THE SUSSEX EXHIBITION IS OPENED WITH DUE CREMONY

Premier Hazen and Local Members of Parliament Deliver Eulogistic Addresses---Some Splendid Exhibits Shown.

Sussex, N. B., Sept. 22.—The exhibition of the Sussex and Studholm Agricultural Association was formally opened tonight by Premier Hazen. The attendance was large.

The opening took place at 8 o'clock. Premier Hazen, Fred Sproul, M.P.P., James Murray, M.P.P., Col. Montgomery Campbell, president of the association; S. J. Goodlife, manager of the exhibition; W. J. Mills, secretary of the association, and Jesse T. Prescott, S. C. McCully, Rev. Frank Baird and Jas. A. Moore, members of the association, were seated on the platform.

Col. Montgomery Campbell made a few introductory remarks congratulating the prize winners of the day and introducing to the audience Premier Hazen.

Mr. Hazen expressed his appreciation of the honor conferred upon him by the Sussex and Studholm Agricultural Association. He congratulated the directors of the exhibition on the success which had attended their efforts. Fairs should be encouraged because they insured social intercourse and also healthy rivalry. He said it was to be expected that the pork and dairy exhibits at the Sussex exhibition would be of the best, as Sussex was the centre of the dairying industry of New Brunswick. He had been informed that at the St. John exhibition Sussex stock exhibitors had not only held their own but had carried off the lion's share of the prizes. (Applause.) It was also to be expected that a magnificent display of agricultural and horticultural products would be seen. The maritime provinces could produce roots and cereals equal to those of any part of the world.

Speaking of the stock exhibit, Premier Hazen said he could not see why stock to improve the provincial herds should be imported, when the private stock breeders of New Brunswick could raise such fine cattle.

The Sussex exhibition he thought a credit to its promoters, to the locality in which it was held and the province of New Brunswick.

Mr. Hazen then devoted his attention to the province at large. In recent years the west had attracted a large portion of the youthful population of New Brunswick. That could be accounted for by their ancestry. Descendants of the old pioneers would always go into strange lands in an effort to improve their condition. Personally he did not believe that the west was superior to New Brunswick. The farmer who attended to his farm and left side issues, such as lumbering, alone, always succeeded.

Mr. Hazen dwelt briefly on the agricultural commission and hoped when it sat in Kings the people, irrespective of political leaning, would attend its sessions.

He though government should do everything in reason to aid the farmers.

James Murray, M. P. P., was then called upon by President Campbell. He said he felt a pride in the exhibition and, together with other citizens of Sussex, felt that it merited the praise given it. Kings was essentially an agricultural county. The word "farmer" was once a term of reproach but that time was past. Agriculture had been elevated. The premier had said Sussex was the dairy centre of New Brunswick, not only was that the case, but Kings county produced more than half the dairy products of the maritime provinces. He regretted that the manufacturers and agriculturists did not co-operate to make the fair a success. He urged a community of interest to make the Sussex exhibition the best in the maritime provinces.

F. M. Sproul, M.P.P., followed Mr. Murray. He congratulated the directors of the exhibition and the people of Sussex on the success of the exhibition. He hoped Premier Hazen's predictions concerning agricultural education would soon materialize. Such instruction was needed to aid practical work. He hoped the result of the agricultural commission would be a benefit to the province.

The judging of Jersey, Guernsey and grade cattle occupied all day. Tomorrow is Ayrshire day. The farmers of Kings county devote much attention to raising Ayrshire cattle. At both St. John and Halifax exhibitions Kings county took a majority of the prizes in this class. All the herds shown at those places are here together with additional exhibits and the keenest competition is expected. The judging of the other stock and practically all the other things will take place tomorrow.

WOODSTOCK FAIR NOW IN FULL SWING

It was Opened Last Night--Exhibits are Reported to be Better Than Ever.

Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 22.—A fair-sized crowd gathered in the exhibition building this afternoon at the opening ceremonies of the agricultural and industrial exhibition open to the province and undertaken by the Carleton and Jacksonville Agricultural Society of which James Good is president and general manager and C. M. Augherton, secretary. The exhibition continues tomorrow and Thursday and promises to be far and away ahead of anything previously held in this town.

