were fired on both sides. The head constable was knocked senseless by a blow from a bottle.

A prominent member of the Ballyrush branch of the United Irish League, named Stinson, was shot dead in the affray, and five or six others were wounded.

MR. ALBEE'S INJURIES

Word was received today by Walter H. Golding, manager of the the Nickel Theatre, from Harvey L. Watkins, general manager of Keith's moving picture theatres, giving further particulars of the automobile smash up near Albany in which E. L. Albee, manager of Keith's circuit and well known here, was with his wife severely injured. Contrary to despatches Mr. Albee is not fatally injured and will recover, Mrs. Albee however, is not expected to recover. They were crossing a bridge at the time of the accident when the bridge rail broke and the machine and occupants went over the side. Mr. Albee received a compound fracture of the thigh, broke his arm and had other severe injuries. Messrs. A. Paul Keith, B. F. Officials Say "Ice King" is Model Prisoner So Far.

He Eats Regular Prison Fare Although He Could buy Better Food if He Wished to —Bread and Coffee for Breakfast.

Board of Works 31dec08

New York, Nov. 7.—Chas. W. Morse, who yesterday was sentenced to 15 years at hard labor in the Federal prison at Atlanta Ga. thus far has proved a model prisoner, according to the officials at the Tombs. He has asked no special privileges nor has he been granted any. There is a rule in the prison that any inmate whose personal means will permit him to do so, may purchase special food from a vendor attached to the prison or even have his meals sent in from outside. But Morse has not availed himself of the opportunity offered by this rule.

When the vendor visited his room this morning Morse sent him away with a wave of his hand. A little later when the regular prison fare was delivered out to the prisoners, the former multi-millionaire accepted the two slices of bread and a tin dipper filled with coffee which were passed through the slot in his cell door. He ate every crumb of the bread, drained the dipper of coffee and had a cheery greeting for his son Harry when the young man called on him early in the forenoon.

Morse retired early last night and slept soundly until awakened when the bustle of the day commenced.

JUDGE DECIDES TO ALLOW APPEAL

Mr. Mullin's Objections in Hardy Appeal Case Overruled in County Court Today.

Judge Forbes this morning delivered judgment on the preliminary objections taken by D. Mullin, K.C., to the hearing of the appeal in the case of Henry J. Hardy, who was prosecuted under the Alien Labor Act by John M. Thompson, in the police court and fined $250 with an alternative of six month imprisonment.

The notice of appeal had been served on the wife of the prosecutor at his residence, he being in the Canadian north west.

Mr. Mullin raised the question that service must be made personally on the respondent citing: Olsen vs. Cameron, 12th Can. C. C., 193.

The Judge held that personal service was not necessary and that the service made was good.

The conviction having been made on the 9th of September, and notice served on the 19th it was contended that the day of making the conviction counted in the ten days allowed for appealing and that the service was too late.

His Honor reviewing the authorities decided that the ten days were exclusive of the day of making the conviction and that the service was in time.

The other objections raised by Mr. Mullin were all dealt with by his honor.

The hearing of the appeal was adjourned until Monday the 16th inst. J. B. M. Baxter appeared for the appelant.

A comely young woman attractively gowned in brown broadcloth with Merry Widow hat caused no little amusement on King Square this morning. She accosted a young man who was a stranger to her, and placing her arm through his, she compelled her victim to accompany her to the Young Monument, where she photographed him in several ludicrous positions with a Kodak she carried. The momument was the background. Over twenty passers-by witnessed the incident.

MOVEMENT LAUNCHED FOR WARD PROHIBITION HERE

United Church Workers Will Endeavour to Abolish Saloons in City Wards—Will Try Dukes Ward First and If Successful Other Wards Will Follow.

In St. David's church school room last evening a movement was started which will doubtless result in a vote being taken in a number of wards in the city next spring for and against the exclusion of all liquor saloons from those wards.

Rev. A. A. Graham, pastor of St. David's, is the initiator of the movement. He has attended the meetings of the ministers of the different Protestant churches, and conferred also with Catholic clergymen, and called for last evening a conference of representatives of the churches, to discuss the whole matter.

The meeting was held in the school room of St. David's church, and there was a large attendance. Mr. Graham explained the new license law, which provides that if one quarter of the voters in a ward petition for a vote the vote must be taken, and that one half the total vote of the ward will carry the prohibition. He suggested that they try Dukes ward with the petition, concentrate the effort of all the churches there, and abolish the saloons. Then they could take up other wards.

