Southern California on Sunday made its debut into the motor car road racing world with two of the fastest stock car races ever run in America.

The 202-mile contest over an 8.4 mile lap track, for the Dick Ferris $1,000 trophy, was a clear-cut victory for the Apperson "Jack Rabit," driven by Harris Hansue. The Apperson completed the course in three hours, eight minutes, and three seconds, an average of 64.2 miles to the hour, or one-tenth of a mile under the Vanderbilt cup record. Bruno Siebel sent the Chadwick into second place in 3.15.30. The Stearns was third in 3.19.52.

The Chalmers-Detroit, piloted by Bert Dingley, finished first in the small car race for the Leon Shettler Cup. Time, 3.38.35.

Al Levering and other American sport promoters wanted to hire the London Stadium for a week of international sports which would include boxing, with Johnson and Ketchel for the wind-up, wrestling, with Gotch and Hackenschmidt as the big card, and a Marathon run with all the well known plodders. Imre Kiralfy, who controls the big arena at Shepherd's Bush, refused unless he could have 50 per cent. of the receipts. But why do not these ambitious promoters secure the Olympia property? It will only seat 20,000, to be sure, but even 20,000 tickets would help pay expenses.

Columbia University has followed the lead of Cornell this year, and will have no more crew captains. After the regatta on the Hudson on Friday it was decided that this step, which had been considered before, would be made. An experience somewhat like Cornell's determined this action by Columbia. Pete Frenzel, elected captain of the Cornell varsity in 1903, did not make the boat, and Bert Coffin, captain the year following, met a like disappointment.

In 1908 Phil Von Saltza, the Columbia captain, had malarial fever and was put in the four. This year Pete Cerussi, the Columbia leader, did not make any crew. Rice and Courtney, the coaches, are agreed on the statement that "to make a good man captain is to spoil him as an oarsman."

Chicagoites are debating over a report that President Comesky, of the Chicago American League team has found a successor to Fielder Jones in Joe Cantillon, manager of the Washington American League team, who will replace Billy Sullivan as manager at the close of the season. It is said that "Jiggs" Donohoe, the former Chicago player, will manage the Washingtons if Cantillon leaves.

Though Stanley Fay was knocked down to Grover Baker for $11,000, and Bellweather for $3,100 at the sale of Wm. Walker's horses on Saturday, at Fort Erie, Ont., neither of the transactions was genuine, and both horses went back to the Walker stable. There was bona fide bidding on Stanley Fay up to about $8,000, in which Mr. Seagram and others participated. Though ten horses were knocked down to various bidders, only the following sales were actually made:—

Henry O., b. g., a., by Charade—Fruit of the Loom; A. C. Henderson, $125.

Celeres, ch. g., a., by Maxio — Testina; Jas. Johnson, $65.

Wuerzburger, b. g., 4, by Indio—Hofbrau; S. Beatty, $75.

Martin Julian, brother-in-law and former manager of Bob Fitzsimmons, gives a little inside detail on one phase of the first Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight that never has been printed. This was the bout that took place at Coney Island, ten years ago, when Fitz lost his title to the big agriculturist. Immediately after the contest the papers started discussing the reason for Bob's failure to sit down during the intermission between the tenth and eleventh rounds, but the true reason never has been given out, said Julian, the other night. "Two or three days before the bout, Bill Devery, who was police chief at the time, announced that he would stop the fight as soon as any hard blows were struck or as soon as one of the contestants was sorely hurt. When it came to interpret the rules the question of 'police interference' was brought up by Referee Siler. Remembering Devery's declaration and figuring that Bob would out-fight Jeffries from the start, I insisted that in case there was any interference by the police, the man having the better of it at the time should receive the decision. The Jeffries side agreed and it looked like a pipe for us under these conditions. So I set out and bet a few more pennies on Bob's chances. In the second round, Jeff dropped Fitz with a left to the mouth. It was a wicked punch and Bob hit the floor so hard that it jarred him from head to heels. In the sixth it looked like Fitz would deliver but he couldn't get the real punch over. Things dragged along until the tenth and in this round Jeff landed some nasty blows that did a lot of harm.