At 2 p. m. the parade started from the post office headed by the 71st regiment band of Fredericton and marched to the grounds, about one-quarter of a mile away. James Good was chairman and he introduced in order Mayor Balmain, F. B. Carvell, M. P., Hon. J. K. Flemming, B. F. Smith, and Donald Munro, M's.P.P., who delivered brief addresses.

Mayor Balmain extended on behalf of the citizens a welcome to the visitors to the fair. He was particularly pleased at the exhibit made by the school children.

Mr. Carvell expressed his pleasure at meeting such a large number as was present on the opening day. This was purely an agricultural exhibition, although manufacturers were also represented. He had travelled quite a lot throughout Canada, outside of the extreme west and to his mind Carleton County was one of the finest spots in Canada. No place could be found where the people were more happy and contented. He had always felt that money spent on agriculture was well spent. The idea of holding fairs was that one neighbor could compare his stock and produce with others. He trusted that in the future such exhibitions would be held annually.

Mr. Smith said it was gratifying to meet so many people as were present. He had always taken a great interest in agriculture, as he was born on a farm. Exhibitions bring out friendly competitions. No farmer liked to see his neighbor raising better stock or grain, if he could do as good by trying. He would like to see the young man of the farm take more interest in agriculture. One of the greatest difficulties was the lack of help for farm work. Only a few years ago we had to look to Uncle Sam for a market. Things have changed. Now we can sell our products to the mother country. Transportation is better now and we can find markets in Europe. He hoped the exhibition would be a great success from an agricultural and financial standpoint.

Hon. Mr. Flemming complimented the management on the successful opening. The exhibition of fruit was very creditable, the school exhibit was most pleasing and did much credit to the teachers and scholars. He was delighted that the rural schools sent in such good exhibits. He regretted that Governor Tweedie and the commissioner of agriculture were not present. Exhibitions encouraged the spirit of friendly rivalry. Farmers are anxious to do their best on such occasions when the eyes of the judges and spectators are on their products.

He advocated more extensive fruit raising and stated that the climatic conditions were as good for fruit raising in this province as they are in the Annapolis Valley.

Mr. Munro said he was interested in farming as he was one of a firm of manufacturers that supplied goods to farmers and if they were successful so would he be. He told of the visit of the Scotch farmers recently and how pleased they were with the farms in this country. He complimented the managers on the success of the fair and was pleased with the exhibit as a whole, but particularly well pleased with the school exhibit.

The show is a fine one in every respect. The agricultural exhibits in particular are numerous and of a high class. The fancy work department is large and the exhibits many and excellent, showing a wonderful advance over previous exhibitions. There is a good poultry show. The following are the superintendents of the twelve divisions:—

Horses—George R. Smith; Cattle—C. H. L. Perkins; Sheep—G. W. Shaw; Swine—C. F. Rogers; Poultry—S. Peabody; Roots and Vegetables—Ed. Lindow and Jonn Cogger; Grain—Thomas Strong; Dairy Produce—J. F. Tilley; Woolen and Cotton Manufacturers—Andrew Myles; Manufacturers — Stephen Peabody; Fancy Work—Mrs. A. W. Smith; Fruit—J. F. Tilley.

Among the special attractions were Balmar and Pratt, comedy artists; Sully, the high wire walker and juggler; Slick and London, trick bicyclists and barrel jumpers, all of Boston. The midget horse, moving pictures and usual small shows. The 71st band furnished music. Exhibition is being continued this evening.

'CROOKED NECK' SMITH SENTENCED TO HANG

American Crook Who Shot His Pal in Montreal Meets Swift Justice---Nov. 27 is Execution Date.

Montreal, Sept. 22.—A surprise was sprung upon the crowd at the court of Kings Bench this afternoon in the case of "Crooked-neck" Smith, when the jury, after only being out twenty-five minutes, brought in a verdict, finding the prisoner guilty of murder without even a recommendation to mercy.

Within five minutes Judge Trenholme had pronounced the fatal words condemning Smith to death, the date for his hanging being fixed for November 27 next.

"Crooked-Neck" Smith is a well known American crook and came to Canada last July with several pals to prey upon the Canadian public. He became embroiled in a quarrel with one of his confederates named Mike Malone and the latter threatened to kill him on the first opportunity. The next day, July 7, Smith hunted up Malone in a Chinese opium den and shot him to death in cold blood. He managed to get away and fled to the United States but returned later and gave himself up to justice.

