

HON. J. P. BURCHILL CHOSEN FOR NORTHUMBERLAND CO.

He was Unanimously Chosen by the Liberals of the County Yesterday—Hon. C. W. Robinson, W. S. Loggie, M. P., and Others Speak.

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 19.—Hon. John P. Burchill, of Nelson, was the unanimous choice of the Liberal party convention here this afternoon, to contest Northumberland county in the approaching bye-election and oppose the Hazen administration and Conservative nominee, F. D. Swin, of Doaktown.

When the announcement was made by Ald. W. F. Cassidy, on behalf of the nominating committee, the hall full of men broke out into tremendous applause and cheering. Owing to the fact that Mr. Burchill is traveling in New York State for his health, he could not be present to accept the nomination in person, but the following card shows how he stands in the contest:

"To the Electors of Northumberland County—

"Having been nominated at a meeting of the Northumberland Liberal Association, I have decided to accept and will be a candidate at the forthcoming election of a member to serve the county in the local legislature.

"Time will not permit me to personally interview more than a comparatively small number of the electors. If elected, it shall always be my highest ambition to devote myself industriously and faithfully to the promotion and advancement of all the varied interests and industries of the County of Northumberland, and the province at large.

"I shall hold myself free to support any good measures which I believe to be in the interest of my county and province, and especially shall I favor and promote legislation that will protect our forest wealth in the interests of our people as a whole, and urge the enactment of legislation to restrict or prohibit the exportation of dressed wood with a view to bringing about the manufacture of pulp and paper in this province.

"Soliciting your support and votes, Yours faithfully,
"JOHN P. BURCHILL."

The convention was of the most harmonious and enthusiastic nature. Every man was there for a party contest and a straight party nominee was the result.

Hon. C. W. Robinson's address was followed with the closest attention and his evident wish that Northumberland should elect a Liberal met with the fullest accord of the meeting. The gauge thrown down by the Conservatives at Newcastle, has been accepted by the Liberals in convention at Chatham, and the fight is now on. With what result is easily to be foreseen, judging by the enthusiasm and eagerness of the Liberals for the fray and the corresponding depression and lack of interest displayed by the Conservatives.

While the convention was distinctly Liberal in tone and entirely opposed to Hazen, there was plenty of good will manifested towards Hon. John Morrissey, who is being pounded by the Conservative press today, because he is the only Liberal in Hazen's government, and Mr. Winslow's suggestion that a man should be nominated who would be friendly with Morrissey, while opposed to Hazen, was greeted with cheers.

The convention met in Masonic Hall at 3 o'clock, with the following delegates present:—

Ludlow—J. D. McMillan, W. A. Campbell.

Blackville—A. Alcorn, D. G. Schofield, B. F. McKendrick, Bernard McCormack.

Nelson—J. Percy Burchill, George Flett, Glenelg—John McLean, Malcolm Watling.

Almwick—George Murray, Wm. Gay.

Newcastle—P. Hennessy, Mayor Miller, M. Bannan, Chas. Morrissey, Alex. McKay, Wm. McNeil, James O'Brien.

North and South Esk—M. Sutherland, J. F. Benson, Fred S. Maher, J. J. McNeely, Chas. A. Gunn, Parker Harriman, Robert A. McLean, Dr. Duffy, Dennis Maher, P. J. McIntyre, John A. Boudreau.

Derby—Jas. Bryenton, John Vandenberg, Randolph Crocker.

Chatham—Thos. Fitzpatrick, A. P. Williams, J. Kerr Loggie, J. J. Savoy, W. F. Cassidy, W. C. Winslow, Robert Murray, J. F. Benson, Fred S. Maher, J. J. McNeely, Chas. A. Gunn, Parker Harriman, Robert A. McLean, Dr. Duffy, Dennis Maher, P. J. McIntyre, John A. Boudreau.

Douglstown—John Kane and James Craig.

A. Alcorn, of Blackville, moved that a committee be appointed for the purpose of choosing a candidate, seconded by Cyrus McKendrick and carried unanimously.

Robert Murray thought this committee should select a nominating committee on the basis of proportionate representation to each parish. This was decided upon and John Vandenberg, A. Alcorn, Thomas Fitzpatrick, A. P. Williams, and Michael Bannan were appointed a committee to appoint a nominating committee.

