RED SOX LOOK GOOD TO MCGUIRE

Boston Americans Manager
Says Things—Men Rounding into Shape.

Boston, May 13.—Another of the Red Sox players was pronounced fit for action when it was learned on Monday evening that Cy Morgan had recovered from a slight "flu" trouble and would pitch one of the Detroit games this week.

Morgan's trouble dates back to the first series with Philadelphia, when he contracted a cold which settled in his back, causing a lump to form on his spine.

Dr. Christian, who brought Lou Grigor back to shape after his long illness, has treated Morgan for the past two weeks and assured Manager McGuire that the crack twirler would be able to do box duty this week.

Joe Tannehill, the veteran southpaw, had his best workout of the season on Monday, and the free spring of his pitching arm indicates that the attention given the lame member is bringing the crack side-wheeler back to form.

Feeling that his charges would deliver the goods now that the warm weather has arrived Manager McGuire is optimistic.

"The baseball fans of Boston will witness some good baseball by my men before long," said McGuire on Monday evening. "I have the players and with a little better break in luck figure that the Sox will be dangerous factors in the race. Since the season opened we have had more than our share of tough luck. Playing like world-beaters the team has been nosed out of games by one run, but things have got to break the other way soon. Then again, some of our best men are on the hospital list, and as some of these players are on the pitching staff it comes hard on us."

"The men are rounding into shape, however, and in two weeks I expect to have every member of the Red Sox squad in shape to play. I don't expect to have Pruett for two weeks, as his sprained ankle is giving him much trouble. Cy Morgan and Eddie McFarland will be with us today or tomorrow, and with Thayer's arm right the boys will show winning ball before the week ends."

SATISFIED WITH MCCONNELL.

"Amby McConnell is one grand ball player and I am satisfied with his work. Harry Lord is playing the third sack in great form and Laporte will be held in the outfield, as his batting will be a great help to the team. Last year he played twenty-six games in the outfield for New York, and Clark Griffith would have played him there this year if the trade had not been made with Boston. I expect 'Carlie' will be sent to left field today, while Doc Gessler is a fixture in right field. Cravath can sting the ball and I will hold him, too."

When asked if the report was true that Providence was dickering for an outfielder, McGuire said: "You can take it from me that the minor leagues will not get any of my outfielders. The major league clubs realize that my staff of outfielders are first class men and would not waive on them."

NAPS SELL BAY TO SOUTH.

Cleveland, May 13.—The Cleveland club has sold outfielder Harry Bay to the Nashville club of the Southern league, which is managed by Bill Bernhard, formerly of Cleveland. Bay was of great value to the Naps for four seasons, but has been of little use the last two years in consequence of an injury to one knee. He is apparently all right again this year.

Schaefer, Rossman and Cobb are the 300 hitters with the Tigers at present. Hobe Ferris is batting for 200 with St. Louis. He has made 14 hits out of 68 times at bat.
Hugh Jennings is said to be as full of ginger as ever, and will be out on the coaching lines this afternoon.
Connie Mack's judgment regarding Ruben Waddell is being corroborated with great regularity. The Rub needs to brush up a lot to be as good as he was in his prime.

WRESTLING

WRESTLING.

Boston, May 13.—The American Olympic championships committee will hold try-outs in wrestling at New York May 25 and 26. The weights are: Bantam to 119 pounds, feather to 133 pounds, light to 147 pounds, middle to 161 pounds, and heavyweight over 161 pounds. The entrance fee is $2. Bouts are limited to 35 minutes. An Olympic diploma will be awarded to first, second and third in each event.

MCGOVERN HURT, BOUT STOPS.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 13.—Hughy McGovern, a brother of "Terrible Terry," dislocated his left shoulder in the fourth round of his bout with Johnny McGinley of Scranton Tuesday night and the fight was brought to an abrupt close.

THE RING DELMONT AND SHUMAKER.

Albert Delmont, who went to New York week before last, has been matched with Willie Schumaker, the clever New York bantam. They will meet at the Poly-damian A. C., which holds forth on Thompson street on Saturday night. They are booked for a six-round go. Delmont and Schumaker fought four years ago, Delmont winning on a knockout in four rounds. Jimmy Walsh and Schumaker fought twice. Schumaker is a few pounds lighter than Delmont as he fought Kid Murphy for the 105-pound championship some time ago.

