COUNCILLOR DEAN IS ELECTED NEW WARDEN

He Will Preside Over the Municipal Council for the Coming Year---Auditor to Go Over the County Accounts---Parish Officers Reappointed.

At the quarterly meeting of the municipal council yesterday afternoon the report of the finance committee recommending the appointment of a special auditor to revise the system of accounts was adopted and referred back to the committee with power to act. Councillor W. J. Dean, of Musquash, was elected warden and the parish officers for the year were appointed. The county buildings committee were authorized to sell the lots adjoining the isolation hospital on the Sandy Point road by public auction on June 6. Councillor Lewis intimated that he would not continue as chairman of the jail committee unless the council would provide for the expense entailed by keeping a horse. The matter was referred to the finance committee to report back. Councillor Fox raised some objections to the appointments and appropriations recommended by his colleagues in Lancaster parrish, but was not sustained on a vote being taken.

The retiring warden, Councillor Hamm thanked the electors for courtesies extended to him and Councillor Dean was unanimously chosen as his successor.

The report, of the finance committee was adopted. The section recommending the appointment of a special auditor was explained.

Councillor Baxter said no question of honesty in dealing with the accounts was involved but the committee found them difficult to understand. They were all aware of the age of the treasurer who was a much respected official and there was no desire to interfere with him. Since Mr. Thomas succeeded the late Mr. Magilton as auditor he had gone on with the work to the best of his ability but the accounts for 1906 were not yet printed. Neither was there any report before them. It did not seem to the committee that the auditor had the material at hand to give them the information they wanted in making up the assessment. It appeared that the debt on the almshouse was gradually growing larger and they were not assessing enough. He was strongly in favor of the auditor certifying before any expenditures were made in future. With all respect to the auditor he did not think he could originate a scheme of bookkeeping by which the accounts would be made self-explanatory and it would therefore be necessary to make some expenditure to get a system.

Councillor McGoldrick paid a tribute to the satisfactory work of Mr. Thomas while at the General Public Hospital and spoke of the unusual difficulties he had encountered since becoming auditor.

Councilman Baxter replied that he wished it distinctly understood there was no reflection on Mr. Thomas.

The recommendation was adopted and the matter referred to the finance committee with power to act.

A petition signed by a hundred rate payers in Lancaster district No. 2, asked for legislation to annex the district to Musquash and for an additional councillor. It was urged that the interests of the district were more closely connected with Musquash and the representation would be more equitable.

On motion of Councillor Kelley, the petition was referred to the councillors for the parishes interested to report, it being too late to obtain legislation this year.

In reply to Councillor Donovan, Councillor Frink said every councillor would be notified as to what action would be taken to repair the Marsh bridge.

On motion of Councillor Pickett, Mr. Amos was appointed constable at Bay Shore.

On motion to re-appoint I. Olive Thomas, auditor, Councillor Baxter obtained leave for Mr. Thomas to be heard in explanation as to why the accounts were not ready.

Mr. Thomas said that when he took up the work in 1906, he was not clear of his hospital duties which continued until the following March. The work at city hall had also been much heavier during 1907. He did not think that any idea of the amount of detail necessary was generally understood. He outlined the routine including the issue of the warrants to the assessors, the checking on their return, the collection, and the division of the money into the different departments. He had much to learn, he said, when he first took the work over and had it all to do single handed. He was satisfied nothing was wrong with the accounts and regretted they were not ready. He hoped to have the 1906 report in the printer's hands in two weeks time and the report for 1907 before the council at the next meeting.

The motion to re-appoint Mr. Thomas was unanimously adopted.

Richard Coughlan was re-appointed marshall and keeper of the dead house.

Lumber surveyors who were qualified were ordered appointed on giving the required bond.

Officers in the various parishes were appointed as follows:

Musquash Parish.

Parish Clerk—George A. Anderson.

Assessors—Robert T. Mawhinney, Frederick Thomson, David Hargrove.

Highway Commissioners—W. J Dean, Jas. K. Carscadden, Douglas Spinney.

Assessors—William Smith, Robert W. Skillen, Thomas Hoey.

Highway Commissioners—Samuel J. Shanklin (No. 1), Samuel C. Osborn (No. 2), Herbert W. Brown (No. 3).

Bye-road Commissioners—Michael R. Daly, Patrick W. Murphy, Richard Horsfield (North).

Revisors—F. M. Cachran, Robert Connely.

