CAPITALS DOWNED MONCTON IN A SLUGGING MATCH

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 30—The Fredericton Capitals squared accounts with the Moncton Victorias in the provincial league hockey match at the arctic rink this evening by a score of two to one. A crowd of nearly 1,500 spectators saw the game and a great majority of them were not any too well pleased over it.

Never before has such a brutal exhibition of Canada's winter port been witnessed in this city and it is to be hoped that it will be a long time before the like is seen here again under the guise of amateur hockey. There is a bad feeling between the rival teams for the league championship and tonight they were out for blood and got it.

Capt. McDonald of the Capitals was knocked out in the first half by a blow from a hockey stick in the hands of Cushing and in the second half Capt. Crockett of the Victorias was put to sleep by a blow from Murphy's fist. These were the star performances in the rough house class but there were several stunts of a milder nature, which called for enforcement of the penalties.

After Crockett had been borne to the dressing room two policemen went on the ice and warned some of the players but made no arrests.

The Capitals sprung a surprise on their opponents by playing two new men, Jimmy Williams who was with New Glasgow last year and Clan Oran, who it is said played with Ottawa at one time. These men arrived from New York today and certainly proved a great source of strength to the Capitals.

The game started at 8.30 and in less than two minutes after the referee's whistle blew the McDonald-Cushing mix-up occurred. It is difficult to tell just how the row started but Referee Rainnie says that McDonald began hostilities by giving Cushing a jab with his stick. Cushing retaliated by raising his stick and bringing it down upon the head of the Capital's captain, felling him like a log. He was carried to his dressing room and a physician found a deep gash over the right eye which bled profusely. This caused half an hour delay and when the teams again lined up McDonald and Cushing were each sent to the bench for five minutes.

The first goal was shot by Crockett after the teams had played eight minutes. After a series of mix-ups Murphy got the puck two minutes later and rushing it down the ice succeeded in tying the score. The third and final goal was made by Oren at the end of eighteen minutes. Murphy was penalized two minutes for striking Gregory, and Brown received a like penalty for slashing.

Play was fast and furious in the second half but neither team had much opportunity for effective combination work. The Capitals were kept on the defence for a good part of the time but for the superb work of Morrison at goal it would have been all up with them. Music at point also played a brilliant game breaking through Moncton's forward line repeatedly but failing to get the puck into the net.

The Capitals showed the greatest speed but the Victorias followed them up with great vigilance and managed to keep the rubber in Fredericton's territory the greater part of the time.

Just as the game seemed to be getting a trifle monotonous Crockett for some unknown reason drew off with his stick and knocked on Murphy's head bringing a chorus of hisses from the spectators. Before the storm had subsided Murphy dropped his stick and going up to Crockett gave him one in the jaw with his fist which sent him down all in a heap. This incident naturally created a great hubbub among the spectators but things soon quieted after Crockett had been carried to the dressing room. The referee penalized both Crockett and Murphy by putting them out of the game. After a brief delay play was resumed and kept up at a furious pace for the remaining two minutes with honors about even.

Music, Morrison, Williams and Oren did splendid work for the Capitals and for Moncton Gregory, Crockett and Cushing seemed to be well on to their job.

There was altogether too much ill-feeling on both sides for the good of the game. Capt. Mooney, of the Marathons and N. R. Rainnie of Sackville refereed, and while their decisions seemed to be satisfactory to the spectators there is no doubt they were too slack with the players who were out for the rough house game. The line up:

THISTLE CURLERS DOWNED TRURO

Locals Successfully Defended the McLellan Cup Last Evening.