Jimmy Gardner, through his manager E. E. Keavin, refuses to accept the challenge issued by Bob Deady in behalf of Jack Blackburn, who agreed to meet Gardner for the welter-weight championship at any old weight.

Sailor Burke, who lost to Hugo Kelley at Chelsea and to Jack Johnson at Bridgeport, won over Kid Griffo at New York on Saturday night.

There is a report from Milwaukee that Battling Nelson demands a draw if both men are on their feet at the end of his battle with Packy McFarland.

OLD MASTER IN THREE BOUTS.

Joe Gans has announced in San Francisco that he will engage in three fights during the next five months, and then will take a long rest. His first contest will be with Rudolph Unholz, the South African lightweight, for twenty rounds, in "Frisco" on Thursday night; his second with Battling Nelson for twenty rounds in the same city on July 4, and his third with Packy McFarland.

Joe Jeannette is anxious for a return battle with Jim Berry. He claims his last fight, which he injured so badly in the second round, was a big handicap to him and prevented him from making a better showing.

Stanley Ketchell proved Saturday afternoon that his fights with Joe Thomas and Mike Sullivan were not flukes, and that he is one of the best middle-weight in the business today.

The fight only drew $16,101. Two years ago the same fight would have drawn $25,000 easily. Ketchell drew down $4800, while Sullivan's end was $3300.

NO SYDNEY FOR T. BURNS.

Sydney, N. S. W., May 13.—Tommy Burns, the heavy-weight champion, has accepted an offer of $15,000 to visit Sydney. It is expected that he will take part in three fights while the American battle-ships are here next August.

London, May 13.—Burns' representative in London says the champion has not accepted the offer to visit Sydney. Burns is now in Ireland, trying to arrange a fight with "Bill" Squires.

BILLY GLOVER LOSES.

New York, May 13.—Johnny Dohan defeated Billy Glover of Boston in a fast six-round bout at the Dry Dock A. C. Tuesday night. Dohan in the last round dropped Glover through the ropes with a right to the jaw. Glover revived and fought out the rest of the round. Babe Cullen and Harry Stone fought a six-round draw.

RECTOR OUT FOR OLYMPICS.

Charlottesville, Va., May 13.—James A. Rector, the Virginia athlete who broke the world's record in the 100-yard dash at the southern intercollegiate games Saturday, has reconsidered his decision not to enter the trials for the Olympic games and has entered.

ATHLETIC

UNIVERSITY OF MAINE FRESHMEN WON MEET.

Orono, Me., May 13.—The freshmen won a sweeping victory in the University of Maine interclass track meet held on Tuesday, scoring 524 points. The sophomores had 364 points; the juniors 26, and the seniors 11.

The University of Maine record for the mile run was lowered five seconds by Hicks of 1910, who covered the distance in 4 minutes 50.15 seconds. That was the only record broken. Knight of 1909 won the high and low hurdles. The 100 yards dash was won by Pond of 1910, with J. H. Cook of 1910 second, while Cook captured the 220 yards run, with Pond running second.

THE TURF

REFUSES $1000 FOR FILLY.

Boston, May 13.—Frank R. Hall has marked up his brood mare Belgrade (2:16 1/4). Last year the mare produced a bay filly by Bingen that good horsemen pronounce hard to beat either in speed or conformation. This filly is now in Bob Lundy's charge at the Readville track. Mr. Hall yesterday refused to consider an offer of $1000 for the little miss. He also refused an offer for the prospective foal that the mare is now carrying. She is now in foal to Todd (2:14 3/4), and J. M. Johnson made an offer of $500 for the produce providing that it stood up after foaling. Belgrade is by Bow Bells, dam Glenora, by Belmont, second dam by Princess.

Thorne Lodge I. O. G. T. will meet this evening in Tabernacle Hall at 8 o'clock sharp; all members are requested to attend, special business.