It was decided to pursue this course, with the understanding that more than Dukes ward may be dealt with. The petitions will be circulated in Duke's ward next week by a corps of volunteers, and if the result is satisfactory other wards will be taken up before the end of the year, including one or more in the North End.

Mr. Graham had a map of Duke's ward on a blackboard, and the work of covering the ward with petitions in a thorough and systematic way was quickly arranged, by giving to each worker a definite small section to canvass. A meeting will be held at the end of next week to report progress and consider further work.

This work has the sympathy and is pledged the support of the churches, and will thus be a test of the strength of temperance sentiment in the churches of St. John.

Mr. Graham had copies of petitions and lists of the voters in Duke's ready last night to give out. He has given a great deal of time and effort to the labor of getting the work well begun.

ALEXANDRA TEMPLE BOYS WILL BE HOSTS NEXT WEEK IN THEIR NORTH END HOME

Handsome New Building of Vigorous Temperance Organization Will be Opened on Saturday Next With a Bazaar—The "Temple Fair" Will Present Many New Features.

"Temple Fair."

For some weeks past these words have appeared on a rather attractive card in the windows of various business houses throughout the city, and kept many people guessing as to their exact meaning.

The explanation is now offered that the Alexandra Temple of Honor and Temperance will on Saturday evening, November 14, in their fine new home on Main street, North End, open a mammoth fair possessing many up-to-the-minute attractions and which will undoubtedly be one of the largest events of its kind ever held in this city.

It is the intention of the officers of Alexandra Temple to ask Mayor Bullock to open the bazaar.

Alexandra Temple of Honor is a subordinate branch of the Templars of Honor and Temperance of the world, and has its headquarters in the North End.

It was organized on May 17, 1870, and is, therefore, about 39 years old.

The members of Alexandra Temple have had three homes, the first of which was a small shop not over ten feet square, and while meeting in this place their membership increased to such an extent that it became necessary to seek larger quarters. Then, with the assistance of the citizens and the perseverance of the members, they were enabled to begin the erection and later on to complete the hall on Main street now owned by St. Peter's Y. M. A. —having sold it to that organization because it was failing to answer the purposes for which it was intended—and rented a large room in Union Hall for a term of years and fitted it up as a society room—sub-letting it to other fraternal organizations.

For some years the members of Alexandra Temple have been on the lookout for a suitable place on which to build a hall in which they might better prosecute their good work and finally selected the present site on the southern side of Main street near Douglas avenue; purchased and removed the house thereon and then began the erection of the present fine brick structure comprising two floors, on the lower of which is an auditorium capable of seating about five hundred people and which will be rented for various purposes.

In conjunction with this apartment is a large kitchen, which, with the auditorium, will form a very necessary feature for a much needed banquet hall, in the wiring of which provision has been made to light the banquet tables with electricity.

A fine, roomy staircase leads to the large upper hall which will form the home of the temple itself, with other fraternal bodies which will probably occupy some of the rooms. This upper hall be fitted with a beautifully designed steel ceiling and will be richly carpeted, furnished and equipped along the most modern lines; the intention being to make it the finest of its kind in Eastern Canada.

The front of the new hall is about twenty-five feet from the street and the space fronting the building will be converted into a graded lawn, on which, during the summer season will appear in floral out-

WORKERS OF ST. PETER'S PARISH WILL HOLD HIGH TEA AND SALE

St. Peter's Hall Has Been Prettily Decorated for Annual Event Which Opens November 10th—Those in Charge.

This year's annual high tea and sale of St. Peter's parish, North End, promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever held by the St. Peter's people.

A Times man, who called last evening at St. Peter's hall, found corps of workers directed by Rev. Father Maloney. While everything is not expected to be in readiness before tonight, enough work has already been done to indicate that the big fair will be on a much more extensive scale than ever before.

The decorations show excellent taste, the effect being charming. The supper tables, green and pink on either side of the room, are marvels of beauty. The green tables to the left of the entrance are railed off in green, and white crimped paper being used in trestle effect, surmounted by grill work.

To the right and directly opposite, is the pink table, the decorations being artificial flowers, pink gladiolas. There are nearly one thousand of these flowers used in the work, all of which were made by Miss Annie Carlin, who also planned and executed the decorations. A mass of these charming flowers form a net work along the railing, and beautiful arches containing myriads of the pink flowers make the whole a bower of beauty.

The ice cream parlor, too, shows great taste in arrangement and decorations.

The entire work reflects the highest credit on Rev. Father Maloney and his indefatigable workers and merits every success. The tables and those in charge are as follows:
