Time of Season, to St. John
the Baptist 8-3.

St. Peter's dropped their first game of the season on Saturday afternoon when they were defeated by St. John the Baptist team, by the score of 8 to 3. St. Peter's took the evening game from St. Joseph's by a score of 6 to 3. The afternoon exhibition game on the Victoria grounds went to the Marathons who defeated the Portlands.

St. Peter's were without the services of any of their regular pitchers, and J. Dever was put in the box. He kept the hits well scattered but St. John the Baptist players put up a snappy game and gave their pitcher good support, while the St. Peter's fielding was done somewhat ragged. About 200 people saw the game.

There was a large attendance at the evening game on the Shamrock grounds, and St. Joseph's started well by scoring one in the first inning, while their opponents were quickly blanked. In the second, St. Peter's evened the score while St. Joseph's were unable to get anything.

In the third, St. Peter's became busy and added two more. Doherty was safe at first on a grounder. J. O'Toole did not reach first. Kelly hit to centre and Britt made a long run but missed and Doherty scored. Keenan hit to right field, scoring O'Toole and McKinnon. O'Keefe struck out.

St. Peter's scored again in the sixth and the game went seven innings but St. Joseph's were unable to tally again. Daley's batting was a feature, and Doherty made a sensational catch of a long fly which went nearly to the fence. With the exception of one error Ryan's fielding was of good order. The teams were:

St. Peter's. St. Joseph's.
O'Toole, Catcher. Daley, O'Keefe, Pitcher. Donovan, Keenan, 1st base. Simpson, 2nd base. McKinnon, 3rd base. Ryan, 4th base. Kelly, 5th base. Curran, 6th base. Quigg, 7th base. Harrigan, 8th base. Doherty, 9th base. Britt, 10th base. J. McKinnon, Right field. Owens, Left field.

The score by innings was:
St. Peter's. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7
St. Joseph's. 0 0 0 0 0 0 1

The league standing is:

Toronto, June 14.—The C. P. R. is busy at Fort William, and it looks as if the business depression of the west is over. The company's yards are filled with cars and merchandise awaiting shipment, and all men competent for train crews are being engaged. Very large shipments of coal and steel rails are going forward, the rails being required for the C. P. R. extensions and the Grand Trunk Pacific construction.

WOMAN HANGS HERSELF
FROM BEAM IN AN ATTICMrs. James M. Shay Commits
Suicide at Kent Junction

Moncton, N.B., June 14.—Mrs. James M. Shay, who lived with her husband at Kent Junction, hanged herself in the attic of her home Saturday morning. When Mr. Shay came home to dinner he was surprised at not finding his wife about and the meal not ready. He made search and found his wife's dead body swaying from a beam in the attic of the house. Deceased was in poor health and was despondent. She was sixty-two years old and had no children.

In the opening game of the soccer football league here Saturday afternoon, Moncton and Amherst tied at three each. The teams were very evenly matched.

Members of the I.C.R. brotherhoods today held their annual memorial service attending in a body in St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal church. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. E. Brown.

What's taken as a kit of burglar's tools, were found last week by workmen at Sunny Brae and handed over to the police.

WEDDINGS

Fowler-McCullum

Augusta, Me., June 11.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place last evening at the residence of John T. Fowler, 127 Bangor street, in the presence of a goodly number of guests, when Miss Lucy Almeida McCullum of South Colons, Queens County, N.B., was united in marriage to John T. Fowler of Augusta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Dunn, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The bride looked very charming in a costume of Brussels net with lace over silk. She wore a tulle veil caught up with sprays of lily of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Edie R. Fowler, sister of the groom, wore a becoming costume of pale blue silk muslin with cream lace trimmings. Frank R. White attended the groom. The bridal party descended the stairs as the Lohengrin wedding march was played. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers and foliage. After the ceremony a reception was held and the guests adjourned to the dining room, where ice cream and cake were served. The bride received a number of beautiful presents. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside at their home in Bangor street.

