TAKAHIRA WILL SUCCEED AOKI

Tokio, Jan. 8—While the selection of Baron Takahira, Japanese ambassador to Italy, to succeed Viscount Aoki, at Washington, has not been officially announced, it is admitted at the foreign office that the appointment has been decided upon.

The Associated Press understands that instructions have been forwarded to the Japanese charge d'affaires at Washington to announce to the state department the appointment of Baron Takahira.

The delay in making the appointment is probably due to the desire of the Japanese government to await the departure of Ambassador Aoki from America.

One in Seven Called by Consumption.

A dreadful plague indeed when you consider that in incipient stages it can be cured. Take care of the little cold before it becomes a big one. When the throat is sore and it hurts to expand your chest, rub in Nerviline and immediately apply one of Polson's Nerviline Plasters. Pain and tightness are at once relieved. Inflammation and soreness gradually disappear and fatal illness is thus avoided. Nerviline Plasters act as a counter irritant over the seat of pain, and as an exterior application in curing colds in the muscles, in pleurisy and headaches they have no equal. Keep these remedies right in your home.

COULD TALK BACK.

Mr. Hicks—Wilson has married a deaf and dumb girl.
Mr. Naggitt—He always was lucky.

WOMAN LIKE.

Jinks—Does Mrs. Speedem carry an extensive repair kit when she goes autoing?
Blinks—No; merely a paper of safety pins.

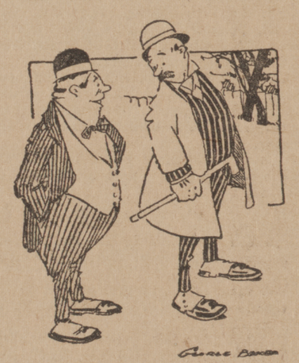

WHY GIRLS ARE PALE

Because through constipation their blood is deprived of proper nutriment. All changed, health renewed, color revived by Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Best medicine on earth, 25 cents at all dealers.

OFTEN THE CASE.

Evelyn—Did you have a good time at Miss Fussy's party?
Loraine—No; Mrs. Fussy worked so hard trying to make her guests feel at ease that she made everybody uncomfortable.

AN UNWELCOME TOPIC

De Quiz—Bought your Christmas presents yet?
De Whiz—Say, let's talk about something more agreeable.

Frank (after she has accepted his proposal)—But I'm afraid I'm not good enough for you, dearest.
Tessie—I know; but you're too good to be thrown away on some other girl.