Hon. Mr. Robinson was called upon to make a few remarks while this committee retired for its work. At this Liberal convention he said he felt it was right to congratulate the association on the magnificent majority rolled up for W. S. Loggie in October last. The party today stands stronger than ever before. This is the time for organization, right after an election and he felt they could add many recruits. He would say, "keep up your association, and your organization." He wanted a member from Northumberland on the opposition side, but he would leave the matter in their hands. Every other county has decided on party lines in provincial politics.

He would like to see Northumberland come into line but he would leave that wholly in their hands. The Conservatives in convention have challenged us to fight along party lines and he thought the present convention should accept this challenge. Mr. Morrissey is a Liberal but Mr. Hazen has not used his Liberal followers fairly. He has broken his promise that he would not turn the Liberals out and to put our great Liberal chieftain out of power? We will resent such treatment and will show our resentment.

He would not discuss local politics at any length but he thanked the people of Northumberland for whatever support they gave him and his party in March. He was willing to take the people's verdict given in that month when Mr. Hazen came into power. He (Hazen) promised that his first act would be to bring in a highway act, giving control of the roads to the municipal councils. Has he kept that promise? "Yes of 'No, no.'" They charged us with bad roads and over expenditure. Yet they have raised the poll tax from $1 to $2. For these reasons Liberals should arise and say to Hazen, "We trusted you on March 3, we listened to you and in many cases voted against our friends but you have not kept your promises and on the first occasion we will show our resentment of the unfair way in which you have treated us."

He knew that the Liberal nominee, whoever he might be, would be elected by a good majority in this county. He felt the party was in a position to win a great victory and make itself stronger than before. The opposition is united, harmonious, full of fight and energy and working faithfully until the time comes for them to take Mr. Hazen's place.

W. C. Winslow was next called upon and made a few remarks. He said after election in March that if any man was not satisfied with the defeat he got on that occasion he was hard to satisfy. But in the last two months a great change has taken place and today men will vote for the opposition candidate who never voted for our party before. The Conservatives in convention attacked Morrissey because he had been a Liberal. He hoped this convention would select a man who would not be hostile to this Liberal member of Mr. Hazen's cabinet.

The committee then returned and announced they had selected the following:

Nominating committee: Chatham—W. C. Winslow, F. W. Russell, W. F. Cassidy, John A. Grey, A. P. Williams, Charles A. Gunn.

Ludlow—J. D. McMillan, W. A. Campbell.

Blackville—C. F. McKendrick, D. G. Schofield.

Nelson—J. Percy Burchill, Geo. Flett.

Glenelg—John McLean, Alex. Dickson.

Almwick—William Gay, George Murray.

Newcastle—Michael Bannan, Charles Morrissey, James Craig, Mayor Miller.

South Esk—Murdoch Sutherland.

Derby—James Bryenton, Randolph Crocker.

These in turn retired to select a candidate to place before the convention.

E. S. Carter was called to the floor and delivered a strong address pointing out the advantage of organization which, with a good cause, always insured success. In Kings-Albert they turned a majority of nearly 400 against the Liberals into one of 350 for them. Organization and a good cause did it. He was loudly cheered on resuming his seat.

After being out one hour the nominating committee returned and Ald. W. F. Cassidy reported that it had been the unanimous choice of the committee that John P. Burchill be the Liberal standard bearer.

He best liberal interests of the province.

Mr. Winslow then outlined Mr. Burchill's sentiments on the subject as shown by his card. Mr. Winslow strongly approved of this platform, especially the last plank. No party has yet adopted that plank and this will be a great card in this election. Mr. Burchill will support the party which will adopt this plank.

Robert Murray expressed himself as entirely in accord with the nomination and he would do what he could to make Mr. Burchill's majority all the larger. Mr. Burchill was sure of election but still they must be up and doing. "He is a good old Liberal, and when he goes to the legislature he will not only do honor to the party but to the county and province at large," declared Mr. Murray.

Mayor Miller was called upon and stated this was the opportune time for the Liberal party to cement itself solidly together. It is not a question of Mr. Burchill's election but of his majority. He had been brought up a Liberal and he would continue to be so. He would do all he could to elect Mr. Burchill.

W. S. Loggie, M.P., was received with cheers. Mr. Loggie thanked the electors for the magnificent vote given him on October 28. He was in rather an anomalous position. This was the first time since he has been in politics that a Liberal convention has been called to nominate a Liberal in local politics. He had always thought coalition conditions at Fredericton were bad and he at length took the field against the old provincial government. He was glad to see the day was near at hand when local politics would be run on party lines. Mr. Hazen, in practice, has made politics in this province run along party lines. As Liberal leader in this county he was bound to be in sympathy with the Liberal party and it was with pleasure that he here endorsed the candidature of Hon. John P. Burchill. He is a man in whom you may repose your trust.

