

LIBERALS SWEET CANADA YESTERDAY

LAURIER'S MAJORITY WILL BE ABOUT SIXTY IN NEW PARLIAMENT

Government Gains in Ontario and Holds Its Own in Quebec—Nova Scotia Sends Twelve Liberals and Six Conservatives and P. E. Island Goes Liberal—West Stands by Government.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—The Liberals of the capital who today honored themselves by electing Sir Wilfrid Laurier as their representative in parliament are tonight celebrating with much enthusiasm.

The Liberals return to power by a majority even larger than that which they won to the country. It has been a clean sweep, a victory all along the line, a victory all the more significant and triumphant because of the rebuke it gives to the sordid tactics which characterized the Conservative campaign.

While the Liberal gains in Ontario are perhaps the bitterest pill which Mr. Borden and his abettors have to swallow, scarcely less palatable is the party's crushing defeat in New Brunswick, as the returns came in tonight recording victory in constituency after constituency, the satisfaction of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's supporters increased, the climax of enthusiasm being attained when the splendid vindication of Hon. Mr. Pugsley was announced. Even stout Conservatives disapproved of the means that had been employed to encompass his defeat and in the return to the ministers to the throne will receive a more hearty welcome than the Minister of Public Works.

Returns from the west are slow in arriving but the figures available at midnight assure a Liberal majority of 60, which the by-election and the vote in the six deferred elections will probably augment to 70, which is the majority so confidently predicted in these despatches a week ago.

Big Liberal Gains in Ontario

Toronto, Oct. 26.—The Ontario Liberals are a happy crowd tonight. Going into the fight with the feeling of running rather than being run, they have won a victory against them and an adverse majority to overcome with the prestige and force of the Whitney government, the Liberals of this province have won a splendid victory and contributed in no small degree to the triumph of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his government.

Ontario has done better than expected, and at this writing it appears certain that a small Liberal majority will replace the Tory majority of eight in the representation of this province.

The Liberal campaign was in all respects admirable. There were few appeals to which objection could be taken. High patriotic appeals were made to the electors and no part of the province was neglected by an able corps of Liberal speakers. Victory has been won more on appeals to reason and high principle than by personal canvasses, although that was not neglected.

The verdict of the electors today will surely give a quietus to the campaign of slander and vilification that has been so recently discredited by the electors.

Bennett, Chief of Slanderer, Beaten

The gains are significant. In East Simcoe, W. H. Bennett, chief herald of slander and abuse, has been snuffed under by Manley C. Campbell, comparatively unknown Liberal politician.

In North Waterloo, Mackenzie King has scored a notable victory, redeeming the riding, formerly regarded as a Conservative stronghold. His victory shows that the labor element is satisfied with the Laurier government, it is more than a personal triumph for the brilliant young minister.

All ministers are safe so far, and returns have been received from all but two or three of them.

The government's endorsement by the West is another great feature. The loss of Winnipeg is greatly to be regretted, but Sir John's splendid victory in Brandon as well as returns from Saskatchewan and Alberta are cheerful reading for Liberal supporters.

Toronto, as usual, went Conservative with the exception of East, where the regular party, Campbell, was defeated by Russell (Independent) by nearly 800. Russell will probably give the government an independent support. The Tory machine in this city has received a shaking up that will encourage Liberals to keep up the fight until the whole city capitulates.

Robinette made a fine run against Bristol in Centre, and although Foster's margin on the riding is weakening.

There are not wanting signs that his hold on the riding is weakening. The loss of Rural Ontario is still Liberal and will increase and grow stronger in support of the Laurier government.

In West Middlesex, Calvert, the Liberal whip is reported beaten, but Calvert

A Strong Man Almost Died—Grew Thin, Weak and Nervous

A Remarkable Recovery

"Until three years ago I was the picture of health—then I became what people call Neurasthenic. I grew sleepless, worried, lacked will power, felt great physical fatigue, experienced fears and felt always in danger of something unknown. All the time I grew thinner and weaker, felt so nervous that I felt the end must be near. No medicine helped, each one seemed a worse disappointment. Then my doctor suggested 'Ferrozone'—it was a fortunate choice because I improved at once. I gained weight, enjoyed my meals, got a better color, forgot my nervous fears. The way Ferrozone built me up is surprising—it made a new man of me and now I look good for twenty years to come."

NEW BRUNSWICK LIBERALS SCORE GREATEST VICTORY IN HISTORY OF PROVINCE

Crocket and Daniel the Only two Conservatives Elected—Ganong and Fowler Go Down to Defeat and Liberals Carry 11 Out of 13 Seats—Great Triumph for Dr. Pugsley.

Sussex, Oct. 26 (Special).—The wildest enthusiasm prevails here tonight over the victory of Dr. McAlister, the Liberal candidate. It was recognized from the first that the fight was an uphill one and the Liberals are correspondingly jubilant. Bonfires and rockets made the night brilliant while the lusty cheering of thousands of electors made the air vibrant.

It is felt that Kings-Albert has redeemed its fair fame as a constituency. George W. Fowler was badly beaten even in those parishes in which his friends were most confident of victory. The town went wild with delight when the news from outside began to arrive and up to a late hour thousands of people paraded the streets blowing fish horns and waving flags.

Liberals Will Have 54 Seats in Quebec

Montreal, Oct. 26 (Special).—The hopes of the Conservatives for gains in Quebec province were dashed today, and it was made evident that the cry to give Laurier a decisive factor in the campaign.

The Liberals secured 50 seats in the province by good majorities, while two seats went by acclamation, Hon. Mr. Brodeur, in Rouville, and Demers, in St. John and Herville. In addition two elections will not be settled for a week in Goss and Chicoutimi. These will be a matter of course go Liberal, making the total representation from Quebec fifty-four Liberals to eleven Conservatives.

The Conservatives gained five seats, of over 500, in Quebec West, Terrebonne, Soulanges, and Champlain. The Liberals also gained five, Laval, Beauharnois, Pontiac, Huntingdon and Dorchester. The most important losses for the Conservatives were J. G. H. Bergeron in Beauharnois, and Marchand in St. Mary's.

The feature of the election was the increased majorities in many of the purely French-Canadian municipalities, showing how strongly the appeal of Laurier has taken effect. This was especially evident in the cities, where some very large majorities were scored, Verville (Liberal Labor candidate) in Maisonneuve, getting a majority of 4,300; Gervais in St. James, over 1,500, and other candidates showing increased majorities.

The election in Montreal passed off quietly, there being little excitement, despite the fact that one of the heaviest votes in the history of the city was polled. Probably the smallest vote in the dominion was given for St. Martin, Socialist candidate, in St. Lawrence, who got 187 out of over 6,000 ballots marked.

IN NORTHUMBERLAND

Chatham, N.B., Oct. 26.—W. S. Loggie was re-elected as member of parliament for Northumberland today by over 1,000, the largest majority ever polled in a federal election. The opposition were routed horse, foot and artillery, and in Newcastle, their own stronghold, their lead was cut down to sixteen votes.

Donald Morrison has been given his answer by the honest people of the county and tonight he is thinking longingly of that speaker's chair.

The large majority surprised many of the Liberals themselves. Parishes which have always gone Conservative reversed their vote in favor of the Laurier candidate. The Liberals are rejoicing over the unprecedented victory in their committee room and congratulations have been pouring in from outside points.

Election day passed quietly and everything was orderly. The activity of the party workers and the fine weather contributed to a heavy vote being polled and nearly a hundred more than in the last election were cast in Chatham.

Mr. Loggie's endorsement in his own town is particularly gratifying. He more than doubled his opponent.

In Rogersville, a notable victory was achieved, the vote standing nearly 4 to 1. Tabusintac was the only parish to give Morrison a majority of any size. Out of twenty-three polls held here he carried but six and these with but small majorities. There never was such a victory and the Liberals are very jubilant.

CARVELL A WINNER

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 26.—It was a hard fought battle but Frank B. Carvell won by 147 votes. In the last election Carvell carried Woodstock by eight votes which was increased to sixty-five votes today. The gains made by Carvell in Woodstock, Abernethy and Wicklow won him his election as the other polls broke about as expected. There is great excitement in the town.

