

MORE THAN GRATEFUL

15 Mrs. Willi M. Norton, King Street, Pictou, Ontario, who was cured of Eczema by D. D. D. Prescription.

"I have used the D. D. D. Prescription and I feel safe in recommending it to all skin sufferers as a fine medicine. I suffered so much from Eczema before I knew of D. D. D. that I felt more than grateful for what it has done for me. There are thousands of people throughout Canada and the United States who feel just as grateful as Mrs. Norton to D. D. D.—because it has cured them after doctors and drugs failed."

D. D. D. PRESCRIPTION is a clean, mild vegetable compound that cures all forms of skin disease—Eczema, Scab Head, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Blisters, Barber's Itch—by killing the germs in the skin that cause the disease.

The very first application stops that awful torturing itch as if by magic. Very soon the eruption disappears as well as the skin becomes white and smooth again—the disease is cured.

Latest Returns From Newfoundland Election Gives

Premier Bond Seventeen

Seats and Opposition Sixteen—Three Places to Hear

From.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 6.—The election returns from Newfoundland that came in today from Bonaville put a new complexion on the standing of the parties, that constituency being the only one in which the opposition members and making the standing of the parties sixteen opposition to seventeen government.

There are three constituencies yet to hear from, St. George, St. Borbe, and Burgeo, each returning one member. It is believed that the opposition will secure two of these seats. If they do there will be a tie in the legislature, eighteen on each side.

The fight has been very bitter and the bitterness will not be lessened as a result of the close vote that will be found when the counts are made.

The fight has been very bitter and the which was received this morning made no change in the figures that were previously given, Emmerson, opposition, having 886 votes and Carrell, government, 788.

The results from the three remaining constituencies will not be fully known before tomorrow night. Counting has gone on day and night since Tuesday morning.

WOOD ALCOHOL

KILLS ANOTHER

Daniel Green of Richibucto

Died Suddenly at Bristol After Drinking Poison.

Bristol, N. B., Nov. 5.—Daniel Green, aged about forty-five and supposed to be long to Richibucto, died suddenly yesterday morning at the home of John Carr, where he had stayed over night. His death was probably caused by drinking wood alcohol, as it is said he was seen to take a drink from a bottle and then throw it away. The bottle was afterwards found and it was labelled "Wood Alcohol, Poison."

Dr. Commis, coroner, of Bath, was notified, and after ascertaining the facts connected with his death, gave the overseers of the poor instructions for burial as there was nothing upon the body to indicate where any friends might be found. In his pockets only $1.20 was found.

Joseph DeMerchant, a well-known farmer of Beechwood, died yesterday after some weeks' illness. He was about 70 years of age, and is survived by a wife and family.

ASSAULT CASE UP

IN HAMPTON COURT

Hampton, N. B., Nov. 6.—The Hampton parish court has been occupied all day in a preliminary examination with a charge of indecent assault on the information and complaint of Maggie Carson, wife of George Carson, of French Village, Kings county, alleged to have been committed on complainant October 2, last, by Robert Knodell, a farmer residing with his wife at French Village.

Knodell was arrested on a warrant and lodged in jail here on Tuesday. Mrs. Carson and her husband gave evidence today to the assault and George Beatty, J. P., and John A. Fowler, were heard for the defence as to the reputation and good citizenship of the defendant in the community in which he resided, chiefly with the view of establishing the desirability of granting bail.

The accused was sent up for trial at the next sitting of the superior court in January next, bail being granted, himself in $400 and George Beatty and John A. Fowler, his sureties in $200 each. Complainant was represented by F. M. Sproul, M. P. P., and the accused by Daniel Mullin, K. C.

The number of animals killed in the local slaughter houses last month, as reported to a meeting of the slaughter house commissioners by Inspector Simon yesterday was: J. E. McDonald, 306 cattle, 925 sheep; Kane & McGrath, 146 cattle, seventy-six sheep, sixteen calves, sixty-nine swine; M. J. Collins, three cattle.

BIG BUSINESS BOOM
FOLLOWS ELECTION

Choice of Taft Apparently the "Open Sesame" to Good Times—Prosperity Fast Returning to United States—Heavy Railway Orders.

