AT THE NICKEL

"Incriminating Evidence" is the first of Pathe's pictures de luxe, or art series, and though a darksome tragedy of slum life in Paris, it is the most powerfully enacted drama ever transferred to motion picture film. Its "art" lies in the quality of its acting: no less a personage that the world's greatest pantommist, M. Severin, assuming the leading role. This is almost the identical play he is presenting in the leading vaudeville houses of America under the name of "Conscience." There are more than 1,600 feet of film, consuming nearly twenty minutes in the exhibition. Throughout, the drama is thrillingly real and high-class. The Dramatic Mirror says: "It sets a new standard in this class of film production." Owing to its dramatic intensity "Incriminating Evidence" will not be shown at the matinees, a magnificent substitute programme having been arranged for the children.

Holmes and Buchanan will sing "Home to Our Mountains" from Il Trovatore, and Take a Walk With Me, from The Girl Behind the Counter—two lovely duets. Mr. Courtnais is to sing the latest hit, Make a Noise Like a Hoop and Roll Away; orchestral selections as usual.

THE CAMERAPHONE

Today's bill at the Opera House is announced by the management as the biggest and best entertainment yet presented at anything like the same admission fee. The cameraphone will present a strictly new programme, headed by a big feature act entitled College Boys' Fun, with several pretty musical numbers. Next comes a chorus feature from Miss Hook of Holland, entitled Zuyder Zee, also Ware and Broderick, character comedians, singing Santiago Flynn and Them Were Happy Days.

The headliner of today's programme will be Miss Sadie McDonald (not cameraphone), who will appear both afternoon and evening in choice vocal selections. She is announced as one of the most pleasing entertainers heard in St. John for some time, possessing a sweet voice, delightful manner and beautiful wardrobe, and will change her costumes and songs every day during the week. Illustrated songs and moving pictures will also be part of this week's programme.

AT THE STAR

Again the new theatre in North End comes to the front with a programme of films that is guaranteed to please everybody. The feature is a colored trick-photo called the Sword-Cutter's Dream, there is a drama, "A Gypsie's Jealousy; a comedy, An Unprofitable Call, a roaring farce, A Wonderful Discovery and Excellent photographs of The French Airship Republic, during flight, and some new pictures of the 1908 Marathon race in London. New Songs, etc.

VERY GOOD FOR ELDERLY FOLKS

Simple Home Prescription Recommended for Weak Bladder and Kidneys is Easily Prepared at Very Nominal Cost

This is a simple home recipe now being made known in all the larger cities through the newspapers. It is intended to check the many cases of Rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble which have made so many cripples and invalids and weaklings of some of our brightest and strongest people.

The druggists here have been notified to supply themselves with the ingredients, and the sufferer will have no trouble to obtain them. The prescription is as follows: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce, and Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle. The dose is one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Recent experiments prove this simple mixture effective in Rheumatism, because of its positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It compels these most vital organs to filter from the blood and system the waste impurities and uric acid which are the cause of rheumatism. It cleanses the kidneys, strengthens them and removes quickly such symptoms as backache, blood disorders, bladder weakness, frequent urination, painful scalding and discolored urine. It acts as a powerful stimulant to the entire kidney and bladder structure.

Those who suffer and are accustomed to purchase a bottle of medicine should not let a little inconvenience interfere with making this up.

J. M. JOHNSON BUYS FAMOUS STALLION

Boston, Feb. 27—J. M. Johnston, of Calais (Maine), president of the New England Breeders' Association, today became sole owner of Cochato (2.11 1-2), the winner of the Hartford Futurity in 1906. The price paid was not made public. The stallion is six years of age. When he was three years he was sold by Mr. Drinkwater for $10,000; Cochato was sired by Todd.