Simonds Parish.

Parish Clerk—Alexander F. Johnson.

District Clerk—Samuel Poole.

Assessors—James Lee, Jeremiah Horgan, Andrew R. Moore.

Collector—Samuel Poole.

Highway Commissioners—Martin Dolan, William Sands, Dominic McHugh.

Revisors—Frederick K. Adams, Henry Shillington.

On the motion moved by Councillor Hooley to appoint Amador Anderson collector and Robert Irvin fire-warden for Lancaster, Councillor Fox moved an amendment to appoint Joseph Semple collector and William Terry fire-warden.

After some discussion the amendment was lost.

The following highway assessments were ordered: Simonds, $1,500; St. Martins, $1,500; Lancaster, $4,500; Musquash, $450.

Councillor Fox commented on the fact that the amount for Lancaster was increased by $500 and said he had not been consulted. He also complained that the roads were not as good as they used to be.

The assessment was adopted.

The following loans were ordered: Lancaster, $1,200; Simonds, $500; St. Martin's, $400.

The warden appointed the following standing committees:

Finance and Accounts.

J. B. M. Baxter, chairman; the Warden and Councillors Willett, Hamm, McGowan, Sculley, Long, Donovan, Corscadden and Cochran.

Building Committee.

Henry H. Pickett, chairman; the Warden and Councillors Frink, McGoldrick, Sproul, Hooley, Adams, Black and Shillington.

Bills for the Legislature.

John W. Long, chairman; the Warden and Councillors Baxter, Christie, Rowan, Willett, McGowan, Adams, Corscadden and Connely.

To Act With the Sherriff In Regard to Hard Labor Sentences In Gaol.

William Lewis, chairman; the Warden and Councillors Bullock, Rowan, Sproul, Vanwart, Fox, Connely, Adams and Corscadden.

For the Relief of Indigent Ratepayers.

Isaiah W. Holder, chairman; the Warden and Councillors Kelley, Willett, McGowan, Frink, Donovan, Corscadden, Fox and Black.

Commissioners for Lancaster Ferry.

Councillors Hooley and Fox.

The finance committee was authorized to arrange for an increased payment to the clerk of the county court for storing the papers in his vaults. The finance committee was authorized to have the telephone in the sheriff's office extended to the registry office and the turnkey's quarters.

Councillor Lewis asked that someone else might be appointed chairman of the jail committee. He had been obliged to keep a horse, he said, which cost him $150 a year, and he would not do it for the municipality for another hour. They had better put in a younger man.

After some discussion the matter was referred to the finance committee to recommend some remuneration to Councillor Lewis.

At a meeting of the finance committee of the municipal council yesterday afternoon, Councillors Baxter, Frink and Long were appointed to arrange with Adam MacIntyre, the city's comptroller, to devise a new system of bookkeeping for the county accounts. The sum of $50 was voted to Councillor Lewis for expenses with jail prisoners.

Interesting Reports Heard at the Annual Meeting Last Evening.

At the annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last night, it was announced that the contractor will likely be able to give the association possession of the association's new building about Aug. 1. In the treasurer's report it was stated that payment of building subscriptions was not being made as well as was hoped for. There was a fair attendance at the meeting. The five retiring directors were re-elected:—W. S. Fisher, George A. Henderson, G. E. Barbour, F. A. Dykeman, and A. H. Wetmore. The following were appointed trustees to replace the four who retire:—W. H. Thorne, T. B. Blair, W. E. Earle and John Sealy.

The president, L. P. D. Tilley, in the course of his report stated that owing to the lack of proper accommodations the association's work during the past year had necessarily been limited. The boys' meetings held on Sunday mornings had been well attended and the game and reading rooms had always been opened. He referred briefly to the advantages of the new building and said that if the outstanding subscriptions were paid by August, the association would be able to start its work with the land and building paid for—free of debt. In closing, he thanked subscribers for their generosity and expressed his appreciation of the work accomplished by the women's auxiliary and board of management of the association.

The report of the treasurer showed:

DR. MACRAE TALKS ON FORESTERS' NEW RATES

Past Chief Ranger Says They Will Directly Affect 4000 Members in New Brunswick.