Matthew-Hughes

In the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York, on Saturday, Harrison Tilley Matthew, son of Dr. George F. Matthew of St. John, was united in marriage to Miss Agnes Cama Hughes, of New York. The bride was attended by Miss Greta Challen of Jacksonville as maid of honor, and Miss Matilda Anderson, of Jacksonville, and Miss Gertrude Page, of New York as bridesmaids. The groomsmen were Oscar H. Bickman of New York. The ushers were George Matthew, brother of the groom, and Howard C. Murphy, of Brooklyn. Rev. Dr. Lindsay Parker officiated. The bride and groom will spend a brief honeymoon in St. John.

Brydone-Jack-Walker

On Wednesday evening in Montreal at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Margaret Walker and Dr. Frederick Brydone-Jack, of Vancouver, were married by Rev. W. P. Walker, father of the bride, assisted by Rev. Edward McGowan, Dr. and Mrs. Brydone-Jack left on the evening train for Vancouver.

WILL DISCUSS THE THEATRE LICENSES

The bills and by-laws committee will meet this afternoon to hear all interested in the proposed change in the by-law governing licenses fees to moving picture shows and amusements in general. It is expected that the managers of several of the moving picture houses will put up strong opposition to the proposed fee of $50 a month.

The proposed schedule is traveling circus, etc., $200 a day; motion pictures, $50 a month; general theatre license, except moving pictures, $200 a year; companies not showing in licensed places, $10 a day; street music and other performances, $1 a day for every performer.

E. B. Snow, of Quebec, was registered at the Victoria on Saturday.

Is Your Stomach Uneasy?

That's the sort of feeling that cures the merit of Polson's Nervine—it cures nausea and indigestion at once, settles the stomach, sets you up so you feel better at once. Large bottles, 25c, everywhere.

MARY EMERSON HERE TONIGHT

It will be welcome news for many of the theatre goers of St. John that Miss Mary Emerson's support is Louis Bresen, who was one of the favorite members of W. S. Harkin's company. Mr. Bresen plays Rodin, an old retainer, who has been both father and mother to Rose, the character assumed by Miss Emerson.

Both parts are handled by Mr. Bresen in a masterly manner that marks him as a ranking high in the art. The company will open their engagement in the Opera House tonight.

On Wednesday evening the members of the St. John Dramatic Company will attend the performance of His Majesty and The Maid at the Opera House as the guests of Miss Mary Emerson and Mr. Anderson of the Opera House. The members, accompanied by Mr. Bird, will attend in a body.

THE RING

Boxing Notes.

Charley Neary, the Milwaukee lightweight, has retired from the ring and is going into business in Milwaukee.

George Siler, the veteran referee, who was stricken with heart trouble in Chicago a week ago, is now pronounced out of danger. After Jack O'Brien had finished his bout with Jack Blackburn at Philadelphia Wednesday night promoter Coffroth of California, offered him a chance to meet Ketchel on Labor Day. O'Brien promised to give his answer in a day or two.

Joe Gans is again pretending he wants to quit the game and declares he will do so in September. After he meets Nelson he will challenge the winner of the McFarland and Welsh battle to box him on Labor Day. Whether or not the victor in the latter battle accepts, he will retire.

62ND RIFLE CLUB SHOOT

The 62nd Rifle Club held their weekly spoon match on the rifle range on Saturday afternoon and it was attended by more than forty members. The wind somewhat interfered with the younger shots. On next Saturday a league match will be shot. A large attendance is looked for.

The tie between Corp. Ingram and Private Lee was shot off at 600 yds. on Saturday last. Corp. Ingram won.

The winners in the several classes on Saturday were: A class, Capt. Frost, 92 points; B class, Capt. Smith, 81 points; C class, Corp. McIveen, 66 points; D class, Private H. A. Wetmore, 58 points.

