North Sydney, N. S., Sept. 2.—(Special)—Lingan was the scene of another disaster last night when the little schooner Fanny, which went from Glace Bay yesterday to get a cargo of coal from the wrecked schooner Myrtle, was driven on the rocks. On board the Fanny were eight men, who were obliged to take to the rigging, where they spent the night in a driving rain-storm.

One of the men was thrown to the deck with great force, but escaped with a broken arm. This morning the tug Gladiator went to their assistance and took the men off. The Gladiator will also make an effort to float both the schooners, the Myrtle and the Fanny.

Dangerfield, brother-in-law of Keene and manager of Castleton stud, that the great horse would not return to America for perhaps a year. It is not known why the horse will be kept in England next season, and it may be possible that the champion may be entered in another race before he retires from the turf.

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 2nd.—(Special)—Bold and mysterious robbery was perpetrated at the C. P. R. station here yesterday afternoon between four and five o'clock. A package containing $800, representing the day's freight and passenger receipts, was stolen from a table in the ticket office and, although the police have been working diligently, up to noon today, there was no clue.

George Beach, ticket seller at the station, had gathered up the money quite early in the afternoon and placed it in a package ready to forward to headquarters by the 5.40 train. He allowed the package to remain on the table, and a little before the train was scheduled to depart, he went to get it, only to find that it had disappeared.

He reported the matter to Station Agent Howard, and also to Division Superintendent Burpee, and later to the police.

The missing package contained $800 in bills and two small checks signed by Jas. S. Neill and D. J. Neill. The value of the bills were of $20 and $10 denomination. It seems that after he had left the money

OLD TIME SIX DAY

Cambridge, England, Sept. 1.—Charles Rowell, at one time the greatest six-day go-as-you-please runner in the world, is dead. For several years, way back in the eighties, Rowell was invincible in six-day contests on the sawdust track. He won several big events in America and carried away the largest purses ever earned by a pedestrian. He is said to have earned $35,000 in two races in New York city.

At one time Rowell held practically all the records from 100 to 600 miles. His records for 100 miles (13 hours 26 minutes 30 seconds), 200 miles (35 hours 9 minutes 30 seconds), and 300 miles (58 hours 17 minutes 6 seconds), are still the premier marks.

In 1884 Rowell was beaten in a six-days race by P. Fitzgerald. It was the most gruelling contest ever seen on the sawdust path. Fitzgerald gradually overhauled Rowell in the last twenty-four hours of the struggle, catching the champion but one hour before the finish. A huge sum of money changed hands on the result. Rowell retired after this contest, becoming a well-to-do hotelkeeper in this country.

PRESIDENT OF G. T. P. LIKES PRINCE RUPERT

Sir Charles Rivers Wilson Praises Selection of Site for Terminal.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 2.—On his return from Prince Rupert, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson said:—

"All my expectations have been surpassed. We all know the weakness of explorers to exaggerate, but in this case there has been none. All the reports I received respecting the extraordinary location the advantages of the harbor and the scenic beauty of Prince Rupert as well as the possibility of trade when the railroad is completed, have proved absolutely correct."

"Meantime every exertion and preparation is being made by the enterprising population for the future terminus. Lots are rapidly acquired at prices in excess of expectation. Buildings of all descriptions are going up rapidly. When the railway is finished, a good sized city will be found in existence. The harbor is one of the most beautiful and commodious in the world and its selection reflects great credit on the engineers."

"The contractors are doing admirably especially in view of the difficulty in getting labor. The roadbed is solid and substantial, and a feature which struck me particularly was that it was free from curves. I have no reason to doubt the contractors when they say the most important part of the western division will be completed by the end of the year. I have never seen any river views equal those of the Skeena where many little settlements are springing up to become thriving towns."

THE EEL FAVORITE IN RACE TODAY

Better Conditions for the American Derby Events at Readville.

Readville, Sept. 2.—A cool northwest wind, which put more life than usual into the workouts of the horses entered for the pacing division of the American Derby, carrying a prize of $15,000, held across the Readville track today. This event had been carried over from yesterday on account of rain.

The features of the cards for yesterday and today were merged. The $10,000, Massachusetts stake for trotters being also up for decision today. A 2:10 trot and a 2:09 pace, each for $1,000 opened the day's program.

It is seldom that the scratch horse is picked to win, nevertheless, the followers of The Eel, the gray Canadian ice pacer, believed she would lead the field home despite her start from the 2:05 mark, scratch. This was some 500 feet behind the two score horses scattered at intermediate marks representing seconds up to 2:10. As favorites also, Asa Wilkes with 1:50 feet, and Baron Whips with 1:35 feet over The Eel were regarded as strong possibilities.

The portion of the crowd that has not yet taken to the handicap system, was disposed with the $10,000 Massachusetts stake event. Sixteen starters faced the line with Margin, from McDonald's stable a strong favorite by reason of her notable earlier successes.