New York, Nov. 6.—The National Association of Manufacturers publish in the current issue of American Industries, its official magazine, a continuation of the statements of trade conditions contributed by its 3,000 members representing every branch of industry. The first series of these statements showing improvement in commercial conditions, appeared in the October 15 issue of the magazine. The series now published indicates a continuation of this improvement and for the most part an optimistic view of the business outlook.

Telegrams were sent prior to the election to a number of the association's members asking them to state specifically how many working men would be added to their present force by December 1, if nothing occurred to shake their commercial confidence. A resume of the information contained in these replies is given by the magazine as follows:

"The percentage of replies received indicates that an average of 135 men each will be added to the majority of manufacturing plants in the association by December 1. The percentage shows that at least one half of the 3,000 members of the National Association of Manufacturers expect to add to their present force more than 200,000 working men."

"Taking this as a basis," says the article, "it is safe to assume that the 13,000 manufacturing plants which, according to the census of 1900, employed an average each of 100 men or over, will at least add 50 per cent. to their present force, making a total in round figures of 650,000 men. In other words, with the continuance of business confidence, the important manufacturing interests of the country will be enabled to increase their present force by more than half a million working men to meet the market demand for their products."

"In securing this information, Democratic and Republican manufacturers alike were addressed. No attempt was made to limit the canvass to any particular industry or to any particular section of the country and the queries sent to manufacturers were based solely upon actual business conditions and business possibilities for the future.

"Although this information, showing as it does, concrete and convincing proof of the real proofs of a real prosperity, was secured prior to the election, it was not used because of the association's desire to avoid any semblance of partisan ship."

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 6.—The Bee tomorrow will say:—

"The railroads of the United States have released orders for equipment and supplies aggregating $240,000,000 since election day. These orders had been placed prior to November 3, contingent on the outcome of the campaign."

"This statement was made by First Vice-President Brown of the New Central line, at Clarinda, Iowa, the day after election. Mr. Brown was visiting Clarinda, which is his old home. He said that the day after election the allied lines forming the New York Central System released $21,000,000 of these orders and that he had sent out over a hundred telegrams to manufacturers releasing orders for railroad supplies."

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—Speaking tonight to the Cincinnati Commercial Club, of which he has been a member for 15 years, William Howard Taft brought every member of the club to his feet in his address, sounding the keynote of prosperity for the country for the next four years.

"Every business man who is obeying the energy in his possession; every enterprising man who is within the statutes may proceed without fear of interference from the administration when acting legally; but all interests within the jurisdiction of the federal government may expect a rigid enforcement of the laws against dishonest methods," this is what Mr. Taft said.

CONSUMPTION'S
STARTING POINT

Lies in Weak, Watery Blood

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make the Blood Rich and Red.

Bloodlessness is the starting point of consumption. When your blood is thin and watery your whole health declines. Your face grows pale, your appetite fails and your heart jumps and flutters at the least exertion or excitement. You are always weak and wretched and lose interest in everything. This is the point from which you may easily step into that hopeless decline that leads to consumption and the grave. What is actually needed to bring back health and strength and energy is the new rich blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make. In all the world there is no other tonic medicine like them, and all who feel weak and easily tired should take these Pills at once.

Miss Ada Burke, The Range, N. B., says:—"I feel that I cannot say too much in favor of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In March, 1907, I was attacked with whooping cough which clung to me for several months, and when the cough disappeared I was left weak and run down. All summer I was ailing, but when the autumn came I seemed to be completely worn out. For a whole month I never moved outside the house, and could scarcely walk about the house I was so weak. I had lost my appetite, my color was greenish yellow, I had severe headaches and would be almost breathless at the least exertion. I took several bottles of medicine, but it did not help me, and then my mother got me three boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I had used them. I was much better, and by the time I had taken another three boxes I was again enjoying the best of health, with a hearty appetite, good color and renewed energy."

If you want new health and new strength try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a fair use of the medicine will not disappoint you. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MONCTON NEWS

Railway Town Will Install New

Pumping Service—Trans-

continental Railway Says

Land Price is Too High.

Moncton, N. B., November 6 (Special).—The proposal to install a new pump in connection with Moncton's water service, in compliance with the St. John insurance underwriters, is looked upon with favor by the city council and the matter is to be dealt with at once. The council at a meeting tonight took steps towards securing a pump.

The transcontinental railway is not willing to pay $400 an acre for land taken from the city for railway purposes. C. C. Foss has written council stating that the matter will be left with the exchequer court rather than pay the price asked by the city. The railway crosses city property half a mile west of the boundary line.