CONCERNING GOLF

In a recently issued book called "Advance Golf," the author, M. J. Braid, says that the day of the short driver is over, unless, indeed, his putting is something superhuman; and we have all got to try to drive as far as we can. Nothing has been so noticeable in golf of the last few years as the great increase in the length of driving. There is an interesting piece of evidence of it to be found at Hoylake at the fifteen hole, where is a certain spot called "Johnny Ball's gap," so named because that celebrated golfer alone had sufficient length to take a particular lie to the hole. Before ever the rubber-cored ball came in to shorten Hoylake, very moderate drivers had to begin to take the lie which had once only been taken by the champions, and now, nobody thinks anything of it. Increased competition has forced every one to hit harder and further than they themselves imagined they could. What is the secret by which we drive that extra fifteen or twenty yards, which are so invaluable? Well, in the first place, Braid wants us all to stand further from the ball and to be very careful to twist our bodies. Just as in our childhood we learnt to say grace and fold up our napkins after meals, so in our golfing childhood we were all taught to pivot elaborately from the hips. Unfortunately, however, men lose these admirable habits; they rise hastily from lunch with grace unsaid and napkin unfolded; and in the same way at golf, forgetting their early lessons, they rise hastily on their toes and hit at the ball without giving their shoulders time to turn. Thereby, as Braid points out, they lose length and accuracy. Also a great part of the physical pleasure of hitting; and one of our first steps in the teaching after length must be carefully to revise the twisting of our bodies. After this Braid's great point is the timing of the stroke. It is only in recent years that it has become the fashion to talk of timing a stroke in the championship expression has long been commonplace in regard to games played with a moving ball. Nowadays, when our shot goes an inadequate distance and gives us an unsatisfactory feeling, we say we mistimed it; and a few years ago we should have given a more detailed and less intelligible excuse. Perfect time is such an elusive and intangible thing that a teacher might almost despair of helping any one to acquire it. Braid, however, makes the best attempt at a solution of the difficulty that we remember to have seen. Everything, arms, wrists, and body, he tells us, are to be in the highest possible state of tension at the top of the swing. The golfer is to regard himself as a dangerous explosive, and is "to be handled very carefully and kept severely in check until the moment arrives for the damage to be done—that is, when the club comes off to the ball."

MULATTOES WHO PASS AS WHITES

Well Known Actress Said to be a Member of Colored Family in Boston.

It is said that the number of mulattoes who pass as white is much larger than is commonly supposed. Ray Stannard Baker says he knows of "scores of them." He tells in the American Magazine of a supposed white actress, very well known, who occasionally pays a secret visit to her colored relatives in Boston.

According to Mr. Baker, "a New York man who holds a prominent political appointment under the state government and who has become an authority in his line is a negro. Not long ago he entered a hotel in Baltimore and the negro porter went to take his bag said discreetly: 'Hello, Bob?'"

"As boys they had gone to the same negro school."

"Let me carry your bag," said the porter. "I won't give you away."

"In Philadelphia there lives a colored woman who marries rich white men. Of course, no white people know she is colored, but the negroes do and do not tell. Occasionally she drives down to a certain store, dismisses her carriage and walks on foot to the home of her mother and sister."

"Only a few days ago the newspapers were filled for a day or two with the story of a girl who had been at Vassar college, and upon graduation by merest accident it was discovered that she was a negro. A similar case arose only last summer at Chicago university."

"Some mulattoes I know of, one a prominent Wall street broker, have 'crossed the line' by declaring that they are Mexicans. Brazilians, Spanish or French; one says he is an Armenian. Under a foreign name they are readily accepted among white people where as negroes they would be instantly rejected. No one, of course, can estimate the number of men and women with negro blood who have thus 'gone over to white'; but it must be large."

ENGLISH LADIES TO AID

SOCIALIST AMERICAN

Chicago, May 13.—A despatch to the Tribune from Belle Fontaine, Ohio, says: "On the heels of the stir aroused in the district by his announcement that the Countess of Warwick would cross the sea from England to aid him on the stump in this fall's campaign, C. F. Wharton, of Kenton, socialist candidate for congress in the eighth Ohio district, yesterday announced the receipt of a letter from the Duchess of Manchester, daughter of Eugene Zimmerman, the millionaire railroad man of Cincinnati, to the effect that she, too, would stump the district for him. The duchess has taken up English socialism as a fad and became interested in the eighth district situation by the Countess of Warwick."

PRISONERS ESCAPE

Thomas Grant and James McCauland, two youthful prisoners made a sensational escape from the chain gang about 5 o'clock last evening as they were passing down Main street. Handcuffed together, they dropped a dinner pail, which they were carrying between them and made a break down Sheriff street, just where Wm. Norris and John O'Brien escaped about a month ago.

McCauland had served but one day of a two months' sentence imposed on the charge of assault and Grant had been in about two weeks on the charge of lying and luring.

Guard Beckett gave chase and throwing his baton struck one of the men on the head, but the prisoners were too quick for the official and made good their escape.