The Thistles made good their title to holders of the McLellan cup again last evening, when they doubled the score on the Truro curlers. The match was a walkover from start to finish, all the Thistle rinks winning by large majorities. Three rinks played, A. D. Malcolm, J. F. Shaw and D. R. Willett being the skips for the home team. The Truro men were evidently outclassed but kept on gamely, though far behind. This makes the fifth consecutive victory for the Thistles, three being McLellan cup matches. On Tuesday next two rinks of Carleton curlers will make a bid for the trophy. The scores last night were:

In St. Andrew's rink on Wednesday afternoon four rinks of ladies skipped by Miss Sydney Smith, Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. C. H. Ferguson and Mrs. H. R. Sturdee, were defeated by gentlemen curlers skipped by Lieut.-Col. Ogilvie, W. Foster, Stanley B. Smith and Rev. D. Lang. Mrs. H. C. Schofield won by two points, but the other rinks of ladies were defeated. It is unlikely that any of the St. Andrew's Club ladies will compete in this year's bonspiel at Montreal on February 10 and 11.

WRESTLING

The Russian Won.

London, Jan. 30—George Hackenschmidt, of Russia, easily defeated Joe Rogers, American, in the wrestling match at the Oxford this afternoon for the championship of the world. The match was under catch-as-catch-can rules best two out of three falls with ten minutes rest between bouts. Hackenschmidt consequently retains the title of champion.

There was a big gathering of the sporting fraternity to witness the contest. Both men appeared to be in good condition but Hackenschmidt was a strong favorite with the public and the betters. The stake was only $250 a side.

BASKET BALL

Juniors to Play Tonight.

Tonight the St. Stephen's and Exmouth Street Juniors will play a game of basket ball in the Exmouth street Y. M. A. rooms in Brussels street. The game will start at 8 o'clock. Both teams promise to put up a good game. The referee will be A. Smith.

On Tuesday evening next the first carnival of the season will be held in the Victoria Rink. The K. of P. Boston '08 club are sparing no pains to make the evening a thoroughly enjoyable one for both the skaters and spectators and the probability is that only the entire capacity of the rink will do for the crowds who will be anxious to attend.

SPLENDID TICKET HAS BEEN SELECTED IN KINGS COUNTY

J. A. Murray, Geo. B. Jones and F. M. Sproul Will be the Opposition Candidates --- Enthusiastic Convention Yesterday Afternoon.

Hampton, Jan. 30—The heaviest snow storm of the winter failed to dampen the ardour of the opposition delegates to the Kings county convention which was held here today. Every parish in the county was represented and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. James A. Murray, of Sussex; G. B. Jones, of Apohaqui, and F. M. Sproul, of Hampton, were nominated on the first ballot as candidates at the forthcoming election and made stirring speeches in the cause of good government and they were cheered to the echo.

J. A. Moore, of Waterford, and J. E. McAulay, of Millstream, who were also nominated, also delivered addresses. G. W. Fowler, M. P., was present and amid much applause signified his intention of doing his utmost to secure the return of the ticket and prophesied a majority of 500 votes at the polls.

A temperance platform issued by the New Brunswick Federation was submitted to the convention and was unanimously accepted, a committee being appointed to meet the league and confer with a similar body from the government ranks. Resolutions endorsing J. D. Hazen's platform and giving a pledge to support clean elections were also passed. The convention was very largely attended and the court house was crowded with adherents of the opposition party who took the greatest interest in the proceedings. Col. Campbell occupied the chair and W. D. Turner was chosen secretary.

The convention opened with the roll call of delegates. The following were present:

Hampton—Theo. E. Titus, Geo. Beattey, Ralph A. March, Joseph Smith, A. M. Dann, C. J. Burgess.

Cardwell—John Hawks, H. J. Moray, L. J. Murray.

Waterford—W. E. S. Flewwelling, Drury Hazen, Courtney Walker.

Kars—G. W. Palmer.

Upham—David Floyd, Vernon Allaby.

Hammond—W. Devine, W. Fowler.

Rothesay—S. C. Bogart, H. W. Clarke, H. V. Dickson.

Norton—John F. Frost, George Stratton, H. H. Cochrane, Allan Price, E. L. Perkins.

Greenwich—M. L. Belyea, O. A. Flewwelling.

Westfield—Edward Finlay, Chas. Parker, Alfred Whelpley.

Havelock—Fred Alward, Abraham Branscombe, Naaman Hughson, John Brown, J. D. Seely.