The city council finds it will be necessary to ask for legislation this winter for a further issue of bonds to provide for maturing water and light bonds and the extension of water service in the western part of the city, where many new buildings have been erected in the vicinity of the new shops.

A fine of $50 imposed in the local police court recently on a passenger who refused to pay fare on the Intercolonial, promises to involve litigation between the government of Canada and the city of Moncton. The case was brought by the railway but the city appropriated the fine. Now the railway authorities, acting on the advice of the minister of justice, is asking that the fine be refunded to the railway, as the money properly belongs to the government of Canada. A communication hearing on the matter was read at the city council tonight but no action was taken, it being referred to the law committee. It is said the city will resist the railway's claim for the fine.

SOUR FOOD AND
GASSY STOMACHTake Some Diapiesin Today
and Rid Yourself of Stomach Trouble and Indigestion Forever.

Some people think the have Indigestion, others Catarrh of the Stomach, others Nervousness, Cancer or Dyspepsia, etc. Call it this if you will, but the real name for your trouble is Food Fermentation with only partial digestion. Everything you eat turns to either Acid, Stomach gas or Stomach poison, which weakens the digestive organs, causing a lack of gastric juice. Your food sours, is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, burning sensation, a feeling of vomiting, heartburn, water brash and tenderness in the pit of the stomach, slimy tongue, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, nausea, belching of gas, dizziness, sick headaches, mental depression and many other common symptoms.

You can cure all this by not eating, but not putting any food in your stomach to ferment; but how about the nourishment needed to sustain your bodily strength? If you are a stomach sufferer, either man or woman, young or old, whether you call it Indigestion or any other name, go now to your druggist and give 50 cents for a case of Diapiesin.

Every possible kind of Stomach trouble is readily cured by Diapiesin, which takes right hold of the food in your stomach and digests it alone, without the help of the stomach, just as if your stomach wasn't there.

After a few days' use of Diapiesin your Stomach will again be in good working order, your meals will be thoroughly digested and your intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will have no use for laxatives or liver regulators.

Congress will favor free lumber. John Sharp Williams Formerly Democratic Leader Believes Republicans Will Pass Law to That Effect.

Washington, Nov. 5.—That the republican majority in congress will remove or materially reduce the tariff on lumber and timber is the opinion of Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, who recently retired from the minority leadership of the house on account of his election to the senate. The desire of certain New England tariff revisionists is likely to be fulfilled in this respect, according to Mr. Williams.

"The timber supply of the north is practically exhausted," said Mr. Williams today. "The demand for lumber is increasing in that section and all over the country. Under the circumstances there will probably be little objection in the north and east to timber and lumber being placed on the free list, or having nominal duties levied against them. This would permit Canadian lumber to come into the American market and probably result in reducing prices to some extent."

The remaining forests are chiefly in the south and over the lumbering industry of that section, which furnishes almost the only democratic majorities."

Discussing the prospects of tariff revision generally, Representative Williams talked rather skeptically. He has never been a firm believer in revision by the friends of the tariff in the republican party. He predicts that little real relief will be given to the consumers by the republican administration and congress, so far as lowering the tariff is concerned.

At a meeting of Alexandria section No. 2, Junior T. of H. and T., the following officers were installed by S. E. Logan, acting under instruction of the G. W. T. and assisted by Carey B. Black, as acting grand usher.

Officers Elected: Roy W. A., Beverly Appleby, W. V. A., Walter Dunlop, W. A., Cecil Folkins, A. R., Harold Cunningham, F. R., Percy Cassidy, A. F. R., E. J. A. B., George Lemmear, A. U., William Alley, I. W., Walter Day, O. P.

This section so far is the banner one under the supreme domain, at present having a membership of 118 in good standing, and adding on every meeting night. After the installation, short addresses were made by Messrs. Logan and Black and the newly installed officers, also the W. A. of Fairville section. The outlook for this department of the Temple of Honor is very bright in this jurisdiction.

THE C. P. R. ACCIDENT
William Downie, general superintendent of the C. P. R., returned from Green River bridge on the Edmundston branch, where he had been holding an investigation at the scene of the wreck of train No. 46 last Tuesday and in which five persons were seriously injured. When asked on his return if he would make any statement, Mr. Downie said the C. P. R. did not make public the result of such enquiries as they were held for the information of the company.