Ex-Judge Doherty was nominated tonight at a meeting of 200 delegates as the Conservative candidate for St. Ann's division, Montreal. The choice was between Ald. O'Connell and the Judge but the latter received the unanimous support of the delegates.

MUSQUASH POLITICAL PICNIC WAS VERY LARGELY ATTENDED

Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Hon. H. A. McKeown, E. H. McAlpine, Edward Sears and James Lowell, M.P.P. Spoke to Large Number---Entertainment, Music and Refreshments.

Bright sunny skies, attractive grounds and a large attendance of people made the political picnic at Musquash yesterday very successful. The Liberal workers turned out in force. A large number were present during the afternoon and many remained to dance during the evening. The arrangements were in charge of James Lowell, M.P.P., assisted by a corps of ladies of Musquash. The speakers of the day were Hon. Wm. Pugsley, minister of public works, Hon. H. A. McKeown, E. H. McAlpine, Edward Sears and James Lowell, M.P. The speeches were listened to attentively and won the applause of the auditors.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley directed attention to his efforts to build the St. John Valley railway and said Premier Hazen had failed to take up the scheme. He also spoke of the policy of the Liberal government to send Canadian trade through Canadian ports, and said that all improvements were but the fulfillment of the national policy of Canada for the Canadians. The minister also dealt with the scandals charged against the government and told of the steps in the Saskatchewan land deal.

Hon. Mr. McKeown spoke of Dr. Pugsley's position in the councils of the country and his fitness for the position. He quoted figures in answer to Conservative charges of extravagance.

Mr. McAlpine spoke at some length and covered many of the political issues. He attacked Premier Hazen who, he said, was traducing better men than himself. He compared conditions before and after the Liberals assumed the reins of government and declared it was an absurdity for the Conservatives to claim that taxation had been increased to make up the doubled revenue.

Mr. Sears and Mr. Lowell spoke but briefly.

For the beautiful summer weather the party workers have a kindly feeling for the weather man. Preparations for amusing the people expected were complete and soon after breakfast hour, the crowd began to arrive. At the right of the entrance to the grounds was a refreshment booth where ice cold lemonade and soft drinks were supplied to the thirsty farmers. Peanuts, candy and apples were ready for distribution. To the left was a dancing pavilion, where the younger people enjoyed themselves. Tea tables and a large tent where the speeches were delivered, were suitably placed and swings in the trees added to the enjoyment.

Some of the more enthusiastic went from St. John in the N. B. Southern regular train, but the larger number waited for the special, which left West St. John about 1 o'clock and with the contingents picked up along the line carried several people to the picnic grounds. Residents of the parish of Musquash made up the balance.

For a few hours the people spread over the grounds, enjoying themselves in various ways. A competent staff of ladies, assisted by men, served dinner, and sandwiches galore, crackers and cheese, coffee and cake, made a very satisfying meal for the hundreds of people who sat down. Supper was also served before the special train left at 5.50 o'clock.

Speech making began about 1.30 o'clock. L. B. Knight took the chair and first introduced Hon. Mr. Pugsley. Hon. Mr. Pugsley first thanked the electors for their presence,and said their attendance was a sign that they were satisfied with his record since being elected as their representative about a year ago. He then spoke of the St. John Valley railway, and said that to his utter astonishment, Premier Hazen had not taken his reference to the railway at the exhibition opening in good part, but had become very angry and in a speech in the Victoria rink, had asked why he (Pugsley) had not brought the Grand Trunk Pacific down the river valley.

Mr. Hazen had forgotten, he said, that the route of the G. T. P. was settled long before the speaker became a member of the dominion government. However, he had done what he could and at the last session had succeeded in getting passed a subsidy equal to $6,400 a mile for the whole distance from Grand Falls to St. John. This was an undertaking in which the people of St. John county were interested as it meant the building up of St. John and that assured good markets for the farmer.

Dr. Pugsley said that when he went to parliament he was determined to look after their interests and not sacrifice the interests of his constituency for the sake of winning popularity in other sections of the Dominion. He had been accused of extravagance, in grabbing money in his estimates for small towns and comparatively unimportant fishing communities. He believed, however, it was the duty of the country to look after the small towns as well as the larger centres. Following out this idea, he was glad to say that he had secured a grant for a splendid building in Fairville which would be built soon, for a breakwater at Lorneville and some improvements off Quaco, and at Grand Manan and other islands in the Bay of Fundy.

