ANOTHER BIG HOUSE FOR MYRKLE-HARDER

Another bumper house greeted the Myrkle-Harder Company last night, when the bill was "Peggy from Ireland."

It was another evidence of the excellent taste displayed in the choice of plays for their repetoire for last night's comedy-drama was one of the best yet produced. The story is a pretty one and the three acts seemed all too short. It revolves around a girl, Peggy, who turns out to be an Irish duchess, heir to vast estates. The scene of the first act is laid in New York, but latterly in Ireland. Peggy first comes to America in search of one Tom Allingham, to whom she is sent, who is to interest himself in her behalf. On the same steamer coming out is Andre de Vallequet, an adventurer, and Laura Von Ritz, who scheme to obtain possession of the diamonds in the custody of Peggy, throwing her overboard, only to be rescued. In New York the countess has succeeded in establishing herself in the Allingham, to whom she is sent, and who is wealthy, but her plan to marry him fails. On the East River docks Peggy meets a friend in Cully, a boot-black, and the pair furnish some of the best comedy of the evening.

As Peggy, Emma Myrkle was never seen to better advantage. The lines seemed particularly adapted to her, and the big audience showed appreciation by continuous applause.

Frank Christie as Cully, who with Miss Myrkle contributed much of the comedy, was also a prime factor. Louis Ancher was seen to advantage as Tom Allingham, doing full justice to the role. Jack Berton made the most of the scheming adventurer, and Helen Devere a good accomplice as the countess. Amelia Baird, as Leslie Hunywell and Richard Marsden as Michael Curran of Cork, were seen to good advantage. The specialties were up to the usual standard.

Tonight "On the Frontier" with a monster amateur contest after the regular performance when $10.00 in cash is given to the local contestants. Saturday, another performance will be given of the Burglar and the Lady.

HARRY BENNETT IN NEW SONGS AT THE NICKEL

How the Blind Children of France Are Educated will be shown at the Nickel today in a long, interesting picture, one of the finest educational films yet received. The Tour of the Ruins of Pompeii will be continued. In addition to this portion of the programme, the late Biograph Company successes, The Lure of the Gown, and A Row in the Nursery, will be shown, as well as Pathe's trick-photo comedy, An Unusual Elopement.

Harry Bennett is today to sing a Lauder song entirely new to the people of St. John in the burlesque sailor-yarn, We Parted on the Shore. For the children on Saturday Mr. Bennett will sing The Saftest o' the Family, with its funny boyish monologue. Mr. Bennett is proving a great drawing card because of his clever imitations and versatility. Miss Edwards is singing Doan' You Cry My Honey, and Mr. Courtnais has a pretty picture-ballad. At the Saturday matinee there will be more secret snapshots taken.

AT THE STAR

For tonight's adults and Saturday afternoon's children the Star has a particularly attractive programme of pictures, music, etc. The list includes: The Sculptor's Sweetheart, The Sportive Puppett, The Miner's Will, The Wooden Leg, Nick Carter and The Soubrette. Miss Von Branders will sing the late success, Honey Land. Next week the Star will have its own orchestra Tuesday and Thursday nights.

"WOMEN!"

"Are You Nervous?"

The results of modern civilization are evidenced in an increase of nervous disorders. It could not be otherwise with the way we eat, drink, lose sleep, and keep up a contunual round of excitement. The work, the worry, the excitement, all tell upon the nerves till they cry out in revolt, and will not be placated till a remedy such as come along with their nerve-strengthening and energizing properties, and restore them to their normal condition.

Mrs. Wm. Levi, Markdale, Ont., writes: "I had for several years been troubled with nervousness, and, like many others, spent lots of money on medicine that did me no good. I was so bad that the least noise would make me jump and my heart would thump so you could hear it plainly and I could not lie on my left side at night. I saw a few testimonials of others and decided to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and to my great joy and surprise they completely cured me and it only took six boxes to do it. I have a neighbor, Mrs. Rickett, and I induced her to try them and they effected a cure. I can endorse their use for anyone afflicted as I was."

Price, 50 cents a box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

COULDN'T STAND FOR A RED DEVIL

An Instance Which Shows How Closely Toronto's Bill Boards Are Watched

(Toronto World.)

Inspector Stephens has again run foul of public opinion, this time by objecting to a poster advertisement of "The Soul Kiss." The last time the inspector of the Morality Department took objection to a theatrical poster was to the Billiken in "The Blue Mouse." Now he objects to a poster of Genee, in "The Soul Kiss," which is being put on at the Princess next week. The poster represents the well known dancer, Adeline Genee, in a very artistic drawing by Henry Mayer. In the background is a representation of Mephistopheles, which is not immoral, indecent, nor even "shocking," but it is done in red, and that is the last of it.

When asked about the poster last night, Inspector Stephen said that he had nothing to say about why the people of Toronto should not see it.

"Why do you not allow it to be posted?" he was asked.

"Because," said the inspector, "it is not proper."

"Do you think anybody would derive any harm by looking at it?"

"No," said the inspector.

"Well, why is it not proper?"

"The picture is all right," said the inspector, "but I cannot have it put on the bill boards on account of the devil in the picture."

The drawing is used by the management of 'The Soul Kiss" in all of its paper and has become the regular trade mark of the show. The entire lot of posters intended for Toronto bill boards has been condemned, but this is the first city where any exception has been taken to the picture and the first time that any of the Princess lithographs have been censored. An entire new set of printing had to be ordered, but in plain type without any illustration.

Montreal Herald—There is to be another Champlain celebration this year down on his lake. What a time that honest man would have had if St. John, Quebec and Bluff Point had made as much fuss over him as they do over his memory.