It is understood that the investigation is not yet concluded and will be resumed in Woodstock today by Superintendent Newcomb. Several employees whose evidence was not previously available will be examined.

JURY DECIDES THAT
ENDINI SLEW MCKAY

Coroner's Jury in Minto Stabbing Affray Renders Verdict to That Effect—McKay, Before He Died, Said Endini Stabbed Him.

Minto, Nov. 6.—At the inquest held here today on the body of John McKay, who died Wednesday night from wounds inflicted in a stabbing affray last Sunday, the jury at 8 o'clock this evening brought in the following verdict:

"That John McKay died on the fourth day of November, 1908, at Minto in the county of Sunbury, and that the cause of death was the result of wounds in the abdomen unlawfully inflicted by a knife or sharp instrument in the hands of John Endini."

Six witnesses were examined. In the course of the hearing, John Divinc, an Italian, swore that Endini admitted to him after the affray that he had stabbed McKay.

An ante-mortem statement signed by McKay before Justice Halifax to the effect that Endini stabbed him, was put in evidence. Endini, who is now in jail at Oromocto, will be brought here on Monday for the preliminary hearing.

Coroner George A. Perley, of Margreville, opened the enquiry in the waiting room at Minto Station, at 2:30 p. m. The jury sworn in were John Wadman, Wallace Reese, Rupert Kennedy, James Whitehouse, James O'Leary and Harvey Weldon. Mr. Wadman was chosen as foreman. A. B. Wilmut, clerk of the peace for Sunbury county, represented the crown.

Before hearing the evidence the jury were taken to view the body which was lying at McKay's camp, about a quarter of a mile from the station. They were accompanied by Dr. H. B. Bay, who had attended him and who explained the nature of the injuries. An autopsy was not considered necessary.

Dr. Bay was the first witness when the enquiry was opened. He described the wounds which appeared to have been inflicted by a knife or sharp instrument. It had cut into the intestines and one of the lungs had been penetrated. Dr. Bay also testified to a verbal statement made in his presence by the deceased to the effect that the Italian Endini had caused the injuries.

Sobalio Giglio, an Italian, the next witness, told of going to the boarding house kept by Mary Herchuch, and her husband, while the row was in progress. He did not see the stabbing, but got into a mix-up with Christopher Pettley, who was with McKay, and then ran away.

John Divinc, another Italian, in the course of his evidence testified that after the stabbing Endini went to a house occupied by Frank Flament, where he admitted to the witness that he had stabbed McKay.

Percy Kennedy, a driver on the Central Railway, who was sent for by Pettley when the crime was committed told of the condition in which he found McKay and of helping him to his camp.

Justice Halifax gave evidence of having taken McKay's dying deposition in which Endini was charged with the crime.

Thomas Dawson testified to attending McKay up to the time of his death and described the wounds when he first saw them.

No evidence of anyone who saw the stabbing was available. The testimony of Mary Herchuch and her husband could not be taken as they are Austrians and there was no interpreter. Mr. Pettley had not sufficiently recovered from his injuries to be called as a witness. Angelo Cordin, who is reported to have been in the room when the crime was committed, was not called as a witness, but is being held to give evidence at the investigation.

The evidence submitted was considered by the coroner sufficient to enable the jury to bring in a verdict. They retired at 7:30 p. m. and after deliberating for half an hour returned a verdict as stated.

The preliminary investigation will be held here in Justice Halifax's court. Mr. Wilmut will represent the crown. H. H. Pickett, of St. John, has been retained to appear for Angelo Cordin.

ANECDOTES OF GREENWAY

(Toronto News.)

Mr. Greenway was the most tantalizing listener that ever was. A person might convey to him the most startling intelligence without being able to tell from the composed way in which he stroked his beard and rubbed his eyes, that he was not interested in what was being said.

If it were a newspaper reporter, the interviewer would be surprised to find at the end of his dramatic recital that Mr. Greenway had pumped him dry, and had not uttered a word that indicated his views. As a rule about the best the interviewer could do was to get a general impersonal affirmation or denial or a non-committal sentence, and he had to be content with that.