His opponents had accused him of extravagance, yet he had the satisfaction of receiving from the very same opponents begging requests for him to grant similar favors to their constituencies. In his opinion, there was no class more entitled to assistance and protection than the hardy fisherman of the coast and it would ever be the policy of his government to keep up their harbors of refuge and carry on the work of dredging at the wharves in seaport towns. When F. D. Monk, one of the Conservative leaders criticised a certain work on the St. Lawrence without particularizing, he was asked to name the place and his reply was "If I announce this publicly it will make me unpopular in that constituency."

"This," continued Dr. Pugsley, "truly represents the class of men we are fighting and their tactics. Mr. Foster is another and we search in vain for any accomplishment in his barren record. He is chiefly known in Ottawa as the man who reduced the pay of charwomen from 75 cents to 50 cents a day. He calls the opposition the watchdogs of the treasury but they are far from that."

Dr. Pugsley accused the opposition of unfairness in applying obstruction tactics and said there were instances where millions of dollars went through without any discussion while at times, they talked all day on a matter of a few dollars. "The rules allow this," said the minister, "but they must be altered and I will be among the first who will move for their alteration." (Hear, hear.)

The minister contrasted the present condition of St. John and the conditions existing under the regime of Mr. Foster as provincial leader of the ruling party at Ottawa. The government did the work, he said, but the city paid for it and the rent for the Carleton branch railway at $40,000 was rigidly exacted. Now the government was building wharves, deepening the channel and bringing trade, all at its own expense. He had not been in office for three weeks before he was able to inform the mayor to go on with the extensions of the wharves, that the government would pay, and the work was now well nigh completed.

In his capacity as minister of public works, and having the interest of St. John at heart, he had also interviewed Messrs. Morse and Hayes, of the G. T. P. about the terminal for the road and he completed arrangements for the borings in Courtenay Bay. As a result it was learned that for a depth of thirty-two feet at the lowest tide there was nothing but sand and mud and there could be constructed a splendid harbor with easy approach as the terminal of the great transcontinental railway, which was thrown open yesterday, 660 miles of railway through the fertile prairie country and which in two years, would extend a band of steel from Winnipeg to St. John, the crowning achievement of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's career.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley made an appeal to the electors to support him and the government on their record, for what they would do and for the advantage that a constituency had in being represented by a minister of the crown.

He went on to speak of the policy of the Liberal party as regards the tariff and the postal service and went into detail in explaining the Saskatchewan valley land transaction, the North Atlantic Trading Company and other canvasses of the Conservatives and concluded with an eloquent eulogy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He was rewarded with a burst of applause.

Hon. Mr. McKeown thanked the electors for the hearty response to the appeal of himself and his colleague in the last provincial election. He said it was the duty of the country to return the minister of public works as he was counted one of the ablest men at Ottawa and it was important to have a man at the centre of the web. He had been given one of the greatest formative departments in the government and had levelled up to the measure of the stature which which the office called for. Charges of extravagance had been made and the member for Wellington, Hugh Guthrie, had taken the trouble to figure out the sum total of the charges of over expenditure. He had taken Hansard and added up the different amounts charged to be extravagant and he had found that for every $800 expended during that time the percentage charged as extravagant amounted to but $1.16.

It had been claimed that Canada had progressed under Conservative rule, but the progress was such that if they had remained in power for 100 years they would not have gone forward as far as the Liberals had done in twelve years.

E. H. McAlpine made a severe arraignment of the Conservative party and said that prior to 1896 everything was dark, dismal and ruin. Sir Wilfrid had said: "Put me in power and I will make you feel prosperity in your pockets," and everyone did.

Mr. McAlpine attacked the local government on a charge of increasing taxes and said such work was the work of hypocrites and Pharisees.

He also spoke of the exodus of United States citizens to Canada and said $52,000,000 in good money had been paid by these citizens into the treasury at Ottawa. Under Conservative rule 2,000,000 Canadians had gone across the border, but the Liberals had changed all that.

Mr. McAlpine went on to speak of good work accomplished by Hon. Mr. Pugsley and referred to the policy of the Liberal party along various lines.

Ex-Mayor Sears told of the history of the Liberal party from the time of Magna Charta in England and asked for the votes of the electors for the minister of public works on his record.

