LATE LOCALS

The right half, No. 3 battery, 3rd C.A. will parade at the lower shed for gun drill at eight p.m., sharp, Friday 5th inst.

Up to noon today 940 dog licenses had been issued by the mayor's clerk. This is an increase of about 80 over the total number issued last year.

It would be a graceful act to give the high school pupils a half holiday tomorrow, or at least those who desire to see the intercollegiate sports.

A slight fire was discovered in the clothing establishment of D. Ashkins & Co., Dock street early this morning and was put out without much damage.

His worship the mayor left last evening for a visit to New York. He will be absent a week and while he is away Deputy Mayor Holder will officiate at City Hall.

The tug W. H. Murray at work at Gagetown floating the steamer Hampstead came down late last night and returned early this morning with more steam pumps.

James Lavigne was arrested last night by Police Sergeant Campbell and Patrolman Nelson for being drunk and destroying property in his wife's home, Georges street.

The base ball match between the St. Rose's and St. Joseph's of the Society League which was scheduled for tonight has been postponed on account of the weather.

The presentation of the medals and prizes won at the Every Day Club sports has been postponed until Thursday evening of this week, when the club's band can attend.

Owing to the fact that the fire and drum band has an engagement at the park this evening the presentation of the medals and prizes for the Every Day Club sports has been postponed until Thursday evening.

A meeting of the treasury board was held this morning to consider some legal phases of the purchase of the Raymond property at Loch Lomond by the city. After discussing the matter at some length it was referred to the recorder for an opinion.

A great game of base ball will be played on the Victoria grounds on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock between the colored team (the Royals) and last year's Every Day Club juniors. There will be a picnic every time a boy climbs over the fence.

The McNamara-Keirstead assault case was resumed before Judge Ritchie yesterday afternoon, when the case for the prosecution was closed by calling Miss Annie McNamara, J. B. M. Baxter, opening for the defence, called John O'Brien and Charles Osborne with the object of proving an alibi.

The annual restoration of unclaimed goods found by the police was made last evening in central station and some of the patrolmen left with bulging pockets and various shaped parcels in their hands. Each article when found is marked with the finder's name, and if it is still unclaimed at the end of the year, the patrolman becomes the owner.

The Hiram Mission Circle of Centenary Church held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Mabel Barbour, first vice-president, Miss Edna Austin, second vice-president, Miss Turner; secretary, Miss Gertrude Reid; corresponding secretary, Miss Edith Murphy; treasurer, Miss Gertrude Hennigar; auditor, Mrs. LeLachour, Palm Branch, Miss Florence Reid, Watch Towers, Japan, Miss H. Allan, China, Miss A. Bailey; India, Miss M. McLaughlin.

TEMPERANCE FEDERATION

Thirty Eight New Members

Added at a Meeting Last Evening.

The monthly meeting of the St. John branch of the N. B. Temperance Federation, held last night in the W. C. T. U. rooms, was an interesting one. Plans for future work along temperance lines were discussed. Among others, the holding of a temperance campaign next fall was mentioned. This was left in the hands of a committee.

A pleasing feature was the addition of thirty-eight names to the roll. These are the members of the Victoria street Baptist church men's brotherhood who joined largely through the instrumentality of Mrs. J. Scott of the North End W. C. T. U. A communication from the St. John county W. C. T. U. was read expressing sympathy with the aims and objects of the federation.

MARINE NOTES

Donaldson line steamship Hestia left Glasgow last Saturday for this port with a general cargo. This is the second summer sailing of this line.

Barkentine Skoda now in port at Annapolis, N. S., has been purchased by Frank W. Pickles and others of this place. She will probably load lumber for Buenos Ayres.

The schooner Carrie C. Ware, Capt. Charles C. Look, bound from Jonesport, Me., for New York, with a cargo of laths, anchored northwest of Handkerchief light Saturday afternoon on account of the dense fog then prevailing. About 7 o'clock Saturday night, during a southeast gale, the schooner parted both chains and lost both anchors. An attempt was made to lay to, but the sea became so rough that it was decided to make a run for Hyannis harbor, where the vessel was beached on the flats near the railroad wharf. Her foremast and jib are split and she is leaking considerably. Capt. Look and his crew of five men remained on board the vessel and before she could be floated, it will be necessary to remove a portion of her cargo. The Ware is of 185 tons gross, built from Machias, Me., and was built in Cherryfield, Me., in 1884.