Only once did he give an interview on political questions. He was then no longer Premier, and the reasons for speaking were urgent. He had known the interviewer for many years, and he wanted to say something, but he feared the consequences. "Look here," he said, "it is very easy to give you an interview, but look at the consequences. For twenty years I have been coming to Toronto and by carefully building up a reputation for never giving an interview on anything else but the weather and the crops I can now come and go in peace. The newspaper men are all friends, and I cannot complain because they are all treated alike. But if I give you an interview, I will have to begin all over again to get back to where I am now."

Beneath that somewhat cold exterior there was a real supply of geniality and humor. One St. Patrick's Day, before Mr. Speaker entered, Mr. Greenway came into the House wearing a huge bunch of shamrocks. "Here," said one of the members. "This will not do. The other day you presided at the Cornishmen's banquet, and now you are trying to palm yourself off as an Irishman." "I belong to all nations," said the Premier blithely, as he passed along to talk to one of the Icelandic members.

Everybody knows of his habit of sitting in the House with his eyes half shut and twirling his thumbs in front of that expansive waistcoat. Strangers thought he was half asleep. It was just one of his ways of securing himself from interruption and extra effort while he watched how things went in the House. To those who watched him closely, as the reporters in the gallery had ample opportunity of doing, the thumbs were indicators. When everything was progressing smoothly the thumbs travelled slowly round and round, upward and forward. Some Opposition member made an interruption. The right thumb paused in mid-air, so to speak, alert, straining to catch the next word. Mr. Speaker answered the interrupter. The thumbs travelled downward and backward smoothly and sedately as before. It was at such a time that Mr. Greenway turned the laugh on the then leader of the Opposition. They were discussing a grant to a coal railway, and the Opposition leader claimed the grant was largely wasted because the coal was no good. The Minister under fire replied that the coal was first class, and was even then burning in the furnace beneath the Legislative Chamber.

"Ah, that accounts for its being so cold here," retorted the Opposition leader. "Are you cold?" asked the Premier, rising up with every appearance of interest. "I should say it is unpleasantly cold here."

"Oh, well," returned the Premier, kindly; "that is characteristic of that side of the House."

Upon the occasion of one of Mr. Greenway's birthdays, a newspaper man prepared a biographical sketch of him. The next day he ventured to ask the subject what he thought of it.

"Very good, very good," said Mr. Greenway, "but you made one bad mistake." "What was that?" "You said I had twelve children."

"Well, is not that correct?"

"No. I have thirteen."

AMERICA'S RELIABLE ASTROLOGER

For many years I have been advertising in American and foreign newspapers and magazines, perhaps your next door neighbor knows me or has consulted me for advice. I have built up a reputation by giving honest, accurate and conscientious service to my patrons. They will tell you I am America's reliable Astrologer. Do not ask me to take my word for any statement made here, but I do ask for an opportunity to demonstrate my ability. Read what three of my patrons say about their horoscopes:

Newark, N. J. "My marriage took place as you predicted, and I am the happiest woman in the world. I feel that you are the only one who can tell me what I want. I would not take a hundred dollars for the information you have given me, but I would give you other ones as accurate as this one." Yours very truly, Mrs. Anna M. KOWLAND.

Brandon, Can. "My horoscope is the best I have ever seen. It is a guide to me in all my affairs. I have put it in my hands. I would not take a hundred dollars for the information you have given me, but I would give you other ones as accurate as this one." Yours very truly, Mrs. Anna M. KOWLAND.

Mountain Park, Ont. "Dear Friend—By your giving me 'ucky dates' I have been able to do more of my property, greatly to my advantage. Every line of my horoscope was of value to me. I shall consult you again in the future. I wish other people could understand what great assistance you could be, in trouble of any kind." Most sincerely, Mrs. Anna M. KOWLAND.

I have stacks of letters similar to the above. Many write that they cannot find words to express their thanks for the advice derived from my advice. Many have followed my advice and gained wealth, happiness, love and popularity. I believe I can be of help to you. It costs you nothing to test my ability. I will send you a reading in which I will tell facts about yourself and your life that will cause you to marvel at the wonders of Astrology. My system has stood the test of time. People who consulted me years ago acknowledge that as other Astrologers are as accurate. If you wish a free reading, simply send me your name (whether Mr., Mrs. or Miss), the date of your birth (month, day and year) and I will send you the reading at once, and will also send a copy of my interesting booklet, "Your Destiny Foretold."