CITY RIFLE CLUB MATCH

The St. John City Rifle Club held a spoon match on Saturday. The winners were:

A class. 200 500 600 T. Sgt. J. Sullivan, 1st. 32 27 32-93
D. Conley, 2nd. 28 20 27-85
D. class.
F. J. Bowes, 1st. 23 20 23-66
C. W. Clark, 2nd. 21 16 16-52

The club will shoot the second league match next Saturday afternoon, when all members are asked to attend. Those living out of town may shoot the 200 yard range at one o'clock, and get through at 6 in time to get their train. Every member is asked to be present at the second league match.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS
ITS 80TH ANNIVERSARY

Portland Methodist church was filled last evening on the 80th anniversary of the Sunday School. An excellent programme was carried out. R. T. Hayes, the superintendent, presided.

The programme consisted of choruses, scriptures, reading and prayer by the pastor, Rev. N. McLaughlin; recitations by Eva Oatey, Gerald Harvey, George White, James Hurd, Eva Chase and Marion Maxwell, solo by Annie Patterson; duet by Lillian Bromfield and Kathleen Blizzard and Alice Corbett and Ella White and exercises by the primary classes. The reports showed a total membership of 889. Of these 126 were in the cradle roll and 112 in the home department, leaving 651 in the main school. The average attendance was 367.

The treasurer's report showed an expenditure of $335.23, leaving a small balance. The sum of $133.06 was contributed to missions. The picnic was financed by private subscription, a balance of $61.80 being left. The names of the following members who have died during the year were mentioned: Mrs. J. C. Edwards, of the home department; Mrs. Robert Palmer and Wm. Stanton, of the Bible Study Union and John Myles, Mildred Foster, Andrew Myles, James Packock and Percy Perkins of the cradle roll.

SERVICE FOR THE BOYS OF ROTHESAY COLLEGE

The annual service for the boys of Rothestay College was held yesterday afternoon in the parish church. The boys marched about fifty strong from the school to the church, which was prettily decorated with white and purple lilies. Rev. R. A. Armstrong, rector of Trinity church, preached the sermon. J. S. Ford, organist of Trinity, presided at the organ. This afternoon Col. G. Rolt White, D. O. C., will inspect the cadet company of Rothestay College. The preliminary heats in the athletic sports will also be held. The final in the sports will take place on Tuesday afternoon and there will be a military drill, after which the prizes will be presented and the usual address delivered. A special train for the accommodation of visitors will leave the city on Tuesday at 2 p.m.

A VISITOR FROM AUSTRALIA

Making St. John a stopping off place in a round-the-world tour, J. R. Bowering and wife, of Broken Hill, Australia, are in the city for a few days. Mr. Bowering is staying with his cousin, Adj. Bowering, of the Salvation Army.

About two weeks ago, Mr. Bowering and wife sailed from Victoria and have come by way of the Fiji Islands, Honolulu, Frisco and United States railways. From here they will go to New York and will sail to England, cross the continent to the Mediterranean and return to the Antipodes by way of the Suez Canal.

In conversation with a Telegraph reporter last evening, Mr. Bowering said everything in Australia was prosperous and the industries growing.

WOMAN JOURNALIST
GOES TO ALBERTA

Ottawa, June 12.—(Special)—Miss Katherine Hughes, formerly of P. E. I., biographer, and niece of the late Archbishop O'Brien, has recently been engaged in journalism in Edmonton. Word has been received by her friends here that she has been appointed provincial journalist for Alberta with an initial salary of $1,200.

The Forty Hour Devotion in the church of the Assumption, Carleton, closed last evening. The pastor, Rev. J. O'Donovan, has been assisted by Rev. D. S. O'Keefe and Rev. J. W. Holland.

GREEKS WON
FROM P.Y.M.A. 7-0Game a Good One After the
First Inning--Big Crowd in Attendance.

The Marathons defeated the Portlands Saturday by a score of 7 to 0, shutting the North End boys out. The game was fast after the first inning in which the Greeks piled up 5. About 500 people watched the contest. An incident of the game was the withdrawal of Murphy, the Portland's pitcher, from the box. He and his catcher, Lee, apparently were at odds. Bovaire replaced him. The score and summary follow:
