THE SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY WAS GALA TIME FOR DEVOTEES OF SPORT

GREAT SPORT AT WESTFIELD MEET

Water Sports on Saturday Proved a Great Success---Exciting Competitions and Plenty of Fun---The Results.

The water sports held on Saturday afternoon at Westfield, under the auspices of the Westfield Outing Association, were the most successful ever organized there. The races were closely contested and exciting and many of the events, particularly the fat men's skiff race and the tub race, caused roars of laughter from the large crowd of spectators. It was estimated that between fifty and seventy-five boats were dotted about the river. The sports went off without a hitch.

It is true that some protests were lodged by disappointed or envious competitors, but the prizes, which were both appropriate and variegated, were awarded in each case to the winners. The losers may be given a chance to retrieve their laurels at a later date. A neat double page programme was sold to pay expenses. The races were all arranged to finish at Westfield wharf, the course being down river to that point.

In the single canoe race, P. McAvity was first and R. Church second. Penknives were awarded as prizes.

The fat men's race was one of the most interesting. J. H. Doody and H. C. Creighton were the winners, but a protest was entered on the ground that they used a cedar skiff and that the rules called for a dingey. They were awarded the prizes, consisting of a bottle of hair restorer and anti-fat. Among the other competitors were John Frodsham and partner, W. W. Hatfield and James Lewis, and W. C. Rothwell and Robert Bartch.

The tub race was won by G. Patterson with R. McAvity second. They were awarded a tobacco pouch and a wash board as prizes.

The four oar race was rowed from opposite the railway station to the wharf. The Woolastook crew won by about twenty-five yards from the Lingley crew. The latter protested that the winners used a cedar skiff and a race for the championship will be rowed next Saturday. As the prize, a big bunch of bananas, would not keep it disappeared in no time.

The ladies' double canoe race was keenly contested. Miss Likely and Miss Helen Jack finished ten yards ahead of Miss N. Arthur and Miss Jean McDonald and were awarded two gold belt buckles. The Misses Sears nearly tied for second place.

The double canoe race was won by Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Forbes. Eleven canoes started and in spite of a foul in which five were mixed, the race was very exciting. A. Likely and H. Weeks were about ten yards behind the winners. The prizes were two sporting watches.

The canoe tilting event was won by G. Patterson and A. E. Inches, who upset W. A. Cameron and R. McAvity with the first stroke. P. Howard and P. McAvity against M. Fisher and F. Doody was a prolonged struggle and both crews finished in the water together.

The seventy-five yards swimming race was won by P. McAvity, with A. E. Inches second. The former was awarded a bathing suit and the latter a bottle of ketchup.

The last event, a water baseball match, was won by P. McAvity's team defeating their opponents by 1 to 0. A water melon was the first prize. The losers consoled themselves with a bag of a dozen lemons.

The prizes were donated by J. A. Likely, A. Macaulay, J. A. Estey, O. H. Warwick, S. S. McAvity, R. D. Paterson, W. S. Fisher, A. S. Bowman, James Philips, C. P. Humphrey and C. J. Nevins.

The managing committee consisted of G. L. Warwick (chairman), G. Patterson (secretary), D. Macaulay, L. Allen, A. Estey, P. McAvity, A. E. Inches, F. Doody and G. Wilson. They were heartily congratulated on their success.

Field sports will be held on Saturday, August 15 on the picnic grounds.

Marathons, 9; Crescents, 4.

Halifax, N. S., July 26 (Special).—The Marathons turned the tables on the Crescents Saturday, defeating the local team by the score of 9 to 4. Errors by the pitcher and fielders, along with the snappier playing of the Marathons were responsible for the Crescents losing.

Titus pitched for the Marathons and held the Crescents down to five hits. He held the men to their bases, allowing but few steals.

The Crescents refused to allow Howe of the Marathons to play. The two teams will play a deciding game tomorrow afternoon.

His body was found floating in the dock next day and an inquest was held when a verdict of accidental drowning was found. NOVA SCOTIA HORSES CAPTURED HONORS IN SECOND DAY'S RACING AT MOOSEPATH TRACK SATURDAY

Entries From Springhill Stables Capture 2.30 and 2.17 Classes and Terrace Queen Downs Simassie in the Free for All---Four, Five and Six Heats Necessary in the Three Events.

Nova Scotia horses swept the field at Moosepath races on Saturday before one of the largest crowds which ever attended races in St. John. The Springhill horses, Dessie Patchen and Estill Boy won in the 2.30 and 2.17 respectively after exciting heats and in the free-for-all the speedy Terrace Queen downed Simassie in a four heat race. There were five hours of racing on Saturday without a hitch and, the weather conditions being perfect, the day was a memorable one in the annals of horse racing in St. John.

Not one of the races went in straight heats and though no records were broken the time in the 2.30 pace was remarkably good for that event. Thomas Hayes made a bid for the first place in the 2.30 with his handsome roan Quincy A, and won the first two heats handily, making sure of second money, but Dessie Patchen proved too strong.

Laura Merril, the Fairfield mare, looked dangerous in the 2.17 and made close finishes, though capturing but one first. Brownette and Estill Boy were evenly matched in this race and it took six heats to decide and even then the deciding heat looked to the uninitiated like a tie race.

Terrace Queen lost but one heat in the free-for-all and was plainly the faster horse, though Boutilier drove to win.

The grand stand was not large enough to hold the crowd which attended the races and the track on both sides was lined for some distance with teams and people. Betting was heavy and the bookmakers who were backing the American horses dropped considerable money. There was perfect order and the Gentlemen's Driving Club are to be congratulated on the success of the meet.

The first heat of the 2.30 was the first called. Dessie Patchen had the pole and was picked by many as the winner of the race. The Springhill horse made a bad start, however, and broke almost under the wire. Quincy A. quickly went into the lead and held it till the end of the heat. Fawnie Mac came close at the quarter mark but could not stand the pace and dropped back. Axbell made a fine spurt but broke at the three-quarter mark. Warren F. came up well on the leader in the home stretch. Hayes got a reception as he brought his horse back after winning the heat.

In the second heat Quincy A. won handily while the other horses were well bunched. Dessie Patchen came up strongly at times but showed a tendency to break.

In the third heat Warren F. looked strong at the start but was closely followed by Quincy A. and Dessie Patchen. At the three-quarter mark, the horses were in this order with nearly a length between. All went around the turn at a good clip but Dessie passed the others nearly under the wire. Idle Moments was well up in this heat but lost a tire and finished sixth.

Dessie Patchen had the pole in the fourth and won easily. Warren F. was a good second. Axbell finished third but was put back to fifth place for repetition of breaks.

In the fifth and last heat Dessie Patchen again had an easy thing of it though well followed by Idle moments during the first half mile.

The 2.17 pace proved the most exciting race of the day. At the end of the third heat, Estill Boy, Laura Merril and Brownette had each a heat and it was difficult to pick the winner, though Brownette looked the strongest. When Hayden sent his little mare home again first by a good lead in the fourth heat, the race seemed almost in his grasp. Brownette broke badly in the fifth heat, however, and finished last, Estill Boy capturing the heat in a sensational finish.

Brownette came up strong in the sixth and led till near the finish. Warren forced his horse into a great spurt in the home stretch and the horses finished neck and neck. The crowd waited anxiously not knowing which had won until the announcement of the judges came that the Springhill horse was the victor. In the second heat of this race Hayden protested that he had not been given a fair start as he was entitled to second position. He was many yards behind the others in starting and had to be satisfied with fifth place in this heat.