Studholm—J. A. Paterson, Alex. Long, E. R. Kennedy, E. R. Folkins, Joseph Alexander, J. E. Fenwick, Jesse Prescott.

Kingston—S. T. Lamb, S. H. Scribner, James E. Ganong.

Springfield—Martin Freeze, Samuel Gordon, W. D. Gillies, John A. D. Urquhart.

Sussex parish—George Dysart, Herbert Jones, Isaac P. Gamblin, Douglas Friars, Oscar Campbell, Theo. A. Long, James McCarty.

Sussex town—M. W. Doherty, Seth Jones, David McNutt, James H. Jeffries.

During the roll call G. W. Fowler entered the room and was received with an outburst of cheering.

C. W. Weyman, of Studholm, then read the following platform which he said had been adopted by the Kings County Federation with a view to being presented at the convention in the interests of the temperance cause:

Whereas this federation stands for law and order in all things relative to our national life and especially for the overthrow of the forces producing drunkenness; and

Whereas, the legislators of our land are custodians of our national interests, material, educational, and moral; and

Whereas, a provincial election is announced by order in council to be held on March 3, 1908;

Therefore we delegations from the various churches, Sunday schools and temperance societies of the county of Kings, convened as the temperance federation of such county, resolve that we approve and ask to have submitted to all candidates in the approaching provincial elections the following platform:

First—As a candidate for the local legislature will you in conducting your campaign observe and in so far as it is possible cause your agents and supporters to observe the laws of the land relating to bribery and corruption, including the providing of meals for voters?

Second—Since this is a Scott Act county and since no intoxicating liquors can be legally dispensed except on a doctor's prescription and since the Canada Temperance Act is as much a law of the land as those relating to murder or other crimes, will you during your campaign refuse to use and in so far as it is possible refuse to allow your agents or supporters to use on your behalf any intoxicating liquor, and in case liquor should be used by your friends or agents will you refuse to pay for the same either in whole or in part?

Third—Will you as a law maker and custodian of all laws constantly and fearlessly insist upon the observance of all laws upon the statute book, and will you in this connection and so long as necessity may require give special attention to the enforcement of the Canada Temperance Act?

Fourth—Will you, should you become a member of the legislature, refuse to patronize for the purpose of securing or drinking liquor any place where you believe that it is being illegally dispensed?

Fifth—In the event of your being called upon by the government to make recommendations for appointment to office will you give the preference to men who are not patrons of the drink traffic, and who favor the enforcement of all laws without exception or discrimination?

Sixth—Will you, if elected, advocate and support the enactment of legislation, the aim of which shall be the complete suppression of the drink traffic?

In speaking of the platform Mr. Weyman said temperance workers had been fooled for a good while but now felt they must back up their principles and the federation had sent him there to know how the matter stood. The platform would be presented to both parties and he did not think it would injure either side to take the stand they desired.

S. A. McLeod (Sussex) asked if it would be necessary to sign the whole document. Personally he agreed with most of it.

Mr. Weyman said he was not prepared to answer that question. The federation was to meet at Norton on Feb. 10 and he would bring the matter up.

Mr. McLeod thought it would be absurd for instance, to prohibit going to a hotel for dinner where liquor was known to be sold illegally.

Mr. Weyman replied that he did not understand it in that light. The platform was opposed to drinking where liquor was illegally sold.

On the suggestion of the chairman further discussion was postponed until the candidates had been selected.

R. A. March then moved that the convention accept the opposition plattorm as laid down by J. D. Hazen, M. P. P.

At the request of several delegates the platform was read by the chairman. Mr. Hazen's pledges to repeal the highway act, to reduce the price of school books and enforce the secrecy of the ballot were received with much cheering.

The resolution was carried unanimously

J. A. Palmer moved the following resolution:

Whereas, the use of money for improper purposes in elections has become a crying scandal in Canada; therefore

Resolved, that we, the opposition laity of Kings county, in convention assembled, do hereby express our strong disapproval of such use of money for the purpose of debauching the electorate; and further

Resolved, that a committee of five be appointed from this convention for the purpose of meeting a like number from the government convention in order that arrangements may be made which will insure the running of an absolutely clean contest in the present campaign.

James Smith, in seconding the resolution, said from past experience such a course seemed absolutely necessary. They wanted bribery and corruption entirely eradicated.

After the resolution had been unanimously adopted, the chairman nominated J. A. Moore, S. A. McLeod, E. L. Perkins, A. B. Smith and W. C. Bogart as the committee of five to confer with the federation and a committee from the government convention.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of candidates.

J. A. Moore, of Waterford, was nominated by William Flewwelling and seconded by Stephen Weldon.

George B. Jones, of Apohaqui, was nominated by E. R. Folkins and seconded by J. E. Fenwick.

James A. Murray, of Sussex, was nominated by Seth Jones and seconded by M. W. Doherty.

F. M. Sproul, of Hampton, was nominated by A. B. Smith and seconded by S. T. Lamb.

J. E. McAulay, of Millstream, was nominated by W. Alexander and seconded by George Hawks.

The nominations were declared closed on the suggestion of Mr. Sproul, each candidate pledging himself to accept the platform and abide by the decision of the convention. The delegates then proceeded to ballot on the names in private convention. When the convention was again thrown open the chairman announced that Messrs. Murray, Jones and Sproul had been chosen on the first ballot and amid loud cheering tendered them on behalf of the opposition the nomination for Kings county.

It is understood the votes stood Murray 57, Jones 55, Sproul 46, Moore 17, McAulay 5.

Mr. Murray was the first speaker and was enthusiastically received. Whatever embarrassment he might have felt, he said, was dissipated by the enthusiasm which prevailed. Nothing bespoke success like harmony and on that ground alone their success should be large indeed. It was his first campaign, the first time he had appeared as a candidate and the chief factor in allowing his name to be put forward was his knowledge that the government of the day was not doing the people of the province justice in any degree. (Cheers.)

It was an honor to represent a party which after being so long in opposition was intact as they were today. A party that could stand adversity could stand success, and they were going to have a great success. (Renewed cheers.)

After appealing for honest and enthusiastic work in the fight Mr. Murray said they were opposing a government which was appealing to the province in a way that no government had ever done before. Usually a government went to the country saying: "That is our record, what is your pleasure?" but what did they find today? The government said in effect: "There is our record. We apologise and promise to do better in future." (Laughter).

After stealing every movable plank in Mr. Hazen's platform the government were coming out with the appeal, "This is our policy. For heaven's sake give us another chance." Renewed laughter.)

Mr. Murray went on to refer to the Central Railway, ridiculing the idea that the government, after spending $800,000 of the people's money on the road, could sell it to the G. T. P. for the money put into it. No hard headed corporation, he said, wanted a right of way and two streaks of rust. It was an election dodge and nothing more.

Taking up the school book question the speaker claimed that some members of the government were asking for a chance to remedy the evil, while others were contending the price of the books was not too much. They , as an opposition, knew that the province was paying far too much. When Mr. Hazen was returned to power the ring would be broken up and books sold at a fair and reasonable price

With regard to the highway act, the statement that it was supported by the opposition in 1904, was entirely false. Amendment after amendment had been voted down. Today the party in power were appealing for another chance, forgetting that as recently as March, 1907, they voted down amendments which were proposed. Now they were prepared to let the act go. They wanted to hold on to it just as long as they could rake in the dollars and use them for their own purposes. "There has been too much legislation for the government," added Mr. Murray amid much cheering. "Now we will have legislation for the people."

Mr. Murray urged on the convention the need of a united party and solid support on the day of election. "Give us that," he said in conclusion, "and we will do the rest. I am delighted to see this grand gathering full of the earnest desire for better government. I realize the honor you have done me and I am proud of it. I pledge myself to do my best to warrant the confidence you have bestowed on me. (Loud and prolonged cheers.)

Mr. Jones, who was enthusiastically received, in thanking the convention and accepting the nomination, said he was prepared to put up a fight, and would try to keep his end up. He humorously referred to his not having prepared a speech and to appologize that his remarks were "just off the bat." He spoke briefly on the amount of work to be done in the different parishes and concluded by again thanking the convention for the honor they had done him.