James Lowell, M.P.P., thanked the electors for support in the last election and said he would visit them personally before the election.

After supper had been served, Hon. Mr. Pugsley moved a vote of thanks to the ladies of Musquash and E. H. McAlpine seconded the motion. There were cheers for the ladies, for the minister, for the King and for Laurier.

The Carleton Cornet Band furnished music during the day.

A feature of the day was the contribution of enough money by the visitors from the city to purchase a new flag for the Prince of Wales schoolhouse.

BIG SHIPMENTS OF POTATOES

Hartland, N. B., Sept. 22.—The potato shipments are enormous. Not only are they passing in huge double-header train loads from Aroostook County to Boston, but the great Upper St. John valley is sending away its tremendous crop. Saturday evening the first full train load of potatoes ever shipped from Hartland was sent away, while at Florenceville there were nine cars loaded in one day, establishing a new record for this side of the line. Nearly all the potatoes go to Montreal. None are sent to the States as the price there is lower than our own markets. The local price now is 80 to 85 cents.

Several cars of hay are going from here to St. John this week, for which the farmer receives $7.50 to $8.50 per ton.

Tickets for the Spence-Strachan Scottish entertainment in the Every Day Club hall tomorrow evening can be procured at E. G. Nelson & Co's., head of King street.

SUMMER COMPLAINT.

One of the Commonest and Most Dangerous of Diseases.

Everyone Should be Prepared for it with a Bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Very few people escape an attack of Summer Complaint. It may be slight, or it may be severe, but nearly everyone is liable to it.

You cannot tell, when it seizes on you, how it may end.

Let it go for a day or two only, and see how weak and prostrated it will leave you.

There is only one safe way to cure it and that is by DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY. It has been on the market for sixty-three years and has been proved and tried so you are not experimenting when you buy it.

Do not accept a substitute or imitation, as many of these are positively dangerous to life and health. Insist on having DR. FOWLER'S.

Mrs. Norman H. Eisau, Ship Harbor, N.S., writes: "Last summer my baby was very bad with Summer Complaint. I tried most everything for him, but nothing seemed to help. One day a neighbor called in and told me to try DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY, so I got a bottle and after a few doses my baby was cured. I shall always keep it in the house."

W. E. FOSTER IS PRESIDENT OF YOUNG LIBERALS CLUB

Organization Completed Last Night With a Charter Membership of 149---Age Limit Causes Much Discussion But is Finally Placed at 37.

The Young Men's Liberal Club for the City and County of St. John was organized in Berryman's Hall last evening. The names of 149 charter members were placed on the roll, officers were elected and a constitution and bye-laws adopted. There was a large attendance.

W. E. Foster reported that the committee previously appointed had drafted a constitution and bye-laws which would be placed before the meeting for discussion. He suggested that a role of membership should be signed before proceeding with other business and that the question of an age limit should be debated later.

This was agreed to and the names of those present, numbering about 100, were handed in to R. J. Walsh, who acted as secretary of the meeting.

The constitution and bye-laws were then read section by section.

The first recommendation that the name of the club should be "The Young Men's Liberal Club for the City and the City and County of St. John" was carried. The second section defining the objects of the club to be loyalty to the British flag, the welfare of Canada and the promotion of Liberalism was also adopted.

The third, recommending that all persons, ranging from eighteen to thirty-seven years of age inclusive, should be eligible for membership caused considerable discussion.

J. A. Barry, for the committee, in moving the adoption of the section said there had been a division of opinion between thirty-five and forty as the age limit and thirty-seven had been adopted as a compromise. With older men as members he thought the young men would not take such an active interest.

The secretary, referring to the club, which went out of existence in 1896 said they had no age limit and men of fifty were included.

T. A. Clarke moved an amendment to increase the age limit to forty-five years. The young men, he said, did not understand campaigning and needed guidance.

E. R. Taylor moved an amendment to the amendment to make the age limit thirty-nine on the ground that otherwise many who joined today would be excluded too soon.

The amendment to the amendment was lost by a large majority. The amendment was declared lost but was subsequently reconsidered as a number of those present did not vote on it. The discussion was continued by N. J. McGloan, J. D. P. Lewin, Mr. Barry and Dr. Ryan. The last speaker expressed the opinion that the older men had always done most of the talking and while they were lying low on that occasion if they got in as members they would take charge of the club, a remark which was greeted with mingled hisses and applause.