There was some disappointment felt when it was learned that only three horses would compete in the free-for-all, Miss Cappy and Gloria being withdrawn. Aintree could not be counted upon as a winner and the race was between Terrace Queen and Simassie. Aintree drew the pole in the first heat with Terrace Queen and Simassie in the order named. Terrace Queen at once went in the lead and set the pace for the race. Simassie crept up and at the half mile mark they were neck and neck, making a pretty race. Terrace Queen gained at the three-quarter mark and finished with a lead of two lengths.

In the second heat Simassie led at the start. Though Terrace Queen had the pole, Simassie got away better and gained steadily to the quarter mark. Here the Queen began to creep up but broke coming on the half mile stretch and Simassie was safe again. Aintree showed good form in the race, nailing second position for a time. Coming up the home stretch Simassie broke and Terrace Queen gained but the Halifax horse had too long a lead and captured the heat by a narrow margin.

Simassie had the pole in the third and made good use of the advantage. Aintree kept close and the horses were bunched at the quarter post. Terrace Queen began to lose at the half mile but Raymond was looking for his chance and on the home stretch suddenly whipped up his horse and won almost at the wire.

Simassie took the pole from Terrace Queen soon after starting the fourth and all the horses were together at the half. Then Terrace Queen began to pull away from the others and at the three-quarter mark had lead enough to win the heat and the race.

HOME FROM THE TERCENTENARY

St. John Soldiers Returned from the Quebec Celebration on Saturday.

Proud to say that they had taken part in an event so magnificent in its detail, so historic in its associations, and in which so distinguished a gathering participated, the 62nd St. John Regiment, under command of Major J. L. McAvity, and the composite battery of artillery, under command of Major Stanley B. Smith, arrived home at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening.

Officers and men speak of the tercentenary celebration as a truly grand spectacle, the like of which they never expected to see again and they are elated at having had a part in it. The 62nd and the Artillery did not meet in connection with their duties at the celebration, in fact they were encamped six or seven miles apart. The Artillery were camped in Savard Park, forming part of the Second Division, a body of some 9,000 or 10,000 men under command of Col. W. D. Gordon. Officers and men of the St. John composite battery were together throughout all the time they were away. No officers' mess was organized, all taking their meals together.

The St. John artillerymen under Major Smith took part in the dress parade on Thursday of last week and in the route march through Quebec on the same day. They also participated in the grand review in which all the troops and the men from the war ships marched past H. R. H. the Prince of Wales as he stood on the reviewing stand, surrounded by his brilliant staff. There was much interest among the St. John men, in getting a look at Lord Roberts. This review has already been described in the Telegraph's despatches and the home coming soldier boys say the printed pen pictures have not exceeded the facts one bit.

The St. John artillery did not expect to leave for home until Sunday night but soon after the review of last Friday orders to return that night at 7 o'clock were received. This meant a hustle. The 62nd Fusiliers were also to leave Friday night but they had been given word the day before and the cooks had a chance to prepare supplies. The artillery supplies for home coming were to be sent from here by express but the marching orders coming unexpectedly there was no time for this. The red coated fellow townsmen, The Artillery and Fusiliers arrived home on the same train.

The Fusiliers were honored with being chosen to form the gnard of honor for the Prince of Wales on one occasion during the celebration and also lined the streets on the occasion of his landing. They also took part in the grand review. The 62nd were encamped at Levis.

The 62nd band was much praised while away. Under direction of Bandmaster F. H. Jones, they played a very fine concert programme on the Esplanade and won excellent opinions.

A PLEASANT OUTING

Natural History Society Field Day at Red Held on Saturday.

The outdoor session of the Natural History Society held at Red Head on Saturday afternoon proved one of the most successful of the outings enjoyed by the club. About sixty people, including some visitors from the United States, attended.

Under the leadership of Dr. G. U. Hay, some gathered plants; a second party led by Dr. G. F. Matthew, inspected the markings on the sea shore and studied the forms of nature found there. Those historically inclined gathered about the old fort and viewed the ancient ruins.