"A few seconds before the bell rang for the close of the tenth, Jeffries put Bob down with a savage swing and the gong didn't clang any too soon to suit me. We grabbed Fitz, who was dazed, dragged him over to his corner and slammed him in a chair. Quick as a wink we gave him the ammonia bottle to clear his head. He had been in his corner but four or five seconds at this time. Looking over Bob's shoulder hastily I saw Devery working his way through the crowd toward the ring waving his arms at Siler. George was facing Surf avenue and as his back was to the chief, he didn't see the latter's gesticulating. It flashed through my mind that Devery was going to stop the bout, as he figured Fitz was in a bad way. Naturally under our agreement, Jeff must have received the decision. I yelled in Bob's ear, 'stand up, quick, kick the chair out of your corner and let on that you aren't hurt.' Fitz took the cue and acted the part to perfection, as the spectators know. Fitz's assumed air of nonchalence quieted Devery's fears and he sat down again, this being the office to his gendarmes to permit the contest to continue. Even if Jeff did put Bob out in the very next round, we got away with our little scheme and it gave us another chance."

ROY JOHNSON DIES AS THE RESULT OF BROKEN SKULL

He Had Typhoid Fever Too — Was Struck in Head With Stone While Playing With Boys—Coroner Berryman Has Case in Hand.

Roy Walter Johnston, of 52 Brussels street, lies dead in the General Public Hospital as the result of a fractured skull caused by a blow with a stone thrown, it is believed, by some of his comrades while playing on Sunday, July 4.

The boy, who was seventeen years of age, was conveyed to the hospital in the ambulance on Friday evening last, being taken suddenly ill at his home. It was thought by those of his household that his illness might have been the result of the injury referred to but an examination made showed not the slightest indication of a fracture.

He did, however, show symptoms of typhoid fever, which were positively confirmed by the usual processes.

There were no indications of anything else till Monday last when the lad showed partial paralysis. With the story of the injury to his head in mind a minute examination was made and as a result a depressed fracture of the skull was found a little to the front of the top of the ear. The boy lingered till last night, passing away at 9 o'clock.

It is said in connection with the case that it is not unusual for the symptoms to be delayed in cases of fracture of the skull. As far as known, the boy made no statement to his father when questioned before going to the hospital as to how he received his injuries other than to say that he was struck on the head by a stone while playing with other boys. He would not give any names or tell how it happened.

Coroner Berryman has been notified and will likely hold an inquest, as it is yet to be determined whether the blow which caused the fracture was an accident or otherwise.

THE MONA PROTEST IS LONG DRAWN OUT

Looks as if it Will Be Some Time Before the End of the Case is Reached

The protest of John Frodsham, owner of the speedy salmon boat Mona, against the salmon boat Chinook, the property of Church Bros., for an alleged foul in the R. K. Y. C. race of Saturday June 19, was before the sailing committee of the R. K. Y. C. last evening, and after a three hours session, at which much evidence was heard, the hearing was adjourned for some days, as there are more witnesses to come.

The contest in question was the first salmon boat race of the season under the auspices of the yacht club. It was sailed in a gale, and was close throughout, the Chinook being the winner by a small margin. A protest was entered immediately after the race by Mr. Frodsham claiming a foul, his statement being that the boom of the Chinook fouled the Mona in rounding the first flag.

From the present outlook the sailing committee will have no small task in reaching a decision, as it is understood that the batch of evidence submitted last evening was of a conflicting nature.

A case somewhat similar took nine months before a decision was arrived at, and then not before it was referred to a racing committee in England.