Eventually the amendment was lost by twenty-nine to seventy-four. The recommendation of the committee was then unanimously adopted.

There was some debate on the section recommending that all questions relating to initiation and membership fees should be left solely with the executive.

It was pointed out that the fee adopted might not suit all the members.

The chairman suggested that the case might be met by first submitting the matter to the club.

Mr. Barry said there should be no fee in the present campaign and that the club should apply to the Liberal executive for legitimate expenses.

Others speakers said assurances had been received from the executive that financial assistance would be given. It was then decided to leave the amount of the fee to be fixed when necessary by the club.

The remaining sections were adopted without discussion.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—W. E. Foster, president; W. J. Magee, 1st vice-president; E. S. Ritchie, 2nd vice-president; E. J. Mahoney, 3rd vice-president; E. R. Taylor, 4th vice-president; J. A. Barry, secretary.

The election of an honorary president and treasurer was deferred until a future meeting to be called by the chairman. The following list gives the names of the charter members:—

They were unattended and only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. A bountiful dinner was served after which the bridal party drove to Hampton station and took the C.P.R. train for Montreal, Ottawa and other Canadian cities. The bride's travelling suit was of brown cloth with hat to match. One of the many presents to the bride was a beautiful fur-lined coat, the gift of the groom.

SOUTH AFRICAN VETERANS LAND GRANTS WORTH $2,500

If the Boys Comply With Settlers Conditions They Can Double Their Holdings---R. L. Borden Nominated for Two Seats.

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—A committee of the South African Veterans Association waited upon Mr. Corey, deputy minister of the interior, today and ascertained that by living six months on each half-section, a veteran can secure not only the 320 acres of a special land grant but also homestead and preemption of 320 acres additional.

The committee, as the result of the interview, will report to the association that it is advised that as the act now stands, enabling as it does a veteran, who immediately locates his grants, to hold his land until June 30, 1911, without being obliged to perform settlement duties upon it, the value of a veteran's rights of 320 acres can reasonably be computed at $8 an acre. The committee will likewise strongly recommend that any veteran, who can, should, even at personal inconvenience to himself, locate his land this autumn.

The Carleton county Conservative convention will be held on the afternoon of October 6 at Stittsville, when the nomination will be offered to R. L. Borden and accepted.

It is now contended that the date at which the writs are made returnable, namely, Dec. 3, will practically prevent parliament from meeting until after the Christmas holidays.

Hector Verret, private secretary to the postmaster-general, is spoken of as the probable Liberal candidate in Quebec county.

The Anglican mission board met today in anticipation of the opening tomorrow of the fifth triennial session of the General Synod of the Church in Canada. The report presented was of a very encouraging character. The givings of the church have increased from $90,641 in 1905 to $102,350 last year. The laymen's missionary movement was warmly commended. A proposal to establish an independent Canadian mission in the province of Houan, China, will be submitted to the synod.

110 MEN WERE DROWNED IN WRECK

American Bark Star of Bengal Wrecked in the Pacific Ocean--Most of Her Crew and Passengers Lost.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 23.—Advices received from Alaska by the United States Signal Corps say that 110 men, including nine white men, were drowned in the wreck of the American bark Star of Bengal on Coronation Island, west of the Prince of Wales Archipelago. Twenty-seven of the vessel's crew and passengers were saved. The Star of Bengal belonged to the Alaska Packers' Association and was on the way from Fort Wrangel to San Francisco with a cargo of 45,000 cases of salmon. In addition to the crew she carried 100 Chinese and Japanese who were employed in the canneries of the company, taken aboard at Fort Wrangel.

The Star of Bengal was being towed to sea by two tugs and was blown ashore on the west side of Coronation Island. The tugs were obliged to abandon her in order to save themselves.

Leading Men of Both Parties Organize for Clean Elections.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 22.—The council chamber of the city hall was crowded this afternoon at a meeting called to take steps to form an electoral purity league for Halifax County. Leading men of both political parties were present.

It was decided to proceed with the organization of the league and a committee was appointed to draw up a code of principles and bye-laws. Two members of this committee are the presidents respectively of the Conservative and the Liberal county associations. It was proposed to engage a corps of professional detectives to go through the country during the campaign to see that the election laws are observed and arrest any found violating it. The meeting adjourned to assemble again when the organization committee will report.