At 6 o'clock the parties met at the summer cottage of T. Percy Bourne, where a delightful luncheon had been spread. After enjoying this, Hon. J. V. Ellis, president of the Society, called upon Dr. Matthew who gave an address on the history of the section around Red Head and explained the geological formations.

H. A. Powell, K.C., spoke facetiously of Dr. Matthew's theories, whether or not his associations had affected the speaker during the past week or two he was afraid he could not remember the periods of history that Dr. Matthew had told of.

A. G. Leavitt gave an able address on birds.

A vote of thanks to Mr. Bourne was proposed by Dr. Hay and heartily endorsed.

SONS OF ENGLAND DECORATE GRAVES OF HONORED DEAD

The annual decoration of the graves of departed members of the Sons of England took place yesterday. At the request of members the beautiful service was quietly conducted by the representatives of Lodges Marlborough and Portland. It has also been found that the presence of a band attracts a large number to the cemetery and that the graves are sometimes defaced. For this reason no band was in attendance and the committee quietly placed flowers and flags on the graves and read the annual service.

The committee was as follows: Marlborough Lodge, G. H. Lewis, Geo. Maxwell, P. L. Griffin, T. W. Pile, C. Ledford; Portland, Lodge, E. Brittain, S. Wakeham and W. Spencer.

The graves of those decorated are: Fernhill, J. Alston, J. H. Wood, J. H. Murray, D. S. Stewart, Dr. J. H. Scammell; Cedar Hill, R. T. Jackson, C. G. Knott, W. R. Browne, F. W. Simmons, J. B. Stubbs, Geo. Pile, R. Rawlings, Wm. Boone, Wm. Francis, W. Keane and W. B. Akerly.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Shocking Accident Saturday Night Near Port Henry, New York.

Burlington, Vt., July 26.—A special to the Free Press from Plattsburg, N. Y., says:—

A shocking automobile accident occurred about six miles west of Port Henry last night, resulting in the instant death of J. Dodge, of Malden, Mass., and Lockwood Reed, of Port Henry.

B. E. Titus, of Syracuse, N. Y., who was in the car at the time of the accident, escaped uninjured.

Mr. Dodge, the owner of the car, with his family and a party of friends, was camping about ten miles west of Port Henry. Saturday evening the three men set out for Port Henry for provisions and were making the return trip when Mr. Dodge lost control of the machine and the car dashed into Muddy Brook and turned turtle, pinning Dodge and Reed underneath. Instantly there was a heavy explosion and the car took fire, burning the victims beyond recognition. It is thought the two men were killed before the machine took fire.

There is a high embankment near the scene of the accident and the heavy machine plunged over this, throwing Titus 20 feet in the air, and landing with a crash and roar of exploding gasoline that was heard for two miles. Mr. Titus landed in the soft mud near the edge of the creek and escaped injury except for a severe shaking up.

OAK HALL BRANCH SOLD

Scovil Bros., Limited have sold their North End Branch of Oak Hall, at 695 Main street, to C. C. Flewelling, who is now conducting a men's furnishing store at 339 Main street, near Douglas avenue.

Mr. Flewelling will carry on both establishments. He has already a large and thriving business and is well and favorably known as competent in the business. This latest up-to-date addition should assure him largely increased patronage. There will be a big reopening sale on Thursday.

Cholera is Coming.

Cramps, cholera and diarrhoea will strike most of us down. Better keep a remedy on hand. Mr. A. E. Archer, of Swansea, writes: "I had an awful attack of diarrhoea and was so bad I couldn't leave the house. I sent for a bottle of Nerviline and took a dose every hour during the morning. It cured perfectly." For protection against summer complaint use only Polson's Nerviline, 25c per bottle.

CEDARS VICTORS IN FOUR-OAR RACE

Defeated the Beaver Crew off Seaside Park on Saturday Evening by About Half a Length.

The four-oared race, which had been postponed from last Tuesday, was rowed off Seaside Park on Saturday evening and resulted in a victory for the Beaver crew who defeated the Cedar Limb Crew by half a boat length.

