CHATHAM WORLD POUNDS HAZEN HARD

Apparently the Revolt in Provincial Government Ranks is Gaining Strength—Hazen's Government Laughing Stock of Canada.

Chatham, N. B., Dec. 9—That a large portion of the local government's following in Northumberland is in open revolt against Premier Hazen is freely admitted in the Chatham World of today.

This Tory organ, regarded from time immemorial as the implacable enemy of all things Liberal, comes out plainer than ever today in speaking of Mr. Hazen's position.

It admits the conspiracy set on foot by J. K. Pinder on his visit here, and says the provincial leader deserves all he gets. The article is as follows:

"A couple of York county gentlemen happened to run over to the Miramichi the other day, perhaps to find out if the smelt fishing had begun, and a couple of Chatham citizens happened to drop into the Bowser House, perhaps for a nightcap that evening.

"The visitors and the local men being old acquaintances, enjoyed a chat. The St. John Times sees in this incident a political conspiracy and remarks that 'whoever wins in this family quarrel, the premier stands to lose.'

"He deserves to lose. He stood calmly aside while his local lieutenant treacherously deserted the government party in the county, going over to the enemy with the government colors flying and leading the attack on the government position.

"The premier's supineness then, and since, speaks for itself more forcibly than any language at our command. We don't agree with the Times that he 'stands to lose.' He has already lost everything that the leader of a government can possibly deem worth having—the confidence of his party and the respect of the public."

In another editorial on "The Leader the Laughing Stock of Canada," the World says:

"The local government is at present a laughing stock for all Canada, and its leader a target for the derision of the Dominion. He may not be contributing to 'the gayety of nations' as Dr. Johnston said of David Garrick, but his submission to his subordinate is increasing the mirth of provinces."

The World goes pretty far in an attack on Hon. John Morrissy, and predicts that T. W. Butler of Newcastle will soon be the representative of the Irish-Catholics in the provincial cabinet. Regarding Mr. Morrissy the World says:

"Benedict Arnold got $50,000 and a brigadier general's commission for an attempt that failed to betray his command to the enemy. Surely this successful act of treachery should be even better paid. But they say he gets nothing except the promise of a nomination as the successor of Senator Loggie. The price is too great for the man and too small for the crime."

In a long editorial on the stumpage question the World defends the Snowball Company from the attack made by the Fredericton Gleaner and demands an investigation into the reports that supporters of the present government were allowed to escape with the payment of fifty percent of the back stumpage while opponents were forced to pay the full amount.

METHODIST CENTENNIAL

On Christmas day the congregation of Queen Square Methodist church will observe the centennial of the opening of the old church in which 100 years ago the congregation worshipped at the corner of Germain and Horsfield streets.

The church which was destroyed in the fire of '77 was first occupied by the Methodists on Christmas day, 1808, and the ground on which the building stood is still vested in the trustees. Invitations to be present will be sent to all the surviving pastors and it is hoped the event will prove of unusual interest.

BRIGADIER ROBERTS IN WEST END THIS EVENING

He Will Lecture on One Month's Experience In a Prison Cell.

One Month's Experience in a Prison Cell for Christ's Sake is the title of a lecture which Brigadier Roberts, of London, Eng., is to give in the Salvation Army hall in Carleton at 8 o'clock tonight. The lecture is very interesting, chiefly because it is his own experience, he having spent a month behind prison bars for the cause of Christ.

The following is a syllabus of the lecture: Men of God. Through Devon prison. A few loves. Resting awhile. A personal invitation. Boundless love. Episcopalian. Roman Catholic verses churchmen. Three books. A puzzle. Inwardly digesting.

BRIGADIER ROBERTS.

Crossing the river without bridge or boat. Children and parents. The twelve stoves, their origin and lesson. A memorable visit. The policeman's ring. The dock and sentence. The suspense. The arrest. The consecrated cell. First day in it. The first Sunday in prison. Th lessons learned. Encouragements received. The last day. Released.

The brigadier has traveled extensively in the British Isles and he has given this lecture in most of the principal towns and cities. Rev. Dinsdale T. Young says:—"This lecture should be told all over the land, for everybody ought to hear it, and on another occasion Dr. Campbell Morgan, of Westminster, London, in expressing his appreciation of the lecture, said: "I should like the whole of my church to hear it."

Colonel Turner, provincial commander of the Salvation Army in these provinces, will occupy the chair, and a number of the leading officers of the city will be on the platform. A large attendance is expected.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the Heart and Kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the Stomach or stimulating the Heart or Kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak or ailing nerves of these organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve." When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by all druggists.