SCANDAL IN SOCIAL LIFE OF QUEBEC

Barrister Sues Doctor for $5,000 and Seeks Separation From His Wife

Quebec, Sept. 2.—(Special)—Quebecers are discussing a scandal in high life, which will be brought before the civil courts this month. The parties in the case are prominent in local social circles. Archibald Laurie, a well known member of the junior bar of this city, had his suspicions aroused as to the relations between his wife and Surgeon Major George Park, of the R. A. M. C. The climax was reached on Sunday evening last, when Mr. Laurie unexpectedly returned to town from Lake St. Joseph, and accompanied by three witnesses entered his residence, and found Dr. Park spending the evening with his wife.

The doctor left the house, and Mrs. Laurie left soon after to reside with relatives.

The affair has been the talk of the town for the last two days, and culminated today by actions taken by Mr. Laurie, one against Dr. Park for $5,000 damages, and another for separation from his wife.

KILLED IN QUARREL OVER BALL GAME

Pitcher is Accused of Death of Captain of Team.

New York, Sept. 2.—Charles M. Streeter, pitcher, is accused of having killed Louis J. Seimer, captain of the New Milford Athletic Club baseball team, at Peetzburg, near Hackensack, N. J., last Monday night as the result of a quarrel which started on the diamond last Sunday.

All that part of New Jersey is deeply stirred over the homicide, which is declared by eye witnesses to have followed an unprovoked assault. There was a dispute between the captain and the pitcher at the game played at Peetzburg on the first day of the week, largely owing, it is believed, to criticisms of the way in which the ball was twirled over the plate.

The wrangling of Sunday was carried into the meeting of the club on Monday night, and there the subject of the methods of Streeter, it is said, was again discussed.

Charles Blizwick, a witness, declared to Prosecutor Mackay that Streeter's attack was a sudden one and that the captain did not try to defend himself. The witness said that as soon as he saw what the situation was he seized Streeter by the arms and pinioned them.

He was threatened, he says, by Archibald Scott, a member of the club, who said that if he interfered he would be soundly thrashed. Blizwick testified that he finally let go. No sooner had Streeter's arms been released than he dealt Seimer a heavy blow on the neck, which sent the captain unconscious to the ground. The fight by this time had been carried beyond the walls of the club house to the field. When Seimer did not rise the members were greatly alarmed and sent for a physician, who, when he arrived two hours later, found that Seimer had just died.

Marshal Peter Cosney arrested the assailant and arraigned him before the prosecutor. The pitcher in his defence said that he had intended to chastise the captain for calling him harsh names. The prosecutor held Scott, Charles Becker and John A. Scott under $500 bail each as witnesses, and Blizwick was released on a $1,000 bond. Coroner Curry, of Hackensack, will hold an inquest Friday.

EARLE HAS

WINNER OF PENNANT?

Chicago Cubs' President Will Fight, But Concedes Victory to Pirates—Deals With Kling.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 2.—President Charles Murphy of the Chicago Cubs, who was here attending the session of the National Commission during its work of allocating the drafts from minor leagues, says the Pittsburgh Club should succeed in landing the 1909 pennant of the National League.

"We have not given up hope of winning the pennant," said Murphy, "but the Pittsburgh team has so good a lead and is playing such good ball that I fear we are out of it. There are many causes for this. Pitchers have gone badly for us at critical times, either the outfield or the infield has been broken up. Then too, I guess we have played some pretty ragged ball. "But we are going to fight to the last. If any team except the Cubs gets the flag, why, I'll be mighty glad if it is that Pirate Crew of Barney Dreyfus. They are playing a wonderful game. They have spunk and will not let down for a minute."

President Murphy sent the following message to John Kling, upon learning that Kling was going to take a team of semi-professional teams in Chicago and vicinity.

"One of the stockholders in the Cincinnati club and a leader of the bar here, has advised me that the Chicago club can secure an injunction against your appearing in uniform in Chicago while you are under contract to us. You may rest assured that the Chicago club will not waive its prerogative in this respect, and in the event that you attempt to play in a single game in the city of Chicago we will use legal means to prevent it."

(Signed) "Chas. W. Murphy."

On their return trip to break the news to "the folks" they mistook the ferry at East Putney for a ford and when half way across the river had to abandon their carriage and swim ashore. MISS DUNN

FERDINAND P. EARLE, JR.

THE FIRST "AFFINITY"

So quiet was their departure on July 25 last that most of their friends in this city knew nothing about it until this week.

The painter's companion is Miss Gertrude Buell Dunn, writer, artist and horse woman. Miss Dunn, Earle asserts, is of a feminine type absolutely opposite to the character of his famous affinity, Julia Kuttner, who is now suing to annul their marriage. His present comrade, he says, is no more to him than a "mentality." Julia Kuttner, on the contrary, attracted him by her physical charms.