The course was about two miles with a turn and the race proved full of excitement for the large crowd thronging the heights in the park. The Beaver crew, who rowed in an inrigged boat, held the lead from the start and were never passed by their opponents. The latter, however, put up a great race and were never out of the contest until the winning post was reached.

The crews competing were:—

La Tour, better known as the Beaver Crew—W. Lanyon, J. Silliphant, H. Belyea and M. McLaren.

Cedar Limb Crew—G. Connors, J. McCallum, J. Lord and F. Lord.

The Ross Crew had entered for the race but withdrew on Saturday.

PRINCE OF WALES REVIEWS ASSEMBLED FLEET AT QUEBEC

eighty tons, our ship was near 20,000 tons and I suspect rather more comfortable."

Continuing, the prince said: "On each occasion when I have been to Canada I have found and made friends. Friends whom neither I nor the Princess of Wales, who accompanied me on the last occasion, will ever forget (cheers). I delight to see old friends again, and to make new ones, but apart from such personal feelings there is the wider satisfaction of realizing how enormously Canada has prospered during recent years, thanks to the fostering care of successive governments and the wonderful enterprise of its people."

His concluding remarks were: "In this celebration Canada undertook a magnificent work. Success could not have been achieved without considerable self-sacrifice, individually by the state itself. If, as your excellency suggests, my coming here to take part in these ceremonies may stimulate that true spirit of citizenship then indeed I look back with pride and satisfaction upon my association with events so unique and memorable in the history of Canada."

As the prince resumed his seat, the audience rose, and once more three hearty cheers and a tiger resounded through the room.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was greeted with cheers when he rose to give the next toast, "The Self-Governing Colonies." He referred at length to the fact that the inferiority which may be implied in the word colony no longer exists, that the colonies acknowledge the authority of the British crown, but no other authority, and after reference to the friendly relations between Great Britain and the United States and Great Britain and France the premier spoke briefly of Newfoundland, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. He read a letter from General Botha, who deeply regretted his inability to be present as a representative with Sir Henry De Villiers.

The Earl of Dudley, governor general of Australia, followed in a brief speech, complimenting Canada on the successful celebration of her 300th birthday and expressing the kindly feelings of Australia.

Sir H. DeVilliers, responding for Cape Colony, regretted that none of the prime ministers of the self-governing colonies of South Africa could be present, as all their parliaments were in session.

With regard to present conditions in South Africa, Sir Henry said that the policy of trust adopted by the British government had transformed a sullen and discontented populace, and that if in the future any foreign power should attempt to wrest South Africa from Great Britain history would repeat itself, and as the French-Canadian had fought to keep Canada British so the South African Dutch would fight to keep their country under the folds of the Union Jack.

HE SAYS ODDS ARE IN FAVOR OF CONSERVATIVE PARTY

wan and Manitoba, it was generally conceded the Conservatives would have majorities in each province. It was admitted that the party would not lose in Quebec and stood to gain several seats. The sentiment through the Maritime Provinces was believed to be such that there could be no doubt the Liberals would lose their present majority of twenty seats. "Already," he concluded, "betting men in Montreal are considering the odds in favor of a Liberal defeat."

NEW PASTOR IN CHARGE

Rev. J. J. McCaskill, the new pastor of St. Matthew's church, who was inducted on Tuesday last, preached his first sermons yesterday to large congregations. In the evening, in an eloquent sermon, he spoke of the responsibility one man should feel for another. He referred to certain abuses and spoke of the beef trust and of the sale of adulterated food for infants. The men who were interested in these were respected in the eyes of the world, he said, though responsible for many deaths while bandits at Jamaica Plain were mercilessly hunted to death.

A meeting of the city firemen will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Hook and Ladder House to consider the invitation received from the Chatham firemen to participate in their tournament.

The St. John County branch of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation will meet tonight in the W. C. T. U. hall, Germain street.