A CONSERVATIVE WIN

Fredericton, N.B., Oct. 26.—York today re-elected O. S. Crockett by a majority that will not be much short of 750. Fredericton gave Brown sixty-two majority, but in the county districts Crockett had a big lead. Stanley, where the Liberals were hopeful of making gains gave an old time Tory majority. Maryville divided evenly, but the other polls along the Nashwaak, with the exception of Penniac, gave the Tory candidate a majority.

The Orange vote of the county, which is very strong, went almost solidly Conservative.

N. W. Brown, the Liberal candidate, who was late entering the contest, made a splendid fight against tremendous odds. When he entered the contest four weeks ago he found the county in a state of disorganization. The Liberals had been defeated by 1,200 majority in the local election last March, and the fact that Brown was able to reduce this by some hundreds shows that he worked hard and faithfully.

In the lower division of the county, where Crockett resides and was best known, he was defeated by 142 votes, while Brown carried Southampton Front, where he resides, by a small majority.

The Liberals of the city have planned a big reception for N. W. Brown, the defeated candidate on his arrival in the city your feet. May your shadow never grow less.

GANONG GOES DOWN

St. Andrews, N. B., Oct. 26.—St. Andrews is jubilant tonight over the success of W. F. Todd, the Liberal candidate. For the first time in the history of the county, St. Andrews has given a majority for a Liberal candidate in a federal contest. This result is all the more pleasing because the election here was conducted along purely lines. Not a dollar was spent on either side and not a glass of liquor was given. This was the only polling district in which the two parties were able to agree upon a purity contract.

Throughout the county Mr. Todd made great gains. The result has been very depressing to the Conservatives. They opened up Stevenson Hall expecting to announce a Conservative triumph, but they were disappointed and the hall was speedily closed. There was great enthusiasm until nearly midnight in Liberal headquarters.

CHEERING THROGS HEARD GOOD NEWS LAST EVENING

Enthusiastic Voters Crowded Queen's Rink—Pender Receives Ovation for Gallant Fight He Made and Dr. Pugsley Gets a Magnificent Welcome.

In the Liberal headquarters in the Queen's rink last night there was intense enthusiasm as the news of the results of the contest came in. There were between 4,000 and 5,000 people present, among whom were many ladies. Hon. Mr. Pugsley and James Pender both spoke briefly and both were cheered to the echo.

There was a special wire to the rink and as the returns came in A. O. Skinner announced them from the platform through megaphones. Mr. Pender arrived early and as he climbed to a seat on the platform three hearty cheers swept the rink and the audience joined in singing "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Mr. Skinner was kept busy with the megaphone and the toll of cheering. Liberal victory the enthusiasm was tremendous.

Glad to See Fowler Beaten.

The defeat of Fowler in Kings-Albert, and also that of Lefevre and Bennett was hailed with a great storm of cheers. The Minister of Public Works entered the rink at 7.30. As he made his way to the platform the whole audience rose to their feet and shouted themselves hoarse, at the same time waving their hats frantically.

There were loud calls for John Keefe, who spoke briefly, congratulating the people of St. John on the handsome majority they had given the minister of public works who, he said, well deserved their confidence.

Mr. Keefe referred to the campaign as one which not even the oldest campaigner in the city had ever seen equalled. He concluded by regretting that Mr. Pender had not also been returned.

Mr. Pender.

Mr. Pender was then called for and as he rose to his feet the enthusiastic cheering was renewed. He thanked those present for the support they had so generously given him. He was thankful that the famous land speculator from Ottawa neighboring county had been left at home and he hoped that Mr. Foster would also get left. He congratulated the Liberal party in New Brunswick on the great victory they had achieved by sending the largest contingent to Ottawa ever sent in its history to support the government.

He went on to say that if he had not been elected he was pretty near it. (Cries of "We'll elect you next time.") He had, however, done perhaps as well as he could expect to do.

Mr. Pender excused himself from speaking longer and after again thanking those present for their support he resumed his seat amid renewed cheering. At this moment a despatch was handed to Hon. Mr. Pugsley, who gave it to Mr. Skinner to read. It was as follows:

"St. Andrews, N. B., Oct. 26.
Hon. Mr. Pugsley,
Minister of Public Works.

"Charlotte county redeemed. Congratulations from St. Andrews Young Liberal Club.

