AMUSEMENTS

AT THE NICKEL

Those who attend the Nickel's matinee today will be treated to as fine a programme as could be desired on a picture-show basis. In the first place Holmes and Buchanan will sing their hit Tell Me Pretty Maiden from Florodora, and Miss Holmes will sing her flirting mirror-song, I'm So Lonely. For the entertainment of the children there will be generous encore numbers and Mr. Buchanan will introduce some wholesome comedy for the little ones.

On Monday Holmes and Buchanan have a sensation in store in the world-famous waltz-song and dance from Franz Lehar's opera, The Merry Widow. The film list for today includes some excellent scenes on the Bois De Boulogne and the Champs d'Elysees, Paris; as well as a trip on the River Seine, some comedies, transformations and dramas. Edouard Courtnais is being encored time and again for his pleasing singing of the song I Never Had a Girl Like You.

MISS MARIE HALL

As reserved seats are now on sale at the Opera House those wishing to attend this great concert to be given by Miss Marie Hall are asked to secure their tickets at once. The following is another of the many tributes to this great violinist:

London Daily Mail, Oct. 17: "The greatest fiddlers have come to us enveloped in an atmosphere of mystery. Paganini was supposed to be in league with Satan. Tartini confessed that his sonata was inspired by the devil in a dream. And though in these days no one would connect Miss Marie Hall with the Evil One, yet in the girl artist, who sprang almost at a bound from the street performance to absolutely the first living English violinist one is struck by this atmosphere of the supernatural that surrounds her. Her personality, playing, all seems infused with the same extraordinary magic.

"Miss Hall does not smile at the audience, as others do; she is too full of her work. Nervous, anxious, she fingers absently at the strings of the violin held loosely by her side. One is afraid she is not in form—there will be a nervous breakdown. Such a slight transparent creature—a puff of wind would be too much for her—is not fit for the excitement of the concert room. And she is to play a Paganini concerto, that few, save Kubelik and herself, dare attempt. Will she get through it? The orchestra prelude reaches a climax, stops suddenly—there is silence. The violin goes swiftly to the shoulder, the bow raised, descends on a single note that rings clear as a bell. There is a dive into the deep alto of the G string and up again to the stop of the instrument, where the notes run like rippling laughter. The concerto has begun and with what verve, dash, certainty of attack!

"Then the melodies begin to unfold. And now the very devil is in the fiddle. Gay mocking laughter thrills from it. There is a scampering of little demons that have not been loosed since Paganini himself first conjured them out of horsehair and catgut. This girl, then, can call up spirits. Yes, but they are harmless, they have put on their best behaviour, and with snug faces gambol about, in great awe of their enchantress, who smiles out of the corners of her eyes at them, enjoying the fun."

THE CAMERAPHONE

For the last time this afternoon and evening the cameraphone will present Kitts & Kitts, a very funny Rube sketch, introducing "Uncle Josh in the Department Store," Hey Mr. Joshua and "The Rubes and the Fiddler." Jas. Leahy and Co. make another big hit in Moolbarre and The Girl Who Threw Me Down. Brown and Fortune sing two pretty numbers entitled The Honeybees' Honeymoon and When You Steal a Kiss or Two. Moore and Watson in Possum Pie and My Kickapoo Queen present a very funny black-face turn. The Haunted House is another black-face act, with an abundance of comedy. Virginia with The Pony Ballet is an excellent closer. A big bill is promised next week; children's matinee today.

AT THE STAR

The cosy "Star" Theatre in Union Hall, North End, is presenting a great feature tonight in A Panther Hunt in the Jungles of Bengal, one of the most dangerous pastimes the most intrepid hunters of India could indulge in. Besides this there will be three comedy pictures and several dramas, films that have never before been shown in St. John, and which are exclusive with this theatre. Miss Von Branders will sing and there will be bright and catchy music.
