THE PROPER COURSE
IN TIMES OF PANIC

(The Outlook.)

Panics are always irrational, because they are born of unintelligent fear, or because they greatly increase the possibilities of peril. There are many occasions which justify a panic. When a real danger comes, the first duty is to keep one's emotions out of sight and hearing. In the face of a great danger a man ought to listen to his judgment, not to his emotions.
The worst feature of a panic is that it makes men cowards when it does not make them brutes; and the special form of cowardice which comes with financial stress is unwillingness to part with money, the tendency to hoard what one has and increase the peril instead of generously giving it out and thus removing the cause of the peril. In every stringency a host of people begin by not paying small bills even more than large ones which prolongs hard times, and unjustly and unnecessarily lays a heavy burden on the backs of some of the most prudent and honest members of the community.
An honest man always pays his debts.
If misfortune overtakes him the day of the discharge of his obligations is only postponed; it comes as soon as he can make ready for it. But in a time of panic it is every man's pressing duty to pay his debts with the utmost promptness.

There are hosts of people today who have money in hand and are letting their grocers, butchers, millmen and others who supply the necessities of life go unpaid simply because they are timid and like some country and city bank, want to collect and keep as much money on hand as possible; as if money were for hoarding and not for circulation. This small-minded precaution is bringing misfortune to many industries and faithful men and women. Those who supply the means of life, whose coming and going from the house are part of the daily routine of keeping the family alive, ought to be the very last to suffer from delayed payment. As a matter of fact, they are the very first. People who can still spend money upon the theatre, the opera, concerts, and other forms of entertainment, are letting their grocers, butchers, and millmen go unpaid, thus contributing to the very condition which makes them cowardly. There is no longer any reason for timidity; but if there were, the duty of paying one's small debts with as great promptness and deep a sense of responsibility as one pays one's large debts would press still more imperatively. It is a great deal more honorable to have a small bank account and no unpaid bills in the house than to have a large bank account made up by keeping money which belongs to other people. The first duty of an honorable man in a time of stringency is to see that he is not transferring to those who furnish the necessities of life the burden which he ought to bear himself.

A certain Watertown, Conn., lady is noted for her mince pies. In the process of making a batch recently she went down cellar to get a jar of her home-made mince marmalade. When the pies were all baked she sifted out the only jar of marmalade she had used a jar of heavily spiced chow-chow instead of mince marmalade. Her guests that day went without pie.

or apartments of the Royal Palace, near Madrid, involves a 120-mile trip, covering six days' time.

VICTORY FOR THE CONSERVATIVESSir Charles Tupper Predicts That Liberals Will Be Swept from Office at Next Election

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 7.—Former Premier Sir Charles Tupper made an old-time fighting political speech at the residence of his son last night to a deputation of Orangemen, to whom he predicted a sweeping victory for the reunited Conservative party in the next federal elections. Not only were there signs of restored unity as in the Conservative party before 1896, but the indications throughout the dominion pointed to an awakening of the electorate to the misrule and corruption of the Liberal administration. This awakening with help of Premiers Whitney, Roblin and McBride in three of the most important provinces in the dominion, would result in the certain defeat of Laurier.

Referring to the 1900 election, Sir Charles said in Ontario with the unscrupulous majority against him, and in the teeth of the Ross and Laurier governments, he, Sir Charles, turned a majority for Laurier of twelve federal Ontario seats into a Conservative federal majority in Ontario of eighteen seats.

He added: "If I could do that then, when Laurier was much stronger than he is today, what will Borden do in the next federal contest with Ross out and having the help and influence of Whitney?"

The deputaion offered the Vancouver notion to Sir Hibbert Tupper but it is not likely he will accept.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON

Montreal Man Charged With Firing His House to Collect Insurance.

Montreal, Jan. 7.—After reporting that his house had been set on fire by revengeful incendiaries several times in the same day a French Canadian here named Ochs Labreche was arrested this afternoon charged with arson.

Several times Labreche had complained to the police that efforts had been made by enemies to burn his house, and when they examined the place they found evidence of attempts to set fire to the tenement.
Labreche said they had been made by men who had been sent down for roberies in his store, but the circumstances were somewhat suspicious, the more so that he boasted that even if his place were burned it was well insured.

The fires at Labreche's place, however, became too numerous when they happened almost daily, and this resulted in the present charge against him.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Nature warns you when the track of health is not clear. Kidney and bladder trouble compel you to pass water often through the day and get up many times during the night.

Unhealthy kidneys cause lumbago, rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headache or indigestion, as time passes you may have a sallow complexion, puffiness or dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition but no strength, get weak and waste away.

If such conditions are permitted to continue, serious results are sure to follow; Bright's disease, the very worst form of kidney trouble, may steal upon you.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone.

taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, B. M. Baxter will appear for the city.

The names of the fourteen special jurors were called yesterday morning and they were excused further attendance until the day of the trial, when seven will be selected by ballot to try the cause. The jurymen are Leonard T. Nase, Edward W.
Slipp, Thomas Foley, Theodore H. Est-brook, Francis P. Starr, George H. Waterbury, W. Alexander Porter, Alfred Porter,
