AMUSEMENTS FOR VISITORS AND OURSELVES

N. W. MOUNTED POLICE TONIGHT

A breath of dramatic realism direct from the Canadian prairies is contained in the Nickel's prime feature for today and Tuesday, namely the great picture, The Cattle Thieves, in which the Northwest Mounted Police play a most strenuous and important part. It is safe to predict for this film a couple of days of capacity business for it is one of the finest outdoor picture-plays ever shown in this city with Sergeant Charlton, a Canadian, the hero and Betty Windon, a western lass, the plucky heroine. The comedy will be supplied in the pictures, How Simms Got in Wrong, and others, whilst On the Border is to be a Selig war drama. J. W. Myers will return to illustrated ballads again, rendering the late writing, Ev'ry Day, and Miss Leavitt will sing the jingling melody, Watermelon Time. These two vocalists are immensely popular with St. John people and their every song makes a sure hit.

On Wednesday the Nickel starts its second annual "Kriss Kringle Jingle Kontest," or a merry battle of wits among the kiddies. This is a matinee affair only and all children attending in the afternoons will be supplied with blanks for entrance into the competition. One hundred dollars' worth of prizes have been purchased for this contest.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

The Final Settlement, a drama of today, will be the attraction at the Opera House tonight and Tuesday and Wednesday. This will be the first presentation of the play in this city. It is quite melo-dramatic, with a strong vein of good comedy. The story deals with the early struggles of a young foreman in one of the mills of a great iron corporation. Through an accident he is raised to the position of president of the corporation. His suddenly acquired wealth and position, and the allurements of life in the fast social set in which he moves, cause him to renounce the wife of his youthful struggles and privations and to seek companionship in the person of a beautiful actress, whom he believes better qualified for the exacting demands society would make upon the wife of a man of his exalted commercial position and wealth. His subsequent ruin and his final rescue at the hands of the wife of his youth, form the basis of the melo-drama. The company presenting the play is a strong one, and in every way qualified to give the theatre-goer a good evening's entertainment.

Seats now on sale at the Opera House box office.

BIG FEATURE AND ANOTHER NEW SINGER AT STAR.

The Star Theatre in North End continues to provide the very best of motion pictures and the insreasing large attendance shows how well the people appreciate it. Tonight and tomorrow a film-feature of more than usual merit is to be shown in Pathe Freres' magnificent drama "Doomed," something in which the best players in Europe participate and which is to be elaborately costumed and staged.

The laughing material will contain the pictures "The Indian Rubber Man," and "Doctor Blodgett's Experiment." "When Women Win" is a society drama of much force and novelty. A new singer will be introduced to Star patrons tonight in Miss Annie Laurie Newington, a handsome young lady of pronounced vocal abilities and who has been singing with much favor in eastern Canada of late weeks.

SANTA CLAUS AND THE "OLD VIC."

The sure and certain approach of Christmas time and the permanent cold weather, brings to mind the pleasure in store for young and old in Victoria Rink, which this season will be better than ever. It is more than probable that Santa Claus has already marked off hundreds of names in his long list to be written in season tickets for this popular resort, and the tree on Christmas morning will be decorated with some of these coveted pasteboards in many a home. In the meantime preparations are going on apace in the rink, putting on the finishing touches and making the dressing rooms, lockers and promenades first-class in every way. The first ice-making will start in a few days.

The case of Annie L. Clarke vs. Chas. R. Clarke, executor of the will of George Clarke is expected to come before Judge McLeod and a jury this afternoon or tomorrow. The plaintiff claims $1,000 for work done by her for deceased while the defendant asserts that he paid her all that was due her. G. H. V. Belyea will appear for the plaintiff and J. B. M. Baxter for the defendant.

MORNING LOCALS

Mrs. Isabella Lawson, of Gibson, (N. B.) but for some time a patient of the Provincial Asylum, from where she was released on Friday, on trial, attempted to commit suicide on Saturday afternoon by jumping off the D. A. R. wharf. She was rescued by Patrick Gallagher and taken to central police station, whence her father had her again conveyed to the hospital.

At the close of the signalling school on Saturday Lieut. Dunfield performed a pleasant duty when he presented to Sergt. Instructor Kemplin, on behalf of the members of the class, a purse of gold. Sergt. Kemplin who belongs to the garrison at Halifax was very popular with the men and their remembrance bears out the fact. He will return to Halifax tonight. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Q. M. S., I. A. Lindsay, 3rd reg. to C. A., for his services during the school.

The case of Lloyd vs. Smith, which was to have been tried today by Judge McLeod, has been settled out of court. Hon. W. P. Jones acted for the plaintiff and A. C. Hartley and Hon. Mr. Hazen for the defendant.

Man on Shore—"I'm going ter have you arrested when you come outer thar!"

"Te—he! I ain't coming out—I'm committing suicide," (sinks with a bubbling grin).—Life.