R. E. ARMSTRONG."

The reading of this called forth another storm of cheering which was frequently renewed as the despatches came in from Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Quebec and other provinces.

Other speakers who addressed the great gathering were E. H. McAlpine, Douglas McArthur, T. Donovan and T. T. Lantana. Someone handed a despatch to the chairman as follows:

"Away Back, Oct. 26.
The Plum Tree School, Oct. 26.
Hazen to die mud in political obscurity."

The reading of this brought shouts of derisive laughter and cheering and then the audience called for William G. Pugsley and J. A. Barry, who as representatives of the Young Liberals expressed their great pleasure at the election of Hon. Mr. Pugsley. They regretted that Mr. Pender was not to accompany the minister to Ottawa but predicted his return at the next election.

A despatch was then handed to Mr. Skinner announcing the great victory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues in Ottawa. There was tremendous cheering as this was read and as it was closely followed by similar despatches the enthusiasm showed no signs of abating.

The Victorious Minister.

At this point the cries for Hon. Mr. Pugsley became insistent and it was many minutes before he could speak for the cheering.

He said in part: "I can hardly express the great joy I feel at the magnificent Liberal victory in New Brunswick. I am proud of St. John also. The city and county have done nobly. While the city did not elect Mr. Pender, my colleague, it cut down a Conservative majority of 1,200 to about 190. I desire to express my thanks to Mr. Pender for the victory and to me, I take a little credit to myself as I had something to do with his selection as a candidate. I recognized that there were in him qualities which would be very desirable in a public man. I thank him for standing as a candidate, for where I was weak he was strong."

"I am proud of the results in Charlotte and Kings-Albert where I had also something to do with the selection of the candidates. In one case that candidate was altogether new to political life, the other candidate was new to the arena of federal politics. Mr. Hazen spent many days, many weeks in the constituency seeking aid from the Conservative candidate. Mr. Hazen told the electors that it was his fight and hinted that if the Conservative party were successful he would be taken into the cabinet."

"I am glad," the minister continued, "that two of the strongest and I may add the most offensive members of the opposition from these provinces have been defeated. Hon. Mr. Pugsley stood on to refer to the great triumph of Hon. Mr. Emmerson in Westmoreland. The whole province had done well. Col. H. H. McLean, if not victorious would be beaten by only a very small margin."

"At this point the minister read a despatch handed to him by Mr. Skinner. "I find," said he, "according to this that conditions in P. E. Island have been reversed and that instead of one Liberal and three Conservatives as formerly, there are now three Liberals and one Conservative; but in spite of the fact that Mr. Foster spent much time there condemning me and promising a tunnel."

"I am proud to think that tomorrow morning we will read in our papers that the country has renewed its confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The latest advances from Quebec show that the Liberals have captured thirty-two seats in that province as against seven won by the Conservatives. In Brandon, Mr. Sitton, a former member of the government, has been elected and all the ministers, including myself, have been returned by comfortable majorities."

The Slanders Answered.

"During this campaign many attempts have been made to injure me by the circulation of slanderous reports and charges. The men who were responsible for these charges, however, have had their answer from the electors and it has been a decisive one. I thank you because the more these charges were repeated against me, the closer you pressed around me to defend me from such cowardly attacks. I thank you because I know you have overlooked what you know to be my faults as there are faults in all public men. I am thankful that since I became a member of the Liberal cabinet no man can point to a single act of mine unbecoming to such a high position."

"Permit me also to extend my thanks to the Young Liberals' Club. They have done a noble work in this campaign and have done much to strengthen my hands. Permit me, also, to thank the Liberal ladies of St. John, the wives and daughters who have shown such a keen interest in the progress of the contest as well as to many Liberal women whose husbands can not see to eye with them, but whose continued presence has been a source of inspiration. When before do you ever see so many ladies present to hear the election returns and clearly showing how glad they were at a great Liberal victory? I was very happy to see you."

"The latest returns from Ontario show twenty-one Liberals, one Independent and twenty-five Conservatives. This was the province that gave the Conservatives such a great majority in their last provincial election. I wonder what Sir James P. Whitney will say tonight. Sir James Whitney who a few days ago was here condemning me and predicting that the Conservatives were to sweep Ontario from end to end."