Roughly speaking the proposed increase in the rates of the Independent Order of Foresters will affect 4,000 of the 8,277 members in New Brunswick. There are now under the jurisdiction of the New Brunswick high court, 192 subordinate courts. Of these fifteen, with a total membership of 1,100, are in St. John city and county. It is not yet known just how large the increase in the revenue of the order under the new system will be. The subject will be discussed at the meeting of the high court of New Brunswick, which will open here on Thursday afternoon, and the delegates chosen to the supreme court will probably be instructed in the matter.

Elliot G. Stevenson, Supreme Chief Ranger, is expected to be present and at a meeting in Calvin Church on Friday evening will deliver an address.

Recent dispatches give particulars of an address delivered by Mr. Stevenson in Windsor, Ont., in which it is reported that he declared that the older members were being carried at unsafe figures and that to place the insurance on a sound and substantial basis three options were offered to the older members to retain their insurance.

Dr. A. W. Macrae, who is a Past High Chief Ranger of the province and has for many years taken an active part in the work of the Order was shown the report of Mr. Stevenson's speech last evening and asked for an expression of his opinion.

"I think," replied Dr. Macrae "that the report can hardly present a full and fair statement of Mr. Stevenson's views. It has always been contended by the late Supreme Ranger, Dr. Oronhyatekha, and by all the members of the supreme executive that as long as the order was an active growing institution, the rates in force previous to 1899 were sufficient to protect the insured. The new rates, brought in force in 1899 for new members, were alleged to be for the purpose of placing the Association in a position to carry out its contracts without reference to the question of continued increase in membership; in other words to place it upon the reserve basis approved of by the National Fraternal Congress.

"It was agreed that the old rates would carry the society with an annual death rate of nine in 1,000, and this view was maintained under oath before the insurance commission by both Oronhyatekha and Mr. Stevenson in September, 1906. Now the annual death rate in the I. O. F. has never exceeded 7.25, and if the old rates protected the association up to a rate of nine, then the old rates combined with the increase since 1899 should protect the society even if the rate rose to twelve in a 1,000, which is a higher figure than the average death rate in most Canadian communities.

"I think," continued Dr. Macrae "that the true meaning of suggested changes with respect to the old members of the order is to be found in the recommendations of the insurance commission of 1906, and the sections of Mr. Fielding's insurance act before the present session of parliament bearing upon assessment, and fraternal beneficiary insurance. The changes, which it is alleged, Mr. Stevenson advocates, anticipate the future passage, by parliament, of insurance legislation upon the lines of these sections of the new insurance which have for the time been withdrawn from the present bill.

"The last meeting of the Supreme Court of the I. O. F. was held in August, 1905. Oronhyatekha, in his address said 'In 1898 when I asked you to revise the old rates it was not so much that I was convinced that the rates then in existance were insufficient, as that I thought it undesirable that we should run the risk of having Section 255 (providing for an extra assessment) called into requisition. . . . I have no hesitation in saying to you that our present rates are quite sufficient to make the order safe and permanent.'

"This matured expression of the view of the executive was approved of by the finance committee, whose report as unanimously ratified, states 'our society has been unique in many features and it will easily find a method whereby its own strength may be added to without in any way interfering with the contracts and other vested rights of our old members, . . . a feature which will stand out in bold contrast when so many charges are made against some societies of attempting to freeze out the older policy holders.'

"When these statements were made our surplus was about $9,000,000, today it is over $12,000,000. We are really in a better position to meet our obligations now than we were then, and I cannot believe that parliament can be induced to put through legislation, which must apply to all fraternal orders, so drastic as that outlined in the new insurance act.

"If it would result in making such radical changes in the I. O. F., admittedly the strongest of these orders, it would practically destroy numerous other fraternal associations which even the insurance commission report upon as serving a useful purpose.

"In any case," concluded Dr. Macrae, "nothing could justify the calling for back payments which would practically mean, if paid up with compound interest at 4 per cent., doubling the existing surplus of the order at the expense of the old members."

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

KIRK BROWN IN THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

Despite the bad weather an audience which taxed the capacity of the Opera House greeted Kirk Brown and his splendid company in their production of "The Sign of the Cross" last evening. As on Monday evening the play was a distinct success from the start.

It affords great opportunity for scenic investiture and costuming and consequently was presented with the beautiful stage settings, in which Mr. Brown excels.

In Marcus Superbus, Mr. Brown had a part, the equal of any in his repertoire, and he handled it with all the judicious appreciation of an artist. Miss Fields, as Marcia, did excellent work in the portrayal of an exacting role while the supporting company was as usual, thoroughly competent.

At the matinee this afternoon David Garrick was presented and this evening's bill will be "The Christian."

SPLENDID PICTURES AT THE NICKEL TODAY

Without exaggeration the Nickel's new bill for today and tomorrow is the finest shown in the big theatre for months, which is a rather strong statement to make. The star feature will be Pathe Freres' latest triumph in colored film, The Mystic Mint, or The Land Of Pure Gold, a bewildering succession of the loveliest art photos imaginable, with fireworks, ballets, ensembles and allegories galore. The process of making golden coins is gorgeously portrayed and the gnomes, fairies, firelight scenes, etc., furnish ever-changing surprises. The second best feature is a pictorial version of Washington Irving's old New York tradition, "The Headless Horseman of Sleepy Hollow," a tale of Rip Van Winkle's time and a good one. This will be particularly interesting to booklovers. A new Pathe comedy is They Left The Water Running, a domestic farce that many home folks can appreciate. The realism in this picture is startling and laughable. After all these fine features there will be Miss Davis' new hit, "The Moon Has His Eyes On You," and Mr. Maxwell in Charles K. Harris' "And A Little Child Shall Lead Them;" best show for many weeks.

CRUEL BACKACHES

The Trouble Usually Due to Poor Blood---Dr. Williams Pink Pills the Cure.

There is a common notion that backache is a sign of kidney disease, but this is absolutely wrong. Not one backache in a thousand has anything to do with the kidneys. Hundreds of people die of kidney disease who never had a backache—and hundreds who suffer continually from backache have nothing wrong with their kidneys. By far the most common cause of backache is muscular rheumatism. Nearly all the rest of the backaches are due to weakness and poor, watery blood, or in the case of growing girls and women, to those secret ailments that make the lives of so many of that sex miserable. Don't let a backache frighten you into the belief that you have kidney trouble. What is really needed to cure the average backache is a tonic, blood-building medicine, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest blood making medicine medical science has yet discovered. Every dose actually makes new, rich red blood, thus curing such common ailments as anaemia, headache, backache, heart palpitation, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism and the ailments of girlhood and womanhood. Mrs. W. Gee, Strathcona, Alta., says:—"I was a great sufferer from anaemia, I was completely run down and was tortured with headaches and backaches and dizzy spells. I doctored for a long time but was no better than when I began. Then I began to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and they completely restored my health."

Get the genuine pills with the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DIAMONDS MAY BE THE PRODUCTS OF METEORS

Sir William Crookes contributes an instructive article to the North American Review entitled "The Romance of the Diamond." He refers to the theory advanced by some scientists that the diamond is a gift from heaven conveyed to earth in meteoric showers, and he confesses that the theory is not without support. He deals with the question of the manufacture of diamonds. His description of the Kimberley diamond mines is particularly interesting. The writer says: "Many circumstances point to the conclusion that the diamond of the chemist and the diamond of the mine are strangely akin as to origin. It is evident that the diamond has not been formed in situ in the blue ground where it is found. The genesis must have taken place at vast depths under enormous pressure. The explosion of large diamonds on coming to the surface shows extreme tension. More diamonds are found in fragments and splinters than in perfect crystals, and it is noteworthy that, although these splinters and fragments must be derived from the breaking of a large crystal, yet in only one instance have pieces been found which could be fitted together; and these occurred at different levels. Does not this fact point to the conclusion that the blue ground is not their true matrix? Nature does not make fragments of crystals. As the edges of the crystals are still sharp and unabraded, the locus of formation cannot have been very distant from the present sites. There were probably many sizes of crystallization differing in place and time, or we should not see such distinctive characters in the gems from different mines, nor indeed, in diamonds from different parts of the same mine."

MILITIA PAGEANT FOR TERCENTENARY FALLS THROUGH

Ottawa, May 12.—The proposal to have 25,000 troops participate in the Quebec tercentenary celebration has fallen through. The four days' pay trouble, the box car transportation difficulty, and the fifty per cent. of establishment complaint, have been settled with one sweep as far as the militia department is concerned, for the department will not assemble Canada's army on the old battlefields.

The rural corps will go to camp just the same as usual, and the Quebec battlefields commission will choose any regiments it desires to add military splendor to the festivities at the old capital.

The upshot will be that only a few city corps, such as may be invited by the commission and may accept the invitation, will take part in the celebration.