"We are now down to a business basis in this county, the fight will be along party lines and Mr. Burchill will be elected." (Great cheering.)

Mr. Loggie then paid a glowing tribute to Hon. C. W. Robinson, Liberal leader in this province.

The convention closed with cheers. The result of the convention today was satisfactory in every respect to Northumberland Liberals. The meeting was regularly called by the secretary of the Liberal association and, though there was only a day's notice, the attendance was large, representative and most enthusiastic.

The president of the Liberal association, John P. Burchill, was unanimously nominated and tonight hope is strong among the Liberals here that he will be able to unite all factions in the party. He is recognized as the strongest and most acceptable man available, one who will do justice to his party, to his country and to his friends.

There is no soreness in the minds of Hon. John Morrissey's friends. They recognize the fact that local politics are sure to be run upon strict party lines in the near future and if not openly expressed it is in the minds of most of them that the proper place for their leader is with associates who will always work harmoniously with him for the advancement of the best Liberal interests of the province.

Hon. C. W. Robinson made an excellent address, moderate in tone, congratulatory to the Liberals, expressing confidence in the future and condemning, particularly that policy of the Conservative leader, Mr. Hazen, who had invited Liberals to aid him in forming a coalition government and then using all the power and influence of his government, with the assistance of all of his colleagues except Hon. John Morrissey to drive the Federal Liberal government from power.

Mr. Hazen had stated that he would treat Liberals fairly, and yet as soon as he obtained power he had done everything else but use the Liberals right. He had dismissed them from office without discrimination. Were they, as Liberals, to forget these insults heaped upon them by Hazen and Flemming?

Referring to the situation in Northumberland, he stated that he would rather lose the election than cause any disruption in the Liberal ranks, but he thought that the action of the association in meeting and nominating a candidate when the challenge had been thrown to them by the Conservative party was to be commended. They all knew that he would like to see the opposition party strengthened. It was always wise to have an opposition strong and vigilant. It was, however, for their association to act and to act in such a manner as would harmonize all the conflicting interests in the county and be for their benefit and that of the province.

Since Mr. Burchill's nomination the tension of the past few days has been relieved. The Conservative convention was a most fortunate thing for the Liberal party in Northumberland. Today even the fairminded men in that party have announced that they will support Burchill. It is a great tribute to the Liberal candidate that, though absent from the county with Mrs. Burchill visiting relatives in New York State, he should receive such a unanimous nomination at the hands of his political and personal friends.

ST. JOHN Y.M.C.A. BUILDING WAS PRESENTED LAST NIGHT

W. H. Thorne Acting for the Building Committee Formally Handed it Over to L. P. D. Tilley Last Night—Visitors Inspect the Magnificent Quarters.

The Handsome New Home of the St. John Y. M. C. A.

The handsome new home of the Young Men's Christian Association was opened for public inspection yesterday afternoon and evening, when a reception was tendered the members, contributors and subscribers to the building fund. At a luncheon tendered the board of trustees, directors, building committee, ladies' auxiliary and visitors from various parts of the maritime provinces, the new building was formally presented to the board of trustees by W. H. Thorne, chairman of the building committee, and accepted by the president, L. P. D. Tilley.

Congratulatory addresses were given by prominent Y.M.C.A. workers and many flattering references made to the magnificent new institution provided for the young men of St. John.

Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen visited the building during the afternoon and in the evening there was another throng eager to inspect the new structure. The luncheon was served in the classrooms on the first floor, and about seventy sat down to a dainty repast served by the Frank White Catering Company. The luncheon and speechmaking which followed, occupied nearly three hours.

President Tilley presided and seated at his right hand were: W. H. Thorne, chairman of the building committee; Capt. J. E. Masters, of Moncton, chairman of the Maritime committee; and Frank M. L. Ritchie, International Boys' Work secretary for Canada. On the president's left were: W. M. Birks, of Montreal, chairman of the Canadian section of the International committee; Dr. H. Woodbury, president of the Halifax Association; and Fraser E. Marshall, secretary of the Maritime committee.

W. C. Cross, vice president of the local association was in the vice chair and there were representatives from the Y. M. C. A. in other parts of the province, as well as prominent workers from this city, both ladies and gentlemen.

After full justice had been done to the viands, President Tilley, after reading telegrams from John E. Irvine, of Calgary, and R. W. Nicholson, of Yarmouth, regretting their inability to attend and wishing the association every success, called.