Mr. Sproul meet with a great reception. He accepted the nomination, he said, and thanked them for the honor they had done him. He hoped reciprocal relations would be established between them. He was prepared to do nothing to discredit their confidence and trusted to receive from them good, square, vigorous and earnest support. "I wish for a moment," Mr. Sproul went on, "to refer to a personal matter. It has been urged against me that I have been addicted to the use of intoxicating drinks. In the past it was, I admit, only too true, but I pledge you that, if elected, the most zealous temperance man shall have no fault to find with me." (Loud cheers.)

Turning to the political situation Mr. Sproul said they were face to face with the last lingering remnants of an effete government. It was true the oil dispenser had not yet arrived from Ottawa, but he was a gentleman who in his time had handed out enough gold bricks to supply a gilded pavement for a political new Jerusalem. (Laughter.) In the past the government had been composed of men with brains, but the present aggregation was no more to be compared with those able men than the dim glimmering of a tallow candle to the glorious effulgency of the noon day sun. (Renewed laughter.)

The opposition was going to win not only because of the government's misconduct, but because the moderate minded men in the Liberal party had awakened to the situation, and were giving their hearty support. No snap of the party whip would be strong enough to seduce them from the position they had taken.

Mr. Sproul then went on to refer to several of the planks in Mr. Hazen's platform, and spoke briefly on the school book question, which he said gave a rake-off only second to that received from the Central Railway. Money stolen from that road, he claimed, largely financed the last election. He mentioned the James Barnes Construction Company, and ridiculed the intention to construct the road from Chipman to Gibson which, he said, resulted in all the money granted being exhausted before the mines at Minto were reached.

The speaker also made reference to a previous occasion when he had faced Dr. Pugsley, then the attorney-general of the province, on the platform, and prophesied danger for the future of the International from the fact that Dr. Pugsley was solicitor to the company. With great gusto, Dr. Pugsley in his inimitable manner, had told them all danger had departed as he had resigned that position, but, notwithstanding that his last act was to provide $110,000 for the road.

In conclusion Mr. Sproul referred to a recent statement in the St. John Sun to the effect that it was feared F. M. Sproul, who was defeated by 314 votes, would again force himself on the convention. He wished to bear witness that he had made no such attempt. In the past he had borne the banner against overwhelming odds, but men who had been defeated at the polls had often been known to do good and useful work, and he begged to assure the Sun that he would never be over anxious to secure its approval at any time. He again thanked the convention, and called on them to rise in revolt against the political brigandage and peculation which had blasted the fame of the province.

Sick all the Time with Kidney Trouble

4 BOXES CURED HIM

Mr. Whellam was a mighty ill man this spring. He had been ailing for almost a year. Sharp pains in the back and through the hips. Dull headaches and dizzy spells. Appetite poor—nothing seemed to taste right.

Finally, an old friend told him about a friend who was in just that condition and who was cured by GIN PILLS.

Mr. Whellam tried them. And you would not know him for the same man now. That worried, strained look about the face is gone. His eyes are bright—his complexion rosy. He enjoys what he eats—has gained in weight—and sleeps like a top.

He had kidney trouble. GIN PILLS practically gave new kidneys—healed and strengthened these vital organs—soothed the bladder—and freed the system of uric acid that was poisoning him.

Broad Cove, C.B., July 6 1906.

I received a sample of your Gin Pills last fall. They did me a great deal of good. In fact, they are the best kidney medicine I know of. A neighbor of mine has tried them and they did him more good than all the Doctors' Medicine he took in three months. I will not forget during my lifetime the benefit your Gin Pills have been to me. JOHN WHELLAM.

Are your kidneys sick? Do you feel just as Mr. Whellam did? Then take GIN PILLS on our positive guarantee that they will cure you. To have you give them a fair trial, we send a free sample if you mention this paper. Write to-day to Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg. 84

GIN PILLS are sold by dealers everywhere at 50c a box—or 6 boxes for $2.50.
