COMMERCIAL SUMMARY

(Furnished by D. C. Clinch, Banker & Broker, 92 Prince Willilam St.)

DETAILED STOCK GOSSIP.

If the offerings just above closing levels in Amal. shall be removed, the bull tip of 80 may be made good, otherwise reactionary operations may be expected. B. R. T. information is bullish, but the stock is still held betwen 51 and 53. The same may be said of K. T. with the supporting level toward 30 and checking toward 32. St. Paul is supported around 139 with bull tips afloat. Harriman buying is reported in Erie. Gt. Nor. is reported held between 135 and 137 and Nor. Pac. 139 and 142 in specialist advices. Reading meets stock now toward 119, with some support around 115. So. Pac. is reported supported around 91, but is realized toward 93. Un. Pac. is reported as being sold every time it approaches 155 with present support toward 151. Steel is held between 44 and 46. If these limits are broken a point or more professionals will expect extension of movement in either direction.

LIVERPOOL QUOTATIONS.

Liverpool due 19 to 20 higher on near and 5 to 5 1-2 higher late. Opened quiet, 2 1-2 higher on near and 4 points higher on late. At 12.15 p. m.—Was quiet, net 4 1-2 to 8 1-2 higher on near and 3 1-2 higher on late. Spot cotton quiet, 4 points higher; middling uplands, 5.93d. Sales, 4,000; speculation and export, 200. American, 3,000. Imports, 8,000, all American.

THE NEW YORK MARKET.

Our latest reports indicate that the stock market has resolved itself into trading affair temporarily. Support is met on declines and stock is offered on advances of a general character. Specialty operations for the rise may be expected during the period of backing and filling. Daily operators ought not to neglect fair profits on strength as suggested. When the offerings above the market shall have been removed improvement will be resumed. A multitude of little or minor unfavorable features have sprung up, any one of which by itself would attract no attention, but combined, serve to cause hesitation on the part of the market operators through their accumulated force. The Ven. incident is not a real factor. The Dutch demonstration proposed should arouse no apprehension whatever, for they have no territorial aspiration and as the Times says editorially this morning, they are not likely to do anything that would conflict with the Monroe doctrine. In fact, the United States would be glad to have the Dutch power, according to private advices, administer a wholesome chastising to the cockey Castro. Those who have reasonable profits in any issue should not neglect to accept the major portion of them, especially on strength.

But on recessions from the top prices attained on the present movement, conservative purchases should be productive of satisfactory returns to the discriminating buyer.

LONDON QUOTATIONS.