ANOTHER ST. JOHN FAVORITE IS DEAD

Eugene Jepson, an Actor Very Well Known Here Died in Cleveland Theatre Yesterday Afternoon of Heart Failure.

The death of Eugene Jepson in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday marks the passing of another actor who was a favorite with St. John theatregoers.

Mr. Jepson has been seen in St. John on a number of occasions and was one of the finest character actors ever seen here. As far as can be learned his first appearance here was some twenty years ago, as a member of a summer stock company.

That company gave St. John its first opportunity of seeing Mary Hampton, All Hampton, Jeannette Lowery, Vernon Clarges, Emma Modder and a number of others equally well known. Subsequently Mr. Jepson was here with T. D. Frawley and Emma Italia and was last here about six years ago with W. S. Harbins. He had many friends here and the news of his death was heard with deep regret.

The following despatch to the morning papers tells the story:
Cleveland, Ohio, June 1.—Eugene Jepson, aged 50, of New York, leading man in a vaudeville sketch at Keith's Theatre, dropped dead of heart disease in his dressing room yesterday afternoon when an alarm of fire sounded.

No one was injured among the audience as it fled out of the building while the orchestra continued playing, and the actresses then upon the stage proceeded with their work.

The flames are said to have originated in the apartment where the moving picture machine is worked. The fire damage amounts to $5,000.

Actor Jepson is said to have been ill of heart disease for a long time. He had a varied career, playing with Maud Adams at one time.

THE EXHIBITION

Workmen are Busy Upon the big Building --- Many Applications for Space.

Workmen are busy putting the exhibition building in shape for the show that opens September 12th. The fact that time passes quickly is appreciated by the wide-awake exhibitors, and already many of them have called at the exhibition offices, 23 King street, and looked over the building plan with a view of taking space.

Those who have a notion that they will be able to get the same location as they had before, and make no application until late in the day, are sure to be disappointed if the present interest continues to be shown. The Agricultural building will soon have a roof as good as new, and the cattle and horse sheds are being put in first-class shape.

Breeders will be glad to learn that the stock-yards are being improved in many respects, objectionable ditches are being planked over and a system of watering, which will make the task easier, introduced.

The trivial features of the show, the things that are done upon the Pike, are already asking for recognition and the promoters are eager to demonstrate that they can add to the interest of the big event.

POLICE COURT

The case against Padeiglione Constantino charged with using a knife on George Maurisses, has been set down for hearing tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The McNamara-Keirstead assault case will be resumed in the police court at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

James Lavigne, charged with being drunk on George street, was fined $4 or ten days for drunkenness and remanded for fighting with George McCormier on St. John street. Mr. McCormier, who was in court, declared he was not fighting but had acted only in self defence.

James Buckley, charged with drunkenness, was taxed $4 or ten days in jail.

George Foley was fined $4 or ten days also for drunkenness.

Andrew Irvine, arrested for wandering about Water street at one o'clock this morning was fined $3 or two months in jail with hard labor.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Myrtle McCormick, mother of B. McCormick, foreman of Labatts' agency has returned to her home in Weymouth, (N. S.), after a visit here.

James E. Toole, clerk in the chamberlain's office is ill at his home Mecklenburg street.

Geo. L. Harris, of Moncton, was a passenger to the city on today's Boston train.

Joseph Quinn returned to the city on the Boston train today.

Stanley Gunn came in from Boston at noon today.

Hon. G. Hudson Flewelling passed through the city today from Fredericton en route to his home in Clifton.

Miss Nannie Brown returned to the city on the Montreal train today.

George W. Fowler, M. P., came in on today's Montreal train.

EQUITY COURT

The Exchequer Court reopened this morning, Judge Chasels presiding.

The case of Colpitts vs. the King was set down for hearing tomorrow morning. In Chamberlain vs. the King, application was made for hearing of further evidence, but this was refused on the ground that argument of counsel had already been heard.

In Barrett vs. the King, argument of counsel had been presented in writing.