The sailing committee of the R. K. Y. C. having the present dispute in hand, is composed of Horace King, chairman; E. Percy Howard, J. Gordon Likely, E. N. Herrington, Geo. McA. Blizard, Howard D. Camp, Peter Sinclair, W. C. Rothwell, J. H. Kimball and Howard Holder.

WATER SPORTS AT BROWN'S FLATS

Brown's Flats will be the scene of a fine series of water events next Saturday afternoon. The Long Reach Outing Association has completed arrangements for what promises to be one of the best afternoons of sport of the season. The events will be:

Motor boat race, sailing race, single stickers; double scull race, men's; double scull race, ladies; double scull race, boys; canoe race, men; canoe race, Indians; swimming race, men; swimming race, boys.

The following committee and officials have been appointed:

Committee of management—Dr. Draper, Dr. Gilchrist, R. A. Sinclair, B. E. Heustis and Mr. Lord, of New York.

Prize committee—Dr. Barton, R. A. Sinclair, F. N. Brodie, Dr. Draper.

Starter—D. Gilchrist.

Judges—Thos. Graham, T. A. Graham.

The sports will take place after the arrival of the steamer Champlain. Two handsome silver cups have been donated as prizes for the motor boats and sailing races, and there will be other suitable prizes for all events having more than three starters.

In the motor boat race the start will be from Brown's wharf to a buoy off Vincent's Island, then to Crawford's Point; then to buoy off Brodie's Point, then finish at wharf.

The course has been logged three and three-quarter knots.

Competing boats are to run over the course and give their speed in knots an hour. Any boat exceeding the speed given in by five per cent. will be disqualified.

After the sports the annual meeting of the association will be held at Dr. Draper's residence, Brown's Flats.

STATEMENT FROM THE CLIPPER BALL TEAM

Publication of the following was asked last night:

Under the present lease that the Clippers have signed with the Marathons they were to play three Saturday afternoon games, but have played only one. The Marathons are still bringing outside teams on Saturday afternoon and are throwing the Clippers base ball team down.

Base ball cranks are wondering, after the article of ball that the Clippers have been putting up, why the present state of affairs should continue. They also claim that there will be no evening games until some settlement has been agreed upon.

People are wondering why the Marathons played two games with the St. Joseph's team when the Clippers, who have been playing good ball, have been slighted.

JEFFRIES SAYS HE WILL MEET JOHNSON

He Denies Stories That He Will Nor Return to the Ring

Toronto, July 12.—James J. Jeffries, seen here today, on his arrival from Montreal, gave a most emphatic denial to the stories sent out from Montreal to the effect that he would not fight Jack Johnson. Sam Berger, Jeffries' manager, added his positive denial of the story. After his sparring exhibition at Hanlan's Point tonight before a crowd of 2,000 persons, Jeffries made a statement from the stand, in which he repeated what he had already said to the newspaper men. As soon as his present engagements are completed, he said he would return to New York and arrange to meet Johnson. This statement was greeted with wild applause.

Sam Berger tonight sent the following signed statement to New York: "There is absolutely no truth in the stories in circulation that Jeffries will not meet Johnson. Neither Jeffries nor myself gave out any interviews from which such a story could have originated. Some weeks ago Jeffries made the statement to the public that at the termination of his theatrical contracts he would be ready to arrange a meeting with Johnson. That time is only two weeks off, and he will make good his promise by posting a forfeit. We hope then to satisfy those who doubted his intention to defend his title as champion of the world."

A pretty wedding took place in St. Luke's church, North End, last evening, when Langford Rogers, of New Zion (N. B.), was united in marriage with Miss Caroline Helen White, of Birmingham (Eng.) The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Purdie, curate of St. Luke's. The happy couple will leave soon for New Zion where they will make their home.

WILD SCRAMBLE

"How many courses do they have!" whispered the city man who was about to take his first meal in the country boarding-house.

"Only one," replied the old boarder, "and we call that the 'race course.'"

"Race course? That's a queer name."

"Not at all. You have to race or you don't get anything at all."
